Our Third Anniversary

On Sunday, November 4, Chicago witnessed the greatest gathering of its American-speaking members...

History bears evidence that prior to the birth of our great Nation, noble American Knights of Liberty advocated the Independence of America...

With the assemblage of twenty noble brothers and sisters, three years ago, in the SNPJ hall, a new movement of liberty was born.

Fraternity is not only a tangible, concrete thing, a question of dollars and cents that the members receive by way of benefits.

As brothers and sisters of the same cause, we should pledge our honor and name that we have faith in our own movement and see to it that their shall assemble in the great industrial city of Chicago...

No banquet, no celebration, no praise can commensurate fully the noble Pioneer Lodge, the Young Americans, Comrades, Lincolinites, Little Forts, Strugglers, Loyalties, Integrities, Sunglars, and that vast host of noble peers...

And if the coming generations shall be imbued with the noble spirit of the Pioneers, Young Americans, Comrades, Lincolinites, Mohawks, Little Forts, Loyalties, Stalwarts, Integrities, Badgers, Sunglars, Strugglers, and with the "I Will" spirit of the noble American-speaking subordinate lodge movement...

Richard J. Zvertnik.

Eugene V. Debs

Memorial

Chicago.—Two years ago October 20 Eugene V. Debs has passed away at Elmhurst, Ill.

This sincere, kind, fearless, loving, sentimental idealist has won the admiration of millions of people who rejected his socialist philosophy. They recognized in Eugene V. Debs a man of rare moral and courageous dreamer of dreams, a great orator who loved liberty, hated oppression and fought and died for what he believed to be right.

Eugene Debs was made martyr. He went to jail for his convictions and was ever ready to die for them. In 1900 he was a socialist candidate for presidency and thereafter, except in 1916, even while serving his sentence in the federal prison at Atlanta, in 1920, when he polled one million votes, or, to be exact, he polled 919,799 votes.

Debs hated war. He was convicted on the grounds that he tried to obstruct our participation in the world war. He told the jury, "I hate war. I would oppose war if I stood alone."

His position could not be reconciled with the patriotic ideal. Millions who condemned him for his attitude, admired him for his courage and honesty.

YOUNG AMERICAN DANCE A SUCCESS

Detroit, Mich.—Another great success for the Young American Lodge was "The Cricket Dance" held on Oct. 20. Financially the lodge made exceptionally well.

"Lest We Forget"

So, Chicago.—This is the last article to appear in this paper concerning the Calumet Sentinels' Second Annual Dance, which is to be held this coming Saturday, November 10, at Croonian hall.

All outsiders are cordially invited, and we want to extend a special invitation to all members of the SNPJ. Since we derived from Lodge No. 8 we wish to invite all members of that branch to attend.

TOILER IS THE NAME

Nottingham, O.—Were you at the Progressives dance Oct. 20? If not, I believe you've missed the time of your lives, as it was one of the best affairs the Progressives had so far.

We were surprised to see the Zippers at our dance, but hope to have an early opportunity to attend one of their affairs very soon.

A CARD OF THANKS

St. Louis, Missouri.—I wish to extend my gratitude to the following Brother and Sister members for the part they took in helping to entertain us: Joe Brinocar, Ann Patia, Frank Zebert, and Banich Sisters, and the others whose names I cannot recall.

"BIG SUCCESS"

HONOR ROLL, WHAT IS IT?

Akron, Ohio.—Z stands for Zeal, I stands for Impaculate, P stands for Pop, S stands for Popularity, E stands for Excellency, R stands for Reliability, S stands for Snappy.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Lenard Podgornik

By Louis Adams.

San Pedro, although not one-sixth the size it is now, was even then a lively town, with Front street a solid row of saloons and Happy Hollow a place dedicated to undisciplined sin.

Soon after I came to San Pedro, five years ago, I noticed a shabbily dressed middle-aged man with a small mongrel dog pass by my dwelling two or three times a day, headed for the eucalyptus grove a stone's throw up the road.

One day I heard him call to his dog, whose name, it appeared, was Complex; and as I casually remarked on the unusualness of the title, he explained, laughing broadly, that the dog was an unusual dog; he had a complex.

Before long Lenard Podgornik began dropping into my quarters two or three times a week for an evening's talk or a game of chess, or to borrow a book or share a drink with me.

They exchanged a few more letters. Agnes was a prudent, circumspect girl. His letters were convincing enough, but how could she be sure the man was not a scoundrel aiming to do her evil?

By and large, Agnes made Lenard Podgornik a good wife. She was resourceful and industrious, and possessed most of the other virtues she had specified in her letters.

Having buried his partner, Podgornik moved on, but soon discovered that bawling alone was not to his taste; he could not hope to find a partner to take the place of Novak.

Some lie beneath the churchyard stone, And some before the altar.

Topics of the Week

Terpalehorean art mysteriously sways the hearts of both young and old people. It inspires human activity and it is both an exercise and a delightful pleasure.

No more appropriate name than "The Dance of the Lodges" could the Sunglars Lodge No. 632 SNPJ select for its First Annual Dance which will be held on Saturday evening, November 24th, at the Lyons Town Hall.

To do homage to our great host of fraternal brothers and sisters, friends, guests, and patrons, the Sunglars Lodge has exerted every human endeavor to make "The Dance of the Lodges," which it will present on November 24th, the outstanding social event of the 1928 fall season.

Members from several lodges have informed me that their lodge has voted to subscribe to an enrollment in Chicago World's Fair legion.
