

To Have Plenty--Open The Industries

Pennsylvania's social service institutions are threatened by a bill which is sponsored by Rep. Robert E. Woodside... Pennsylvania's social service institutions are threatened by a bill which is sponsored by Rep. Robert E. Woodside...

Guild Notes

Did you say you had no where to go and nothing to do Saturday night, May 27th? Then why not come to the Slovene Labor Center...

WAR--WHAT FOR?

People who have the habit of "following the leader" would do well for themselves and society if they took time off to see the moving picture, "When Germany Fell..."

Scissorsbill Doakes

Government-built housing is socialism, Senator Tydings of Maryland told the U. S. Senate a few days ago. Better that the American people live in hovels than be corrupted by socialism...

REFLECTIONS

SO THE "CHRISTIAN" nations of Europe have turned down the Pope's plea for a five-power conference to adjust international differences...

THUGS HALT MEETING OF TENANT UNION

Memphis, Tenn.—Roving bands of armed plantation thugs prevented a recent meeting of the Southern Tenant Farmers' union at Crawfordsville, Ark. President J. R. Butler and Secretary H. L. Mitchell of the union charged in a letter to Attorney Gen. Frank Murphy asking for an investigation of renewed terrorism against sharecroppers...

NOTES FROM CLEVELAND

Cleveland.—After the storm is always a lull, and so indeed it is with the Branch No. 27 JSF, and Zarja. Since the beginning of the year there has been feverish activity at the club...

Farmers and Labor Unions

For the second time in two years Pennsylvania farmers by physical force drove union organizers out of town, wrecked the union's headquarters, and declared they would not permit wage workers to organize...

CRACKS--WIFE AND OTHERWISE

"Democracy has gone the way of all men and nations who are not willing to stand up and fight for their own ideals and who thereupon discover that if you are no longer willing to fight for your own ideals, others most surely are not going to allow you to live by them..."

Federal Taxes not "Murdering Incentive"

Among many complaints voiced by speakers at the U. S. Chamber of Commerce convention, in Washington last week, was the declaration that Federal taxes have "murdered incentive" by taking so much money from industry that business men are discouraged...

On The Open Shop

"What's all this that's in the papers about the open shop?" asked Mr. Hennessey. "Why, don't ye know," said Mr. Dooley. "Really, I'm surprised at yer ignorance, Hennessey. What is th' open shop. Sure, 'tis where they kape the doors open to accommodate th' constant stream av min comin' in t'take jobs cheaper than th' min what has th' jobs..."

ONE-MINUTE TEST

- 1. Which is the mother of a chick—the hen which lays the egg or the one that hatches it? 2. What is the difference between huckleberries and blueberries? 3. Can horses sleep without lying down?

ANSWERS

- 1. The hen which lays the egg. 2. Huckleberries each contain 10 large seeds or nutlets and are more acid than blueberries, which have many small seeds. 3. Yes.

Funds for La Follette Probe

Washington, D. C.—A bill to grant the La Follette Civil Liberties committee an additional $100,000 to continue its investigations, has been filed in the senate by Senators Schwelienbach of Washington and Downey of California.

CONSUMER'S NOTES

What Soft-Drink Labels Should Tell A soft drink, the label will tell you, cools you off, peeps you up, and refreshes your tired body—but does the label tell you what goes into the drink to make it do all these things? It pays consumers to examine both bottle cap and label carefully to see what they are drinking, declares the Consumers' Guide, publication of the Consumers' Counsel Division of the A.A.A. Drinks named after a fresh fruit should tell on the label whether the drink contains the juice of that fruit or only sweetened water flavored with imitation fruit flavor...

AGE OBSESSIONS

When youth or the old folks think of themselves in terms of their age and formulate programs in such terms, the result is crackpot movements, the youth adopting fascist or communist totalitarianism and the old folks approving grandiose old-age schemes presented by charlatans. Both become self-centered and self-pitying groups who cannot think of depression problems as affecting all useful workers and requiring cooperation of all ages to solve them.

THE NEW HARVEST HAND

Who's Who In Politic

Rep. Mason (R., Ill.) has accused the Roosevelt administration of launching a stop-Garner program. One of the interesting things in current politics is the way Republicans jump to the defense of certain Democrats.

PREPAREDNESS

The locked-out union miner in Pennsylvania who is digging his own grave might offer to make it big enough to accommodate employers who still say the closed shop is un-American. But that breed is holing in for itself. Columbia University is to offer a course in international politics. Should be easy to get students, but who could teach it? Tom Pendergast always said that contractors bought his cement because of the quality. Well, the machine that made it ran mighty well until a few weeks ago.