Bishop Pevec inducted into St. Vitus hall of fame

by Stane J. Kuhar

On Sunday, October 29 in St. Vitus Auditorium, Auxiliary Bishop A. Edward Pevec, Eastern Region, diocese of Cleveland, will be installed into the St. Vitus Hall of Fame. Bishop Pevec is the second inductee, preceded last year by Senator Frank J. Lausche.

The purpose of this article is not to provide a historical background or analysis of Bishop Pevec. There are many more talented persons who could write that type of story. This writer prefers to write about Bishop Pevec and his meaning to those of us of Slovene descent, and those who consider Bishop Pevec as our spiritual leader.

Those who have come in contact with Bishop Pevec know him to be a dedicated and caring person. His direct and reasonable abilities have earned him the respect as a human being directed toward guiding many to use our talents and skills for the benefit of others.

Despite his advanced degrees Bishop Pevec prefers to acknowledge the opportunities afforded to him and others to cultivate talent and learning as a constant activity in life rather than seeking self-interest goals such as wealth and power.

Like his previous models for the Slovene people, Bishop Pevec is a guiding light to many of us in a world that seeks to discover not how to help one another, but rather to enslave and control others. From Bishop Anton Martin Slomšek Bishop Pevec sees how language and learning benefited a nation. While from Bishop Frederic Baraga Bishop Pevec understands that a shepherd's duties are many and to be used to guide us to Him. And from Bishop Gregor Rožman, Bishop Pevec is moved to comprehend that as Catholics many suffered and died in the name of their faith.

From this composite of his own role models Bishop Pevec also understands that a shepherd's role often times is difficult and complex for we are all in need of grace to guide us through the day-to-day personal encounters as well as the many other humanitarian problems facing us today such as the real potential for a nuclear holocaust.

For those of us who are first, second, third and fourth generation of Slovene immigrants, Bishop Pevec is our beacon of hope and light. He gives us confidence for the future and the means to develop spiritually and morally while dealing with the many facets of life which we encounter such as education, culture, social endeavors.

During his brief tenure at St. Vitus (1975-1979) Bishop Pevec raised our sights on many things that were possible and probably if the parish committed itself toward those activities. Since that time a broader and more active direction of the parish has occurred even though many thought this parish would cease to exist and die.

We wish you on your special day, Bishop Pevec, many happy thoughts and feelings as you have given them also to your multitude. On Sunday you will be honored as a person who has inspired and moved us to reach for the highest achievements and to keep an open perspective about what is important to us in this and the next world.

We salute you, Naš Škof, and keep you in our prayers to continue your mission as a shepherd's for us, your flock.

Mini-Police Stations and community police support

by Stanley J. Frank

The guest speaker at the September meeting of the St. Clair Pensioners Club was our Councilman, Gus Frangos. Knowing of our concerns regarding the function of our mini-police station and the safety problems in our community in general, Mr. Gus Frangos brought along Officer Dave Swanson from our local mini-station, Sgt. Frank Skinder from the Sixth District station, and City Assistant Safety Director Barry Withers.

The talks and discussion were on an informal basis. First on the agenda were the concerns dealing with the mini-station operations. Officer Swanson has been at the station only since July, but he assured us that he is well aware of his duties and obligations to the community.

The duties besides the routine area patrolling are responding to the average complaints and problems such as disturbances, break-ins, muggings, etc. Major crimes are to be called in to the 911 number. Since the mini-station is currently sharing the St. Clair Businessmen's phone, the question was asked whether that could be the cause of some of the problems at times. Officer Swanson agreed and said it would help if the station had its own phone line.

The members voiced the same opinion, and if need be, they were willing to petition for this. At this point, Assist. Safety Director Barry Withers stated and promised he would see to it that a private line is installed for the mini-station. He was applauded for this promise.

Barry Withers also assured us of his full support of the mini-station concept, and believes that they do a service for the communities. Unfortunately, due to the increased drug problem throughout the city, and the urgent need to concentrate more police in that area, there is some difficulty in keeping the mini-stations fully manned at all times.

play for your dancing pleasure starting at 9 p.m.

Cost of admission for this full evening of entertainment is only $13.00. Tickets may be purchased at the SWH Bar Clubroom, Tony's Polka Village or by calling either Angela Zabjek at 531-3979 or Betty Rotar at 481-3187. Join us for a delightful evening, Saturday, November 11th.

Betty Rotar

Sgt. Frank Skinder of the Sixth District informed us that the district heads are aware of the problems in our area, and have taken steps to some degree, to provide increased patrolling and surveillance. Furthermore, if there are special needs for police patrolling, he suggests that organization representatives meet with him and supply him with meeting night schedules. He then will assign extra patrolling.

All three men assured us that they are aware and understand our needs and concerns, and are committed to support and work with the community and its citizens. In return they ask that we stay alert and when in need of help, to call them.

Councilman Frangos concluded the discussion with a review of the subjects discussed, and made a renewed promise to work to bring about improvements to the community. Feel free to call him with your problems. He will respond to your call. He also is available at his St. Clair office on Wednesday afternoons. His office is in the Slovenian National Home Bldg. at 6401 St. Clair Avenue.

We thanked all speakers for their participation at the meeting, and their show of concern to the problems of our community. One problem regarding the operation of the mini-station still remains unresolved. It is our contention that the mini-stations were set up, first and foremost, for the safety and protection of a community. Therefore, we object to the practice of pulling out the assigned officer from the assigned station duties, and then sent to other assignments elsewhere, without sending a temporary replacement for the time of the regular officer's absence. We object to the current practice, especially if the station is normally a one man operation. This leaves the community without any police support.

We had voiced this concern by way of a petition to Mayor Voinovich and to the Safety Director's office, earlier this year. To date we have had no response from either one or the other. We can only assume that our petition is being ignored... or put on hold for our future administration.

Mayor Voinovich is winding down his final term as Mayor. Does he feel that he no longer needs to listen to the pleas of the people of the communities?

Bill Zupanc returned to his home in Ft. Lauderdale after attending funeral services in Cleveland, Ohio for his dearly departed mother, Josephine Zupanc Levstik. Josephine died on September 18 at the age of 96 years. She was well known for her work at the Slovenian Home in Collinwood, Ohio. Our deepest condolences to Bill and his family.

Sorry to hear Andy Jartz is hospitalized for a circulatory leg problem. We pray that he may soon return home feeling much better.

Birthdays in October were for Sophie Phillips and Ivan

Willis. Ivan celebrated his 88th birthday. He feels fine and looks great. Ivan, may God grant you many more happy and healthy years. He attends every monthly meeting and has been a member for 15 years.

Wedding anniversary celebrations were Cyril and Mary Grlic and Edward and Nancy Blatnik.

On September 29th many of our members had their television turned to Network Channel 2 watching the "World Festival" program. It was a beautiful presentation of our Slovene people wearing their national costumes. They were going up into the mountains. The men were playing their accordions and the women were churning the butter and processing the cheese for the festivals. The cows were right there, too, giving all the milk that was needed. It was a happy group coming back down the mountains singing and playing the accordions. There was dancing and the traditional foods were served such as žgance, sausage, etc. This program was produced in Slovenia.

There were also beautiful scenes on TV showing Lake Bled and Bohinj. It was on PBS (Public Broadcasting System).

To all our northern friends, we hope you are enjoying the beautiful fall foliage. We do not have that here in south Florida. I miss seeing it.

The Most Important Issue

by Stane J. Kuhar

As the primary election has given way to the general election scheduled for November 7, a series of issues have been raised by the two top candidates for the office of mayor of Cleveland, George L. Forbes and Michael R. White.

The issues have ranged from drug abuse, tax abatement, safety, affordable and decent housing, economic development, race relations, and education.

It is the last concern, education, that has been receiving a great deal of attention by the candidates and media over the past two months. The focus, however, has concentrated solely on public school education. That is, the Cleveland Public School system.

Both candidates and the media have ignored the sleeping giant in education in the city of Cleveland, the parochial schools.

Approximately 50 some schools operate under the guidance of the diocese of Cleveland. These schools have an estimated number of 8- to 10,000 students compared to the some 72,000 students in the Cleveland public schools.

While the public schools in Cleveland have received millions of dollars over the past decade the parochial schools are starving for funds from all levels of government to meet basic needs to educate its student population.

A recent talk by the noted Dr. Thomas Bier, Urban College, Cleveland State University, to the parishes in the Northwest deanery on October 17 gives a very negative outlook for the future of Cleveland if current population and housing trends remain constant. Impacting the population and housing questions will be the role education will play for the next ten years.

Cleveland's population for the 1990 census will be at approximately the 500,000 level. Within the next ten years the population has a very real occurrence of reaching only 400,000 people living in the City of Cleveland. The main reason for the continuing loss of population, according to the analysis and studies performed through the Urban-College, is the level of education offered for the elementary and secondary year students in Cleveland's public schools.

Based on the continuing followup studies of Dr. Bier, 9 out of 10 people selling their houses who lived in Cleveland leave Cleveland while only 4 out of 10 persons buying a house in Cleveland moved from outside the city area. That means, more than half the population is leaving Cleveland rather than staying in Cleveland.

The median age and income level for the seller is 38 years old and salary at $38,000 while the buying median age and income is 26 years old and at $26,000. These numbers only mean that the lower-middle and middle income level persons are leaving while a lower income level replaces them. For Cleveland this means a poorer standard of living will continue if this trend remains constant.

Most interesting is the fact that at least 1/3 of all selling persons indicated a child had attended a parochial school while living in Cleveland; and at least 90% of selling persons had had a child attend a parochial school at one time while living in Cleveland. But once moved outside of Cleveland only 1/3 of selling persons continued to send their children to a parochial school in the suburbs.

This brings us back to the two mayoral candidates.

Without a parochial school system, in one form or another in place, Cleveland's population will continue to decline but not only gradually, but greatly over the next ten years.

What are the alternatives?

This writer has previously stated some form of a voucher and/or tax tuition credit system needs to be implemented so that parents have a choice to send their children to a good school, be it public or private. Without both good public and private schools in cities such as Cleveland, Baltimore, Detroit, and others these cities will become areas where only the poor will remain, regardless of how much development occurs in the downtown area.

A secondary approach the parochial schools could adopt is to redistribute part of the funds raised for the Retirement Collection Fund For Religious collected nationwide by all parishes toward increasing the deplorable salary levels of most teachers in the parochial school system. While the average salary for a public school teacher is approximately $26,000 the average parochial school teacher earns an estimated $13,000 per annum. The diocese should quit preaching justice and practice it.

A third approach, as previously advocated by this writer, is that each parish establish an endowment trust fund. On this point this writer agrees with Bishop Pilla that parishes need to plan and prepare for the future lest there be no future for a parish. As each parish has its own particular needs and circumstances, so too the endowment trust fund should be tailor-made for each parish.

A fourth alternative is to develop a true program with Greater Cleveland businesses and have teachers work in businesses while business professionals teach in the schools. Here too the parochial schools have a great opportunity to develop high-tech courses, business course programs, and others. Such development would lead to a demand for students attending parochial schools. Businesses currently are concentrating their efforts mainly on the public schools.

These alternatives are but a few possible solutions to this main issue of education in Cleveland. The real question is will we have the resolve and resources for the next decade to meet this need. If not, our future has already come and gone.

Finding Our Slovenian Roots

Editor:

Our memories were delightfully refreshed in reading your "Discovering Our Heritage in Slovenia." Our fabulous trip (our first also) took place in 1983 with an almost identical itinerary. The three-week tour originated in Cleveland. We traveled with the most friendly people from Pittsburgh: Mary Skerlong and Rosemary Mlay and many others; Fr. Flanik, Slovene and Yugoslavia expert; Jack and Jo Dwyer from Indiana, and others from New Zealand, Australia, Cyril Grlic from Florida, and a couple from Ireland.

The goal of this trip was to locate my family, my roots - and to see this beautiful Slovenia I've heard and read so much about. And both goals were accomplished. We were so fortunate to locate my father's side of the family just outside of Ribnica.

I will never forget carrying two small dictionaries, translating from English to Slovenian and vice-versa. Wherever we went from the University of Ljubljana to Ribnica, Semič, and on and on - the people were so friendly and hospitable. Before you knew it, there were the goodies, šunka, potica, wine, etc.

We flew from Ljubljana to Dubrovnik - and returned via motor coach along the Adriatic Coast with many stops too numerous to mention here. Then from Bled on to Zagreb, winding up in Ljubljana.

We're rather short of relatives here in Michigan, but there (Slovenia), relatives galore. My Aunt Angela Strnad of Velike Poljana offered land and a house, if we would return there. And there was Aunt Theresa Prijatelj with her lovely family. Also, first cousins and their families; Anica Jamnik of Domžale, Olga Kovačič of Šentvid, Tony Strnad and France Prijatelj of Velike Poljana - are those we met and surprised.

My husband takes every chance he gets to tell others about our trip - and expresses his greatest respect and admiration of the Slovenes. He spent weeks organizing, categorizing, writing descriptions of each snapshot, and finally getting them into six photo albums. He's a great reader, and read so much history of Slovenia after our return, including "Tito" which Fr. Flanik sent him.

Both of us very much appreciate the articles in the AD, thus keeping us informed of the political conditions and activities in Slovenia and Yugoslavia. John A. Arnez's recent writing from the book Slovenia in European Affairs, is excellent.

Please know - as many other subscribers also write - the Ameriška Domovina keeps us all in touch with each other - together as a Slovenian community wherever we are scattered far and wide. And for this we thank you all; we are grateful. Do keep up the good work.

Na svidenje,
Dorothy (Sever) Kraft
Mt. Clemens, Mich.

P.S. — Regarding the article "Who is Your Sister?" printed in the AD on Sept. 22 and Oct. 10. What a wonderful opportunity those four sisters had to serve the Lord. Without a second thought,

Slovenian Junior Chorus Fall Concert

The 47 voices of the Slovenian Junior Chorus of SNPJ Circle 2 will break out into song at their Fall Concert, Sunday, November 12 at the Slovenian Society Home, 20713 Recher Avenue, Euclid, Ohio.

The program will begin at 3 p.m. under the direction of Cecilia Dolgan. The children will appear in Slovenian folk costumes. For a little Western flavor, they will sing old American songs of the West.

The chorus will be accompanied by Ed Sumrada, whose orchestra, the Sumrada Brothers, will play for the dance and social following the concert.

The group will also present folk dances and their own band. The youngsters recently sang in Toronto, and at an Indians baseball game at the Cleveland Stadium.

Tickets are $5 for adults and are available at Tony's Polka Village, 971 E. 185 St., and at the door, and from members.

American Home building is cleaned

The American Home Publishing Co. Inc. building at 6117 St. Clair Avenue received a chemical cleaning on the front side last Sunday. Soot from cars, buses and trucks left a black coating on the building which is on the main thoroughfare of St. Clair Avenue. The second picture shows the transformation of the cement blocks and bricks from black to a nice clean luster. The upper windows will also be replaced and the wood frames will be repainted as part of the Cleveland Storefront Renovation Program citywide where some of the cost for the project will be refunded by a government grant. The negotiations with the city architects have been going on for two years and we received the final approval for the go-ahead last Friday. The cleaning project has finally begun and we can all be proud of our Slovenian newspaper printing plant building along St. Clair Avenue, the traditional and historic location of most of our pioneer and refugee Slovenian settlers in America.

Urges Readers to Support Sustarsic

Editor:

Over the past 35 years Sustarsic has been a name that you can trust in the City of Euclid. With a family tradition of looking out for the best interests of the City and her people, they have served admirably as legislators, administrators and mayor.

Jerald A. Sustarsic is keeping this legacy alive by representing you as Council-at-Large. His philosophy of voting for the issues as opposed to the politics of the issues has proven his strong point, showing his dedication to the people.

Fiscal responsibility beyond reproach, support of the safety forces that are second to none in quality and service, and the continuation of those everyday services which the people have been accustomed to, such as garbage pickup, recreation programs and senior citizen activities has been the commitment of Sustarsic and will continue to be. His youth represents the future for Euclid; his heritage represents the high ideals needed by the community.

Jerry Sustarsic is endorsed by Labor. He is a member of Lakeland Civic Assoc., Euclid Slovenian Society Home, St. Williams Booster Club and Euclid Democratic Caucus.

Collinwood Hall Buttonaires

The Holmes Hall Buttonaires are a well known fun group performing for many different events, notably the E. 185th Street Festival and just recently the Conneaut Street Festival where they received a trophy competing in the Novelty Group.

They have their own annual Button Box Bash and it is scheduled this year for Nov. 5 at the Collinwood Home.

The Buttonaires are well established in polka circles and have expanded to include the 1989 Holmes Hall Musician of the Year, Georgie Cook.

The Holmes Hall Buttonaires are one of the nominees selected for Best Button Box Group for the National Cleveland-Style Polka Hall of Fame.

In Loving Memory

OF THE THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF

John J. Susnik

who was called to his heavenly reward on October 27, 1986
Tretje leto je že minilo, odkar Ti srce več ni bije.
Črna zemlja truplo krije,
luč nebeška duši sije.

Saj ne mine nikdar dan,
da ne bi bili v duhu tam,
kjer zdaj počiva Tvoje truplo, kjer Tvoj dom je zdaj hladan.

Collinwood Slovenian Sports...

It's been five years since our 65th Anniversary. It seems like just yesterday and now we are celebrating our 70th Anniversary. We have been very busy in the last five years, especially our sports department.

Our Winter Bowling Leagues are getting bigger and better. Our Summer League consists of "men" only. They hold a steak dinner in the club room and watch the Browns games on TV. Everyone has a super time.

Our baseball team has a great time showing everyone what they can do.

The dart teams dart every Wednesday night. We have four teams. They have brought home four trophies in the last five years. We think our boys are the best. If you have time come down on Wednesday and watch some great dart shooting.

The KSKJ Ladies League brought home a trophy for us last year, too.

The Cav's basketball season is an exciting time, too, at our club. We have buses going to the Coliseum every so often. We also were on national TV at the Cav's play-off game.

Our volleyball team is doing great, too. They have also brought us trophies. They play at the YMCA in Euclid. Stop by if you have time.

This year we don't have a balinca team. But come next year there will be another balinca team.

—Mary Podlogar

Some of the Collinwood Slovenian Home Darters: Brian Austin, Joe Krann, Jack Smith, Motts Zrim, Alan Cafardett, Bob Ryan, Denny Austin, and Tony Stanonik.

Joe Ferrera, left and John Habat were very instrumental in shaping the progress of the Collinwood Slovenian Home for many years during World War II. Now 15 Directors are carrying on their work in the Slovenian tradition.

Jack Videtic — One Great Man

Jack Videtic's love for our hall is overwhelming. He has helped our hall more than anyone we know of. He has been active in the hall one way or another for the last 40 years. Whenever anything has to be fixed or cleaned up, Jack is there.

He is our Chairman, House Committee man this year. Jack and his wife have been our custodians for many years. Now that he isn't feeling up to par, they had to give up their posts.

Jack also was our Man of the Year in 1980, an honor he well deserves. The Board of Directors wish him many more years of loyalty to the Collinwood Slovenian Home.

The Frogs Made Way for Collinwood

Around the turn of the century, some Slovenian immigrants began to settle in the Collinwood area. They obtained work at the railroad roundhouse and repair shops. Also the Collinwood Brick and Shale Co. hired many of our Slovenians. In 1908, St. Mary's Church was founded by Rev. Pakiz, and this event resulted in even more Slovenians making their home in the Collinwood area.

Collinwood, like Nottingham, was once a village before annexation to the city of Cleveland. Since it, too, has an interesting past, a short history of Collinwood follows:

On of the first settlers in Collinwood was Thomas Mcilrath who came with his family from Pennsylvania around 1810. The family existed the 1st year by hunting wild game for food. The pelts of the animals were used for clothing and bartering for staples. Initially, the village was called "Frogsville," probably due to the large swamp that existed in the vicinity, and the preponderance of frogs that were a result of ideal breeding conditions. In 1852 the railroad ran tracks thru the north end of the town. By 1868, the Village was renamed "Collinsville" after Charles Collins an engineer of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern (Later New York Central and now Conrail).

In 1873 a huge roundhouse and repair shops were being first erected and two years later completed.

When Charles Collins died suddenly in 1875, the town name was changed to Collinwood. That same year a post office opened.

By 1879, Collinwood had 3 public schools, 6 general stores, 4 doctors, 2 pharmacies, 1 hardware store, 2 shoe stores, 1 dry goods store, 2 millinery, 2 livery stables, 2 New R.R. depots, 1 wagon-blacksmith shop, 1 harness shop, 3 meat markets, Churches and the Warren House Hotel.

The population was 1500 and that figure increased year after year. Collinwood suffered when disasterous fire occurred at the Lakeview school, killing 165 pupils and two teachers (now Memorial School)

In 1907, Collinwood Junior

High opened at 5 points. In 1926 the school was enlarged and it became a high school also.

When its citizen's voted to be annexed by city of Cleveland, on Jan 21, 1910, Collinwood was no longer an independent village.

Polka Thanksgiving Days Feature Many Activities

The greatest gathering of polka fans from across the country will converge, once again, on the Polka Capital of Cleveland, Ohio for the Thanksgiving holiday weekend with this year's theme "Polka Stars Shine in '89."

Radio personality Tony Petkovsek and the Cleveland Slovenian Radio Club are set for the traditional "Thanksgiving Day Polka Party," Thursday, November 23, at St. Joseph High Auditorium, East 185th and Lake Shore Blvd. It will be several hours of polka fun and entertainment from 5:30 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. featuring a dozen out-of-town and Cleveland bands. ($6 advance admission tickets available at Tony's Polka Village, 971 East 185th St. or tickets available at the door for $7.) This is North America's largest and longest running annual polka dance which helps to promote and support daily polka radio.

The event marks Petkovsek's 28 uninterrupted years on local airwaves broadcasting daily and currently on WELW-1330 AM Monday thru Saturday and WCPN-90.3 FM Public Radio Sundays from noon until 1:00 p.m. The radio programs also feature Joey Tomsick, Alice Kuhar, and Duke Marsic.

Busloads will again come from Canada, Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania, plus other areas of the midwest and Ohio. Individual polka fans will hail from at least 15 to 20 states and will stay at the Holiday Inn Wickliffe, I-90 and Euclid Ave. Regular jam sessions will take place in the Holidome of the Holiday Inn during the four-day weekend. The "Dome" will also be the location of a "Polka Mass" on that Saturday evening (November 25) at 6:00 p.m. followed by a Dinner-Dance at the hotel. Ticket reservations at $12.50 are available for dinner to follow Mass being celebrated by Fr. George Balasko, Polka Mass originator.

A variety of polka activities will take place at area tavern-restaurants and ethnic halls the entire Thanksgiving weekend plus the Second Annual Presentation of the Polka Hall of Fame taking place with a Spectacular Show on Saturday, November 25th at 2:30 p.m. at Euclid Shore Civic Center, headquarters for the American Slovenian Polka Foundation. Donation tickets at $10 are available for this special event to honor all polka greats who will be enshrined for lifetime achievement as well as annual awards voted in various categories.

For any information out-of-towners can call toll-free at (800) 321-5801 while Ohioans and Clevelanders can call (216) 481-7512.

APPLE PUFF

When baked, a delicate cake-like batter blankets bits of moist, cooked apple.

1 egg
1/3 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 heaping cupful diced apples (tender varieties such as McIntosh are best).

1/4 cup broken walnuts
Preheat oven to 350°. Beat egg well; then beat in sugar. Add flour and baking powder and mix well. Stir in apples and walnuts. Spread in an 8-inch pie pan coated with baking spray. Bake 22-25 minutes. Serve warm with a dollop of vanilla yogurt, or a scoop of frozen yogurt, if desired.

APPLE BROWNIES

2/3 cup butter or margarine
2 cups brown sugar
2 eggs

1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped apples
1/2 cup nuts
powdered sugar

Preheat oven to 350°. Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat well. Add flour, baking powder and salt. Stir well. Stir in apples and nuts. Bake in well greased pan (12 x 9 x 3in.) for 30-35 minutes. When cooled, sift powdered sugar over the top and cut into bars.

SPICY PEAR SAUCE WITH TURKEY MEATBALLS

1 can (16 oz.) Bartlett pears
1 pound ground turkey
3/4 cup fresh bread crumbs
1 egg
3 tablespoons soy sauce
3 teaspoons grated fresh ginger root, divided

1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
1/2 cup tomato ketchup
2 tablespoons each packed brown sugar and cider vinegar
1 teaspoon cornstarch
Drain pears, reserving 1 cup liquid; slice. Combine turkey, bread crumbs, egg, soy sauce and 2 teaspoons ginger root; mix well. Shape mixture into 20 walnut-sized meatballs.

Arrange in microwave-safe pie plate; cover with waxed paper. Microcook at Medium (50%) 12 to 14 minutes or until meatballs are thoroughly cooked.

Arrange meatballs, pears and green pepper in microwave-safe dish; set aside. Combine pear liquid, ketchup, brown sugar, vinegar, remaining ginger root and cornstarch; pour over meatball mixture.

Cover and microwave at High 4 to 6 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Makes 4 servings.

Preparation Time: About 30 minutes.

PORK CHOPS WITH SPICY PEARS AND MUSTARD SAUCE

1 can (16 oz.) Bartlett pears
4 whole cloves
1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
4 lean pork chops, grilled or pan-fried Mustard Sauce

Drain pears, reserving liquid; slice. Combine 1/2 cup pear liquid, cloves and cinnamon in microwave-safe dish; microcook at High (100%) 1 to 2 minutes. Pour over drained pears; marinate 30 minutes. Serve with grilled pork chops and Mustard Sauce. Makes 4 servings.

Mustard Sauce:

Combine 1/4 cup chopped onion, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine and 1 teaspoon finely chopped garlic in microwave-safe dish; microcook at High (100%) 2 minutes. Blend in 1 tablespoon flour; microcook at High 1 minute. Stir in remaining reserved-pear liquid, 1/2 teaspoon crushed thyme. Microcook at High 1 to 2 minutes or until thickened. Makes about 1 1/4 cups.

Preparation time: About 30 minutes.

OLD WITCHES MAGIC CAKE

3 eggs
1 (1 lb) can pumpkin
3/4 c. vegetable oil
1/2 c. water
2 1/2 c. flour
2 1/4 c. sugar
1 1/2 tsp. baking soda
1 1/4 tsp. salt
3/4 tsp. nutmeg
3/4 tsp. cinnamon
1 c. yellow raisins
1/2 c. chopped walnuts

Beat together eggs, pumpkin, oil and water. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Pour batter into 3 buttered 1 pound coffee cans or 1 Bundt pan.

Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool and frost with the following frosting.

Frosting:

4 oz. cream cheese
3 Tbsp. butter
1 tsp. lemon juice or vanilla
1/2 box confectioners sugar

EASY APPLE PIE CAKE

1/4 c. butter or margarine
1 c. sugar
1 egg, beaten
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. baking soda
1 c. flour
1/2 c. chopped nuts
2 1/2 c. diced apples
2 Tbsp. hot water
1 tsp. vanilla

Cream together sugar and butter, then add egg. Add dry ingredients, then apples, nuts, water and vanilla. Place in well greased pie plate and bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve warm with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream.

BUTTERMILK BISCUITS

2 cups plus 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
4 tablespoons shortening
1 cup buttermilk

Preheat oven to 400°F. Generously grease cookie sheet.

Mix dry ingredients together in mixing bowl. Rub or cut in shortening until mixture is crumbly. (Can be made ahead. Spoon into container, cover and refrigerate up to 1 month).

Pour in buttermilk and mix lightly. Roll dough on lightly floured surface 3/4 inch thick, adding as little extra flour as possible.

Cut out biscuits, using floured rim of juice glass or biscuit cutter. Place at least 1 inch apart on prepared cookie sheet. Bake until golden, 12 to 14 minutes. Serve hot. Makes about 15 2-inch biscuits.

AMLA: Insurance for the Entire Family

The American Mutual Life Association is now offering a new permanent Whole Life Insurance Policy with a Vanishing Premium feature. This plan has the full advantage of low cost whole life rates and, at our current rate of dividends, by leaving all dividends on deposit your premium payments will vanish after only 12 years, and the policy will remain in force for the rest of the life of the insured member. Eligibility for this Vanishing Premium feature does require the policy be written for at least $10,000.

AMLA also offers other plans of insurance, including Whole Life, 20 Pay Life, Single Premium, and an excellent Juvenile Term to Age 25 policy for youngsters 18 years of age and under.

AMLA is proud to congratulate all of our 50 year members, who will be honored at our 79th Anniversary Celebration on November 25, 1989.

FORCED BUSING MAY SOON END

- NOT By closing more schools and restructuring remaining schools (as Supt. Tutela and the pro-busing slate of candidates want to do) that would cause forced busing to continue even without a court order.
- NOT By giving parents only "some" choice so prescribed "racial balance" continues (as Supt. Tutela and the pro-busing slate of candidates want to do) that means there would STILL be forced busing.
- NOT By continuing to try to "satisfy" ALL components of the "remedial" order before seeking release (as the pro-busers say) the school board has, in good faith, ALREADY "desegregated" the schools. Decades from now pro-busers will STILL say not enough has been done because (1) components of the order are vague and (2) because additions and changes are frequently made, and would continue to be made.

Not By The Pro-Busing Slate

- One of the pro-busing slate already on the board (Dumas) voted AGAINST a resolution introduced by James Carney to seek release from the court
- Another (Johanek) said publicly he would have voted AGAINST it had he been on the board at the time.
- Another (Smith) is EVEN a member of Judge Battisti's monitoring (watchdog) group (OSMCR)

Do not be deceived — know the facts! VOTE NOV. 7 for those who will seek the freedom to attend neighborhood schools all the way to the Supreme Court if need be.

VOTE TO END FORCED BUSING NOV. 7.

JAMES M. CARNEY JR.

A leader on the Cleveland School Board to end forced busing in Cleveland. Responded to petitions of over 30,000 Clevelanders by introducing a resolution to immediately seek release from the court. Opposed busing kindergartners. Opposed closing more schools. Opposed restructuring schools to institutionalize forced busing. Is an active member of the National Assoc. for Neighborhood Schools (NANS) in a national effort to end forced busing. Is a leader in the effort to make schools safer from those who would assault, threaten or intimidate or physically abuse other students or school employees. Led effort to stop sale of drugs in schools.

JOSEPH A. COSTANZO

Worked with James Carney on the school board to end forced busing in Cleveland. Is an active member of the National Assoc. for Neighborhood Schools (NANS) in a national effort to end forced busing. Opposed busing kindergartners. Opposed closing more schools. Opposed to institutionalizing forced busing. Saved Cleveland taxpayers $20 million last year by blocking a levy through discovering alternate revenue sources. As a former Cleveland teacher, he knows the importance of good attendance and sound educational policies. Voted against ungraded schools so parents and students can keep track of progress. Established a drug education and prevention program.

Call 252-1954 to volunteer

GERALD C. HENLEY

Insists on the end of forced busing and the freedom to attend neighborhood schools. Was active in organized effort in Knoxville, Tenn. that kept busing from coming there. Is an active member of the National Assoc. for Neighborhood Schools (NANS) and chairman of Cleveland's Black NANS Committee. Speaks continually against forced busing on radio, TV, before civic and religious groups and in published articles. Attends school board meetings regularly. Has over ten years of wide experience with troubled youth. Presently a probation officer with Cuyahoga Cy. Juvenile Court. Has wide support in all sectors of Cleveland — black, white and hispanic. Insists on equal and quality education for all children in every school. Favors strong discipline and policies to rid schools of drugs and drug trafficking for the safety of students, school employees and community. Will work for parent and community involvement and support. Is married with two pre-school age children who will attend Cleveland schools.

Doma in po svetu

— PREGLED NAJVAŽNEJSIH DOGODKOV —

Gorbačov na obisku v Finski — Baltsko morje naj bo nejedrsko območje — Sovjeti podpirajo neuvrščenost Finske HELSINKI, Fin. — Na svojem prvem uradnem obisku v Finski je sovjetski voditelj Mihail Gorbačov dejal, da bo njegova država zmanjšala obseg njene jedrske oborožitve na območju Baltskega morja. Sovjeti se bodo prizadevali za mednarodno pogodbo, po kateri bi bila jedrska oborožitev popolnoma prepovedana na Baltskem morju, je še povedal Gorbačov. Dve svojih podmornic z jedrskim orožjem je SZ že umaknila iz voda tega morja, ostale štiri bo pa do konca 1990 tudi umaknila in demontirala.

Na veliko veselje svojih finskih poslušalcev, je Gorbačov trdil, da Sovjetska zveza sprejema brez vsakega pridržka finsko politiko neuvrščenosti napram velikim silam.

Reakcija v Beli hiši do izjave Gorbačova o zmanjševanju sovjetske jedrske oborožitve o Baltskem morju je bila dokaj hladna. Tina Baskovni predstavnik Bele hiše Marlin Fitzwater je rekel, da ZDA niso mnenja, da takšne nejedrske cone na raznih območjih kaj pripomorejo k varnosti v Evropi. Dejstvo je, da je namen teh sovjetskih pobud zmanjševati obrambno sposobnost NATO držav, medtem ko ostanejo sovjetske jedrske sposobnosti nedotaknjene. Na drugi strani pa so ZDA reagirale pozitivno na predlog sovjetskega zunanjega ministra Ševardnadzeja, naj velesili začneta govoriti o možnosti zmanjševanja števila vojaških oporišč na evropskem prostoru.

Bush gre danes v Kostariko na srečanje 18 predsednikov latinsko ameriških držav — Odklonil osebno srečanje z Ortegom

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Danes odpohtuje predsednik Bush na dvodnevno sestanek na vrhu 18 predsednikov latinsko ameriških držav. Povod za to srečanje je praznovanje sto let demokratične ureditve v Kostariki. Med navzočimi predsedniki bo tudi nikaragveški voditelj Manuel Ortega, vendar je Bush odklonil, da bi se z njim osebno srečal. V svojih pogovorih z drugimi predsedniki bo Bush prosil za še večjo izoliranje panamskega diktatorja Manuela Noriega. Navzočih na praznovanju ne bodo taki voditelji kot so Noriega, čilejski predsednik Pinochet, kubanski vodja Fidel Castro, in sicer zato, ker niso prišli na oblast na podlagi demokratičnih volitev.

Egon Krenz in Helmut Kohl govorila po telefonu — Član vzhodnonemškega vodstva se srečal s predstavniki opozicijskega gibanja

BERLIN — Včeraj sta prvič govorila in sicer po telefonu novi vzhodnonemški voditelj Egon Krenz in zahodnonemški kancler Helmut Kohl. Govorila sta o možnih načinih, po katerih bi lahko prišlo do več stikov med njunima državama. Soglašala sta tudi, da je treba odpreti trajen dialog. Kohl bo poslal posebnega predstavnika v Vzhodni Berlin, ki se bo pogovarjal o pobegu v ZRN več deset tisoč Vzhodnih Nemcev. Krenz je že bil obljubil, da njegova država začela olajšati pogoje za potovanje v tujino Vzhodnih Nemcev.

Član politbiroja in partijski vodja v Vzhodnem Berlinu Guenter Schabowski se je srečal z Jensom Reichom in Sebastianom Pflugbeilom, ki sta med ustanovitelji alternativnega gibanja Novi forum. To gibanje, nativnega gibanja Novi forum. To gibanje, pravita, ima že 26.000 članov. Po srečanju s Schabowskim, ki je sicer znan kot eden redkih reformistično usmerjenih članov najož-jega partijskega vodstva, sta Reich in Pflugbeil novinarjem povedala, da je Schabowski poudaril pomembnost prihoda na oblasti Krenza, da to namreč pomeni resničen korak k spremembam v Vzhodni Nemčiji. Odstranitev Honeckerja da pač ni bila samo kozmetična sprememba. Pogovor je bil odprt in konstruktiven, sta rekla.

Po Vzhodni Nemčiji so vsak dan nove demonstracije tistih, ki zahtevajo demokratizacijo dežele. Sinoči naj bi se v demonstraciji v Dresdenu zbralo do 100.000 ljudi, v obalnem mestu Rostocku 25.000, v Erfurtu 15.000, v manjšem mestu Gera zahodno od Dresdena pa 5.000. Kot kaže, varnostne sile teh demonstracij, ki so povsem in brez izjeme mirovnega značaja, ne ovirajo in tudi ne ukrepajo proti organizatorjem.

— Kratke vesti —

Washington, D.C. — Včeraj je predsednik Bush potrdil zakonski osnutek, ki določa 3,45 milijarde dolarjev pomoči za odpravo posledic nedavnega potresa Kaliforniji. Kalifornijski kongresniki so zadovoljni, pravijo pa, da bo moral kongres prihodnje leto odobriti še več denarja.

Tajpej, Taj. — Iz še nepojasnjene vzroka je pilot civilnega letala Boeing 737 včeraj preusmeril svoje letalo naravnost v goro, v nesreči je bilo ubitih vseh 54 potnikov, med njimi en Američan. Do nesreče je prišlo med vzletanjem.

London, V. Br. — Finančni minister v vladi Margaret Thatcher, Nigel Lawson, je nepričakovano podal ostavko. Sprl se je bil z Alanom Waltersom, je bil osební svetovalec Thatcherjeve za gospodarsko politiko. Tudi Walters je podal ostavko. Thatcherjeva je hitro reagirala in imenovala dosedanega zunanjega sekretarja Johna Majorja na Lawsonovo mesto, ki je v angleški vladi izredne važnosti. Lawsonova ostavka je vznemirila finančnike v Angliji, politični komentatorji pa menijo, da je Thatcherjeva sama doživela hud politični udarec.

Washington, D.C. — Južna Afrika je izstrelila raketo srednjega dosega, ki lahko nosi jedrski naboj. Vse kaže, da pri tem sodelujeta Južna Afrika in Izrael. Znano je še, da državi skupaj prizadevata za izdelavo rakete medcelinskega dometa, ki bi lahko tudi nosila jedrske naboje in izstrelila sonde v vesolje. Gre menda za kupčijo tako, da izraelski strokovnjaki lahko delujejo v Južni Afriki neovirani in izolirani od zunanjega sveta, v zameno pa Izrael baje posreduje jedrsko tehnologijo Južni Afriki. Južna Afrika tudi pomaga Izraelu priti do jedrskih snovi, potrebnih za jedrske bombe. Ni dvoma namreč, da Izrael že razpolaga z jedrskimi bombami.

Washington, D.C. — Bushova vlada in senatni odbor, ki nadzoruje obveščevalne dejavnosti zveznih obveščevalnih agencij, sta dosegla sporazum, po katerem bo imela zvezna vlada večjo svobodo, da sodeluje v pripravljanju državnih udarov v drugih državah. Predsednik Bush se je pritožil, da so omejitve na tem področju zelo škodovale ameriškim interesom v nedavnem poskusu državnega udara proti panamskemu diktatorju Noriegi.

Washington, D.C. — Včeraj je predsednik Bush odobril pomembne trgovinske olajšave za Madžarsko. Ukrepal je, ker izgleda, da je Madžarska na poti k demokratični ureditvi.

Urednikova odločitev

Ta teden sem obvestil lastnika Ameriške Domovine, da nisem več pripravljen toliko svojega časa posvečati urejanju tega lista. Predlagal sem mu, da bi ali skušal najti drugega človeka za urednika slovenskega dela ali pa naj bi ukinil torkovo številko in povečal petkovo številko tako, da bi bilo v njej vedno najmanj šest ali sedem slovenskih strani. Že pred meseci sem na tem mestu pisal, da sploh nimam dovolj gradiva za dve številki na teden. Povedal sem tudi, da čas, ki ga posvečam pripravljanju dveh Ameriških Domovin na teden, v preveliki meri omejuje druge aktivnosti, ki sem jih v zadnjih letih pretežno ali v celoti zanemarjal oziroma opustil. Konec koncev gre za mojo osebno odločitev, da začnem več delati to, kar resnično želim delati, kot pa to, kar ne želim delati, vsaj v takšnem časovnem obsegu ne. Edino, kar želim, da bralci in naročniki pri tem upoštevate, je to, da pač tudi meni čas teče naprej prav tako neusmiljeno, kot teče vam.

Lastnik je mojo odločitev sprejel z žalostjo, kajti je pripravljen nadaljevati z dvema številkom na teden, to v slučaju, da bi se za moje mesto zanimal kdo drugi. Kot sem tudi pisal pred meseci, sem vedno pripravljen uredniško mesto odstopiti v celoti nasledniku, ki bi se za to zanimal. Edino, kar je tu potrebno, je, da se morebitni naslednik dogovori z lastnikom glede delovnih pogojev. Pripravljen sem tudi pomagati, da se naslednik »udomači« kot urednik v okoliščinah, ki pri našem listu in tiskarni veljajo. Če bi tega naslednik ne želel, bi jaz seveda odšel proč takoj. V enem ali drugem primeru pa bi ta list dobil vsaj enega novega, precej stalnega dopisnika, zopet, seveda, po volji novega urednika.

Ker ni v zvezi z mojo odločitvijo nobena takojšnja »kriza« ali nesporazum z lastnikom — ravno obratno —, sva se g. Debevec in jaz domenila, da bo naš list izhajal dvakrat tedensko vsaj do konca leta. Morda se bo kdo pojavil za novega urednika, ki bo mogel doseči za oba sprejemljiv dogovor z lastnikom. Če ne, bomo pa takoj z novim letom ali vsaj kmalu nato pričeli s tedensko Ameriško Domovino, v kateri bo slovenski del v primerjavi s sedanjimi običajnimi 4 ali 5 stranmi izhajal s 6 ali 7 stranmi, včasih morda več, odvisno od za objavo vrednega in razpoložljivega gradiva. Sodeč po sedanjih razmerah pa moram poudariti, da bi običajno s precejšnjo težavo napolnil celo 5 ali 6 strani z izvornim gradivom, ki ga dobivam. Tako bo tudi v slučaju spremembe na tedensko številko več kot dovolj prostora za objavo prispevkov vseh sedanjih dopisnikov.

V naslednjih tednih in mesecih bo lastnik razmišljal o tem, kako bo izhajala — če do tega pride — tedenska Ameriška Domovina, če jo bomo še vedno tiskali ob petkih ali pa bolj sredi tedna, da bo dosegla naročnike, ki jo prejema po pošti, pred koncem tedna. Nasveti bodo seveda dobrodošli. Kar ni predmet razpravljanja ali pregovarjanja, je pa moja zgoraj pojasnjena odločitev in bi bil jaz in gotovo tudi lastnik hvaležen, če bi njega ne nadlegovali zaradi situacije, za katero ni on nič odgovoren. Veliko več bi lahko pisal, vendar mislim, da sem povedal najpomembnejše. V tem listu in na drugih mestih sem

Majniška deklaracija 1989

Nesporazumi, provokacije in tudi odkrite sovražnosti, ki jih danes doživljajo Slovenci v Jugoslaviji, nas prepričujejo o prelomnosti sedanjega zgodovinskega trenutka in nas obvezujejo, da v jasni obliki izrečemo svojo voljo, iz katere sledijo dejanja v prihodnosti.

- spoštovanju človekovih pravic in svoboščin,
- demokraciji, ki vključuje politični pluralizem,
- družbeni ureditvi, ki bo zagotavljala duhovno in gmotno blaginjo v skladu z naravnimi danostmi in v skladu s človeškimi zmožnostmi državljanov Slovenije.

IZ NEWYORŠKE PROSVETE

Letos praznuje večina izseljencev po drugi svetovni vojni, tako imenovani »displaced persons« (DP's), 40-letnico prihoda v ZDA. Večina je prišla v drugi polovici leta. Tudi jaz sem bil med njimi. Ko sem šel že po ameriški osvoboditvi — Hvala Bogu — okužen s pegastim legarjem v bolnišnico, sem dvomil, da jo bom preživel, nikoli pa si nisem niti predstavljal, da bom šel v ZDA in tam živel 40 let.

Kamorkoli bi šel, nikjer bi me ne bilo tako dobro kot tukaj. In tako mislijo z menoj vsi! Zato smo uro posvetili Ameriki, naši novi domovini.

Za uvod je naša stalna solistka Vanesa Solar igrala na klavirju komad »Il trovatore«.

Nato nam je profesor Remec povedal nekaj svojih misli o Ameriki. Tudi on je prišel sem pred 40 leti. Tu je nadaljeval že začete in začel in končal nadaljnje študije. Postal je profesor na Fordham univerzi v New Yorku. Ima tri doktorate in je član vatikanske delegacije pri Združenih narodih (UN). Njegov govor prilagam in prosim g. urednika, da ga objavi. Naj uživajo ob njem tudi drugi DP's. (Op. ur. — Govor je objavljen na drugem mestu v današnji A.D.)

Za njim je Tone Jenko govoril o ameriških predsednikih, njihovih ženah, njihovih dobrih in slabih navadah. Nekateri podatki so res zanimivi, na primer, da se je 8 predsednikov rodilo v Virginiji, 7 v Ohiju, 4 v New Yorku in dva v malem Vermontu. Najvišji je bil Abraham Lincoln, 6 čevljev, 4 inče, najtežji pa William Howard Taft, ki je ob zaprisegi tehtal 332 funtov.

večkrat izrazil mnenje, da slovensko ameriško časopisje kot druge ustanove v naši skupnosti ostanejo toliko časa, kot je zanje potreba. Tako je tudi s tem listom. Če ga bralci in naročniki želijo ohraniti v sedanjem obsegu pod drugim urednikom, ali v omejenem pod sedanjim, je to na vas kot skupnost. V prvem primeru je treba najti drugega urednika, v drugem pa se sprijazniti z dejstvom, da bi omejeno število slovenskih strani na teden ne prizadelo nobenega našega dopisnika, le da bi bilo objavljenih veliko manj člankov, ki so že izšli v drugih slovenskih publikacijah v Sloveniji sami, v zamejstvu in drugod po svetu, kjer izhaja tiskana slovenska beseda.

Naj ob koncu zopet poudarim, da ne bom svoje odločitve o sebi spremenil, da je pa vse drugo v zvezi s slovenskim delom Ameriške Domovine odprto za najbolj zadovoljivo rešitev.

Rudolph M. Susel

Slovenjgradca ponoči ušel iz kolone, planil v gozd in se skozi gozdove pomikal proti meji, jo srečno prešel in se zopet za kratek čas znašel v taborišču. Nato se je oženil, našel stanovanje in delal v avstrijskih podjetjih. Decembra 1949 je prišel z ženo in dvema otrokoma v New York.

Nato je mala Kati Delak recitirala pesem »Veter«. Govori brez naglasa, lepo in razločno.

Ko sem se poleti vrnil iz Colorada in pokazal nekim svojim znancem slike iz Colorada in jim povedal, kaj sem tam doživel, so me prosili, da bi iste pokazal in isto povedal tudi na uri. To sem storil. Prav kratko!

Colorado je najvišja država v ZDA. Povprečna višina je 6800 čevljev, najvišji je Mt. Elbert, 14431 čevljev, najnižja točka pa je 3,385 čevljev visoko. Od 67 najvišjih gora v ZDA, jih je 52 v Coloradu. Colorado ima odlično klimo, povprečna letna temperatura je 45,2 stopinje, poletja niso prevročna in zime niso premrzle, temperatura navadno nikoli ne pade pod -30 stopinj.

Opisal sem jim in pokazal slike Georgetowna, Winter Parka, Granby in Great Lake, Vaila, Beaver Creeka in Steamboat Springs.

Ko sem bil tam, je v Vailu nastopil trikrat Bolšoj balet iz SZ. Vsi sedeži in stojišča so bili razprodani. Nastopajoči so pred kratkim diplomirali iz baletne šole ali pa bodo to storili letos. Plesalci so bili odlični. Takih plesalcev nima noben drug narod. Med njimi je bil tudi en Amerikanec, edini, ki je rusko baletno šolo končal.

Kot mlad študent sem se zaljubil v planine. Tako smo rekli na Gorenjskem goram. Če me je prijelo hrepenenje po gorah, sem šel na Lubnik, če za kakšno drugo goro ni bilo časa. Od tam sem videl svoj dom, mammo na vrtu ali njivi, vasi, v kateri so živeli, garali in umirali stoletja in stoletja moji predniki. Velikokrat sem imel solze v očeh. To kar mi je dajalo Gorenjsko, mi daje bolj poredko in ne v taki meri Colorado.

V Coloradu je Leadville, ki je bil svojčas najvišja slovenska fara na svetu. Slovenski napisi na križevem potu so še ostali, fara je pa angleška. Tam je župnikoval oče Trunk, ki je umrl v San Franciscu leta 1972, star 102 leti.

Božič v Sloveniji praznični dan

(Kat. glas) — Uresničila so se dolgoletna pričakovanja. Slovenska skupščina v Ljubljani je sprejela zakon, ki določa, da je 25. december, dan Božiča, odslej praznični dan. Verjetno je to že sad nove slovenske ustave.

Spremembe v Sloveniji se uresničujejo. Škoda, da imamo med nami toliko prenapetih težev, ki mislijo, da je treba vse doseči kar čez noč.

— Nekaj misli o Ameriki —

Peter Remec

Ko sem pred štiridesetimi leti prišel v to deželo, so me znanci, Slovenci in angleško govoreči, spraševali skoraj vsak dan, kako mi je tukaj všeč (How do you like this country?). V svoji preprostosti sem odgovarjal: »Zelo dobro, samo...« (»Very much, but...«). Še predno sem se lahko izrazil, kaj je moj »samo«, me je že ponavadi spraševalec zavrnil, češ, »zakaj si pa prišel sem; ostal bi, kjer si bil«. Mislim, da je marsikdo od tu pričujočih poslušalcev doživel podobno. Bilo je skorajda neovržno pravilo, da se o Ameriki ne sme nič slabega reči, tudi ne, če bi bilo resnično, posebno pa še, če je bil nekdo pravkaršni imigrant. Vsaj tako se mi je zdelo takrat.

Sedaj me nihče več ne sprašuje, kako mi je všeč ta dežela. Včasih celo sam zapadem skušnjavi in vprašam kakega novodošleca isto vprašanje, čeprav ga ne pošljem takoj nazaj, če pristavi kako kritiko.

Ali je sploh kaj prav v Ameriki in z Ameriko? Ko beremo vsakdanje časopise ali poslušamo večerne novice, ni skoraj ne konca ne kraja vesti o zločinih, mamilih, primanjkljaju, azponeverjenjih, poplavah, azponeuspelih političnih bestu in neuspelih političnih podvigih na domačem in mednarodnem področju. In vendar so Združene države Amerike magnet za ves svet. Mnogi hočejo legalno ali ilegalno priti sem. Tudi tisti, ki so v bogatih in uspešnih industrijskih deželah, skušajo na vse načine poslati sem svoja premoženja in investicije. Nekako mora že biti nekaj prav s to Ameriko.

Lahko bi našteval materialna bogastva. Vendar so tudi druge dežele, ki imajo veliko naravnih dobrin in dobro urejeno gospodarstvo. Mogoče veliko bolj važen je ameriški ustavni, pravni in politični sistem.

Ideje demokracije so se pričele že v antični Grčiji. Bile so uporabljene tu in tam v Evropi. A šele v Združenih državah so se osnove demokratične družbene ustave združile s smotrno razdelitvijo oblasti med uravnovešene dele osrednje zvezne ustave. Kar je bil pred dvesto leti le lep ideal, je počasi, z večimi padci vmes, vendarle uspel in zrastel v trdno državno in družbeno stavbo.

Združene države imajo danes najstarejšo veljavno in učinkovito ustavo na svetu. Vendar črka ustave kot taka ne zagotavlja uspešnega delovanja državnega in družbenega sistema. Veliko drugih dežel posnema ameriško ustavo. Ustavno besedilo nekaterih južnoameriških držav je skoraj dobesedna prestava ameriške, a učinki niso enaki.

Lahko bi podal daljšo razčlenbo ameriškega ustavnega in pravnega sestojaja, a vas ne bi rad dolgočasil s profesorsko razpravo.

V tej deželi imamo več kot le najboljšo ustavo in pravni sistem. Važen je tudi duh, v katerem življenje poteka. Težko je točno nakazati, kaj je skrivnost ameriškega uspeha. A mogoče bom to lahko razložil z mislijo, ki mi že dolgo živi v spominu. Prvič sem jo zaznal doma v domovini, čeprav ne prav dobro razumel takrat nje pomen.

Kot petnajstletnik sem šel v družbi sošolcev na majniški izlet po lepi Dolenjski. Pešočili smo od Škofelje do Turjaka in Velikih Lašč. Tam je bil sredi trga spomenik pesnika in književnika Frana Levstika, ki se je rodil v bližnji vasi Spodnje Retnje 1831. leta. Na vznožju spomenika je bil kratak Levstikov verz:

*Sam stoj, sam se bori,
nase bodi sam oprt,
sam z usodo se zgovori,
stoj ali padi junaško v smrt.*

Mnogokrat sem mislil na te vrstice po prihodu v Ameriko. Prepričan sem, da ste tudi drugi mislili podobno. Karkoli je vsak od nas lahko dosegel tukaj, za to je moral pošteno delati. Zaslužek in uspehi niso bili podeljeni zastoj. Ali ameriški sistem je zagotovil, da smo dobili primerno plačilo in priznanje za naše delo in da sadove našega truda lahko tudi uživamo v miru, pa čeprav moramo nekaj prispevati z davki za javno blaginjo. V tej prostosti tukajšnje življenje daleč prekaša druge sisteme, žalibog tudi sistem, ki še vedno prevladuje v lepi Sloveniji.

V zaviranju našega sistema nas mnogokrat zunaj obsojajo, da smo individualistični potrošniki (»consumerists«). Res je, da je poudarek na posamezniku in njegovem uspehu. Čeprav imajo ponekod krasno urejene socialne zakonodaje, vprašanje je, kako lete delujejo in če njih sistem lahko plačuje vsa taka bremena.

Tukajšnje javno varstvo in skrbstvo ni tako slabo, kot pravijo kritiki, čeprav moramo priznati, da je mnogo napak. Kar je res, je, da se tu lahko prosto zabavlja, nasprotuje in uspešno predlaga nove rešitve, ki jih demokratični sistem počasi uveljavlja.

Odprtost javne, politične in družbene kritike je velika sila, ki pomaga prenavljati in stalno boljšati družbeni sestoj Amerike. Vendar je osnovna misel pri tem še vedno, kar je predsednik Kennedy povedal v svojem sprejemnem govoru: »Ne sprašuj, kaj bo dežela naredila zate, vprašaj, kaj lahko ti narediš za tvojo deželo.«

Za Majniško deklaracijo 1989!

V približno enem stoletju in pol smo se Slovenci v naglem kulturnem, družbenem, gospodarskem in političnem razvoju afirmirali kot moderen evropski narod. Navkljub temu pa nas še vedno prištevajo med tako imenovane »nezgodovinske« narode in da smo narod zamudnik. Zakaj? Zato ker nismo načrtno gradili svoje državnosti in smo brez svoje suverene države. Vse doslej še nismo dosegli najvišjega političnega ideala slehernega naroda: lastne države.

Le lastna država more varovati in braniti slovenske narodne interese, le v lastni državi bomo mogli v polni meri ohranjati in uveljavljati slovensko individualnost — kar je v dobro vsega človeštva —, le s slovensko državo bomo postali subjekt, in ne le predmet, v evropski in svetovni družbi narodov, le če bomo imeli lastno državo, se nam bo mogoče enakopravno pogovarjati in sklepati dogovore in pogodbe z drugimi narodi.

Brez lastne države smo Slovenci in slovenska zemlja le nekakšna upravna enota, pa naj se imenuje dežela, provinca ali banovina v kraljevski Jugoslaviji ali pa »socialistična republika« SFRJ. V vsakem slučaju odločajo in imajo zadnjo besedo o najvažnejših življenjskih vprašanjih slovenskega naroda ali na Dunaju, ali v Rimu, ali v Beogradu, nikakor pa ne v slovenski prestolici Ljubljani, kar pomeni, da je narodu odvzeta pravica izrekatii sodbo o samem sebi in svoji bodočnosti.

Ko se bližamo koncu 20. stoletja, v času razpadanja komunizma kot svetovnega pojava, ker sta ga neusmiljeno prehitela in zapustila na strani poti tako znanost kot zgodovina, v času evropskega presnavljanja, v tem prelomnem času ne smemo Slovenci zamuditi zgodovinske priložnosti, ki bo verjetno zadnja, da uveljavimo narodno suverenost in pravico do samoodločbe v lastni državi in postanemo kot narod enakopravni drugim narodom.

Podobno kot Majniška deklaracija leta 1917, postaja Majniška deklaracija 1989 za vse Slovence resnično obvezen narodno-politični program za naš čas.

Majniška deklaracija 1989 zahteva suvereno državo slovenskega naroda. Slovenci ne smemo zahtevati ali privoliti v nekaj, kar je manj kot to. Suverene slovenske države ni, če je njena oblast podeljena, dodeljena, omejena, pogojno priznana, okrnjena po neki drugi suverenosti. Vsa oblast je od suverena slovenskega naroda.

Majniška deklaracija 1989 zahteva resnično demokracijo. Resnične demokracije ni v »demokratičnem centralizmu« in enopartijskem sistemu. Do resnične demokracije tudi ne pridemo samo z geslom: en človek, en glas. Prava demokracija bo uresničena le tam, kjer bodo obveljali: načelo samoodločbe narodov, zaščita osnovnih pravic manjšine in priznavanje krajevne avtonomije, poleg seveda demokratične državne ureditve.

Majniška deklaracija 1989 povsem pravilno upošteva dejstvo, da smo Slovenci evropski narod popolnoma zakoreninjen v evropsko kulturno izročilo. Samo v Evropi bomo mogli preživeti kot samobiten narod.

Uresničitev Majniške deklaracije 1989 bo odprla pot za neoviran razvoj slovenskega naroda.

Majniško deklaracijo 1989 so podpisali slovenski pesniki, pisatelji in skladatelji, vse opozicionalne politične skupine in gotove študentske in mladinske organizacije. Podpirajo jo tudi množice demokratično mislečih Slovencev v domovini.

Demokratična opozicija v domovini pa želi, da njih težnje, zahteve in delo podpro tudi Slovenci, raztreseni po svetu.

Moremo reči, da je dolžnost slehernega človeka slovenskega rodu, ki imamo še nekaj slovenske zavesti in spoštovanja do svojega narodnega izročila, še prav posebno tistih, ki živimo v demokratičnih deželah, da moralno, materialno in tudi sicer po svojih močeh podpremo demokratične sile, njih delo in napore v domovini, ki je še za mnoge od nas rojstna domovina, za mnoge pa domovina staršev in prednikov.

Najmanj pa, kar v danem trenutku moremo napraviti, je, da s svojim podpisom podpremo zahteve Majniške deklaracije 1989.

Vztrajno iskanje pravice

(Družina, 15.10.1989) — V ponedeljek, 2. oktobra, so v Slomškovem domu Mohorjeve družbe slovesno odprli »dvojezično privatno ljudsko šolo«, imenovano tudi »konfesionalno«, saj je njen »vzgojni smoter krščansko-etičen« — kot je poudarila Marica Hartman-Tischler, ravnateljica nove šole. »Blagoslavljam to šolo, vzgojiteljico kulture in razuma!« je ob blagoslovu šolskih prostorov dejal celovski škof Egon Kapellari. Bil je tvegan poskus celovške Mohorjeve, da v koroški metropoli odpre dvojezično šolo, bil je to dolgoletni sen koroških rojakov onstran Karavank. Tveganje je bilo uspešno, sen je postal resnica za 41 učencev, ki so že 11. septembra začeli redni šolski pouk; z leti se bo to število še povečalo — morda na sto ali še čez. »Vsaka nova šola je pomemben kulturni in civilizacijski dogodek,« je med drugimi govorniki pozdravil novo slovensko šolo dr. Ludvik Horvat, predsednik Republiškega komiteja za vzgojo in izobraževanje SRS.

MEMENTO MORI

Dolgost življenja našega je kratka.

Kaj znancev je zasula že lopata!

Odprta noč in dan so grôba vrata;

al'dneva ne pove nobena prat'ka.

Pred smrtjo ne obvárje koža gladka, od nje nas ne odkup'jo kupi zlâta,

ne odpodí od nas življenja tata

veselja hrup, ne pevcev pesem sladka.

Naj zmisli, kdor slepôto ljubi svéta in od veselja do veselja leta, da smrtna žetev vsak dan bolj dozóri.

Znabiti, da kdor zdaj vesel prepeva,

v mrtvaškem prtú nam pred koncem dneva močno trobental bo: "Memento Mori".

Poziv za letošnjo misijonsko nedeljo 22. oktobra za vzdrževanje domačih bogoslovcev v velikem semenišču Ggaba, Kampala, Uganda, je do 20. oktobra rodil peplepe sadove. Enajst vzdrževalnin je že obljubljenih od teh dobrotnikov: M.M., Cleveland, A.C., Joliet, J. in B.M., Cleveland, g. Franc Šeškar, München, Nemčija, Harry in Gabriella Outhet, Robert Hendry, Joan Atance, Margaret Barrett, Charlotte in Edward Dalton in Charles in Vera Morrison. Teh zadnjih 6 je iz naše fare Marijinega Brezmadežnega Srca, ki je imela letos privilegij v nadškofiji, da je priredila misijonsko razstavo in imela za vse pridige domačega duhovnika iz Nigerije, Afrika, ki v Torontu študije nadaljuje iz Kongregacije Svetega Duha (CSSP).

Akcijo še nadaljujemo, dokler ne bomo dobili pomoč $300 za vsako leto za vseh 20 poslanih nam kandidatov. Ker je za eno leto v 4. letniku samo 7 kandidatov, bodo nekateri dobrotniki verjetno radi vzeli kakega iz tretjega ali drugega letnika, radi česar bo potrebna pomoč še za eno ali dve dodatni leti.

Seveda smo vsem dobrotnikom(-cam), ki so tako lepo takoj priskočili na pomoč, iz vsega srca v imenu podprtih in njih vzgojiteljev v Ugandi hvaležni.

Sv. Vincencij je za formiranje duhovnikov v Cerкви veliko storil v zadnjih stoletjih, tako s semenišči kot delom v misijonih. Vzgojiti enega duhovnika v Cerкви je veliko dobro delo za rast krščanstva v razvijajočih se deželah. MZA pioniri v to smer že od vseh začetkov.

Čevlje iz Slovenije na ameriškem trgu

(Delo, 17.10.89) - Kolektiv Peka v Trziču, Slovenija, se je odločil za prodajo ženske modne obutve na ameriškem trgu. Na avgustovskem sejmu v New Yorku, je povedal Marko Tomažin, pomočnik KPO, ki skrbi za trženje, je Peko postavil na ogled kolekcijo, narejeno posebej za Američane. Kolekcijo je oblikoval eden vodilnih italijanskih oblikovalcev obutve in mode Burgatto iz Padove. Cilj Peka je prodaja ženske modne obutve v višjem srednjem razredu, v katerem so lahko konkurenčni predvsem s kakovostjo.

Za poskusni prodor na ameriški trg se je Peko odločil zaradi vse težjih možnosti za trženje v Evropi. Hkrati pa imajo z Američani že dobre izkušnje, saj izdelujejo zahtevno obutev za lastnike firme Rockport. Naročila iz te firme skokovito naraščajo iz leta v leto, tako da bodo letos poslali pod imenom Rockport že 1,2 milijona parov čevljev. Čevlje, ki jih bodo naročali ameriški kupci pri Peku po newyorškem sejmu, bodo začeli šivati že v prihodnjih mesecih.
