HAPPY NEW YEAR

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi... A New Year's Resolution

O Lord, our Christ, may we have Thy mind and Thy spirit; make us instruments of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is discord, union; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

The above prayer is a most fitting thought for the New Year. It certainly includes any resolution that we may make.

To Be Sworn in as Chief Justice Today

The public is invited to the ceremonies which will take place today, December 31st at 10:30 a.m. in Room 217, City Council Committee Room, 2nd floor, City Hall, when Judge August Pryatel will be sworn in as Chief Justice of the Cleveland Municipal Court.

He was appointed to the post by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to replace Chief Justice John V. Busher, who resigned December 1st, and was the only jurist recommended for this important post by both the Cleveland Bar Association and the Cuyahoga County Bar Association.

The Presiding Officer will be Court of Appeals Judge Joy Seth Hurd and the Oath of Office will be administered by Common Pleas Judge Thomas J. Parrino. Among those present at the swearing-in ceremonies will be Mayor Anthony Celebrezze, Louis Drasler, Service Director, and the Slovenian Councilmen John Fakult and John Kovacic. Congratulations and good luck!

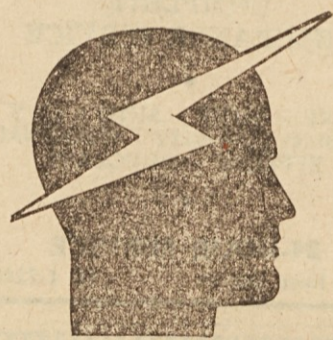

Oh Dear, Oh Dear, What A Record Bag of Deer!

Club D-D of 8429 Lorain Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, trumped it out into the wilds of Tidicle, Pa., on a deer hunt that proved very profitable for their New Year's Party. The group, headed by John Dashner and wife Dora (after whom the club is named), bagged 15 does, all men in the group bagging the limit of one. When the buck season opened, they shot down nine bucks, with Dora and hubby John nabbing one each, John getting a doe, too, in the doe season. Joe Kovach of the same address, topped them all with a catch of four deer in all, which is the limit!

We know that the New Year's Party at 8429 Lorain Ave., will be a huge success. Our mouths are already watering up for a bite of the venison.

They had quarrelled, so she returned two of his gifts — a comb and brush.

"It will make the parting easier," she wrote.

BRAINPOWER IS OUR MOST VITAL RESOURCE!

You can't dig education out of the earth. There's only one place where business and industry can get the educated men and women so vitally needed for future progress. That's from our colleges and universities.

Today these institutions are doing their best to meet the need. But they face a crisis. The demand for brains is increasing fast, and so is the pressure of college applications.

More money must be raised each year to expand facilities — bring faculty salaries up to an adequate standard — provide a sound education for the young people who need and deserve it.

As a practical business measure, help the colleges or universities of your choice — now! The returns will be greater than you think.

If you want to know what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.

New Year's Night Wrestling Special!

Lord Layton and Ilio DiPaolo will defend their tag team title and trophy against former champions Mike and Doc Gallagher again this week — Friday (New Year's) night, at Public Auditorium — and the huskies have been ordered to enter the ring at 10 p.m. in an effort to reach a decision.

Saturday night the keen tag rivals battled 35 wild minutes without a fall, the bout halted by the 11 p.m. curfew. The 10 o'clock starting time mandate is expected to provide sufficient time for a verdict in the return match.

The special holiday program Friday night will also feature a tag team tussle for midget wrestlers — Tiny Tim and "Dandy Andy" Moore opposing Sky Low Low and Billy The Kid.

An exceptionally attractive lineup of singles supporting bouts has been arranged by matchmaker Pedro Martinez, including the return of crowd-pleasing Don Eagle and the local debut of Browns' football star Sid Youngelman.

Colorful Don Eagle will battle Baron Gattoni, and Youngelman will seek to pin Raoul Lopez.

Waldo Von Erich will bump into Tony Marino — and one other bout will be added.

Ringside and reserved seats — at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00 — are on sale at The Arena (3700 Euclid Ave.) and Richman's (736 Euclid).

There will also be available 7,000 General Admission seats at $1.00 — THE BIGGEST BUCK'S WORTH OF ENTERTAINMENT IN CLEVELAND! First Bout at 8:30 p.m. — Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

1960 Dog Licenses on Sale Now

John J. Carney, County Auditor announces that dog owners may apply for their 1960 Dog Licenses from now until January 20th at Room 121, County Administration Building, Lakeside and Ontario, or at one of the branch offices established for their convenience.

Over 73,000 dogs were registered for 1959. These licenses expire December 31, 1959 and must be renewed by January 20th, 1960.

License fees are $2.00 for each male, female or spayed female dog. Penalty for failure to register dog by January 20, 1960 is $1.00; this will be strictly enforced according to law.

Among the branch offices are the following: Small Animal Clinic, 18235 Euclid-Green Shopping Center, Glenville Pet Shop, 10638 St. Clair Ave., East Cleveland City Hall, 14340 Euclid Ave., and Euclid Veterinary Hospital, 25580 Lakeland Blvd.

Colts Share Trim Sum:
From Sunday's net receipts of $555,742 in the National Football League's championship game, the players' 70 percent share amounted to a record $389,020.21. The individual's cut was not as high as last year, however, because the players voted more shares.

Each of the Colts, who declared 44 5/6 shares, received $4,674.44. The Giants distributed 45 shares worth $3,083.27 each.

Need Special Talent:
Arizona football Coach Jim Larue says a good college quarterback is easier to find than a good tackle. He explains: "You can't teach a boy to be 240 pounds and 6 feet, 4 inches."

Floyd, Ingo Fight Due in June:
World heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson agreed this week to meet Floyd Patterson in New York sometime next June. Roy Cohn, head of the New York promoter group, said he preferred the Polo Grounds over Yankee Stadium for the rematch. The fight should yield a gate of at least one and a quarter million dollars.

Cohn added that his group would now apply to the New York State Athletic Commission for permission to hold the world title fight.

Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's adviser, said that once this permission is granted the remainder of the problem is only a detail.

Rickey Hopeful of 1961 Beginning for League:
Branch Rickey, president of the new Continental Baseball League, announced the Dallas-Forth Worth area has been awarded the seventh league franchise and it practically assures that the third major league will be playing in 1961. Rickey said he is confident that the eighth and final franchise will be awarded to either Buffalo or Montreal.

The other six franchises have already been awarded to Houston, Denver, Atlanta, Toronto, Minneapolis-St. Paul and New York City.

This Lipstick for the Birds:
L. Harold Wright said his wife hunting pheasants with him, raised her shotgun to fire, but there was only a click when she pulled the trigger.

She had shoved a tube of lipstick into the chamber, thinking it was a shotgun shell.

Birth

A baby girl was born December 23rd to Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Bratina of 21171 Lake Shore Blvd. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Modic of the same address and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bratina of 16207 Hortmore Ave. This is the first grandchild on both sides, so it was a lovely Christmas present for everyone. Congratulations!

Small Fry Like Fuddy-Duddies School-Agers — Caramel Apples

Children will come running for "Fuddy-Duddies" once they have tried these wholesome sweets. Bite-size, they are just right for the preschoolers. Fuddy-Duddies please mother, too. In addition to being good for the children, they are easy to make and involve no baking. The use of breakfast cereals in confections increases their nutritional value by the addition of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy.

Crispy Caramel Apples will make a hit with the school-age crowd. Juicy apples are coated with caramel and then rolled in oven-toasted rice cereal. The use of cereal on the apples in lieu of expensive nuts, not only decreases the cost, but it increases the nutritive value of the treat.

- Cereal Fuddy-Duddies
- ¼ pound (4 squares) semi-sweet chocolate
 - 32 plastic or heavy wooden picks
 - ½ pound marshmallows
 - 1½ cups oven-toasted rice cereal, regular, presweetened, or cocoa flavor
- Place chocolate in custard cup in pan of hot water and let melt. Insert picks in marshmallows and dip roll in melted chocolate to cover sides and bottom leaving top uncoated. Roll in cereal. Stand upright on waxed paper to cool. Yield: 32 confections.
- Crispy Caramel Apples
- 1 pound caramels
 - 2 tablespoons water
 - 3 heavy wooden skewers
 - 8 medium-sized eating apples, washed
 - 3 cups oven-toasted rice cereal, regular, presweetened, or cocoa flavor
- Combine caramels and water in small covered saucepan; place over low heat and melt caramels, stirring frequently. Insert wooden skewers in stem ends of apples. Swirl apples in caramel mixture to cover completely. Lift out of caramel mix and hold over pan to drain. Swirl apples while draining. Roll in cereal at once. Stand on waxed paper to cool and set. Yield: 8 Caramel Apples.

Baby Sitter Rules Given by the NBFU

- If you're planning on having a baby sitter in during the holiday period, the National Board of Fire Underwriters offers these suggestions to keep your Christmas merry:
1. Know the sitter; make inquiries about training and family background.
 2. Employ only sitters who have a sense of responsibility and who like children.
 3. Try to have the same sitter regularly if possible, and one who lives nearby.
 4. Have a preliminary interview with sitter. Acquaint her with the children and pets, especially the watchdog.
 5. Give instructions orally and leave them in writing.
 6. Show sitter all exits and how to get children out of house in case of fire.
 7. Give the sitter the telephone number of the fire department, family doctor, and place to which they (parents or adult members of the family) are going. Also, what neighbor to call in the event of any emergency.
 8. If there is no phone, explain to sitter other means of notifying fire department in case of a fire.
 9. Caution sitter against permitting child to play with matches, electric cords, or other electric appliances. Also, tell her to keep the child out of the kitchen, if possible.
 10. If sitter is to bathe youngster, make certain she has had such experience.
 11. Leave a first aid kit with sitter and explain how to take care of simple burns, cuts, bruises.
 12. Be sure sitter understands that in a fire emergency she should get the child out of the house, then call the fire department, then notify parents.
 13. Provide flashlights for use in case lighting should fail.
 14. Always come home at the hour agreed upon; telephone if delayed.
 15. Make suitable and safe arrangements for accompanying the sitter home.

Polish State Folk Ballet To Make Cleveland Debut

Unique among song and dance ensembles of the world is "Slask" the exciting Polish State Folk Ballet which S. Hurok is introducing to the United States and Canada on a 25 city tour which opened Friday, Oct. 30th at Boston. Following a Broadway engagement, the troupe began a cross-country swing which will bring it to the Music Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings, January 8 and 9th and Sunday matinee, January 10th.

Young, as companies go — it was founded in 1953 — it has a glorious heritage of colorful folk-lore.

"Slask" is the idea of Stanislaw Hadyna, a well-known Silesian composer and writer, and son of a celebrated folk-song collector. His idea for a youth ensemble which would perpetuate the folk music of Poland met with favor, and in November, 1952, he set about recruiting the first members of this group.

He wanted sincere young people, with charm and good voices which could be properly trained or with ballet training. His problem was not in merely finding talent, but in discovering talent both fresh and unspoiled by stage routine. He had to use persuasion... and in many cases, with parents uneasy about their children's future.

Not content with his own recruiting campaign, the indefatigable Hadyna launched a radio campaign in order to reach the widest possible number of young people.

There was an amazing response. More than 12,000 applicants, eager to become a part of the new organization, swamped those who had arranged for interviews and auditions. The Ministry of Culture made the Youth Palace in Katowice available and examinations were held for the next six months.

During this period, the committee selected one out of every hundred, so that by May of 1953, 120 girls and boys from all parts of Poland, but mainly from Silesia were ready to begin the exciting venture of starting a career and becoming part of something brand new. Most of the young people were children of peasants and working families and had never been away from their homes before. Their ages ranged between 15 and 16.

The Government had allotted to "Slask" the historic castle of Duke of Hohenlohe in Koszecz. This beautiful castle, located on a hill just beyond the village, had figured prominently in Poland's history. King Jan Sobieski stayed there during the period of his Vienna Campaign.

In July, 1953, all reported to the castle and took up their new life. To this day, they live in the castle as a huge family, operating a republic of their own. They even have their own newspaper, and their soccer team competes with teams from other villages and towns.

The tremendous enthusiasm of the young people carried them through the early days of organization and the beginning of their training. Very few had previous musical training, especially the ballet candidates who had to start with basic training. Mrs. Elwira Kaminska, choreographer for the company, outlined the dancing course and started training her people.

Those who were to become singers began a course that comprised solfeggio, folklore study, music principles and harmony, solo vocal study in groups, lessons on musical instruments, and diction.

At the same time the group's general education was continued.

The founder, Stanislaw Hadyna, became the company's director, artistic manager and conductor. Mrs. Kaminska was ballet mistress, as well as choreographer.

As the training continued and work started on the first program, extensive research was being done on costumes and folk-lore of Silesia. Msgr. Ligeza of the Silesian Museum in Bytom supplied many documents relating to folk-lore of Upper Silesia and others came from the Polish Science Academy in Krakow. Actual execution of the costumes was by the High State Plastic School in Gdansk under the direction of Mrs. Josefa Wnukowa.

The embroideries were created by peasant artists in the village of Koniakow in the Beskid mountains under the direction of Maria Gwar-kowa, the famous Polish embroiderer.

"Slask" made its first appearance in the fall of 1954 in Warsaw and was an immediate success. The press hailed these young heirs of the old minstrel tradition.

Since that first concert, their songs and dances have been performed before more than three million spectators. They have toured through the Netherlands, Belgium, France, Germany, Austria and the USSR. Their repertoire now includes some 500 songs and dances. Hundreds of costumes accompany them as they bring their unusual company to America for the first time.

Tickets are on sale now, mail orders or in person, at Burrows, 419 Euclid Ave. and at the office of the Cleveland Opera Ass'n, 2816 Euclid Ave. Patrons with charge accounts at Higbee's may order and charge tickets at Higbee's Music Center.

New March of Dimes Telethon

Toastmaster General of the United States, George Jessel will be one of the headliners who will M. C. the host of stars from the entertainment capitals of the world that will be performing on the all-in-person television spectacular emanating from WJW-TV in Cleveland, for the benefit of the Northeast Ohio County Chapters of the New March of Dimes the weekend of January 9 and 10.

The star-studded show on Channel 8 begins at 11:20 p.m. Saturday and continue uninterrupted throughout the entire night to late Sunday afternoon.

Tim Kirby, one of New York's most popular night club balladeers; the internationally renowned Takeuchi Keigo — Imperial Japanese Dancers; Manhattan's lustrous Virginia Graham; Columbia Recording Artist Leslie Uggams; a television western hero and many others will also be flying to Cleveland especially to perform on the telethon.

The colorful Jessel has long been one of the entertainment world's headlining attractions. He is affectionately dubbed the Toastmaster General of the United States because of his thousands of public appearances in most every city in the country. He has been a guest on every major radio and television show and has won several awards for his performances in motion pictures and on Broadway. Jessel has done command performances for both presidents and the crowned rulers of the world.

Kirby has performed in every medium of show business, including his own television show, radio, motion pictures and Broadway. One of his most applauded roles was in the Ziegfeld Follies which starred Tallulah Bankhead.

The six glamorous Daughters from the Land of the Rising Sun who make up the Imperial Japanese Dancers, are being made available for the tremendous Telethon cast through the courtesy of Herman Pirschner, proprietor of Cleveland's Alpine Village. The dancers were first brought to this country by Ed Sullivan. Since their smashing success on his network TV show, they have performed in many of the nation's most fabulous night spots.

All funds raised on the Telethon will go to the New March of Dimes County Chapters who are co-sponsoring the event. Thus far, Cuyahoga, Crawford, Lake, Ashtabula, Summit, Lorain, Medina, Portage, Trumbull, and Geauga County Chapters are participating. Other chapters are currently being invited to join.

Each participating chapter will receive a pro-rated share of the Telethon funds raised according to the number of contributions from within its area. With the New March of Dimes leading the way to the eventual conquest of polio, the National Foundation has broadened its attack on crippling diseases through its new efforts in the fields of birth defects and arthritis.

A recent survey reveals that there were more cases of paralytic polio in 1959 than when the March of Dimes Foundation was formed in 1938.

Virginia Graham and Leslie Uggams both are frequent visitors on the Jack Parr TV show. Miss Graham will be Co-M. C. with Jessel.

The 16-year-old jazz and spiritual singer, Leslie Uggams, gained fame on the TV-network musical quiz, "Name That Tune." She made her dramatic debut this summer in the Tennessee Williams play, "Property Condemned."

Dr. Benjamin Spock, Professor of Child Development at Western Reserve University School of Medicine, and Jerry Swartzberg, President of Sterling-Lindner Cleveland Department Store, are the New March of Dimes Telethon co-chairmen.

Arthur S. Bostwick of Fuller and Smith and Ross, Cleveland, is chairman of the VIP (very important persons) committee. The VIP panel will be composed of prominent area persons in Industry, Commerce, Business, Labor, and Government, along with top sports and civic personalities and religious leaders of all denominations.

Children's Activities Committee Chairman, Joseph Zucker of Wolfe Envelope Co., announced that gifts will be handed out to children who come down to the studio to meet the stars and present their contributions to them personally while on camera. The gifts are being donated to the New March of Dimes by F. W. Woolworth Co, Pick-N-Pay, and Canada Life Assurance Company.

Stouffers Restaurants have donated the food and refreshments for all the telethon cast and personnel during the performance.

Ohio Bell Telephone Company operators have volunteered to staff the phones which will be on-camera at the Channel 8 studios to accept pledges from the public during the entire performance.
