URADNO GLASILO JUGOSLOVANSKE KATOLIŠKE JEDNOTE — OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE SOUTH SLAVONIC CATHOLIC UNION

NO. 7 — ŠTEV. 7

CLEVELAND, O., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15TH 1933 — SREDA, 15. FEBRUARJA 1933

VOL. IX. — LETNIK IX.

DRUŠTVE IN DRUGE SLOVENSKE VESTI

V današnji izdaji Nove Dobe je priobčen iniciativni predlog društva št. 6 J. S. K. Jednote, katerega namen je preklic konvenčne resolucije, ki nalaga glavnemu odboru gradnjo lastnega uradnega poslopja v mestu Ely, Minn. Razprave o iniciativnem predlogu se pričnejo 19. februarja in se zaključijo 20. aprila. Društvo naj na svojih sejah vzamejo iniciativni predlog v pretres in z večino odločijo, da-l i omenjeni predlog podpirajo ali ne. Ako predlog podpirajo, to je, da se strinjajo s preklicem resolucije, naj to naznanijo na glavni urad. Društvo lahko o tozadevnih sklepih poročajo tudi v uradnem glasilu, neobhodno potrebno pa to ni. Ako bo predlog tekom 60 dni dobil toliko podpore, kot pravila predpisujejo in kot je v svojem pojasnilu označil glavni tajnik, pride na splošno glasovanje.

Bruščto Ilirska Vila, št. 173 J. S. K. Jednote v Clevelandu, O., priredi v nedeljo 19. februarja zabaven večer za člane in njih prijetelje. Prireditev se bo vršila v sobi št. 1, novo poslopje S. N. Doma na St. Clair Ave., in se prične ob sedmih zvečer. Vstopnina je prosta.

Društvo Napredek, št. 132 J. S. K. Jednote v Euclidu, O., priredi v soboto 18. februarja zvezcer predpustno veselico v Slovenskem društvem domu.

Slovenska podpora društva v Enumclawu, Wash., priredijo skupno maškeradno veselico na pustno soboto zvečer, to je 25. februarja. Veselica se bo vršila v Krajin dvorani.

"Madam Bonivard" se imenuje zanimiva komična tridejanka, katero vprizori dramsko društvo "Ivan Cankar" v Clevelandu, O., v nedeljo 26. februarja.

Slovenski dom v Sharonu, Pa., priredi predpustno veselico na večer 19. februarja.

V Duluthu, Minn., je po kratki bolezni umrl John Ribarich Sr., star 46 let, član društva št. 197 JSKJ. Započela soproga, dva sina in eno hčer.

Slovenski Sokol v Clevelandu je preteklo nedeljo zopet enkrat pokazal kipečo mladostno silo s krasnimi telovadnimi nastopi Sokolov, Sokolic, dorasta in naščaja. Gostovali so tudi Sokol iz Collinwooda, Sokol iz Euclida in češki Sokol Havliček. Nastopi vseh skupin so bili takoj lepi, zanimivi in precizni, da je občinstvo sledilo precej dolgu programu z zanimanjem in odobravanjem do konca. Pošte prireditev je bil tako mnogočelen, kot da še ni nihče v deželi slišal o depresiji. Mladostna svežost Sokolov je kot čudovita magična sila razjasnila lica vseh navzočih, ki so se po zaključeni telovadbi podali v spodnje prostore, kjer se je razvila nadve lepa, živahnina in prijateljska prosta zabava. Kjub gneči in splošni razigranosti občinstva je zabava potekala in se zaključila v poznih urah v najlepšem razpoloženju. Tudi bratje Čehi, katerih je bilo precej število navzočih, so se po vsem videzu dobro počutili v slovenski družbi. Bil je lep so... (Dalej na 4. strani)

IZSELJEVANJE iz Zedinjnih držav je bilo v lanskem letu znatno više kot priseljevanje. Tekom zadnjih šestih mesecov preteklega leta se je izselilo 155,417 oseb, priselilo pa jih je v istem času le 90,376.

V NEW YORKU je dne 9. februarja umrl Lawrence Jons-ton, eden izmed pionirjev v gradnji ameriških železnic, star (Dalej na 4. strani)

RAZNO IZ AMERIKE IN INOZEMSTVA

HUDA ZIMA je pretekli te- den objela skoro vse Zedinjene države. Občuten mraz se je ognil le prav južnih držav. Ostra zimska burja s snegom je divjala preko vsega zapada, srednjega zapada, severa in vzhoda. Temperatura je po nekod po severozapadu padla na 50 pod ničem in še nižje. V Chicago je temperatura padla na 18 pod ničem. V Clevelandu je topomer kazal 5 stopinj pod ničem, v okolici pa še nekaj stopenj nižje.

Ostra zima in sneženi meteži so ponekod skoro ustavili vse promet za nekaj časa. Najbolj prizadet pa je bil seveda avtomobilski in zračni promet. Ne-navadno huda zima je odgovorna tudi za večje število smrtnih nesreč širok dežele.

PRIMANJKLJAJ v zvezni blagajni vedno raste in postavodajalc v kongresu nikakor ne morejo najti prave poti iz zagate. Zdaj se dela na to, da se novoizvoljenemu predsedniku Rooseveltu poveri skoro diktatorska moč, da radikalno skrči izdatke zvezne vlade, ko zavza-me predsedniško mesto.

ZADEVA Tom Mooneya, delavskega voditelja, ki se nahaja že 16 let v californijskih zaprih, bo v kratkem ponovno prišla na površje. Odvetnika Walsha iz New Yorka in Gallaghera iz Los Angelesa, bosta skušala na višjem sodišču v San Franciscu izposlovati za novo obravnavo.

PREDLOGE za starostno penzijo so vložene v legislatu- rah sledenih držav: Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Rhode Island, Washington, Oregon, Oklahoma, Arizona, Nevada, Nebraska, Georgia, Colorado, New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Minnesota, California in Maryland.

PO DEŽELI "trempa" okoli en milijon brezposelnih moških in žensk, med njimi mnogo takih, ki so komaj odrasli deški dobi. Tekom prvih devetih mesecev preteklega leta je bilo na želnicah ponesrečenih skoro pet tisoč teh "tremrov." Ubitih je bilo 1,958, poškodovanih pa 3,024.

V GOROVJU države Kentucky, nedaleč od mesta Inez, so prišli te dni na sled neki verski sekti, ki se poslužuje človeških žrtv pri svojih obredih. To je prišlo na dan, ko so fanatiki ubili neko starejšo žensko kot versko žrtvo. Oblasti, ki zadevo preiskujejo, so pronašle, da so verski fanatiki nameravali ubiti še šest nadaljnih žrtv, in sicer deklet. Vse priča omenjene verske sekte so oblasti polovile in zaprle ter pridejo pred veliko poroto v aprilu. Skoro nevrjetno se sliši, da je kaj takega mogoče v tej deželi in v teh časih.

IZDATKI KANDIDATA

Potjava dolga, da mora vsak kandidat za javni urad, brez ozira na to, če je bil izvoljen ali ne, predložiti v določenem roku visokost izdatkov, ki jih je imel v svoji kampanji. Neki poraženi kandidati za okrajnega komisarja je baje predložil prisotnim oblastim sledenih seznamek izdatkov:

"Izgubil sem 1,349 ur spanja, kar je vredno toliko dolarjev. Izgubil sem dva svoja najboljša zeba in šop las v osebnem pretepu radi tarife, kar je vredno 45 dolarjev. Podaril sem 14 parov naramnic, 18 oblek, 46 predpaskov, 14 otroških rotoputljic in pet dolarjev gotovine, kar znaša $93.40.

PREDSEDNIKOV KABINET

Državni tajnik

Secretary of State je glavni član predsedniškega kabimenta in prvi v vrsti za nasledstvo v predsedništvo. On vodi po na-vodilu predsednika zunanje zadeve, kajti on je edini federalni uradnik, ki je opolnomočen po-govarjati se z zastopniki inozemskih držav v imenu Združenih držav. On je na čelu diplomatične službe, ki obsegata 52 poslankov v inozemstvu, kakor tudi konzularne službe. On tudi predstavlja vez med vlado Združenih držav in posamezni državami Unije. V njegovih shrambi so izvirnik mednarodnih pogodb, zakonov in uradnih arhivov, kakor tudi veliki pečat Združenih držav. Zato on s svojim podpisom in pečatom poverja podpis predsednika na vsakem proglašu ali v izvirniku kakve pogodbe. Potni listi ameriških državljanov nosijo njegov podpis.

"Prehodil sem 157 let, za kar nič ne računam, toda tegena stornim več. Skušal sem postopljivo eno mlado mater, kar tudi ne bom več skušal. Zakuril sem ogenj v 14 kuhinjah in 18 solah in postavil sedem peči, kar rečunal na $39.00.

"Prehodil sem 4,067 milij in raztrgal za približno $100.00 čevljev. Podal sem roko 9,456 osebam, kar ne bi storil več niti za dolar pri komadu. Povedal sem, 10,000 laži, za kar ne računam nič, ker sem po poklicu odvetnik.

"Prisostvoval sem 17 verskim skupiščem, bil sem izpreobrnjen 14-krat, krščen sem bil trikrat s potopljenjem pod vodo in štirikrat drugače, za kar računam zelo zmerno ceno $38.00. Prispeval sem $78.00 za inozemsko misijsko in 15 centov za domačo misijsko, kar da skupno vsoto $78.15.

"Priševal sem ljubezen devetkrat, za kar računam devet dolarjev. Objel sem 78 starih devic, kar je vredno vsaj dva dolarja od komada, torej skupaj $156.00. Od psov sem bil ogrizen 18-krat, kar cenim na $8.00, kolikor je znašala škoda na hlačah; za bolečine ne računam nič. Pri volitvah sem bil poražen z dvernimi glasovoma, ker je moj protikandidat objel 80 starih devic."

Secretary of the Treasury

Za državnim tajnikom najvažnejši član kabimenta je zakladnični ali finančni tajnik. Pod vodstvom predsednika on vodi finančne posete federalne vlade, nadzira pobiranje vladnih dohodkov in izdajanje denarja v zemlji finančnih zakonov, sprejetih od kongresa. On je tudi odgovoren za kovanje denarja, za carinske urade, pomorske službe in sistem svetilnikov.

Tudi urad za poljedelska posojila (Federal Farm Loan Bureau) in urad za javno zdravje (Public Health Service) spadajo pod kongres. Poleg tega imamo poseben oddelek za passporate, pogodbe, vize in urad za prevoze.

Steklarstvo v Hrastniku je dne 4. januarja ugasnila zadnjo peč in s tem je da nedogleden čas konec obrata v tem podjetju. Vrste brezposelnih so se ponovno začeli raztopljeni kovinska sol. Poizkusili so ugotovili, da se mora bolniku dajati vsak drugi dan po ena injekcija in vsaki dve do tri ure dobi bolnik dve do tri žlice apnene vode. Stroga dijeta traja teden dni, zdravljene pa okrog dva tedna. Zanimalo je, da bolečine izginejo že po prvi injekciji. Bolniku med zdravljenjem ni treba ležati, nego mora samo počivati. Zdravljene lahko tudi na domu.

Roentgenove slike so zdravniku pokazale doslej že v preko 160 primerih lepe uspehe. Po zdravljencem mnenju bo mogoče z ulcerosom ozdraviti 99 odstotkov želodčnih čirov. Svoj izum je postal dr. Rado Sfiligoj.

Odsek za prevoze v zvezni blagajni je bil ustanovljen leta 1913. Po zavzetju Amerike je bil dvanajstki sin, Daniel Webster, neprekosljiv govornik svojega časa, je bil četrtni otrok. Abraham Lincoln je bil običajno vredno dobro dobiti v družini mlajši.

Moses, ki je povedel Izraelce iz Egipta v obljubljeno deželo, je bil med tremi otroci najmlajši. Salomon je bil tudi mlajši sin kralja Davida. Izakov sin Jožef, ki so ga njegovi bratje prodali v egiptovsko sužnost in ki je tam postal faraonov ministrski predsednik, je bil dvanajstki sin. Mohamed, ustanovitelj islama, je imel dvajset bratov, ki so bili vsi starejši od njega.

Julij Cesar je bil mlajši otrok v družini, istotno pa je bila močna angleška kraljica Elizabeta. Francoski cesar Napoleon Bonaparte, je bil mlajši otrok; njegov starejši brat ni dosti štel. Wellington, ki je premagal Napoleonoma, je bil šesti otrok. Lord Nelson, najslavnejši angleški admiral je bil mlajši sin. Mlajši sinovi so bili tudi sloveči državnik Gladstone, maršal Foch, apostol evolucije Charles Darwin, moderni filozof Francis, pisatelj Shaw, igralec John Barrymore, boksar Gene Tunney, filmski zvezdnik Rudolph Valentino in drugi.

Nekateri sodijo, da je toliko mogočih dinastij prav zato, da so se preiskujejo tudi v preteklosti.

CURRENT THOUGHT

A Few Facts

Of the many interesting items contained in the minutes of Supreme Board's annual meeting, published in last week's issue, the one on the solvency caught the reader's attention at once.

Juvenile Department was reported as 2,000 per cent solvent and the Adult Department as 104 per cent solvent.

Solvency means ability to pay all just debts. Applying to our Union it refers to the death benefit claims on the law of probable deaths each year, average age of members, and the amount of money in reserve, as computed by actuaries.

Reserve fund in the Juvenile Department is such that the Supreme Board elected to suspend payments of assessments in this branch for the months of February, March and April. Juveniles admitted into the junior branch during these three months are excepted from the Board's ruling.

With such a favorable report, members and their respective lodges should be stimulated to start campaign for new members in the Juvenile Department, as well as similar campaigns for new members in the Adult Department.

Assessments in the junior branch are only 15 cents per month—a factor that makes a strong appeal to the outsider and a good sales argument. And for this small premium the children are insured for amounts ranging between $25 and $450, depending upon their age.

Members, look around in your neighborhood, and you will notice the many children romping and playing around. Many of them carry no insurance whatever. Why not get in touch with their parents and explain to them the attractive arrangements our Union has at their disposal.

Use the foregoing facts to convince your prospect. A great deal of persuasion will not be required, as facts speak for themselves.

Incidentally, members can take an issue of Nova Doba containing a section devoted to our juvenile members, and show it to the fathers and mothers in the neighborhood as a further persuasion to enroll their children into our Union.

SPORT FUND

In view of the adverse economic conditions, it was hardly expected of the Supreme Board to reinstate the Sport Fund into an active class. Although the Sport Fund has been suspended indefinitely, the various athletic-minded lodges should not get the impression that the fund is a lost cause, for as soon as the industries of the nation start moving and unemployment becomes a negligible factor, the program of athletic activities shall be resumed.

LOANS ON RESERVES

Supreme Board decided that interest of 6 per cent per annum shall be charged on loans issued to members on reserves accruing from their certificates. Board further decided that only such loans shall be made for the second six months as shall be necessary to cover assessments, which certainly is a practical move. Market value of Union's bonds today has shrunk on an average of 9 per cent, as computed from the figures submitted by C. B. Hawks, examiner, in his general report of the SSCU to Garfield W. Brown, Minnesota state insurance commissioner. Hence, if an avalanche of requests came at once for full withdrawal of accumulated reserves, it would mean liquidation of bonds whose market value is somewhat below the book value. Loss resulting in the sale of bonds at a critical time means a loss to the members, for it is their money which is invested.

MERGERS

As decreed by the 14th regular convention, the Supreme Board elected a Committee on Mergers, consisting of three officers: Janko N. Rogelj, secretary, Matt Anzele and Frank E. Vranichar. When any Slovene fraternal benefit organization or independent lodge wishes to enter into preliminary details on merging with our Union, it has special representatives to deal with directly.

THIRTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Year 1933 marks the 35th anniversary of our Union. A resolution was adopted by the Supreme Board to duly commemorate this event by publishing an enlarged issue of 10 or 12 pages of the Official Organ on July 12. Individual pictures of the Supreme Board officers, Supreme Judiciary Committee and the legal adviser, along with group pictures of delegates to the 13th and 14th regular conventions shall be inserted in the issue.

NATIONAL FRATERNAL CONGRESS CONVENTION

It is certainly heartening to read that the Supreme Board decided to send a representative of our Union to the National Fraternal Congress convention this year. Supreme President Bartel was elected to attend. A body like the N. F. C., with leading fraternalists all over the country as members, can accomplish much for the benefit of fraternal organizations, and hence our SSCU should not remain an absentee member during the convention, when important discussions are carried on.

CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR

The general admission to "A Century of Progress International Exposition," Chicago, 1933, will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Besides there will be admission charged to concession features which include transportation, amusement attractions, shows, etc. However, the various exhibit buildings, of which there will be a large number, devoted all the sights.

Collegians Repeat Card Party and Dance

Canonsburg, Pa.—Hear ye, hear ye, the Jefferson Collegians have completed plans for another big card and dance party. It is to be held on Sunday evening, Feb. 19, in the same place as the one held on Jan. 29 (in the basement of the home of my brother-in-law).

The last party was a success and we heard many comments on it, so we decided to hold another one right on the heels of the first one. Music furnished by our neighborly group, known as the South Sea Serenaders, certainly made a hit with the crowd and kept the boys strumming on their instruments far into the night. Not only do they play Hawaiian selections, but also snappy polkas, etc. (When this article was written, the committee in charge of entertainment has not made a report to me on the program of music, although I am sure that some will be arranged for the next party.)

Refreshments will be served, as usual, soon after the card party, but the dancing shall be continuous. Admission price is only 25 cents per person, which includes playing cards, dancing and refreshments.

The public is invited to attend and bring along their friends for an evening of entertainment held in store for all guests. Card party and dance commences at 7:30 p. m. on Sunday evening, Feb. 19.

Come one, come all, and you will not return home disappointed because we aim to please one and all.

Betsy Ross Meeting

Cleveland, O.—Members of the Betsy Ross Lodge, No. 186, SSCU, are requested to attend the regular monthly meeting to be held Friday, Feb. 17, at Turk's Hall, 16011 Waterloo Rd. Meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m.

The recreation committee and officers have held a special meeting on Jan. 25, at the home of Bro. Jazbec, when plans were discussed on the entertainments to be held in the future for the benefit of the lodge.

Discussions were also had on entertainments to be held after each meeting, in order to stir all members into activities in lodge affairs. Members should try to persuade their friends to attend the affairs of our lodge held after meetings and getting them interested in joining the lodge.

For Friday's meeting the recreation committee has a surprise in store for the members and their friends. So attend the meeting and see for yourselves what entertainment the committee has in store for the occasion.

I am calling the members' attention again to have their monthly assessments paid by the 25th of each month. Members not being able to attend the meetings are requested to pay their assessments at my residence.

Applications from the Supreme Headquarters for all members desiring to make the change from Plan "A" to Plan "AA" have been received. Any member wishing to make the change is requested to attend the meeting, where all partic-defeated Chisholm High School, both of Minnesota, in the annual school mermaid meet held recently at the former school, five of the participants were Slovene girls, as follows: Anne Govednik, of Olympic fame, Anne Dergantz, Roselyn Karisch, Bernadine Perko and Marie Scorich. Roselyn Karisch is a member of the Eveleth team, while the other four boast Chisholm for their alma mater. However, Eveleth won by a score of 39 to 36, even though Chisholm took five out of a possible eight first places. When Eveleth paid Chisholm a visit sometime ago in a swimming match, the latter school won by a score of 44 to 31.

A record crowd attended the Cleveland Sokols' exhibition of gymnastic accomplishments held last Sunday, Feb. 12, in the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave. In the evening, after the performance, in which the Euclid, Collinwood and Bohemian Sokols participated, both halls of the National Home were filled with a capacity crowd. New Era edition of last week predicted a capacity attendance at the Sokols' affair, which also marked its 35th anniversary.

A move has been started by the Jugoslavs of Cleveland to organize a University Club, which is to be similar to the one already organized and well established in Pittsburgh, Pa. Last Sunday, Feb. 12, a group of the Pittsburgh University Club members came to Cleveland to assist the local agitators interested in such an organization.

A Slovene almost entered the Hall of Fame in bowling last week. Tony Vidmar of Cleveland, kegler for the Collinwood Shales team, made a remarkable score of 299 in one of the four games played against the Kinsman Recreations at the Hess Alleys. His scores in the remaining three games were 234, 214 and 219. Eleven perfect strikes were made by Tony Vidmar in the almost perfect game, but on the 12th roll the No. 4 pin remained upright and prevented his name from being enrolled to the small list of perfect performers.

The year 1933 marks the 35th anniversary since the organization of our South Slavonic Catholic Union.

olars will be given to each member on making the change.

It is understood that members who make the change from Plan "A" to Plan "AA" will have the privilege of securing a loan on their policy, so that payments of their assessments can be kept up. I am also reminding the members to bring their present policy with them to the meeting for filling out the necessary requirements.

Colorado Sunshine Enjoys Large Attendance

Denver, Colo.—If the regular January meeting of the Colorado Sunshine is to be taken as an example for the ensuing year, the members have an ideal year of good times ahead of them. A large attendance was on hand.

Although this announcement is a bit late, still I want to name the officers for 1933: Frank Prislač, president; Patrick Kennedy, vice president; Mary Kennedy, recording secretary; Louis Maring, treasurer; Frank Frande, George Hranchak and Joseph Panikver, board of trustees; Dr. F. P. Prinzing, medical examiner. Monthly meetings are to be held every third Wednesday of the month, commencing at 7:30 p. m., at the usual place—Slovenian Hall, 4464 Washington.

Wedding bells rang for our former secretary, Miss Mary Modic, and Mr. Joseph Simsch, who were joined in the bonds of matrimony Saturday, Feb. 11. Mr. Joseph Simsch, like his bride, is well known in Denver for his activities among lodges. He is a leading figure in plays, dances and, in fact, with any work connected with the lodges. Colorado Sunshine Lodge congratulates the happy couple, with best wishes for lots of luck in the future, and may all their troubles be "little ones."

Pathfinders

Gowanda, N. Y.—The Pathfinders have been favored by the stork every month now since December. Perhaps our congratulations are rather late, but, nevertheless, in December old man stork left a beautiful male bouncer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pine. Congratulations also go to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zelnik, who were also presented with a wonderful bright-eyed baby boy. While we are on this subject we wish to extend the same greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kolar, who, just to be different, received a baby girl.

Frances Zelnik was the lucky winner of the Prosperity Twist at the January meeting. We wonder what luck the winner of the Prosperity Twist will have at our February meeting?

The Slovenian Hall has been under a new policy since the first of February. It has now a temporary tenant and new janitor in Mike Primozich. The hall will be open every evening for you and your friends. Pool playing will be free to all. The directors of the Slovenian Hall invite you to make it the social center of Gowanda.

Don't forget the grand masquerade dance to be held at the hall on Feb. 25. The prizes of $5, $3 and $2 will be offered to the persons dressed in best masquerade costumes. The admission for gentlemen and those made up in costumes will be 35 cents and ladies 25 cents. Be sure to mask and take part in the fun.

RUNABOUT MODEL

"Do you know your wife is telling around that you can't keep her in clothes?"

"That's nothing. I bought her a home and I can't keep her in that either."

INITIATIVE MOTION

OF LODGE NO. 6, S. S. C. U., LORAIN, OHIO, FOR THE RECALL OF A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE FOURTEENTH REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE SSCU, KNOWN AS "A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ERECTION OF A HOME OFFICE BUILDING FOR THE S. S. C. U."

Whereas, the Fourteenth regular convention of the South Slavonic Catholic Union, held in the City of Indianapolis, State of Indiana, between the dates July 25th to August 2nd, 1932, both days inclusive, passed and approved the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, it is deemed for the best interest of the South Slavonic Catholic Union to own its own office building, and

"WHEREAS, the Union is incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota and said laws authorize such associations to invest its funds in and hold real estate for office purposes.

"NOW, THEREFORE, Be it resolved, that the proper officers of the South Slavonic Catholic Union be, and they are hereby, authorized to invest not to exceed $20,000.00 in purchasing or otherwise acquiring an office building, or to buy real estate and erect thereon an office building, said building to be used as headquarters of said society."

Whereas, it would be poor investment for the Union if in these times of depression such an amount of money were to be spent for the office building of the Union;

Whereas, no funds were available for the purpose of granting loans to the members in order to enable them to pay their assessments;

Whereas, it is not urgently required that we own our own building, it being possible to conduct the business in the present premises;

Whereas, we would derive no benefit from our own office building in the event our Union should merge with another similar organization;

Whereas, the delegation was not polled on the question of the adoption of the above resolution as had been moved and seconded by some of the delegates;

Whereas, the above resolution was introduced and approved in the absence of the committee on petitions and appeals, said committee consisting of 12 delegates, and they were not called and given an opportunity to participate in the discussions and to cast their votes, although it had been so moved and seconded;

Whereas, it is the opinion of our lodge that a predominant majority of the members of the South Slavonic Catholic Union are opposed to the erection of a Union's own office building;

Therefore, we move that said Resolution of the 14th regular convention, authorizing the Supreme Board to erect for the Union its own Home Office building, be recalled through a referendum vote of the members of the South Slavonic Catholic Union and that the convention's decision in this respect be annulled.

The foregoing motion was introduced at the meeting of our lodge on the 18th day of September, 1932, and unanimously approved at the meeting held on October 16th, 1932.

Subordinate Lodge No. 6 SSCU:

SUPREME SECRETARY'S MEMORANDUM

The foregoing initiative motion by Lodge No. 6 is being referred to the membership for discussion in accordance with Sections Nos. 63, 64, 65, 68 and 69 of the Union's By-Laws which, according to the unanimous interpretation of the Supreme Board, give the members the right also to recall and annul any decree or decision of the general convention through a referendum vote of the members, provided that a majority of members have voted for such recall or annulment and provided, further, that such motion had previously been seconded by at least one-third of the Union's subordinate lodges representing not less than one-third of the Union's total membership in the Adult Department.

A period of 60 days is for the discussion of said motion. It shall commence on the 19th day of February, 1933, and end on the 20th day of April, 1933. The motion will be put to a referendum vote by the members if within sixty days it has been seconded by the required one-third of the Union's subordinate lodges representing at least one-third of the total membership of the Union's Adult Department.

Lodges seconding the foregoing motion are required to immediately report such decisions to the Home Office. Lodges may report such decisions in the Nova Doba, but official notice MUST also be sent to the Home Office, otherwise their approval of the motion shall not receive official recognition.

Lodges not favoring the adoption of said motion are not required to indicate their disapproval to the Home Office, but may record their dissent in the Nova Doba.

Above motion may be debated on at regular or special meetings of the subordinate lodges, and the lodges may decide for themselves whether to vote on the question of seconding it publicly or by secret ballot. It is understood that only such members may vote as have answered the roll call.

For the information of the members we desire to state that the ground for the building has already been acquired and that so far approximately $4,000 has been spent for the purposes set forth in the aforesaid resolution.

Don't Read This

Gowanda, N. Y.—This column is reserved only for Anna Jaklich of the George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU. All others, please skip over those few lines. Anna! You know we are all brothers and sisters of that great fraternity, so I'm taking the liberty of using your first name. I read your interesting article last week in the Nova Doba in regard to the George Washington Valentine Dance of Feb. 4. In it you promised everyone some good old-fashioned "kranjske klobase" (For the benefit of the English curious members who are actually reading this private paragraph, the set off words mean "Slovenian Sausage" or just plain "boloney").

I trust that they were quite a drawing card at your dance. Now, Anna, our lodge, the Pathfinders, No. 222, SSCU, celebrates its Second Anniversary on May 6, with a dance at the Slovenian Hall. Could you tell us how Cleveland makes its "kranjske klobase" so that we can offer that as an added attraction at our dance too. Do you also put garlic into it? Here in Gowanda, if we put garlic into it, even our own mothers can't stand us being round.

I should think anyway that all the dancers in that case would have "halitosis" (Editor, is that spelled correctly? Even Webster didn't seem to know that word, so why blame me?) I understand that one of your members, Louis M. Kolar, is too busy wheeling the baby carriage these days to help in making "klobase." But, of course, you get all the rest of the members to co-operate in his forced absence.

It has always been the wish of our editor to give new ideas for the benefit of all lodges. Let me offer you a suggestion for perhaps some future dance your lodge may be contemplating on having. Do you people ever make "godlo"? I saw someone making some, not so long ago, and he said it was delicious. After he made some "klobase," he washed all the pails, the knives, and his hands—and with these washings he made "godlo."

I should think that in your lodge, if each member co-operates, even the washing of each ones hands would make quite a lot of "godlo." You could sell these, maybe, for 10 cents a sandwich, while I read that at your dance "kranjske klobase" were only 5 cents a sandwich. Isn't it terrible how prices have come down during this depression? Yet is in't so bad either, because my brother says he can remember when potatoes sold for 5 cents a bushel? The poor farmers! The Pathfinders is an English-speaking lodge and at our dances we who boosted the Valentine Dance and hope that for all coming G. W. programs we have the same service of co-operation and boosting as we had for our 1933 Valentine Dance.

Furthermore, I wish to thank and compliment Johnny Gribbons and his Melody Boys for the splendid dance music rendered, and on his reorganization of a new and better orchestra, and hope that at some future date the G. W. Lodge may again engage his services.

GRADUATES

Lorain, O.—Lorain High School, Lorain, O., graduated 128 students Wednesday, Feb. 1, in the high school auditorium, of whom two were Slovanes, Albert Simonich and Johanna Durjava.

These two are members of the second largest January class, and we wish to congratulate them on having completed their course and hope they have hopes of continuing their education.

First 1933 Success

G. W.'s Valentine Dance Draws Crowd

Cleveland, O.—On the eve of Saturday, Feb. 4, the George Washington Lodge sponsored its first 1933 success—the Valentine Dance.

At least 50 per cent of the crowd present was composed of strangers—strangers to us, but not to the dance music of Johnny Gribbons and his Melody Boys.

Here are some of the remarks overheard: "Why do you charge only 25 cents admission? With an excellent floor for dancing, a good orchestra, beautiful decorations, and every accommodation to assure all guests of a good time, your lodge could easily get 50 cents per person and draw the same crowd. Your lodge has very courteous and congenial members, and your community crowd is most pleasing. You can look forward to my presence at your future dances. I'll also tell my friends about your lodge."

These compliments came to me and to a lot of others from both young men and young ladies—all strangers. One couple related how they happened to be present as follows: "We live on the West Side. Last Thursday afternoon, while driving toward E. 168th, we had to stop for the traffic light on E. 65th and St. Clair, and there we noticed a sign advertising your dance. Well, here we are together with four other couples."

G. W. members, if you were stationed at the entrance to the lower hall you would have heard many pleasant compliments, not only from the neighborhood crowd, but from people whom you never saw before. If I were to write on all the compliments and remarks of satisfaction expressed that evening I could fill the English section of the New Era for the next two issues.

Members, we had a crowd of approximately four hundred at the Valentine Dance, and those who worked to make the first 1933 dance a success certainly had their hands full. The only trouble was insufficient help from members, as we were short-handed.

As publicity agent of George Washington Lodge, I take this means of thanking the following members for the services contributed to make our Valentine Dance a success: Sisters Angela Levstek, Rose Celesnik, Betty Stucin, Anna Jaklich and Marie Krebel; Brothers Joseph Jaklich Jr., Charles Kikel, Martin Antoncic, Lawrence Burger, Frank Drobni, Frank Hocevar, Frank Faletic and Franz Zorich. I also thank all members who boosted the Valentine Dance and hope that for all coming G. W. programs we have the same service of co-operation and boosting as we had for our 1933 Valentine Dance.

Furthermore, I wish to thank and compliment Johnny Gribbons and his Melody Boys for the splendid dance music rendered, and on his reorganization of a new and better orchestra, and hope that at some future date the G. W. Lodge may again engage his services.

Euclid, O.—Lodge Napredok, No. 132, SSCU, is holding a dance on Feb. 18 at Slovenian Home on Recher Ave. Admission is only 25 cents and the music will be furnished by the Uhle Trio. The two singing clubs, Adrija and Danica, will entertain during intermission.

BOOK REVIEW

Mazo De La Roche: "Lark Ascending"

(Submitted by the St. Clair Branch Library of Cleveland)

Two of the most interesting characters in the story are Fay Palmas, the widow, and her son Diego, an artist, in whose veins there is a dash of Portuguese, Indian and New England blood. We find them managing a bakery which is their only means of support. Fay, however, soon tires of the humdrum existence and sells the bakery and sails for Europe. Accompanying the widow and her son are Purley Bond, a local pharmacist, and Josie Foward, a cousin to Fay Palmas.

Fay is attracted to a boatman, Montleone, who proves to be of noble birth, although she finds him penniless and without clothes. All he offers her is a title; she is greatly charmed and soon evolves a means whereby she secures a passport for him. His charming manner induces her to change her plans and go to Sicily instead of Paris, which was their original destination. He takes them to Villa Benedittino, which had formerly been his home and is now occupied by outsiders. Fay and her fascinating Sicilian marry and settle in the villa. They have no means of livelihood, but their good friends Josie and Purley Bond come to their rescue with their ingenious idea of opening an antique shop. There were many pieces of beautiful furniture in the villa, which were to be disposed of, in addition to that bought elsewhere. Josie does her part, and starts a tea shop which is a huge success not only financially but in making contacts with prospective buyers, most of whom are wealthy Americans. However, things do not go smoothly very long, as Fay discovers that her husband has gambled away most of her money, and thus she finds herself unable to meet the rent of the villa. Her standby, Purley Bond, who possessed an exclusive recipe for cold cream, decides to advertise the cream on the continent and sell it on a big scale, using the proceeds to buy the villa for Fay, so ending her big financial worry. He used Fay's picture in the advertisement, as she was very beautiful and her lovely complexion was due to Purley's cream, she asserted.

In the course of their stay in Tramontana, they meet some Russian impressionists, a girl named Varvara, who is extremely vivacious and somewhat of a coquette, and who soon stirs up trouble for Fay as well as Diego. It is discovered that Varvara and Montleone, the count, have been having a love affair. They very willingly leave together, and so depart from Fay, Diego, Josie and Purley Bond. The story is drawing to a close and we find that the mutual understanding between Purley and Josie ripens into love and they embark for their return trip to America. Fay is relieved and contented to live alone with her Diego, who is slowly making a success of his art.

This book is very different from the Jalta novels, in that it is written in a lighter vein, which is characteristic of the nature of things in Tramontana, the colorful and interesting setting of the story. It is delightfully written and gives one a cross section view of life among the artistic folk in their southeastern atmosphere.

THE S. S. C. U.

East Palestine, O.—People today are not only financially depressed, but also spiritually depressed. There seems to be a feeling of disgust in their every action and in everything they say. They give the impression that all good things are coming to an end.

We have heard some people say that the SSCU is slipping backward quite rapidly. Of course, this notion is false. The SSCU has suffered from the depression, but not any more than any other similar organization. Under the circumstances, we consider it as doing admirably well, thanks to its able leadership. And certainly there is no cause for any fear.

New Books at St. Clair Library

Cleveland, O.—The St. Clair Branch Library takes pleasure in announcing that they have just received a few of the newer books of the season. Among them will be found a small book on the subject which is occupying so much of the attention of the public at the present time—technocracy. It is by the noted economist and lecturer, Stuart Chase. Others which have been anticipated for a long time are the two sequels, "Sons" by Pearl Buck and "The Fortress" by Hugh Walpole. "Sons" is the sequel to "Good Earth," which took the Pulitzer prize in 1932 and has been featured in the movies recently.

"Sons" is the sequel to "Good Earth," which took the Pulitzer prize in 1932 and has been featured in the movies recently. "The Fortress" is the third book in the trilogy by Walpole—the first two being "Rogue Herries" and "Judith Paris." The complete list is as follows:

Chase, "Technocracy"; Bailey, "Little Girl Lost"; Buck, "Sons"; Deeping, "Smith"; Grey, "Drift Fence"; Morrow, "Beyond the Blue Sierra"; Norris, "Treehaven"; Oliver, "Good Shepherd"; Richmond, "Bachelor's Bounty"; Rolvaag, "Boat of Longing"; Walpole, "The Fortress."

Our Home Singing Club Elects Officers

Lorain, O.—At the monthly meeting of Our Home singing club, which was held in the National Home, the singers and members of the club elected the following officers for the year 1933:

Frank Ambrozich, president; Carrie Jacopine, vice president; Mary E. Polutnik, secretary; Fannie Jevec, treasurer; Martha Kumse, assistant treasurer.

Appointed were also Louis Balant, John Kozjan, Paul Janzik, John Svet, Gabriel Klinar, Mary Jancar, Antonia Kotnik, Angela Kozjan on the entertainment committee; Ludwig Vidrick, Joseph Tomsic and Louis Piskur as trustees; Hermine Zortz, Josephine Eisenhardt, John Lesnjak, Louis Balant, Michael Polutnik and Agnes Jancar on the publicity committee.

I wish also to notify all singers, members of the club, and anyone interested, that we have accepted an invitation from the singing club in Collinwood to go and sing at their concert. Anyone interested in going may secure tickets and further information from our secretary, Mary Polutnik.

Agnes Jancar.

"TENTH BROTHER"

By Josip Jurčič

Translated from the Slovene Text by Joseph L. Mihelic

(Continuation)

Hence the people believed that because the unfortunate man must have had some minor sins, and because the unknown brigand evidently failed to give for masses for his victim, the spectre of the murdered man was hovering, on among the birch trees, and many a moonlit and dark night, some believed to have even seen a tall, dark figure with a bundle, and a steel shod club, even down on the meadows, standing among the willow bushes.

We have heard some people say that the SSCU is slipping backward quite rapidly. Of course, this notion is false. The SSCU has suffered from the depression, but not any more than any other similar organization. Under the circumstances, we consider it as doing admirably well, thanks to its able leadership. And certainly there is no cause for any fear.

Joe Golicic,
No. 41, SSCU.

So in this forsaken place, on that evening, a person would have seen the Tenth Brother as he was, under a vine bush, crouching and with a stick digging a hole in the ground. The moon just then appeared from behind the tops of the eastern hills, and shone upon the lonely man by his strange task near the wooden cross.

It was cold. Martinek's knees were shaking, and he had to stop often, and put aside his awkward spade, in order to rub his hands and thus warm his fingers.

"Devil. Two feet is deep enough, why should I freeze!" mumbled the digger, and then pulled out from under his shirt a sack, opened it, and took out a few coins, and the rest he threw into the hole.

"This will be the treasure!" said he and laughed so loud that he was frightened by his own voice. He arose and looked around. But only the small brook murmured softly on, and except for him, the trees and the dilapidated cross and the figure of crucified Savior on it, here was neither heard nor seen anything alive nor dead. The hole was soon covered. On top of the earth he placed a grassy sod, and then covered the place with the branches of his vine bush.

"Well, lie buried here till tomorrow night, and then with Krjavelj and Francelj we will raise you for his dowry, and if the devil has so much power to change you into iron or charcoal, well, let it be, such a pleasure I will not refuse him."

Then he placed on his head his large hat, and put on his shoes. When he went by the cross he stopped and said, "O, my God, please do not be angry at me, when on the judgment day I will stay before you, do not be so unmerciful to me that you would put me on the left side, because I was playing jokes on your earth! You know, you gave me with my wisdom also foolishness; you knew before you created me what kind of a person I would be, and what kind of a life I will lead.

"It is understood that you will perhaps say, 'If you wanted to do good, why did you lead people astray that they believed in superstitions?' I know well that this is foolish, but I am doing, as much as I can, according to your word, when you said: 'Let not your left hand know what your right hand does.' The people must not know that I could own anything. I will take with me into the grave whatever I know and have. But this is not possible any other way—perhaps it is not right that I hold in fear him to whom I should be thankful, at least for this that I am in this world. Also, it is probably not according to your wishes that

I lead such a life, that I am taking the punishment out of your hands, but I do not know that I can do otherwise. Give me a little more time to roam over this earth, and with your help, to make my penance yet, so that you will take me to my mother in heaven. And maybe he, whom I am reminding what he has on his conscience, will also grieve, and make so much penance that your saintly doorkeeper will open the gates of paradise for him, and we will become friends there."

After this original prayer, Martinek walked slowly along the brook toward the village. By the lower part of the creek some village poachers were catching crabs. When Martinek noticed them, he turned toward them, and already from afar began to sing with his rasping voice a known song:

By the cold brook

The girl washed;

She washed, she washed,

Silently she wept;

Wept, wept,

The poor maiden.

CHAPTER VII

Kvas' letter to his friend, Ferdinand Bojan:

Dear Friend:

The fact that I am fulfilling my promise to you after so many months makes me feel certain that you are convinced that something unusual hindered me in keeping my pledge to you. Many times I had the pen in my hand; many times I had written a few lines; but every time I threw away the pen and the letter, because upon reading it I discovered that I had written pure nonsense. For at the time that we two parted—you went where I was not able to follow you, and I, like the exiled Diogenes from Syracuse to Corinth, was forced to teach dull children—I felt so miserable that I could not even recognize myself. I was so lonesome—so very lonesome that wherever I went I felt dissatisfied, and if I asked myself what was the matter with me, I could not answer. I felt so all alone, so unnecessary in this world, that I could very easily acquaint myself with the evil thought that if God should send me the death it would, probably, be for the best. I continually tortured my brains with such questions as: "What am I here for? What is my task in this world?" At such moments I almost wished that I could think, as the majority of this world thinks, namely, "I, too, am here, in order that there are more. I, too, am one from those 'fruges consumere nati' (Born to consume the fruits of the earth)."

Although things are turning to the better, yet I do not feel very sure of myself. I know that you will laugh, but then I know you and your heart, and so I feel at ease to tell you that which I would not dare to entrust to anyone else. But everything I cannot tell you, because I have not the right word for it. I feel, and feel, but when I have the opportunity to talk, then I cannot do it, then I am too clumsy and awkward. I hope that you will be able to read between the lines that which I wish to tell you, and which I am unable to describe. There is in me something like a yearning for an unknown thing which I seem to possess already in part.

I can hear you say, "What nonsense is pressing upon his mind? What is he trying to tell me?" And right you are. For I do not understand myself any more.

I remember that, in those by-gone days which I shall never forget, when we two studied and talked together, I was not different. I recall that you, as the older and wiser of us two, refuted continually my everlasting complaints with "A man must have so much philosophy that he preserves his soul free from the inner and outer bables." This sophistic quote you borrowed from our friend Horace, and you always end it with a mentor's expression "Hope, Love, hope keeps man alive, even if everyone else forsakes him, hope keeps him up."

But you lied—no, wait!

you should not say so roughly, you cannot lie—those wise people lied.

I already hope and pray since I became conscious of life.

And what brought me all this hope? Not in the end of this eternal hope, but in the end that I am a servant—a slave in an old castle. Could I perform this duty just as easily as soon as I learned to read?

write? What was the need of all my suffering? For what purpose did I struggle so much?

To understand the blind Holsteins and other foolish and wise</ znanecem, da mi je kruta smrt pobrala dobrega soproga ANTONA MOHORICHA.

Pokojnik je bil rojen v Železnikih pri Škofji Loki pred 49 leti. V Ameriki je bival 20 let. Bolehal je za jetiko nad dve leti. Zdravil se je 14 mesecev v Woodmen sanatoriju v Coloradu, ker pa se nič bolje počutil, je prišel nazaj v Chicago. Tu je bil še več mesecev pod zdravniški oskrbo, končno pa je podlegel zavratni bolezni dne 20. decembra 1932. Pogreb se je vršil 23. decembra 1932 na Summit pokopališče. Kljub slabemu vremenu je bila udeležba pri pogrebu velika od Modern Woodmen društva, od slovenskega društva Danica in od strani drugih priateljev v znancev. Prav lepa hvala društvenim sbratrom za krasne vence, za udeležbo pri pogrebu in za drugo oskrbo. Za maše zadušnice so prispevali: Mr. in Mrs. Anton Čučnik, Mr. in Mrs. Jos. Perko, Mr. in Mrs. John Vidrich, Mr. in Mrs. Jos. Ferkul, Mrs. Furkar in Mrs. Benko, zekar naj jim bo izrečena prisrčna zahvala. Hvala pogrebnišku L. J. Zefranu za mojstversko izvršeno pogrebo delo; omenjeni pogrebni zavod je vreden vsega priporočila. Hvala vsem, ki so nam v težkih urah na kakšenkoli način izrazili svoje sožalje in pomoč.

Pokojnik zapušča tu, poleg mene, žalujoče soproge, tudi sina Antonina in več sorodnikov. Naj mu bo lahka ameriška grudna, pri vseh pa, ki so ga poznali, naj mu bo ohranjen blag spomin. Theresa Mohorich, soproga.

Člane in članice društva sv. Petra in Pavla, št. 66 JSKJ pozivljam, da se polnoštivilno udeležijo prihodnje seje, ki se bo vršila 19. februarja ob eni uri popoldne v običajnih prostorih. Na dnevnem redu bo več važnih zadev za rešiti. In vsi člani, ki pridejo na sejo, bodo videli nekaj novega, kar dosedaj še na nobeni seji ni bilo.

Vsak član, ki pride na sejo, bo dobil tudi en iztis novih pravil, ki so v veljavni zdaj in bodo veljavna za prihodnja štiri leta. V novih pravilih je več novih točk, glede katerih je važno, da se člani seznanijo z njimi in jih vpoštovajo. Prva in glavnata dožnost vsakega člena in članice je, da natančno pozna pravila Jednote in da jih vsak čas in vseh ozirih vpoštova.

Dolžnost vsakega člena in članice je, da plača svoj asesment do 25. vsaki mesec. Vsak naj si dobro zapomni, da se sme in zamore suspendirati iz društva in Jednote vsakega člena ali članico, ki ne plača svojega asesmenta vsaj do 25. v mesecu. V dobi suspendacije izgubi član pravice do bolniške, poškodninske in odškodninske podpore; uvrstiti se ne more in ne sme ponovno med dobrostoječe člane, dokler ni popolnoma zdrav. Vsi tisti, ki dolgujejo društvo na asesmentu in ne morejo poravnati svojega dolga, so prošeni, da se oglasi na domu pri meni, da podpišejo listine za izprenemblo police in načrt "AA". Potem bodo lahko dobili na svojo novo polico in rezervo posojilo od Jednote:

Člane, ki še nimajo zavarovanja svojih otrok pri JSKJ, pozivljam, da jih vpišejo, ker to bo vsem v korist. Mesečina za člane mladinskega oddelka je samo 15 centov, kar je gotovo nizka. — Z bratskim pozdravom,

Frank Piric, tajnik dr. št. 66 JSKJ.

Cleveland, O.

Apeliram na člane društva sv. Janeza Krstnika, št. 37 JSKJ, da se bolj številno udeležujejo društvenih sej. Posebno naj velja ta poziv za tiste, ki imajo navedo se samo enkrat na leto udeležiti seje, in pa za tiste, ki so bili na seji le enkrat, to je takrat, ko so bili sprejeti v društvo. Taki člani, ki ne prihajajo na seje, se dajo najlaže zapestjati iz različnih krivih informatorjev. Taki člani včas pridejo k meni in vprašujejo, če bo res naša Jednota propadla. Kdor vprašam, zakaj tako mislio, mi odgovorijo, da so nekje slíšali, da člani preveč Jednoto puščajo, ker ne morejo plačevati asesmentov. Na take izjave ne morem odgovoriti družega, kot da so zaradi slabih gospodarskih razmer v deželi že nedostatek jednotne izgubile nekaj članov, to da ne pomeni, da bodo propadle.

Pri naši J. S. K. Jednoti si lahko vsak član, ki je v organizaciji vsaj štiri leta ali več, in ki ne more plačevati asesmentov, lahko pomaga na ta način, da izpremeni svojo politico iz načrta "A" v načrt "AA," v katerem slučaju dobti polica denarno vrednost in si člani lahko iz te svoje rezerve izposodijo za asesment. Kdor si pa neče na ta način pomagati, dasi ima priliko, je njegova krvita. Škoda bo njegova, da je nedotina, če društvo pusti, ker je več let plačeval, potem se je pa odpovedal svoji nabrani rezervi, če je puštil društvo in Jednoto. Denar je na ta način ostal v jednotini blagajni.

Priporočam tudi članom, da bolj pazno čitajo naše glasilo, posebno poročila iz glavnega urada. V glasilu je bilo že poročano, koliko posojila morebiti član, na svojo politico, če jo izpremeni v načrt "AA"; ta vstopa se ravna po visokosti zavarovalnine in pa po tem, koliko časa je član pri društvu. Nekateri člani takih poročil ne čitajo, zato pa tembolj verjamejo raznim krivim informatorjem. Prišli so že člani k meni, ki so zahtevali kar po $400 posojila, in ker sem jim povedal, da toliko ne morebiti, so se čudili in se jezili, da se z novim načrтом samo lovi člane, da bi plačevali višje asesmente. Jednota ne more naenkrat izplačati vse rezerve članom, ker ne drži denarja v blagajni, ampak ga mora obrestonosno investirati; ako bi Jednota bila primorana obvezovati nagloma prodati, da bi zavrstila vsem takim zahtevam, bi precej izgubila na njih. To se pa ne sme zgoditi, če hočemo, da ostane organizacija solventna in trdnen stališču.

Nekateri se jezijo, češ, kam bodo šli njegovi tisočaki pri Jednoti. Tem naj bo odgovorjeno, da jih je pri Jednoti jako malo, ki so že vplačali cel tisočak, posebno v smrtniški sklad; mnogo pa jih je bilo, ki so bili pri Jednoti morda komaj eno leto ali dve in so primeroma zelo malo vplačali v jednotino blagajno, pa so v tem času umrli in ujihov dediči so dobili cele tisočake ali za kolikor so že bili zavarovani. Tega bi se moralni člani zavedati. Naša J. S. K. Jednota je bratska podpora organizacija, potom katere si člani drug drugemu pomagajo. Tisti, ki so bolj srečni, namreč, da niso bolni in da dolgo živijo, pač plačujejo za tiste, ki jih zadene bolezni, ali jih prekmalu smrt odnese. Nihče pa ne more vedeti, kdaj njega zadene bolezni ali smrt. Pri Jednoti smo vse za enega, eden za vse. Le na ta način si moremo biti resnični bratje in si medsebojno pomagati.

Člane našega društva prosim, da v bodoči bolj točno plačujejo svoje asesmente. Posebno to velja za tiste, za katere vem, da bi lahko plačali svoje asesmente, pa odlašajo dva ali tri meseca in se pustijo suspendirati. Taki člani ne pomislijo, da ne dobijo podpore, če jih v času suspendacije zadene nesreča. Nihče tudi naj ne čaka na tajnik, da bo hidil po hišah kolektat in prosit za asesment. To ni njegovo delo. Kdor ne pride na sejo, ne bo dobil pravil.

Kdor ne bo pla-

čal pravočasno, bo suspendiran. Nikomur tudi ni treba prosi tajnik, da naj založi zanj, ker nima denarja. Kdor prosi, naj ga ne suspendiram, naj tudi pove, kje naj dobim denar, da bom založil zanj, če sam ne plača. Tajnik ga nima in v društveni blagajni ga tudi nini. Torej, kje vzeti? Tega dozdaj še ni nihče povedal. Ali naj suspendiram tiste, ki so asesment plačali, da bom založil za one, ki ne plačajo?

V januarju se je par članov pritožilo, da so v glasilu videli, da so bili suspendirani v novembetu, ter se jezili, zakaj sem jih suspendiral, ko so vendar imeli v novembetu plačan asesment. Pogledali pa niso, da je bila tista suspendacija priobčena 21. decembra, za oktober, ne pa za november. Prosil bi člane, da v bodoči malo bolj pazljivo čitalo taka poročila. — Z bratskim pozdravom,

Članicam društva Zvezda, št. 170 JSKJ naznanjam tem potom, da se naša prihodnja seja vrši v sredo 22. februarja v navadnih prostorih. Vse članice so vladljivo prošene, da se sejeje gotovo udeležijo. Na razpravi bo več važnih zadev, zato je točno zavaročati le v svrhe, za katere je namenjen. Pri Jednoti smo vse za enega, eden za vse. Kdor je zdrav in zasluzi, lahko plača svoje prispevke, da je na ta način zavaročen za slučaj nesreč. Najboljši bi bilo, če bi nihče nikoli ne potreboval bolniške podpore, toda nihče ne ve niti ureni dnevi, kdaj ga lahko zadene bolezni ali poškodbami.

Člani, ki so vzeljivo prošene za sejeje pri tajniku, imam te nekaj, da si lahko izpostavite na vaše police, da prestope pod načrt "AA." Seveda nista, da se celo stvar uredi. Člani, ki želijo izpremeniti svoje certifikate z ozirom na smrtnino, naj to povede tajniku, da se pravilno uredi, da v slučaju smrti ne bo sitnosti in neprilik radi dedičine.

Pomnite, dragi sobratje, da je dobra podpora organizacija naša najbolj zvesta pomočnica, če nas obišče nesreča. Potom Jednote se medsebojno podpiramo kot pravi bratje. Na tisočem članih, ki želijo izpremeniti svoje certifikate, z ozirom na smrtnino, naj to povede tajniku, da se pravilno uredi, da v slučaju solnce sije in bo tudi po tej depresiji. Nadalje se v imenu našega društva zahvalim sobratu Lojužu J. Pircu za tako lepo darilo, katero je daroval, to je štiri zlate cekine po pet dolarjev in vse tiskovine za društvo, to je preko petdeset dolarjev. Hvala L. J. Pircu, ker smo nekaterega člana pridržali ali založili, da ni bil črtan iz društva in Jednote. Mi ti bomo pa na drugi način pomagali, mi ne bomo potrebni dve požrtvovalnosti, kadar si dal, in mi smo ponosni, ko se tiska naše glasilo Nova Doba pri tebi; kot predsednik se ti iz srca zahvalim. Hvala!

Z bratskim pozdravom, John Zalar, predsednik dr. št. 37 JSKJ.

Članstvu društva sv. Stefana, št. 26 JSKJ naznanjam, da sem dobil nova pravila J. S. K. Jednote. Nekoliko sem jih že razdal na seji v januarju; člani, ki jih še nimajo, so prošeni, da pridejo na seji 19. februarja, da dobijo nova pravila in se seznanijo z določbami istih.

Dalje naznanjam, da je v mesecu januarju mnogo članov našega društva premenovalo svoje police iz načrta "A" v načrt "AA." Ravno danes sem prejel iz glavnega urada JSKJ nove listine, namreč pogodbe za posojilo in prenos certifikata. Zato prosim, da pridejo na seji 19. februarja, da dobijo nova pravila in se seznanijo z določbami istih.

Že dolga leta čutila se je potreba neke organizacije, ki naj bi družila našo mlajšo generacijo v športnem kakor tudi družbenem življenju. Različni poskusi niso bili uspešni deloma vsled napačne podlage, na katere se je hotelo organizirati, a deloma vsled razkropljenosti našega naroda v New Yorku. Prošle jeseni sestavila se je po dolgem trudu slovenska vrsta pri Jugoslavskem Sokolu v New Yorku. Ker je večina teh telovadcev itak iz Brooklyna, upam, da bo tvorila kasneje jedro naše bodoče organizacije v Brooklynu.

Po vzhodu tu rojene slovenske mladine v drugih slovenskih naseljibah smo pričele tudi med brooklynško dekleto misliti na svojo organizacijo, s katero bi mogle koristiti svoji naseljibini in sebi. Kot Amerikanke se v prvi vrsti zanimalo za šport, ki ima namen razviti in utrditi naše telo, kajti zavedamo se stare starše spremila sreča skozi vse življenje!

Pozdrav vsemu članstvu J. S. K. Jednote in mnogo sreče in napredka v letu 1933!

Pozivljam člane in članice društva sv. Janeza Krstnika, št. 37 JSKJ, da se gotovo udeležijo seje, ki se bo vršila 19. februarja ob 9. uri popoldne v navadnih prostorih. Navzočnost vseh je potrebna, zato prosim vse člane, da se udeležijo te važne seje. Na dnevnem redu bo več važnih zadev, ki jih bo vse zavaročiti in načrti.

Pozdrav vsemu članstvu J. S. K. Jednote in mnogo sreče in napredka v letu 1933!

Na decembarski seji je bilo sklenjeno, da kdo ne obiskuje bolnega sobrata ali sestre in kdo ne sporoti na seji o stanju bolnika, plača en dolar kazni. Opozorjam vas, brate in sestre, da kadar dobite poziv od tajnika za obiskavati, da to storite in da pridete na sejo in tam sporočate, v kakšnem stanju ste do-bili bolnega brata ali sestre. Bodimo pravični in plačujmo podporo samo bolnim članom in preprečimo plačevati podporo simulantom. Ne bojte se poročati na seji, če vidite, da hoče kdo izkorisčati Jednoto. Nadalje vas opozarjam, da prinesete vašo bolniško listino tajniku tisto soboto pred sejo. Zapomnite si, da tiste bolniške listine, katere boste prinesli pozneje, bodo potrebljene za prihodnjem sejem, in se vam ni treba jeziti na tajniku, če ne dobite vašega čeka o pravem času, ker ste si sami krivi.
