V petek je državni senator iz Clevelanda, Joseph N. Ackerman, vložil na Common Pleas sodniji v Clevelandu tožbo proti 18 jako poznanim in upljivim osebam v Clevelandu. Med drugimi obtoženimi so tudi Edward A. Wiegand, ki je župan v Lakewoodu in L. G. Collister, okrajni blagajnik. Obtožba je pa v prvi vrsti naperjena proti John A. Dubois, ki je glavni republikanske stranke v Lakewoodu. Slednji je šel iz doma še ob Božiču in se od tedaj še ni vrnil. Vsi obtoženi so bili direktorji propadle "County Mortgage Co." in obtožnica pravi, da so vodili posle zemljiške družbe na tak način, da je kompanija propadla. Župan Wiegand se je izjavil, da je že leta 1925 prekinil vsako zvezo z omenjeno družbo, in tudi okrajni blagajnik Mr. Collister je izjavil, da je izstopil iz družbe že leta 1927. Tožba proti omenjenim osebam se smatra kot senzacija prve vrste v Clevelandu.

Kričal je na vso moč, in vzelo je dolgo časa, predno so ga ljudje slišali. Po shodu se je množica navalila proti rekrutni postaji. Slišali so se klici: "Doli z morilci! Sramota vam!" Častnik Briggs, ki se je nahajal na rekrutni postaji, je bil silovito pretepen, toda končno se mu je posrečilo pobegniti z avtomobilom. Na protestnem shodu se je silovito udrihalo po prohibiciji po Anti-Saloon ligi, po suhačih in po obrežnih stražnikih, katere se je obdoločilo, da so "najteji morilci." Sprejeta je bila resolucija, v kateri se predsednik Hoover pozivlje, da upelje takoj preiskavo radi streljanja.

Walker, ki je dobil pred kratkim povečano plačo, ki znaša sedaj $40.000 na leto, je izjavil, da bo vse povečanje, ki znaša $15.000 na leto, šlo siromakom. Kako bo kaj z delom in industrijo v letošnjem letu

Štrajk šivilj v Clevelandu je naznanjen za pri- hodnji teden

Prihodnji teden se začne v Clevelandu generalni štrajk šivilj, katerih je kakih 5000 po številu, namreč, kar jih spada v unijo. Slednja je naredila načrte, da se tekom štrajka ne bo v nobeni ne-unijski delavnici delalo. Štrajk se bo razširil tudi na bližnja mesta. Unijski uradniki so najeli več dvoran, v katerih se bodo štrajkarji zbirali. Štrajk šivilj je nastal, ker vladajo v nekaterih delavnicah skrajno žalostne razmere. Poleg tega so plače tako nizke, da dekleta, ki delajo v tovarnah, ne morejo se pošteno preživljati, tudi če bi bile zaposlene vsak teden v celem letu. Sezona šivilj, ko so v resnici zaposlene, traja le kakih 30 tednov v letu.

Washington, 3. jan. Senator Fess iz države Ohio je danes govoril v senatu, da naj senator Borah prevzame v roke izvrševanje prohibicijske postave. Kot vzrok je senator Fess navedel to, da senator Borah neprestano napada predsednika Hooverja, češ, da slednji ne izpolnjuje prohibicije. Senator Fess je predlagal, da naj senator Borah pokaže kaj zna. Borah bo mogoče imenovan za načelnika skupne kongresne komisije, ki bo preiskala, kaj je narobe s prohibicijo, in kako bi se dala bolje spolnovati. "Jaz se nikakor nečem pripraviti s senatorjem Borah," je izjavil senator Fess, toda ker neprestano kritizira, in ker mu je vse bolj znano kot predsedniku, sem pripravljen staviti predlog, da Borah skrbi za izpolnjevanje prohibicije. Potem bomo imeli mir, ko bo senator Borah odgovoren." Borah ni ničesar odgovoril na ta napad.

Trije sinovi, ki so dospeli na pogreb matere iz raz- nih državnih zaporov

V četrtek se je vršil v Clevelandu pogreb Mrs. Mary Smerk. Bil je to skrajno nenavaden pogreb, ki se ga je udeležilo šest sinov ranjke, izmed katerih so trije prišli iz raznih zaporov, potem ko so dobili posebno dovoljenje, da smejo ječo zapustiti in se udeležiti pogreba matere. Rakev Mrs. Smerk, ki je imela 13 otrok, izmed katerih jih je 7 že umrlo, so prinesli v cerkev na W. 11th St. Ljudje so simpatizirali z družino in so poslali toliko cvetic, kot jih ranjka žena menda v vsem svojem življenju ni videla. Cerkev je bila nabasana od občinstva. Oče, priprost delavec, ki že 32 let dela v neki livarni, je bilo jokalo v cerkvi, ko je sedel poleg svojih šest sinov, trije izmed katerih so bili obsojeni kot roparji. A oče še danes trdi, da so to "njegovi fantje," in da so le po nesreči prišli v zapore. Mike Smerk je star 28 let. V ječi se nahaja že šesto leto, in bo moral biti tam še 19 let. Potem je Martin, star 19 let, ki se nahaja v zaporih šele eno leto in je bil obsojen v 15 let zapore, in Nikolaj, star 24 let, ki je že peto leto v zaporih. Presedeti jih bo moral še 20. Najstarejši sin je oženjen in ne stanuje pri očetu. Doma sta le dva fanta, stara po 12 in 16 let. Stari oče je izjavil, da sedaj, ko mu je žena umrla, je postal prava sirota. Sinovi v ječah, namesto pri delu, a njegov zaslužek tudi ni kaj prida. Sinovi so dobili dovoljenje, da ostanejo tri dni pri očetu.

Ogenj je nastal v kapitolu v Washingtonu, kjer zbo- ruje kongres

Washington, 3. jan. Ogenj je nastal nocoj v kapitolu v tem mestu, in je nekaj časa grozil, da uniči vse poslopje. Toda ognjegasci so prišli nemudoma na lice mesta z več kot dvajset gasilnimi stroji, in imeli so ogenj pod kontrolo tekom pol ure. Ogenj je nastal v takozvani "umetniški sobi" kapitola, kjer hranijo važne spise poslanske zbornice. Slikar Moberly, star 61 let, je bil najden v dotični sobi nezavesten. Precej olja in drugih gorljivih predmetov se nahaja v tej sobi. Smatra se, da je nekdo kadil blizu omejenih gorljivih predmetov, in da je tako nastal ogenj. Skupna škoda znaša $35.000. Odkar so Angleži v letu 1814 zažgali kapitol, v poslopju še ni gorelo.

83 No. 3. Sat. Jan. 4th, 1930.

Novo desetletje.

S prvim januarjem smo stopili v novo desetletje. Vsakdo seveda pričakuje, da bo to desetletje doba miru, prosperitete in napredka.

Gotovo je tudi, da bo novo desetletje zlasti v znanstvenem oziru najbolj plodovito, kar smo jih doslej še imeli. Svet gre s silnimi koraki naprej. Skoro vsak dan se odkrije ali iznajde kaj novega.

Na svetu je še mnogo problemov, katerih ne razumejo, ki niso še rešeni, in kateri, ko bodo enkrat rešeni, prinesejo človeštvu nove dobrate in koristi.

V političnem oziru je danes v Zedinjenih državah pravi kaos. Predsednik Hoover, za katerega je glasovalo devetnajst milijonov državljanov, in kongres, se še vedno ne razume. Versko prepričanje še vedno dela napotje v političnih strankah, in zlasti v južnih državah še niso mogli pozabiti nasprotstva iz zadnje politične kampanje.

Letos se bo vršilo ljudsko štetje, kot ga zapoveduje ustava Zedinjenih držav, da se mora vršiti vsakih deset let. Na podlagi raznih preiskav, se je dognalo, da biva v Zedinjenih državah nekako 122.000.000 ljudi, ali za sedem milijonov več kot ob zadnjem ljudskem štetju.

Zagovorniki kontrole porodov torej niso v Zedinjenih državah še nikamor prišli. Dasi je naseljevanje skoro ustavljeno, pa se je prebivalstvo Amerike pomnožilo za sedem milijonov oseb.

Gotovo je, da bomo tudi letos, kar se tiče javnosti, imeli največ opraviti s prohibicijo. Ta je stalni gost med nami. In baš ob Novem letu so se začeli pripraviti radi nje v kongresu.

Predsednik Hoover sam se boji prohibicije kot vrag križa. Ravno radi prohibicije mora poslušati neprestane napade, in njegovi lastni politični vrstniki udrihajo po njem, češ, zakaj, da ne izpolnjuje prohibicije.

Hoover pri tem seveda ni kriv. Krivi so v prvi vrsti kongresniki, ker so naredili postavbo, katere ni mogoče izpolnjevati, krivi so v drugi vrsti vsi oni, ki ne verujejo, da bi imel kongres pravico zapovedati, kaj se sme jesti ali piti.

Radi prohibicije je prišla vlada Zedinjenih držav že šestkrat v nepripleh k drugim državam. Zato pa vse z nepetostjo pričakuje, kaj bo poročila komisija odličnih mož, katere je imenoval Hoover, da preiskujejo delovanje prohibicije. Report te komisije se pričakuje začetkom julija.

Suhači, ki kujejo politični in osebni kapital iz prohibicije, skušajo že naprej uplajivati na to komisijo, da bi oddala taka poročila, ki bodo suhačem ugodna. Vendar je upati, da je v komisiji dovolj poštenih mož, ki bodo poročali resnično tako, kot so jo odkrili tekom preiskave.

NEWBURŠKE NOVICE

Novo leto 1930 je tu. Kaj nam vse prinese, ne vemo. Želimo si srečo in veselje v tem letu, kakor v vsakem drugem. Prineslo pa nam bo skoraj gotovo nekaj lepih, nekaj težkih dni. Pa kaj bi! Dokler je Bog v nebesih, tako dolgo smo lahko brez skrbi. Če tu pa tam oblaki zakrijejo solnce posvetne sreče, duševnega miru in sreče ne morejo zoper našo voljo. Zato pa se bomo ravnali, kakor mali otroci, ki imajo popolno zaupanje v svoje starše, da bodo za nje skrbeli. Mi si lahko kruh služimo, a žita, iz katerega je kruh, tega si ne moremo delati. Obledo si služimo, a materijala, iz katerega je obleka, ne moremo ustvariti. Vse je odvisno od Boga. Če pa Bog skrbi za črva v prahu, da se preživi, bo tudi nas preživel kakor nas je v preteklosti. Torej, SREČNO NOVO LETO!

V nedeljo, prva nedelja v novem letu, je nedelja farnih računov. Zato vabimo vse farane, naj bodo gotovo navzoči pri eni ali drugi maši. Pri vseh se bodo brali računi od leta 1929. Tudi novi narčni bodo napovedani za leto 1930. Naša dolžnost je, da vam podamo račune od vašega denarja, katerega ste v preteklem letu darovali za cerkvene namene. Vaša dolžnost pa je, da jih pazljivo poslušate, potem pa pametno razpravljate o njih. Pozneje bodo računi tiskani in dani vsakemu v roke, kakor tudi vsota, katero je kdo daroval. Ali se veselite tega, ali...?

Društvo sv. Imena bo v nedeljo 5. januarja, to je na večer sv. treh Kraljev, priredilo krasno božično igro "The Prince of Peace", in šaljivo slovensko igrice "Gospa Kordula." Obe igri sta zelo zanimivi in pomembni. Društvo vabi vse k udeležbi in bo po igri dalo mladim nogam nekaj časa, da se sprehodijo po taktu krasne godbe.

Prvič v svojem življenju je John Winter starejši preživel vse božične praznike doma v postelji. Ko je pred par tedni mislil iti na delo, ga je podrl avtomobil, in ga pustil ležati na cesti nezvestnega. Šele drugi dan so ga pobrali in ga spravili v bolnišnico. Winter je bil hudo udarjen, pa se zdravi počasi in bo čez nekaj dni popolnoma okreval. Jeza pograbi človeka, ko slika o takih slučajih. Vsakemu se lahko pripeti, da koga zadene z avtomobilom. Taki slučaj se bodo brali računi od leta 1929. Tudi novi narčni bodo napovedani za leto 1930. Naša dolžnost je, da vam podamo račune od vašega denarja, katerega ste v preteklem letu darovali za cerkvene namene. Vaša dolž-

kako se človek počuti, če ga kdo zbije pred vrata večnosti in ga pusti ležati na mestu.

George, Ferdinand Pistotnik je po svojih botrih obljubil, da bo živel kot kristjan, ko se je pred nekaj dnevi vpisal v našo župnijo. Sledil mu je Daniel Turk iz Park Heights. Daniel je prišel kot božično darilo k svojim staršem. Čestitamo družinam!

Kar se tiče tukaj dela, gre še vedno po malem. Vendar pa se čuje tu in tam, da bo kmalu bolje. Upamo, da se te nade uresniči in bo čez nekaj tednov vse na delu, kar leze in gre. V preminogih slučajih sedaj delajo ženske, matere, katere imajo doma otroke. To ni dobro. Nobena mati ni iz železa, da bi mogla ponoči delati pri čiščenju po uradih, podnevi pa skrbeti za otroke. Tudi otroci so v preminogih takih slučajih preveč prepuščeni samim sebi. Materina dolžnost je v prvi vrsti pri otrocih. A kaj, ko je v nekaterih slučajih velika potreba. V drugih pa je tudi nekaj lakomnosti. Starši naj bi se vedno zavedali, da ni na tem, koliko bodo zapustili otrokom, pač pa je vse na tem, kakšne otroke bodo zapustili.

V ponedeljek se pričnejo šole. Tudi krščanski nauk bo zopet učili po vseh okrajih. V Brooklyn v ponedeljek po šoli. V Maple Heights v torek po šoli. V Randall v soboto, zjutraj ob 9. uri. Za vse druge otroke, ki pohajajo v public šole in še niso dopolnili 15. leta, pa v naši šoli v soboto zjutraj ob 9. Vsi ti otroci pa morajo priti v nedeljo k šolski maši in po maši v šolo k nauku. To je edini način, po katerem morejo zadostiti cerkvenim pravilom, ki drže pod strogo dolžnostjo otroke iz public šol, da prihajajo vsaj dvakrat na teden k nauku, pa naj so bili pri prvem obhajilu in birmi, ali ne. Gre za to, da bodo otroci vedeli nekaj o Bogu in svoji svetosti. Gre za izveličanje otrok in vsi izgovori staršev ali otrok, so prazni in nespametni; pred Bogom ne bodo veljali. Bog bo sodil tudi tiste starše, ki imajo danes vse polno izgovorov, da ne pošiljajo otrok nauku. Se najbolj prazen in nespameten pa je izgovor: "saj nočejo iti." Otroci nimajo pameti, starši pa bi jo morali imeti! Ali bi otroci sami od sebe šli vsak dan v šolo? Ali jih kdo vpraša: hočeš ali nočeš?

IZJAVA

Opozorjen sem bil, da se trdovratno širijo v javnosti govorice, češ, da sem jaz prepovedal članom Orla, da ne smejo sodelovati pri "Pasijonu," ki ga namerava prirediti društvo Kristusa Kralja, oziroma jih odvrčal od tega. Izjavljam, da je to podla laž, ki ima prozoren in nizkoten namen, očrnuti pred javnostjo mene, oziroma Orla. Saj so celo voditelji nameravanega "Pasijona" še vedno člani Orla in ni niti meni osebno, niti odboru Orla niti na misel prišlo, na kak način jih ovirati pri tem ali celo postopati proti njim! Orel je vedno stremel za tem, z vsemi, celo njemu nasprotnimi društvi in organizacijami, živeti v miru, jim pustiti svobodo razvoja, kakor jo tudi Orel zase zahteva. Ni še tako nizkoten Orel, pa jaz sam tudi ne, da bi hotel škodovati, in to celo katoliškemu društvu, ki ima iste najvišje ideale, kakor Orel sam, namreč širiti katoliško zavest med ljudstvom. Najsi jih je na drugi strani dovolj, ki se ponosno trkajo na svoje katoliške prsi, ponajso s svojim "katoliškim" prepričanjem, pa udarjajo čez Orla, kjer le morejo, in se vselej vsakega nesoglasja v njem — brez katerih pač trajno ni nobeno društvo — in ga škodujejo razbodbnavajo kot znak najbližjega razpada! Ni me sram povdariti pred javnostjo žalostno, pa resnično dejstvo, da so ravno tisti najbolj proti Orlu, ki so v njem preživeli marsikatero prijetno uro, pač za malenkostno ceno enega samega kvodra na mesec! Njih samih naj bo! Značaji pa taki!

Dovolj naj bo blata, ki so ga nametali name in na Orla ob tistem nesrečnem Mencejevem slučaju, ko so premočili še marsikatero dobrega farana, da se je — nepoučen in enostransko informiran — zgražal nad "krivicami," ki da jih je storil Orel, dovolj naj ga bo! Svaka sila do vremena!

Prosim javnost, da sprejme to moje izjavo blagohotno v informacijo in opozorilo, brezobzirno pa naj udarijo te besede tiste, ki se čutijo prizadete!

Rev. Matija Jager.

Naša mlada generacija

Sinovi in hčere starejših priseljencev v Zed. državah so že odrasli in si morda že sami služijo svoj kruh. Drugi so morda še v šolah in študirajo, da bodo nekega dne dospeli do svojega cilja, ko bodo zdravniki, zobozdravniki, odvetniki, inženjerji itd. Tudi oni naši mladi, ki niso študirali visokih šol, ker jim razmere niso dopuščale, delajo po tovarnah, raznih uradih, kjer si bodo s svojo pridnostjo in znano slovensko ukazljivostjo pomagali lepo naprej.

Tako bodo nekega dne ti naši mladi stopili na naša mesta, vzeli bodo v roke vodstvo slovenskih podpornih organizacij, katere so jim ustanovili njih starši in dali tem organizacijam tako podlago, da jih bo naša mlada generacija vodila naprej, ne da bi se jim bilo treba toliko truditi za obstoje te organizacije, kot je bilo to potrebno njihovim staršem, ki so orali ledino.

Prevzeli bodo vodstvo raznih gospodarskih podjetij, trgovin, Narodnih domov itd. Vsak dobro ve, da se bo to zgodilo, zato pa delamo sedaj na vse kriplje, da damo našim ustanovam dobro, kremenito podlago, da poskušamo že sedaj uvajati našo mladino v društveno življenje, v trgovino itd.

Tudi naša slovenska, North American Trust banka bo prišla nekoč v roke našim in našim otrokom. Delničarji, ki so vložili svoj denar v slovensko banko, bodo zapustili dobro se obrestujoče delnice svojim otrokom. Ti bodo nekoč gospodarji in direktorji banke, te naše slovenske banke, ki ji je vsled dobrega gospodarstva sedanjih direktorjev, zagotovljen obstoj.

In ne samo delničarji, tudi oni, ki imajo svoje prihranke na tej slovenski banki, bodo zapustili svoje hranilne knjižice svojim otrokom, dali jim bodo lepo dedščino, ki je bodo otroci veseli. In s tem jih bodo navajali, da bodo tudi oni poslovali s slovensko banko, da bodo tudi njih otroci pomagali vzdrževati slovensko bančno podjetje, katerega ste vi s svojo slovensko zavestnostjo spravili na tak višek.

Marsikateri vaših otrok bo dobil svoj kruh pri tej banki, direktor bo, morda predsednik banke, blagajnik...

Zato pa moramo gledati že sedaj, da ima vsak Slovenec in Hrvat svoje prihranke naložene pri North American Trust banki. Morda bo marsikateri ravno s tem pomagal svojemu otroku do boljšega obstoja v življenju.

Ako imate svoj denar shranjen na neki ameriški banki, ali bodo imeli vaši otroci od tega kako drugo korist kot, da bodo dobili vaš denar in vaše obresti? Ali bo uspelo kateremu vaših otrok, da bo izvoljen za direktorja na eni če bi bil, delati bo moral za tuje, ne za svoje bližnje slovenske brate, potomce vaših sorjakov.

Glejmo, da vsi skupaj pomoremo, da bo naša mlada generacija, ko odraste, imela v Clevelandu svojo lastno banko, od katere bodo imeli oni sami korist, ne pa tujec. Močan, soliden bančni zavod bo najlepša dedščina našim fantom in dekletom!

In vse to se lahko doseže le na ta način, da vsi poslujemo s slovensko banko, da vlagamo samo tja svoje prihranke.

Recimo, da vaš sin študira. Zdravnik bo. Kje bo odprl svoj urad, kot med Slovenci, pa naj bo to sedaj, ko je še stara generacija pri življenju, ali pa potem, ko nas več ne bo. Koliko prilike bo imel, ako odpre svoj urad med samimi Amerikanci? Saj veste, koliko že samo ime pomeni tukaj. In kakor se mi drži kompaktno skupaj, tako se bodo naši otroci, ker bodo živeli v istem gnezdu, ki sta jim ga sezidala oče in mati.

In če vi veste, da bo imel vaš otrok svoj kruh med Slovenci in Hrvati, zato bi morali tudi vi že sedaj gledati, da podpirate, kar je slovenskega, pa naj bo to že banka, trgovina, ali Narodna čitalnica, ali Narodni dom.

Vi, osebno, morda ne boste imeli nobenih posebnih koristi od tega, kot lepo zavest, da ste storili svojo narodno dolžnost, da ste storili to, kar zahteva narodna zavest, ker kri ni voda.

Slovenska banka, North American Trust banka ima sedaj kampanjo za nove vloge. In reči se mora, da zgleđa kampanja jako dobro. — Ljudje, narod se je odzval in nove vloge kar dežujejo v banko. Tako je prav! Še en dober teden je ta kampanja in upam, da bo še najboljša, kar jih je bilo do sedaj.

Jaka Debevec.

ZNATI JE TREBA

V zgornjeitalski hribovski vasi Devagna se je bil zvonik župne cerkve nevarno nagnil. Prišli so skupaj podeželski inženjerji in izjavili, da se mora zvonik takoj podreti. To pa župniku don Piccardu ni hotelo v glavo. Ko so inženjerji odšli, je za prihodnjo nedeljo sklical vaščane na delo. Prišli so z močnimi navozi in tramovi in v teku dveh ur je bil 35 metrov visoki zvonik zopet popolnoma pravilno navpično uravnan.

Če verjamete, al' pa ne...

Aprila meseca so poslali našo stotnijo gori v Kanalske hribe, da bomo gledali polen-tarjem na prste in jih motili v njih pregrešnih slinah in želajah po naši zemlji. To je bilo še v mirnem času, vendar bili smo pripravljeni, da Lahom prestejemo suha rebra, če se kateri tako daleč izpozabi, da bi pozabil, kje "so naše meje."

Na Kanalskem je bilo še precej gorko, toda ko so nas nekega dne nagnali na Krn, kjer je bilo še precej snega, so nam šklepetali zobje kot bi nam Bošnjaki igrali "radeckimarš."

Tisti čas se je bilo prigodilo, da je bil komandiran v kuhinjo za second class kuharja Janez Podržaj, ki je bil precej mršav in suh, kot treska. Ravno zato so ga dali "v rejo" v kuhinjo, da se odebeli in opase, da bo lažje nosil tor-nistro in puško. Bila je takrat sploh navada pri vojaki, da so deli v kuhinjo samo take, ki so bili bolj pri slabi moči. In vsak tak se je v par tednih opasel v kuhinji, da so mu lica bliščala kot gumb na vojaški čepici.

Dva dni pred odhodom na Krn je pa vrhovni kuhar zbolel in na njegovo mesto je stopil Janez Podržaj in je postal on glavni mojster v kuhanju kavine in drugih konzerv. Razumljivo je, da je Janez Podržaj, ki je postal tako po naključju car stotnijske kuhinje, hodil po kuhinji, kot maček po plotu.

Prva dva kosila, juho in meso, je še dobro zmašil skupaj. Saj ni bilo treba drugega, kot da je pazil, da je juha zavrela, potem je pa stresel notri nekaj pesti riža za kuho, pa je bila vsa umetnost pri kraju.

Ko smo pa priplezali na Krn in so fantje zmrzovali, je zaukazal stotnik, naj se skuha fantom čaj. Ta priboljšek je nekaj izvanrednega in fantje so se že obližovali v sladkem pričakovanju dobrega priboljška. Stotnik je ukazal, naj bo čaj gotov, kakor hitro se vrne moštvo s kratkega pohoda.

Janez Podržaj, vsemogočni in edini kuhar naše stotnije, si je praskal glavo, ko je čul povelje, da mora skuhati čaj. Še nikdar v življenju ga ni videl, ne slišal o njem, kaj šele, da bi ga bil pokusil.

"Hudič" je rekel, "pa ga vrag moti hauptmana, da ravno danes ukaže kuhati čaj? Pa kako se naj to skuha? Pa kaj, čaj je čaj, kakor je klobasa klobasa. Ga bom že napravil, da bodo fantje videli, kakšnega kuha imajo."

In Janez Podržaj nalije poln kotel vode in strese, nekaj kil čajevih zrn notri, vsega, kar ga je premogla stotnija. Potem je pa mešal in mešal, stresel notri sladkorja, kakor mu je bil stotnik naročil, naj nikar ne pozabi. V tem se je pa že vrnila stotnija domov in Janez Podržaj se hitro zasuče, da pripravi čaj. Nasloni kotel na kamen in zlije vso vodo proč tako, da so ostali na dnu sami čajevi listi, lepo zgoščeni, kot bi bil skuhan žgance. Stotnik ukaže moštvo, naj pride s šalcam nred kuhinjo, Janez se moško drži in prične z veliko šef-ljoli deliti gosti čaj, vsakemu dobro porčijo. Stotnik nekaj časa gleda začudeno to god-ljo, potem pa prime skodelico bližnjega vojaka in jo zabrusi Janezu Podržaju v glavo s pripombo: "Sedem ur v špangle! Abtretien!"

Ray J. Grdina Says

Our modern newspapers present an interesting study in life, or perhaps it would be more correct to say a stoppage of life. Years ago, a murder story was good for at least a week's continuous run on the top of the first page. Today, a murder is just good enough for a small item at the bottom of the first page of just a single edition.

It really must be something big in the loss of life, to get a run on the front page for more than a single day. Why, as it is, the front page of any one of our modern newspapers looks like a mortuary column, except that the deaths recorded here, carry a little more interest than those that are relegated to somewhere in the back sheets of the paper and are put in the somber attired death section.

To get a front page headline, at least five people must be killed or are so badly injured that by the time you read about it they have passed into the beyond. An exceptionally good disaster, one that would entail the loss of over a 100 lives might make the front page streamer twice in a row, but it would have to be a mighty good story say something like, "Graf Zeppelin Falls: All Killed," or "Submarine Sinks," or possibly "150 Lives Lost in Mine Cave-In."

And if you don't believe it, just take hold of any newspaper; count the number of news stories on the first page, then count the number of these stories that entail deaths and see if we're not right. You'll find over 75% of them are murder, accident, suicide or ordinary death of a prominent person. (The person has to be prominent, or a relative of the editor to make the front page with just an ordinary death.)

But don't get the impression, that we are pessimistic or anything like that, because we really are not. We'll admit that occasionally some humorous story sneaks into the first page, besides Will Rogers' daily letter; something like "Boston Red Sox Win Ball Game" or "Husband Granted Divorce."

Oh yes, we almost forgot about that one story you find on every front page. That's the one that's got a domestic animal as the hero or goat. That's what they call the human interest story and no well balanced editor will leave it off the front page. A dog is usually the main character in the episode, which usually has something to do with biting the grocery boy, or saving the entire family from burning to death by waking them up so that they all can be dressed by the time the firemen come to make the rescue.

Why even the highly respected editorial page is being contaminated. In the good old days, our high priced editorial writers used to busy themselves, panning the city officials and trying to increase the subscription list. Today, they direct their editorial efforts toward cleaning up crime from their particular city and at the same time manage to get in their political cracks by bemoaning the fact that the much abused Mr. John H. Citizen is not afforded ample protection. But nobody reads the editorial page, so it doesn't do a bit of good anyway.

Candidly though, there is one page that at least proves a little interesting, even if it is only for the women. That's the women's page, which besides the beauty and household hints, features an "Advice To The Love-Lorn Column." But that only interests the girl who is "in her late teens," is considered good-looking, dresses well, has her own car, very popular with her own sex but still has no boy friends. She usually wants to know what's wrong. You don't have to write to any newspaper to find the answer to that, just read some of the advertisements, they give you the low-down on the whole works.

So you see, after all is said and done, there is really only one. Yes, Oscar, it's the comic section!

EASTERN STARS TO HOLD DANCE

Once again the Eastern Stars, No. 51 S. D. Z., come to the fore. This time it's a dance that they are sponsoring. The frolic will be held Saturday, Jan. 18 at the Slovenian Home in Holmes Ave.

The Stars will offer for the musical end, Johnny Gribbons and his orchestra, who need no introduction to local dance followers. The committee also announces that refreshments will be on hand in abundance.

JUST DRIBBLES

The Arrow Letter Service Girls started off the New Year with a decisive 22 to 12 win over the Ol-Bur-Dean girls from Mount Dover College at Dover, Thursday night. In winning, the team staged a complete reversal of form, from that displayed against the Success Club at the Public Hall, last Sunday, when the team took a bad trimming.

In a Class D Community Center game, the Orel Jrs. took over the Alloy Jrs., 21 to 7. Bogovic was the big noise for the winners, while Utery was the Alloy's best bet.

FRANKIE SIMMS KAYOES WISTORT AT PUBLIC HALL

Bout Ends in Fourth

Slovenian Heavy Stages Comeback in Main Bout of New Year Card

By THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Frankie Simms, the socking Slovene, started off the new year right. Or should we say with a mess of rights? But whether it was one right or a flock of rights, the fact remains that Mr. Simms got credit for a kayo when a long Lithuanian from Chicago, one Peter Wistort, failed to answer the beckoning call of the gong for the fifth round of their main bout at the Public Hall New Year Day.

However, the Chicagoan can not be accused of a breach of ring etiquette, for he probably would have come out for the fifth chapter had he heard the bell, but he didn't—being just that way.

Frankie topped off the afternoon's fireworks with a midsection left and a short right to the chin, with but seven seconds to go in the fourth round. Peter kept up his part of the program by gracefully gliding to the canvas, where he remained till the round was over and his seconds had come to his rescue. During the one-minute intermission between stanzas, the Chicagoan's backers worked frantically over the corpse, but it failed to respond to treatment. And the start of the fifth round found it mute testimony of the devastating power of Simms' right.

But it all wasn't as easy as the above would indicate, for the Cleveland had to do a comeback to romp in ahead. Frankie started the battle in his characteristic, bullish manner and found himself on the receiving end of a left hook and a split second later on the canvas. He took a count of nine and then started retreating, but another wild left found parking space on his chin and he decorated the canvas for the second time during the round. Frankie took a seven count and was up just at the bell.

And that, gentle reader, concluded Mr. Wistort's broadcasting program. From then on he was on the receiving end of a three-round concert of lefts and rights, featuring Frankie Simms. The Slovene at the start of the second found the invader's receiving apparatus tuned perfectly to his wavelength. And from this point to the end of the fourth Mr. Wistort showed the customers what a great little receiver he had in his anatomy. His reception was perfect, he missed nothing, and the only static marring the left-right concert conducted by Professor Simms was the gong at the beginning and end of each round.

Expert ringside critic assured your correspondent that the boy from the gunmen's heaven assumed punishment in the second, third and fourth rounds to have made any of our highest-priced, leading heavies go into a dive. All in all, the bout was a choice dive for Cleveland's blood-thirsty fight mania, and both the principles made a big hit Wistort for his courageous stand and Frankie for his comeback and hitting ability.

College Students Back to School

Tomorrow Is Exodus Day for Collegiates

Have you seen the camel hair coats, the Mallory derbies and ebony pipes, and have you heard the petite coeds broadcasting the latest collegiate brogue? Oh yes, to be sure, the collegiate set is in town. But, alas, tomorrow it embarks again for the "grind," after days of revelry, parties, and the renewal of acquaintances.

The students who are returning back to school after the holidays recess are August Urnankar, Harold R. Lausche and Edward Blatnik, Ohio State University; Fred Makovic and Louis Zele, Chicago University; John Schneller, Notre Dame University; Anthony Garbas, Louisville College; Lodi Mandel, Ohio Northern; the Misses Annabelle Kekic and Josephine Modic, Cedarville College, and Miss Jeanette Perdan, Baldwin-Wallace College.

PARTY AT HALL TONIGHT

A number of Slovenians will attend the annual W. S. Tyler Co. New Year party for the employees and their friends at the Public Hall this evening. The event will be the traditional elaborate affair. There will be a stage show followed by an organ recital and lastly dance music, furnished by a sixteen-piece orchestra. The women and children will receive candy gifts.

The Misses Sophie Gerdanc, Mary Legan and Frances Bukovec were among the guests at the informal Christmas party given by Miss Albina Gabrenya at her home in Euclid Village, Saturday.

"Pests I would like to annihilate," Mr. Louis Spehek, the accordionist, who asks "WHY" for your every question and answer.

STUDENT WINS PRIZE

IS ST. VITUS PUPIL

Miss Zamejc Wins $20 Prize in Nation-Wide Contest

St. Vitus School scores again. In a contest conducted recently by the associated laundries of 13 cities, Miss Dorothy Zamejc, Room 14, Grade 7, and the Seventh Grade pupils as a whole won second and third prizes respectively.

Miss Zamejc received $20 as a prize in the "Girls of Other Nations" cut out contest in which each contestant put together 30 dissected dolls dressed in the national costumes of as many nations. Accuracy, neatness, appearance and legibility decided the judgment. Dorothy submitted her dolls in a booklet form which was very attractive.

The seventh grade pupils together won the third prize in the poster award contest also sponsored by the combined laundries.

The poster was forty inches high and advertised the contest proper. The thirty dolls were arranged in a horseshoe fashion and each doll was hand colored. Although there were a multitude of rich hues a beauty rather than a clash of colors was evident. The award for the poster was likewise $20 cash.

Both the doll booklet and the poster are now on display at the association headquarters at Syracuse, N. Y.

Sister Mary Azeveda, S. N. D., who teaches the seventh grade is responsible for the general interest and perseverance manifested by the pupils in the contest.

CLAIRWOODS WHIP SPARTANS

Collinwood Boosters Stop Comrades' Win Streak

Once again the Clairwoods were called upon to stave off an attack upon their kingly position at the top of the Inter-Lodge heap, and once again they come out with colors flying.

Two weeks ago they had to drub the Boosters from Collinwood twice to stay in first, and last Sunday it was the Spartans they had to keep from the regal portals. And just as they did the week before, the S.D.Z. boys dropped the first encounter only to come back and win the last two. Singularly, the boys are not turning in any spectacular scores in winning, but have been consistently rolling around the 850 mark.

In the other big match of the day, the Collinwood Boosters put a batter to the Comrade's winning streak by taking them over twice. By winning the Boosters kept right at the pace setter's heels, being just one game behind. In losing the Comrades fell into a triple tie for third with Spartans and the Loyalties.

By winning two from the Betsy Ross aggregation, the Loyalties moved up into that third place tangle, while the losers dropped into place just a single game behind the third place contenders.

In the other match of the day the rejuvenated George Washington quintet spotted the tail end Progressives fifty pins and then beat them three straight.

Tomorrow's card is another hummer, bringing the Clairwoods up against the climbing Comrades, while the Collinwood Boosters will have their hands full taking care of the Spartans. These games bring together four of the top five teams and should bring about some change in the standing. The Loyalties stand a beautiful chance of moving up when they tangle with the George Washington men as have the Flagmakers who meet the Progressives.

KLEVER KIDS GO FOR RED HEADS

It's going to be Red Head's night at the Slovenian Workingmen's Home, Saturday, Jan. 18. But you don't have to be sorrel-topped to gain admittance to the Klever Kids Dance held there that evening. But if you are fortunate enough to be red from the ears up, you stand a fine chance to cop one of the prizes that the Kids are offering those lucky ones.

And incidental to the contest, there is going to be a big dance. The Arcadian Melody Pilots will grind out the rhythmic tunes for the occasion. Refreshments? Sure, plenty!

SISTERS GIVE PARTY

The Misses Alice and Vida Bellinger gave a charming party at their home on Parkgrove Ave., for their friends, Saturday.

The guests included Vera Kushlan, Mildred and Julia Tomsic, Mary Novak, John Alich, Henry Martin, Anthony Sulak, John Richter and Anthony Kushlan, who amused the crowd with his usual lineup of jokes.

TOUGH LUCK

Miss Dorothy Karlinger, who is a nurse at Charity Hospital is quarantined there because of the scarlet fever epidemic that broke out in the ward where she is on duty. Miss Karlinger's confinement spoiled her trip to Sharon, Pa., and her folks missed her during the holidays.

Fresh Air Camp Has Party

Santa and Everything

American Home Junior Society Editor Becomes a Kid for a Day

By CINDERELLA JANE

It was Christmas morn at the Children's Fresh Air Camp. Instead of the usual gong that beckoned the tiny sleepers from dreamland, today, they heard the soft and sweet notes of the "Adeste Fideles" on the violin, played by Miss Kater, one of the instructors. One by one, they rubbed their drowsy eyes as they looked about in bewilderment and askance. Whence and why this beautiful music? Was this heaven, and were the angels themselves toying their celestial harps? The enigma was solved as soon as bright-eyed Walter, gave out an actual yell, "Come on fellers, it's Christmas. Gosh, how could you forget? Merry Christmas, Miss Kater and everybody!"

Ere anybody could say another word the sixty youngsters were half-way in their uniforms, shoes were being laced, and some beds were already made. Then with the briskness of little cadets they filed ranks and made for the breakfast hall. How pretty the tables were with their sprigs of holly and lighted crimson tapers that cast even a more radiant glow on the excited faces. The pine boughs that hung from the ceiling, formed a canopy of winter woodland green under which the tots bent their heads as they moved their lips in reverent prayer.

The breakfast was dainty and delicious that's true, but who cares about breakfast on Christmas morn. Between bits, the children kept asking questions galore, "Will Santa be late? Do you think I'll get that train? I wonder if he'll bring me that baby doll?"

In the midst of the noise and the prolonged anticipation, the jingle of sleigh bells was becoming more and more distinct.

The Open Mail

ON WITH THE BATTLE

And the "Battle of the Mails" keeps growing more and more interesting. Miss Gabrenya started it all with a challenge to all the male readers of the American Home Junior. Ralph "Hy-Hat" Butala took up the challenge and the battle was on! But in the excitement "Hal," one of the ringsiders, climbed through the ropes and took swings at both of them.

"Battling" Butala comes back with a roundhouse right directed at both of his opponents, in today's communication. So now it looks like a three-cornered affair, with the referee being about the only one sure of coming out whole.

Hal, Miss Gabrenya, et al. Of course we're thankful to know that "brother" is preparing for West Point, and that Hal reads gobs of "aesthetic arts." In fact we "Hy-Brows" enjoy it. As for my type of rhetoric—if you expect an apology you shall be sadly disappointed.

First, I am without doubt a master in literary discourse; of that I am positive. The classical artists are mere mites when compared to me.

Second, I detest adherence to strictly conventional forms. It would indeed be a sad world if the news page were to be restricted to one literary style. Variation in style exerts a healthy influence upon other articles. This influence has been increasingly apparent in the last few letters. (Send letters of thanks care of American Home Junior.)

Third, indiscreet actions may be motivated by a desire to produce a specific result. I wanted a fight because I enjoy one and I fully anticipated one when I wrote my letter. I doubt whether any other approach would have produced such prolific results. I have received the greatest compliment in noting that response to the Open Mail has been so greatly stimulated.

New Hal, you old reprobate, read the articles carefully. I never supported the "bachelors." I merely criticized women in general and their man-grabbing tactics. There is a certain mildly pleasant humor in the topic that everyone enjoys and I sincerely hope that more of you self-styled intelligentsia are lured into the discussion.

As for your sound, practical and sensible reasoning, "Let's start some kind of club," permit me to remind you that a few foolish and enterprising souls are forever organizing clubs. In fact, it's becoming a mania and the reading public's cussing vocabulary has been substantially enriched as a result.

What a life!

Ralph "Hy-Hat" Butala. Yep, "Hy-Hat," you're right when you say, "What a life!" But it's all in fun, anyhow, so what's the use worrying? Confidentially, though, we're inclined to believe that the "Battle of the Mails" is going to develop into a free-for-all before long. But, as the fellow remarked when offered another drink, "The more the merrier!"

"LINDY" MERHAR DIES

BURIED THURSDAY

Popular Orel and Clairwood Member Dies Suddenly

Frank Merhar, better known to his chums and friends as "Lindy," is dead. According to reports he died suddenly Monday morning of a cerebral hemorrhage.

The premature death of "Lindy" was a blow to all his associates and especially to the members of the Orel Club of St. Vitus Church. On New Year Eve while hundreds of boys and girls made merry at gay parties and dances the Orels assembled in the little house on 63rd St. and knelt in prayer at the feet of their pal. Father Andrej, an intimate friend of "Lindy's," recited the prayers for the dead.

"Lindy," only twenty years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merhar, 919 E. 63rd St. He received his elementary training at St. Vitus School. In 1928, he was graduated from Cathedral Latin High School following which he took up the position of teller at the London Road branch of the Cleveland Trust bank. He was continuing his education at night school. Besides the Orel Club, he was also a member of the Clairwood Lodge, No. 40 S. D. Z.

The solemn high requiem mass was sung at 9 o'clock Thursday morning by Father Ponikvar, with Father Andrej and Father Jager acting as deacon and sub-deacon respectively. Messrs. Louis Baznik and Joseph Celenik, seminarians, assisted in the sanctuary.

The priests, sisters and parishioners of St. Vitus Church all miss "Lindy." For he was well-beloved and his spirit will linger long, e'en though he has reached the end of the road that leads to that "Great Beyond."

BASKETBALL LEAGUE FORMED

Seven Teams to Enter Girls' Inter-Lodge League

The first meeting of the Inter-Lodge Girls Basketball League was held Thursday evening at the St. Clair Bath House. Representatives from the Spartans, Comrades, Sokols, St. Ann's and K.S.K.J. girls were present.

Word was received that the Orels and George Washington teams were going to enter the league, bringing the entry list of girl teams up to seven. A schedule is being made and active play will begin on Monday, Jan. 13.

Due to the absence of some of the team managers and captains an executive board could not be chosen. There will be a meeting held Thursday night for this purpose and all those who are concerned are asked to be present without fail or be excluded from the league. This call is final and it is therefore imperative that those interested be present at the meeting.

FREE SPEECH

By NOAH FENTZ

There is a time-honored custom, said to have originated somewhere in Patagonia, which requires anyone who feels called upon to give tongue to his ideas and opinions to establish and make known some sort of precedent upon which his utterances are based and according to which their validity and worth may be judged. This custom, when, as and if it appears, and as long as it may last, will be the free expression of the opinions and views of one man. Neither the Editor of this page nor the Publishers of "Ameriška Domovina" assumes any responsibility for what may or may not be written in this column. It is necessary, therefore, to lay down a foundation for it. Not a platform. A platform is a set of promises made by a politician which no one expects to see fulfilled. We make only one promise: To try to observe the Golden Rule.

CORNER STONE FOR A COLUMN OF FREE SPEECH

We Believe
—In God.
—In cleanliness.

—In carefully hiding the dirty side of one's mind until it can be scrubbed.

—In free speech; free from malice, meanness or injustice to anyone. Not the clatter of an unbridled tongue.

—In due respect for those who are old enough to know, even if they don't. It is probably not their fault. And they do know some important things it will take you many years more to learn.

—In the proposition that mankind's own business is one of the cardinal virtues and in the corollary to that: that one's own business is sanctuary against prying, a very unlovely trait.

—In permitting the other fellow to discover for himself how vastly superior to him and his are you, your talents, your possessions, your nationality and your religion, if any. If his mentality is not equal to the task of appreciating quality when he sees it, it's no great loss.

TWO HOUR RADIO PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW

Lausche, Kogoj Direct

Many Prominent Stars Will Be Heard Over Station WJAY Tomorrow

By RAY JAY

Two hours of delightful Slovenian music are in store for the listeners of the weekly Slovenian radio program over Station WJAY tomorrow.

Formerly the Slovenian Hour was broadcast from two to three each Sunday and was then followed by the Steiger Radio Hour, but the latter hour passed out of existence along with 1929 and the members of the Slovenian Merchants Radio Club, who have been sponsoring the series, lost no time in booking that open hour for tomorrow's New Year program.

But they didn't stop there, when it came to starting in 1930 in real high class manner. No sir, they are going to offer their host of listeners quality and quantity tomorrow. Just look over the array over artists they have scheduled to appear before the "mike" during their two hours on the air, and we're sure you'll agree with us.

The popular Hoyer Trio, Mitzi Grdina (the Slovenian Sophie Tucker), Lausche-Udovich duet, Johnny Gribbons and his Jazz Joy Boys, Louis Grdina, Zora Ropas, Charles Lausche, Slovenian Trio, Zimek, Blatnik, Zagar, Kogoj, Mauer and Mrs. Zagar. Some line up, isn't it?

Don't forget when you tune in for the big radio program tomorrow at 2 o'clock that the wave length of Station WJAY has recently been changed from the original 630 meters to 610. You'll find the station at a slightly lower point than what you tuned in last week. So don't be fooled when WJAY doesn't come in at the same point on your tuning dial. Just tune in a little lower and you'll have it.

The program is going to be divided into two parts. The first, under the supervision of Dr. William Lausche, will offer the Hoyer Trio in several numbers of their own and as accompanists for some of the solo numbers. The Lausche-Udovich duet will present five new numbers, while Mitzi Grdina will be heard in two English songs. Louis Grdina will sing one number and Charles Lausche will present a violin solo.

The second half is arranged by Primož Kogoj, who has been taking charge of the programs to date. This second part will feature the popular Johnny Gribbons and his Jazz Joy Boys, a male quartet composed of Messrs. Zimek, Blatnik, Zagar and Kogoj, and a mixed quartet. And the popular Slovenian Trio, of course, will offer some more of their delightful numbers.

With the exception of Mitzi Grdina's songs, the program will be entirely Slovenian, and will offer, besides many of the old popular Slovenian folksongs, some of the latest Slovenian marches, waltzes and polkas.

Yes, it's going to be a real Happy New Year program, and everybody should tune in and take advantage of it. Don't forget, it starts at 2.

Jugoslav-Slovene Club Entertains

Magyar Girls to Be Guests at Reciprocal Party

The Jugoslav Slovene Club is entertaining the Magyar Girls Club with a return social at the International Institute Monday evening.

The Magyar girls it will be remembered were hostesses to the Slovenian girls at a "hobo" party in the late fall. The affair Monday evening will acquaint the guests with the Slovenian social customs and they will also be taught the favored "poker schottische."

Miss Martha Suhadolnik is in charge of refreshments and Miss Honey Mandel will play the accordion.

COMRADES ELECT

At the last meeting of the Comrade lodge, the officers for the year 1930 were elected. They are as follows: John Alich, president; John Spehek, vice president; Frank Stritoff, secretary; Alice Bellinger, recording secretary; and Marie Zakrajsek, treasurer.

Bits About Them

IS THAT SO?

Hey! Hey! The holidays are a thing of the past—just a memory or possibly a regret. And here we have a whole, brand new year to start working on. Fired with ambition, fortified with a million and one good resolutions (to be broken later), we're all set for a big banner year. Last year's slate is wiped off clean (excepting one, two or nineteen Christmas bills) and we're sailing a calm sea under bright, blue skies; feeling happy, gay and very new-gotten. In fact, your gifted correspondent started getting precious, little bits the very first minute of 1930 and we've got enough right now to fill this whole page.

NIZE FRESH FISH

Marian Mihaljevich, talented tug and rowboat man, in little lecture to newly acquired wife upon the competency of the neighborhood merchants, wound up the discourse with, "Why, you even can get as nice, fresh fish right here on St. Clair Ave. as you can downtown." To which the female of the story very sweetly replied, "I know, dear, that's where I got you." (Paste that in your hat and chalk one up for the Mrs.)

WAIT TILL HE GROWS UP

Business is picking up for Leo Virant, Lorain's newly elected councilman, football player, etc. Mr. Virant lifted a 600-pound safe off the floor into his knees to win a $5.00 bet. Unfortunately the owner of the safe was in the office at the time and Leo was unable to walk away with it. (Accompanying cut is "The Enigma's" conception of the working in training for the bet.)

S'LOKES 1929!

Ladies beautifully arrayed in stunning evening gowns; stiff gentlemen in white shirt fronts (beg pardon, we mean gentlemen in stiff, white shirt fronts), gay, merry voices; sparkling laughter; tinkling glasses; paper hats; noise-makers galore; dance music, and a spirit of good-fellowship were in order at the Triglav New Year Eve party. Bits and stories galore could be written just about that party, but space says, "Nay, nay," so we'll try to give you at least a glimpse of some of it all.

"Snitz" Schneider shooting everybody with his gigantic revolver—Louis J. Fire dancing with his finger in his mouth—Joe Ogline parked aside the stove to get warm—John Breskvar calling for a camera—Mrs. Oman cleaning up in card game—Freddie Makovec disappearing—Dr. Lausche playing piano by "request" of Leo Virant—Matt Grdina smoking a cigaret—the two Eds, Posch and Kalish, treating one another back stage—Frank Verbie wishing everybody "Happy New Year"—"Chief" Kolar looking after Junior—and everybody laughing at everybody else.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

Menart, the coach, and Baker, the basketball player, is the one and same person? Mary Milner is working at the main office of the North American Trust Co? Frances Okorn kinda goes for a Palmesville sheik? John Roper has a bad cold?

BOWLERS NOTICE

The Thirtieth International Tournament of the American Bowling Congress will be held in Cleveland this year, March 1 to April 6. The affair will be held in the Public Auditorium Annex, where 32 alleys will be built for the occasion.

And if Joe Pozelnik has anything to say about it, Slovenian teams will take the floor, all at one time, and use every one of those 32 alleys. But to put his plans through, he'll have to line up 32 teams to enter the meet, and that's going to be quite a job. Anyone interested in bowling in the meet or having his team entered is requested to get in touch with Joe at the Norwood Alleys, and get all the particulars. Just one word of warning, all teams must be in a sanctioned league.

The Misses Maxine Steinmetz and Genevieve Schneller, both of the Jugoslav Club, are visiting with friends in Astabula, O.

FREE SPEECH

tainly not. It's all old stuff. Old as the principles of logic, neighborly charity and common sense. And so are the banalities of superficial minds, frequently headlined as "revolutionary ideas" or "modern thinking." Old stuff many times discredited and as often revived by Sunday supplement students. You take your choice.

Got any Christmas spirit left? The New Year's spirits evaporated at break of day Jan. 1. Speaking of Christmas spirit, last week we observed a motorist stalled in the middle of the street. Along came a gentleman full of good-will, saw the other in trouble and made a dangerous turn to come up from behind and give the luckless one a push. In the meantime another driver beat him to it. The first one seemed disappointed over the loss of a good turn. However, it ended up with a cheerful grin all around. Brother Elks, perhaps.

We beg to propose our candidate for a life term in a sanitarium for imbeciles: The radio announcer who chuckles, chortles and chokes with artificial laughter over his own wisecracks. In case some well-deserved accident should occasion our candidate's premature demise, we suggest as alternates the radio team who tell each other bearded jokes of Joe Miller's time—something on the order of "That wasn't a lady; that was my wife"—and then laugh and laugh!

Finally, we have an outstanding reason for contentment and satisfaction: This week a goodly number of the members of our City Council sank back into the obscurity, which is their native habitat. The new ones cannot be worse, and they may be better.

STRUGGLERS FROLIC

The Strugglers are staging a gala New Year party this evening at the Slovenian Workingmen's Home in Collinwood following a regular monthly meeting.

Members and their friends will be admitted only. According to Miss Josephine Podpade, chairlady, there will be cards, bunco and a surprise feature followed by dancing. The music will be furnished by the Harmony Aces under the direction of Louis Simoncic.

PARENTS ENTERTAINED

The children of St. Christine School presented a delightful Christmas program in the school auditorium for their parents and friends preceding their vacation. Father Vukonic complimented the children's work in his address to the audience.

The Altar Society of the parish sponsored a successful dance for the young and old folks on New Year Eve in the church hall.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

more audible. "He's coming" was the unanimous cry, as the tots hastened to form into groups and proceeded to sing their Christmas carols for Santa. They were singing at the top of their voices when they reached the recreation hall. The portals were thrown open and all of a sudden the singing ceased. The youngsters were crowded in the doorway, petrified with joy. Their mouths were wide open as if in song. And as they held the pose Santa called in a hearty voice, "Come right in boys and girls and a Merry Christmas." That was all that was necessary. Like a group of birds they flew in and circled about the mammoth tree and the sleigh. Poor Santa.

Words can't express the actual scene that followed. Such shrieks of laughter and delight as each tot made off to some corner with his gifts. The air was rent with "Ohs," and "Ahs." For some of the boys the One good pull and a big tear and then "Gee isn't this the swellest train, oh, look at this aeroplane! Aren't these skates great?" On a near-by bench a little girl was caressing a huge mamma doll and at the same time, speaking words of love, like a real mother. Three of the still younger children had already organized an orchestra, made up of a harmonica, horn and xylophone. What mirth and happiness were here indeed.

Every body was happy, every body was busy now and Santa Claus was left all by himself. How utterly alone and forsaken he looked. Yet his face portrayed a picture of reminiscence and a smile was in evidence. He was most probably living in memory again his own days at the camp. For "Clancy" as every body calls him was there ten years ago, but he returns at least once each year now to play Santa at Christmas time. While he was still in his pensive mood a loud cheer burst forth from the youngsters which brought him from his reverie. Quickly he collected his empty sock and with a fond farewell he vanished.

As the tinkle of the sleigh bells was becoming fainter and fainter, the burly camp siren announced dinner and put me in mind of my own Christmas dinner. I left the tots behind me munching drumstick with one hand and mince pie with another. Then I thought "Gee it's wonderful to be a kid, but it's just as wonderful to be with the kids and pretend you're a kid."
