

LIFE AND LABORS of Rt. Rev. FREDERIC BARAGA, First Bishop of Marquette, Mich. By P. CHRYSOSTOMUS VERWYST, O. F. M. of Los Angeles, Cal.

February 1st, 1854, Bishop Baraga paid his second and last visit to Dobernic, where his cradle had stood. Again he knelt for almost a whole hour at the baptismal font, where he had received the sacrament of regeneration fifty-seven years before.

Bishop Baraga returned with five priests, Rev. Lawrence Lavtizar, a Slovenian, being one of them. The latter, after laboring for sometime in Arbre Croche and elsewhere, went to Minnesota and worked for the conversion of the Chippewas near Red Lake, on which he met his death by freezing, on December 3rd, 1858.

CHAPTER XLVI. Bishop Baraga returned home. He goes to La Pointe, Ontonagan, and L'Anse. First Ordination in Sault Ste. Marie.

On the 21st of August, 1854, after a long and tedious voyage, Bishop Baraga arrived at his episcopal city, Sault Ste. Marie. But his stay was short. On the 25th of the same month he left for La Pointe, his mission in the Lake Superior region. For almost a year the good people of that island had been without a pastor.

and the above-named Father Van Paemel. Father Benoit's last Baptism was on the 25th of July, 1858, about which time he left for France, when Rev. Angelus Van Paemel took exclusive charge of the mission. He was a very zealous, mortified, and pious man.

Bishop Baraga remained eight days at La Pointe, during which time he labored with his customary zeal for the spiritual well-being of his former parishioners, by preaching and hearing confessions almost all day long.

By the way, the writer wishes to remark that Bishop Baraga, both as priest and as bishop, was greatly impressed with the importance of Confirmation, evidence of which we have in his Indian catechism, where the instruction for that holy Sacrament takes up four and a half pages.

The time he spent, at La Pointe was truly a season of grace for its people, a spiritual renovation, a revival in the best sense of the word.

From La Pointe he went to Ontonagan, which was then quite a stirring little town. He remained there 12 days, during which time he was occupied with regulating the affairs of this new congregation and hearing the confessions of the Germans and Indians.

From Ontonagan he returned to Sault Ste. Marie for only a short time, four days, during which he gave Tonsure and Four Minor Orders to Rev. Thiele. He then went to L'Anse, where he had labored for ten years prior to his elevation to the episcopal dignity.

"The joy of my dear children was great, since their earnest desire to see me as bishop was fulfilled. I remained in L'Anse 12 days and had to perform all priestly functions alone, as in La Pointe, I had to instruct the candidates myself for Confirmation and hear the confessions, for the missionary, who is now there, was sent there, but lately and cannot yet speak Indian.

SPORTING CORNER

Collinwood Swamps the Mails.

An S. O. S. was sent to the Postmaster General by Cleveland's own for assistance in handling the mail from Collinwood to St. Clair Ave. Due to the fact that the Collinwoodians have been so active, the Sport Editors and their staff of assistants have been working nights for the last week trying to clear up the mail which they received.

Collinwood is going stronger every day, if you don't believe it, just watch the Sporting Corner of the "Glasilo."

The St. Joseph's Sports are anxiously waiting for the balmy spring days, so they can practice. J. Pecjak and Captain Felix have their hands full arranging and re-arranging the team. But stop! The boys aren't the only ones interested in athletics.

At our last meeting the discussion of athletics was the chief and most interesting topic followed by a discussion of dances, social gatherings etc. And speaking of dances, don't forget our big dance on April 17 at The Slovenian Home in Collinwood.

Crash! Bang! Here we are again. When I say we, I mean the St. Joseph's Sports, and we sure and mighty glad to see you all again. Since it takes a sport to entertain a sport we will also expect to see you all at our annual dance April 17th, in the Slovenian Hall, at 15810 Holmes Ave.

On account of weather conditions we have been able to do practically nothing concerning the baseball team. But now, since the weather is improving, we expect to start getting in trim pretty soon, and when we say "trim," we're not talking about a hair cut, we mean being real champs and not having our name only in the neighborhood, but into every branch of the K. S. K. J.

"Practice makes perfect," is an old saying, but as far as practice is concerned, we sure are going to have a mighty lot of that, but the "perfect" part of it will be left for you to judge at the end of the season when the two victorious teams will be challenged to fight for the championship.

Listen! We think it's about time we left you in on our secret, or call it a surprise which ever name you think suits the occasion best. Now stop! Look and listen for here goes: The girls have organized an indoor team, and are going to challenge every team in the K. S. K. J. that they get an opportunity to, providing the girls from the different branches wake up and organize a couple of teams.

The next time you hear from us, we will tell you about the hard time we had getting broke in. I can bet you two bits we got you all guessing who wrote this. Well, since suspense is terrible, we won't keep you in agony any longer.

Center of K. S. K. J. is at Collinwood. Reports have it that Joliet is the center of K. S. K. J., but it looks as though the one and only real center is at Collinwood.

What gives more milk than a cow? We will expect to see our questions answered in the next issue, and the club that's wise enough to answer us, can have the honor of asking us a few. Let's go.

Reports have it that Joliet is the center of K. S. K. J., but it looks as though the one and only real center is at Collinwood. Here's why. Everything happens in Collinwood. They get more new members than anyone else, they're all set for an athletic season and besides that they have the best girls' indoor team in the K. S.

K. J. Listen to what Frances Volcansk has to say:

"You have heard from us before and you shall hear from us again. Now that the weather conditions are improving, it won't be long before us girls get out on the diamond to practice up so that we'll be in good form when the season opens. We're doing what the Cleveland 'Indians' are doing down in Florida; we're getting ready for a championship season. Like them, we will have plenty of opposition, but we're going to make one fight of it. Come on, you other girls, don't be afraid to let us know you're in existence, we'll promise we won't be too rough with you.

The Sport Editor made a wise crack about being from Missouri, or something similar to that; he'd better come out to our opening game and watch us slam out those home runs. We're from Missouri, too.

"Frances Volcansk, 'Mgr. Girl's team, St. Joseph's Sports."

No, you're not from Missouri, you're from Collinwood and that's better. I'm quite sure I'll be at the first game, and I'll also bring the Guy with the Green Gloves. — Sport Editor.

Sports report Progress in campaign to raise funds.

Ticket sales for Big Dance reported progressing.

Enthusiastic St. Joseph's Sports reported rapid progress in the sale of tickets for the big dance which is to be held in Collinwood Slovenian Home on April 17. Under a well-thought out plan, ticket sales are expected to reach 1,000. No stone is being left unturned in the effort to reach every prospective buyer, educate him as to what the St. Joseph's Sports have done and are going to do. We hope that all the members of both Senior and Junior branches will co-operate with us in selling tickets and thereby promote the interests and advancements of our club, and to help us show that we are trying to do something that stands for better Catholic manhood and loyal American citizens.

Joseph Pecjak, Manager St. Joseph's Sports Baseball team.

What's it to ya?

That's it. "What's it to Ya?" What? The Sport Corner. The answer is: "Whatever you make, it nothing more." You see for yourself what it is. It's just a corner, but we want a whole page. Besides I've got a bet with the guy with the Green Gloves that I couldn't fill a whole page, but it can't be Collinwood only. How about it Bridgeport, you have a team, why not tell us about it, and what's stopping Joliet from having one and even more so Waukegan? Nothing. Besides there are countless cases like Lorain, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Pueblo, where a baseball team can easily flourish. So get organized, write the Sport Editor and mark the letter "Full-Page." Maybe if the Sport Editor gets enough letters to fill a page, he'll win a 1926 calendar or a good nickel stogie.
