HEKTOR MALOT

"Ste tega popolnoma gotovi?"
"Če naredim kako stvar, sem tudi žganje?"
"Včasih."
"Koliko kozarčkov spijete."

"To pa ni vedno enako."
"Ali morete priseči, da jih ne izpijetete včasih po tri ali štiri?"
"Tedaj dobro vem, da je ni sem naredil."

"Dokro. Ali morete priseči, da niste zaprli zvečer psa v cerkev?"

"Če bi pes bil v cerkvi, bi ga grotto videl."

"Imate dober vid?"

"Dvoje oči imam, kakor vsi drugi ljudje."

"Ali se niste pred šestimi meseci zaleteli v tele, ki je viselo z odprtim trebuhom na vratih neke mesnice?"

"Ne vem, čemu bi se taka vprašanja stavila, poštenemu in uglednemu človeku, kakšen sem jaz?" je zakričal cerkvenik in pobledel v obraz.

"Prosim, odgovorite na moje vprašanje, kakor da bi bilo nad vse važno."

"Res je, da sem se zaletel v neko žival, ki je bila nerodno izpostavljena pred mesnico."

"Torej niste videli teleta?"

"Bil sem zamišljen."

"Ste že povečovali, ko ste zaprli cerkev?"

"Seveda."

Takrat, ko ste se zaleteli v tele, ste prihajali od kosila?"

"Toda..."

"Ste pravkar pokosili?"

"Da."

"Ali pijete pri kosilu veliki ali mali vrček piva?"

"Velikega."

"Koliko vrčkov?"

"Dva."

"Nikdar več?"

"Včasih tri."

"Nikdar štiri ali šest?"

"Zelo redko kdaj."

"Morda pijete po kosilu kdaj tudi žganje?"

Sunday is the big day

UNITED SLOVENIAN SOCIETY BAND FIRST CONCERT

By TONY PETKOVSEK

Interest is running high for the first concert presentation of the new United Slovenian Society Band which is set for this Sunday, January 28 at the Slovenian National Home, 6417 St. Clair Avenue starting at 3:30 p.m.

The advance ticket sales are reported to be very brisk and that factor has been enhanced by the fact that there will be two buses coming in from out of town — from the Slovenian communities of Lorain and Barberton, Ohio.

The U.S.S. Band will perform Slovenian folk music including marches, polkas, and waltzes and it will also feature music from the scores of the shows "Sound of Music" and the very contemporary,

"Grease".

Other features of the program will be the presentation of the A Capella choral group "Fantje Na Vasi" or "Fellows from the Village" a singing group formed last year consisting of Slovenian young men whose average age is 20. The Alpine Sextet Ensemble will also perform during the show and then for the dance and social to follow.

The band is under the direction of Norman Novak with the following members according to sections: Flute, Vera Marsic; Clarinet, Duke Marsic, Joel Ivec, Judy Petek, Marty Jeric, Jean Orehek, Marjan Virt.

John Raguz, Andy Saiko, Tony Stefanik, John Urbancic; Saxophone, Julie Petek, Joe Lekan, Ted Fabec, James Wojtila; French Horn, Pat Iosue; Trumpet, Ray Novak, Charles Tercek, Joseph Sezun, Tony Hiti, Caroline Urbancic, Joe Hlosek; Tuba, John Wojtila; Trombone, Gene March, Frank Sustarsic, Gene March, Jr.; Percussion, Tom Miller, John Stebal, Jeff Molle, Ed Harbie; Baritone, Marjan Virt.

Tickets are available in advance from Tony's Polka Village and Tivoli's. Sale will be based on availability at the box office this Sunday, one hour prior to curtain time. There's table or balcony seating at $8 per person and $1.50 for children.

Musician Norman Novak of Mentor, who has had his own combo for a number of years and who also has directed the St. Joseph High School Band for numerous years, assumed the directorship of the U.S.S. Band when it was formed last May. He will be a guest on our radio show this Saturday at 3 p.m. on WZAK, 93 FM.

UKRAINIANS HONOR LAUSCHE

by DANIEL J. POSTOTNIK

Another honor has recently been bestowed upon our distinguished American Slovenian, Senator Frank J. Lausche, to add to the many he has received in the past.

A week ago, I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie H. Bochar, Project Director Senior Ethnic Fund, very active in the Ukrainian community, and my former supervisor as Slovenian representative in the Project, with a request to bring this significant event to the attention of our readers.

On Dec. 3, 1978 at Parma High School Auditorium, the United Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Cleveland, on the occasion of their 50th Anniversary, awarded a Certificate of Appreciation to Frank J. Lausche, "In recognition of outstanding contributions to the Ukrainian community of Greater Cleveland throughout the years", signed by Bohdan A. Futey, President, and Ivan Fur, Awards Chairman.

I think all of our subscribers would be delighted to read the fine letter of appreciation Senator Lausche sent to our Ukrainian friends, dated Dec. 7, 1978, which reads as follows:

"Dear Mr. Futey:

"First, I congratulate you on the 50th Anniversary of the life of the United Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Cleveland; secondly, on the historically recognized unyielding devotion of the Ukrainians to the principle that never shall there be denied to any individual his God given human rights; thirdly, I extend my admiration to the Ukrainians everywhere for the painful sacrifices they have made in their native lands to bring to an end the cause of Communism.

"I wanted to attend your Jubilee Concert on December 3rd and listen with inspiration to the deep voices for which the Ukrainians are generally recognized, but was unable to do so because of a previous engagement, which I could not honorably break.

"I am deeply grateful to your organizations for your generous deed in honoring me as one of "the outstanding Americans, who have throughout the years, contributed to the Ukrainian Community of Greater Cleveland".

"In the fight against dictatorship for which you have rendered such outstanding heroic service, I stand with you now and forever.

Respectfully yours,
(s) Frank J. Lausche"

Thank you so much from our Slovenian community to the officers and members of the Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Cleveland in paying tribute to Frank J. Lausche. Any homage given to our eminent Senator is also a great honor for freedom loving Slovenians throughout the world.

More Slovaks
In Houston, y'all

Editor:

If the Grosels are still down here (letter to the editor, Ameriska Domovina issue of January 12), their count is wrong. That makes eight Slovenians in Houston.

If a few more of y'all move down here, we'll have enough to start our own Slovenian Home and picnic ground!

CHOCOLATE CHIP AND MARSHMALLOW COOKIES
2 cups chocolate chips
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup evaporated milk
2 cups sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
walnuts (about 1/2 cup)
2 cups small marshmallows

Directions:

Butter a 9 in x 9 in pan. Sprinkle broken walnuts over bottom.

In a 2 qt. saucepan put the 2 cups of sugar, the 1 cup evaporated milk and the 1/4 cup salt. Cook over medium heat stirring till the mixture comes to a rolling boil. Boil at 222 degrees for 2 minutes.

Take off the stove and add the 2 cups of chocolate chips and the 1 teaspoon vanilla. Beat hard until the chocolate melts.

Pour 1/2 of chocolate over walnuts. Sprinkle marshmallows over the chocolate and press in. Then pour rest of chocolate mixture over the marshmallows.

Put in refrigerator until cool. Then cut in small squares or bars. It's between a cookie and a candy (Delicious).

Good Luck!

Cleveland, Ohio

IMPOSSIBLE PIE

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup flour
2 cups milk
1 cup coconut
1 stick oleo
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla

Put all ingredients in blender until well mixed and smooth (except for some bits of coconut). Pour into well greased 10 in. pie pan "deep" (metal is best) at 350 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes.

the bridal party over a fountain in the center of the cake.

The renowned society orchestra Lester Lanin was flown in from New York City and provided beautiful music during the dinner and for dancing.

George Opalich, the bride's father requested the orchestra to play some polkas for his Slovenian mother Alice (Kastelic) and Steve his Serbian father. The dance floor was jammed with polka enthusiasts.

75¢ POPUSTA PRI VAŠEM NOVEM RECEPTU

Memo From Madeline:

At 12:45 in the morning band members passed souvenir Lester Lanin hats to the ladies on the dance floor, thus concluding a perfect evening.

One of the waitresses said, "This reception is certain to be the number one wedding in Cleveland this year." As one guest said, "I have reached the pinnacle of my social life as this lavish wedding reception will remain in my memories forever."

Jane Kaplan of Warrensville Heights, Ohio has been admitted to The Holy Family Cancer Home, 6707 State Rd., Parma, Ohio 44134. (Jane is in Room 237).

Joseph A. Novak, a 1978 grad of Rocky River and an American Mutual Life Association scholarship recipient, earned a place on the Dean's list at The Ohio State University attaining a 3.81 point average in the honors program for the quarter. Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Z. Novak, 22596 Peachtree Lane, Rocky River, O.

He has been invited for membership in Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma freshman scholastic honor societies.

Senate President Oliver Ocasek appointed Joe as his Page for the current session of the Ohio General Assembly in Columbus where he will assist the legislators after classes. Joe is pursuing a pre-med program with strong interest in history and government along with his Slovenian heritage.

For his term paper in the Slavic Languages and Cultures class Joe wrote a critical review of Rado L. Len-cek's Essay on the Dilemmas and Compromises in the Evolution of Modern Slovenia. Last spring he studied Slovenian with Mrs. Danica Vrtachnik during evening classes at Parma High School.

Joe is promoting a Slovenian language course at Ohio State to start next fall by trying to interest a minimum of 20 students to enroll. If you know of any students who may be interested, have them contact Joe Novak at Taylor Tower on the OSU campus.

Congratulations, Joe!

St. Mary's Slovenian School of Cleveland, Ohio is sponsoring a dinner on Sunday, Jan. 28, 1979 at St. Mary's Auditorium between 11:30 and 1:00 p.m. The menu will consist of Roast Beef or Sausage and Sauerkraut.

Tickets are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children, and are available from Mr. Tome 481-9375 or Mrs. Lavrisa, 481-3768.

Frank Debevec, 5636 Liebold Drive, Dayton, Ohio has been elected president of the Yugoslav Club of Greater Dayton, Ohio.

Congratulations!

Gene Drobnič flew to Florida this week for a two week vacation. The active club woman plans on catching up on her rest and visiting friends. Her daughter Lois flew to St. Louis, Missouri where she will stay with her sister Gene Ann Robben and family.

Frank, Marinka, Bobby, Barie and Michael Tominc, former residents of Donald Ave. in Cleveland, have moved to Armsdale Ave. in Wickliffe, Ohio. Frank is the owner of City Motors, Used Cars, 5413 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland.

time of sorrow.

From the depth of our hearts, we thank the Zak Funeral Home personnel and friends for all their gracious assistance, kindness and understanding during our time of grief.

Our deepest gratitude to the Cirino Brothers Auto Livery Service and Anthony J. Mazzarella of the American Coach Livery for the use of their limousines and flower car at the funeral.

Heartfelt acknowledgement to the pall-bearers: Edmund Turk, Tony Petkovsek Jr., John Norton, Milan Dolinar, William Modic and Larry Urbas.

Thanks especially to the members of the various organizations for the compassionate words of farewell at the funeral home and cemetery.

We wish to express our thanks to Sheriff Gerald McFaul for the escort cars that led the funeral motorcade as well as the escorts from the Cleveland Police Dept.

Our deep appreciation is extended to Lou Trebar for his musical renditions of our late Zeno's favorite selections, at the graveside.

Sincere thanks to the Catholic War Veterans Post #1655 for providing the honor guard at the casket, for the military detail at the cemetery and for according full military honors to our late Zeno. We shall always remember the heart-rendering sounding of taps; this memory shall remain in our hearts forever.

Our sincere thanks to Gretel and Steve Bencic and their staff for the excellent food and service provided after the funeral at the Hofbrau Haus Restaurant.

Thank you cards have been sent to all who remembered us and our beloved. If accidentally we missed anyone, please accept our apology and may this public notice serve as a special thanks to you.

Dearest and never to be forgotten husband, dear father, son, brother and uncle. Your untimely and too soon passing, in the prime of life, fills our hearts with deep sorrow.

Although you have left us, the memory of you shall sustain us in years to come. We will fondly cherish you always in our hearts. Rest in peace and may perpetual light shine upon you.

Prisrčno zahvalo naj prejmejo nosilci krste: Edmund Turk, Tony Petkovsek Jr., John Norton, Milan Dolinar, William Modic in Larry Urbas.

Prisrčna hvala članom raznih organizacij za nadvse ganljive besede slovesa v pogrebnu zavodu in na pokopališču.

Našo zahvalo želimo dalje izraziti šerifu Geraldu McFaul za motorizirano spremstvo, ki je vodilo pogrebni sprevid, kot clevelandski policiji za spremstvo. Naša topla zahvala Lou Trebarju zaigranje melodij ki jih je pokojni Zeno najrajši imel ob grobu.

Iskrena hvala Katoliškim vojnim veteranom št. 1655 za častno stražo ob krsti, za vojaško skupino na pokopališču in za podelitev vseh vojaških časti našemu pokojnemu Zenu. Nikoli ne bomo pozabili v srečo segajoč zvok trobente pri pogrebu vojaka. Ta spomin bo za vedno ostal v naših srcah.

Našo iskreno zahvalo naj prejmeta Gretel in Steve Bencic ter njuni pomočniki za odlične jedi in postrežbo po pogrebu v njuni Hofbrau Haus restavraciji.

Zahvalne kartice smo poslali vsem, ki so se spomnili našega drugega pokojnika. Če smo pomotoma koga izpustili, prosimo oproščenja in želimo, da bi sprejel to našo javno zahvalo.

Najdražji in nikoli pozabljeni mož, ljubljeni oče, brat in stric! Tvoje prezgodne slovo od nas na višku življenja napolnjuje naša srca z globoko žalostjo.

Ceprav si nas za vedno zapustil, spomin na Tebe, draci, ne bo nikoli obledel. Ljubeče Te bomo vedno nosili v naših srcah. Počivaj mirno in večna Luč naj Ti sveti!

Globoko žalujoči:
