

riziku) ter obravnava aktualne teme, povezane s prepoznavanjem in prevcenijo nasilja med otroki in v družini, medijskimi podobami otroka in druge aktualne teme. Ima status zunanje sodelavke na Kineziološki fakulteti Univerze v Zagrebu (Kineziološki fakultet Sveučilišta u Zagrebu).

Jelena Pavičić Vukičević is a Deputy Mayor of the city of Zagreb for social services. She received her doctoral degree in the Department of Pedagogy of the University of Zagreb. As part of the autumn and spring educational activities of the Croatian Pedagogical and Literary Assembly, she moderates panel discussions titled Child at Risk, covering current topics related to the recognition and prevention of violence among children and within a family, media images of a child and other current topics. She holds the position of an External Associate at the Faculty of Kinesiology of the University of Zagreb.

Sonja Pečjak

je redna profesorica pedagoške psihologije na Oddelku za psihologijo Filozofske fakultete Univerze v Ljubljani. Raziskovalno se ukvarja z raziskovanjem psihologije branja in pismenosti (razvoj zgodnjih bralnih sposobnosti, bralna motivacija in bralno učne strategije), s procesi samoregulacijskega učenja, medvrstniškem nasiljem v šolah in s procesom kariernega odločanja pri šolskem svetovanju. Je avtorica številnih znanstvenih in strokovnih monografij, med drugim tudi knjige Medvrstniško nasilje v šoli (2014, 2015). Je oz. je bila nosilka oz. sodelavka v številnih raziskovalnih projektih, med drugim tudi v projektu »Varni brez nasilja« (2017–2019) v okviru ISA instituta.

Sonja Pečjak

works as a professor of educational psychology at the Faculty of Arts of University of Ljubljana. Her research interest are the psychology of reading and literacy (development of early reading skills, reading motivation and reading strategies for learning), the processes of self-regulated learning, school bullying and process by career decision making in school guidance. She published numerous scientific and academic books and articles, School bullying (2014, 2015) being one of them. She engaged in various research projects, among them in the project »Safe without violence« (2017–2019) led by ISA institute.