Hodi za menoj!

Današnji besedili iz preroka Izaija in evangelista Mateja se srečujeta na obvezujoč način. Za velikega izraelskega preroka v obzorju Galileje, severnega dela Palestine, vzhaja bleščeča luč kralja - mesija, ki bo pregnal temo uboštva nezvestobe. Za Mateja se na obzorjih Galileje, področja, kjer živijo tudi pogani, pojavi podoba Kristusa, ki je presenečenje božje ljubezni. Znamenje luči, je božja pobuda, ki razbije ločenost in se naravna k človeku in ga ovije ter vplete v svoje življenje.

Poseben poudarek je na božji iniciativi. Bog je tisti prvi, ki se odpravlja po poteh, kjer so domovi ljudi, kot pravi odlomek iz Razodetja: »Glej, stojim pri vratih in trkam. Če kdo sliši moj glas in odpre vrata, bom stopil k njemu in večerjal z njim, on pa z menoj«. Prej kot se mi zanimamo za Boga, nam Sveto pismo ponavlja, se je Bog že zanimal za nas. Karl Barth, največji protestantski teolog 20. stoletja, je spremenil znani Dekartov rek: Cogito, ergo sum (Mislim, torej sem) v bolj krščanski: Cogitor, ergo sum - mišljen sem (od Boga), torej sem, obstajam. Živimo in umiramo v njem, v naročju njegove ljubezni.

Ta temeljna trditev svetopisemske vere je »predstavljena« tudi v Matejevi pripovedi, ko Jezus pokliče prve apostole. Dejansko Jezus obrne na glavo vzorec odnosa učitelj - učenec, značilnega za judovski svet. Po tem vzorcu je učenec izbral učitelja (rabija), potem ko ga je poslušal, kako je govoril na trgih mest, na križpotjih ali shodnicah. Jezus pa uporabi drugi način: On gre po obali Galilejskega jezera in dvema bratoma ribičema reče: »Hodita za menoj!«.

Ob nenadnem »prijodu Boga« v njuno osebno življenje, pustita mreže in vstopita v barko veliko bolj skrivnostnega jezera, ki mu niso zmogli zaupati, a je bilo bogato z ribami. Zadnji dan svojega zemeljskega življenja bo Jezus pri zadnji večerji spomnil svoje učence: »Niste vi mene izvolili, ampak sem jaz vas izbral, poklical.«

Vsaka človeška poklicanost ima korenine v milosti, v ljubezni. Sveti Pavel v pismu Rimljanom navaja smelo besedilo preroka Izaija: »Našli so me tisti, ki me niso iskali, razodel sem se njim, ki niso spraševali po meni« (10, 20).

Človek je lahko nepazljiv, lahko celo beži kot Jona na drugi kraj sveta in se slepi, da tam ni Boga; lahko pade v prepad obupa in temo greha. Ampak »tema ne bo pretemna zate, noč bo svetila kakor dan« (Ps 139, 12) in tudi tu nas Bog doseže. Pomembno je, da se pustimo osvojiti in da vse življenje ne bežimo, da ne zapiramo vedno oči pred znamenji, ki so večkrat čudna in nepričakovana.

Sv. Avguštin - človek, ki je tako bežal od Boga, ki pa se je na koncu predal in se mu popolnoma izročil -, je dejal, da se moramo bati, da bi pustili, da bi Bog šel zaman mimo vrat naše hiše in našega življenja.

Carl Gustav Jung, eden od očetov psihoanalize, je dal na vrata svoje hiše v Kusnachtu v Švici vdolbsti latinski rek:

»Vocatus atque non vocatus Deus aderit«,
»poklican ali nepoklican, Bog bo vedno navzoč«.

Te besede lahko postanejo tudi za nas besede upanja. Tudi če ga mi ne kličemo, morda ga celo preklinjamo ali zavračamo, se Bog ne oddaljuje, ampak ostaja ob nas v pričakovanju, da se nam bo razodel in nas objel.

»Ko je bil še daleč, je oče zagledal sina, se ga usmilil; pritekkel je, ga objel in poljubil« (Lk 15, 20).

/Prim. Oznanjevalec 2005/

Response:

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

First Reading Isaiah 8:23 – 9:3

Isaiah looks forward to a day when the people that have walked in darkness will have seen a great light.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:10-13. 17

Paul appeals for reconciliation between the divided groups in Corinth.

Gospel Matthew 4:12-23

Jesus fulfils the prophecy of Isaiah and begins his public ministry by calling his first disciples to follow him in proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom.

“Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.”

Illustration

In the darkest places, the light shines brightest. These days people who want to look at the stars have to find a place far away from the pollution of city lights so that they can see the night sky more clearly. For those of us who live in towns and cities, only the brightest of the stars and planets are visible, and generally we are happy with this on account of the security that the city lights give us. Who knows what evils might be lurking in the shadows?

Gospel Teaching

The scriptures use the contrast between darkness and light to describe our relationship with God. “The people that walked in darkness” were the people of Israel, who, on account of their infidelity to God, found themselves in exile in Babylon, longing to return to their own land, their homes and their religious practices. They could see no end to their predicament. The future was dark for them until the prophet Isaiah started to shine the light of hope. Their exile did come to an end. They did return to their own land. Their Temple was rebuilt and religious practice was restored, but they were still in the dark. After the oppression of Babylon, they were still in the power of a succession of foreign invaders from Persia, Greece and Rome. By the time of Jesus, it was the Romans keeping the Jewish people as a subject nation, and they did so with the collaboration of the puppet king, Herod, and greedy, self-serving tax collectors. People still longed for real freedom, which they understood to be the light promised by Isaiah seven hundred years earlier.

St Matthew, in his Gospel, describes the coming of Jesus in these same prophetic terms, "The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light." But the light that Jesus reveals is not a new political dispensation. The darkness is not merely the darkness of oppression. It is not just the people of Israel who have been subjected to a foreign power: it is the whole of humanity. Jesus is the light of the world that exposes the true darkness that is sin, which is preventing all human beings from fulfilling their true destiny as sons and daughters of a loving Father in the everlasting kingdom of heaven.

The revolutionary project that Jesus starts is far from a political revolt. It involves a real change of heart and it starts with faith: faith in God, but, first of all, faith in ourselves. Do I really believe that God loves me and has called me into a relationship of love? This is the project of Jesus, to change the world by changing one person at a time, enabling every one to believe that they are beloved sons or daughters of the one Father, God in heaven. And so, in today's Gospel, we see Jesus at the beginning of his project to bring this new light, this new revelation, into the world. He calls the fishermen, Peter and Andrew, James and John, "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." With this small group, which gradually increases to twelve, Jesus goes around proclaiming the Good News, teaching and healing. Their mission is to capture the hearts and minds of people, opening up to them the promise of eternal life.

Application

This is still the mission of the disciples of Jesus, to help all people to discover that their true destiny is to live in love with God and with each other. The challenge for us today is to recognise the real darkness. There are so many artificial lights that blind us to the reality of what God wants for us. Many of us believe that human success and fulfilment lie in the acquisition of wealth and knowledge. We think we know what we want and we make it our life's project to achieve it. However, our life project will be very different if we start from our self-awareness: who do I think I am? If I really believe that I am a beloved son or daughter of God, then I must start by asking, "What does God want me to be?" When Jesus is the light in my life, I am going to see myself and the world I live in very differently. So let us take up the invitation to follow Jesus. Let us ask for eyes that see as he sees, and for the courage to respond to the needs of our world with his love and compassion.

Priloge na letni Bazar so v polnem teku. Skupina, ki dela rezance se je že četrtič zbrala in v nekaj urah so bile mize v mladinski sobi polne rezancev. V dvorani pa se je istega dne, v torek 21. januarja, zbrala druga skupina, ki pa je pripravljala štrudelj. Prav lepo je videt, koliko in kako hitro se stvari naredijo, če se stopi skupaj. Hvala vsem, ki ste si vzeli čas za to skupno akcijo. Namen pa ni samo ta, da se nekaj naredi, ampak skupno druženje je tudi pomembno.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE – SOME REFLECTIONS FOR PARENTS AND YOUNG PEOPLE

The feast of the Presentation of the Lord marks the event when Joseph and Mary brought Jesus to the Temple so that Jesus might be “consecrated to the Lord.” Saint Pope John Paul II highlighted this consecration when he established the World Day for Consecrated Life in 1997 to be observed on the feast of the Presentation.

With Baptism, all Christians are consecrated to God, which means “to be made holy” or “to be dedicated to a sacred purpose.”

For those who God calls to the vocation of consecrated life, God’s consecration is manifested in a particular way in their religious profession. In this sense, “the Presentation is an eloquent icon of the total offering of one’s life” to God (Pope John Paul II).

We see this in Jesus. He dedicated his whole being and his life to fulfill God’s loving plan of salvation for all.

We also see this in Simeon and Anna. Simeon lived his life “guided by the Holy Spirit.” Furthermore, for him, meeting the Lord was the sole desire and fulfillment of his life.

Anna dedicated her life to worship, fasting, and prayer. This way of life helped her to recognize Jesus and point him out to others as the Redeemer.

As the Church celebrates this World Day for Consecrated Life, please pray for us religious, to be more faithful and generous in our response to God’s consecration – to be holy.

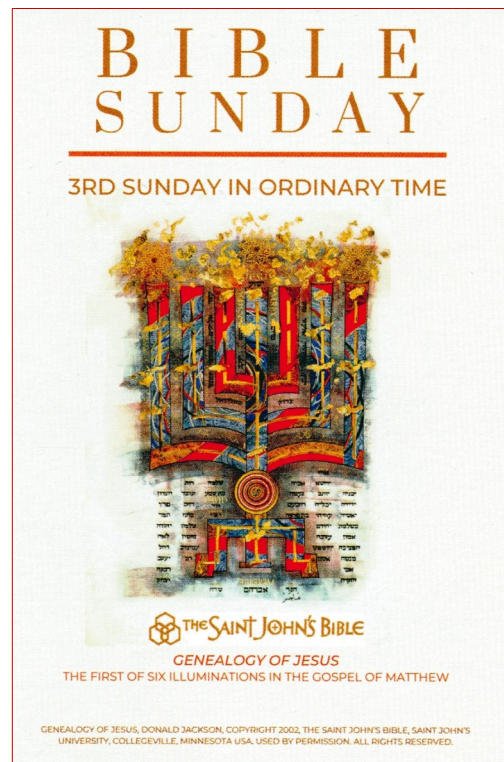

Please encourage young people to consider this vocation, and pray for those who God calls to it. May they listen and be open to God’s invitation to consecrate their lives to God, guided by the Holy Spirit, to continue the mission of the Savior for the sake of the world.

As we celebrate this day, we also recognize and thank the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph who dedicated their lives to God, collaborated with the Holy Spirit, to bring God’s Son into the world. In living their vocations as parents, they consecrated their son Jesus to God, and assisted Jesus in his dedication of his life to God.

In this way, today’s celebration also highlights the important role that you, parents, have in your children’s consecration of their lives to God. In most cases, it is you who are the first to tell your children about God, to teach your children to pray, to raise them in the faith, to get them involved in the life and ministries of the Church. You witness to them the importance of prayer by your own prayer. You model to them generosity, and compassion to others, particularly those who are in need. Like Joseph and Mary, please continue to guide and help your children in their saying yes to God. It is God alone, as Simeon witnessed with his life, who can fulfill all the longing of the hearts of your children.

Mesec januar je zelo primeren čas za ohranjanje nekaterih slovenskih navad. Na tretjo nedeljo je društvo Bled povabilo vse, ki imajo radi »bujto repo« in klobase (krvavice ali bele, narejene po prekmurskih receptih), da se jim pridružijo na kosilu. Nekateri so samo naročili klobase in so prišli ponje, drugi pa so se zausstavili na kosilu in družabnem srečanju. Klobase še vedno tehtajo v »pound-ih«, ker se sliši še enkrat več kot če bi to povedali v kilogramih (Kanada je sredi 70-tih let začela uvajati metrični sistem, ki pa v vsakdanji uporabi ni v polnosti zaživel). Za glasbo in razpoloženje je poskrbel Branko Pouh. Dvorana se je dobro napolnila, tudi vreme je bilo ugodno, malo snega in hladno, kot nalašč za koline. Hvala vsem za lep obisk.

FRANCKA CESTNIK, 90 LET

V petek, 24. januarja 2020 popoldne, se je nekaj otrok in njihovih družinskih članov zbralo pri mami, Francki Cestnik, saj je prav na ta dan praznovala svoj 90. rojstni dan. Njena želja je bila, da bi se lahko pri sveti maši Bogu zahvalila za vsa ta leta. Tako smo se dogovorili, da smo, popoldne ob treh, darovali sveto mašo kar v domu starejših, West Oak Village v Oakvillu. Pridružilo se je še nekaj drugih iz doma.

Pri maši smo celo zapeli nekaj slovenskih pesmi. Ko sem jo vprašal, če so ji dali ime po svetniku dneva, sv. Frančišku Saleškem, pa je rekla, da ga je dobila po očetu - taka je bila takrat navada, da je prvi otrok dobil ime po očetu. Po maši pa smo se zbrali v drugi sobi na pogostitvi, prisluhnili pa smo preko sredstev sodobne tehnologije, tudi čestitkam tistih, ki takrat niso mogli priti. Hvala tudi Francki za njen življenjski prispevek za našo župnijsko skupnost.
