Japonci se hočejo udeležiti razgovorov o bodočnosti Koreje

Zun. minister Okazaki je dejal, da so japonske koristi v Koreji vsaj tolikšne kot sovjetske in da bo vlada poskrbel za njih zaščito.

TOKIO, Japonska. — Japonska, ki je vladala z želesno roko Korejo nad 40 let, pa se morala od tam po porazu v drugi svetovni vojni umakniti, hoče biti zastopana na bodočih razgovorih, ki bodo urejali razmere na tem po vojni uničenem polotoku.

Zunanji minister je izrazil mnenje, da se bodo razgovorov udeležile države, ki so se udeleževale bojev v Koreji, da bo pa Japonska storila vse, da bodo tudi njeni pogledi na ta vprašanja prišli do izraza.

Oni vedo, da je vprašanje udeležbe Sovjetske zveze na razgovorih še odprt, je dejal japonski zunanji minister, toda gotovo je, da so japonske koristi pri urejanju Koreje prav tako prizadete kot sovjetske, če ne celo bolj.

Pakistan nezadovoljen

KARACHI, Pakistan. — Razpoloženje v prestolnici se je spremeno, ko se je zvedelo, da indijski ministrski predsednik Nehru, ki se je mudil tri dni na obisku, ni predlagal nobenega stvarnega načrta za rešitev kašmirskega spora. Pakistan, v čigar mejah živi muslimanski del prebivalstva Indije, zahteva Kašmir zase, češ, da je nad 95% od 4 milijonov prebivalstva Kašmirja muslimanov.

Indija taki rešitvi spora nasprotuje, češ, da je Kašmir od nekdaj pripadal hindom.

Pakistanci so že ponovno predlagali, naj spor reši plebiscit, Indija pa to odklanja, ker ve, da bi ta odločil v njeniškodo. Večji del Kašmirja imajo zaseden Indiji, manjši Pakistan.

V sporu zaradi Kašmirja med Indijo in Pakistanom so že ponovno poskušali posredovati Združeni narodi, toda do slike vedno brez uspeha.

Položaj albanskega komunističnega diktatorja oslabljen

LONDON, Anglija. — Iz naznajila o sestavi nove albanske vlade je razvidno, da je diktator Enver Hodža zgubil del svoje moći. Ostal je sicer še vedno ministrski predsednik, moral pa je odstopiti obrambno in zunanje ministrstvo drugim. Hodžin glavni teknec Mehmet Shehu je ostal notranji minister, prenehel pa je bili generalni tajnik Albanske delavske (komunistične) stranke. Opazovalci trdijo, da je preosnova vlade le taktična značaja, da bi se nekoliko pomirilo nezadovoljstvo.

Bodi previden in pazljiv, pa se bo izognil marsikateri nešteči!

Vremenski prerok pravi:

Delno oblačno, še dalje toplo.

SEN. TAFT UMIRA

Senator Robert A. Taft

NEW YORK. — Stanje senatorja R. Tafta je kritično in se naglo slabša. Trije izmed njegovih sinov so bili ob njegovi posteli, ko je bilo včeraj pop. sporočeno, da se je senatorjevo stanje obrnilo na slabše in da gre z njim naglo h kraju.

Arizona Daily Star iz Tucsona je prinesel iz Washingtona vest, da ohisksi senator umira na krvnem raku.

Čeprav so prvočno računalni, da bo Taft živel še šest mesecov do enega leta, sedaj ne računa nihče, da bi živel nad nekaj tednov ali celo dni."

Predsednik Eisenhower je poslal k bolnemu senatorju včeraj svojega lastnega zdravnika. Sam pa ga zaradi preoblike posla ni mogel obiskati.

Mrs. Robert Taft, ki je bila več dni ob bolniški posteli svojega moža, se je morala zaradi lastne bolezni vrniti v Washington.

Vzhodnonemška vlada priznava obstoj podtalnega odpora

BERLIN. — Komunistični voditelji Vzhodne Nemčije priznavajo, da obstoja v deželi organiziran odpor proti njih vladni. Po njih besedah ga podpirajo Združene države in njihovi zavezniški.

Med tem, ko prihajajo Nemci iz sovjetske cone v stotisočih v Zahodni Berlin po brezplačne pakete z ameriškim živjem in jih pri tem ne morejo ustaviti največje grožnje, razpravljajo komunistični oblastniki o vzrokih nemira in o sredstvih, s katerimi bi vzpostavili red in mir.

Po vsem sodeč so delno spremenili podrobnosti v svojem petletnem gospodarskem načrtu in skušajo do neke mere zboljšati prehrano ter dvigniti splošno živiljensko raven.

Predlog za spremembu Tart-Hartley zakona

WASHINGTON. — Eisenhowereva administracija je končno gotova s pripravami za spremembu spornega Taft-Hartley zakona in ga bo poslala Kongresu v obravnavanje.

Sice ni nobene možnosti, da bi predlog za spremembu obravnavali že sedaj, vendar računajo, da ga bo predsednik poslal še do kraja tega tedna na Kapitol.

Delavskemu tajniku Martini Durkin se je v razgovorih z drugimi člani administracije posrečilo zavreti spremjevalne predlage, ki so bili zanj ne sprejemljivi.

Poleg kašmirskega vprašanja bosta predstavnika obeh držav skušala rešiti tudi spor glede izkorisčanja vodnih sil v mehinih področjih.

Nemci bodo gradili most čez Bospor

BONN, Nemčija. — Krupove tovarne v Essenu so predložile turški vladni predhodnem naročilu načrt za gradnjo mostu preko Bosporja, morske ožine, ki loči Evropo od Azije. Most bo dolg 4,550 čevljev in bo stal okoli 65 milijonov dolarjev.

Nemci bodo gradili velikanski jez v Egiptu

BONN, Nemčija. — Skupina nemških inženirjev se je dalj časa mudila v Egiptu, kjer je študirala možnosti graditve velikega jezu na reki Nil. Novi jez bo daleko večji od onega pri Asuuanu in bo služil umetnemu namakanju in pridobivanju električne sile.

TUDI MOSKVA HOČE IMETI ZEDINJENO KOREJO

Tuji diplomatski krogi v Moskvi so prepričani, da bo Kremelj predložil na razgovorih o Koreji pri Združenih narodih poseben načrt za združenje Koreje in za umik vseh tujih čet iz polotoka ter zahteval svobodne volitve tako v Severni kot v Južni Koreji.

MOSKVA. — V krogih zastopnikov zahodnih držav prevladuje mnenje, da ima Sovjetska zveza že pripravljen načrt, ki ga bo predlagala Združenemu narodu, ko bodo ti dačeli obravnavati korejsko vprašanje. Po tem načrtu bodo Sovjeti zahtevali umik vseh tujih čet iz Severne Koreje.

Zavzeli se bodo za splošne volitve v vsej deželi.

Kremelj je opozoril Washington, da bo padla nanj odgovornost za morebitni prelom premirja s strani Južne Koreje.

Načela, postavljena v omenjenih govorih in v Pravdu, nudijo dovolj dokazov, da Sovjeti ne bodo zavrnili vabila na razgovore o bodočnosti Nemčije, čeprav je bilo težje razpravljanja Koreja.

Isti diplomatski krogi sklepajo, da Sovjeti ne bo odklonila vabila zahodnih veleposlancev na razgovore o bodočnosti Nemčije in Avstrije, pač pa bo stavila svoje predloge za njih dnevnvi red.

Načni govorov Malenkova in Molotova ter pisana uradna "Pravde" sodijo slednje:

NAJNOVEJŠE VESTI

TOKIO. — Sovjeti so sporočili, da so sestrelili ameriški bombnik B-50, ki da je letel nad njihovim ozemljem. Protest, ki so ga poslali vladni Združenih držav trdi, da je ameriški bombnik začel streljati na sovjetska letala, ki so mu hotela dati znak, da je nad njihovim ozemljem. Ko so takoj vrnili, je letalo odletelo na morje. Ena izmed sovjetskih lovskih letal je bilo težko poškodovano. Gen. Weyland je včeraj izjavil, da ni nobeno ameriško letalo kršilo sovjetskega ozemlja. Sopiloti sestreljenega letala, edinega izmed 17 mož posadke letala, so mornariške sile rešile nekako 50 milj od sovjetskega pristanišča Vladivostok.

V slučaju potrditve tega zahodnega predloga bi bil pri uradu glavnega državnega tožilca ustanovljen oddelek za preiskavo komunistične delavnosti. Glavni tožilec bi moral izslediti preiskav predati okrajnim tožilcem za izročitev porotam.

V svoji utemeljitvi zavrnitev zakonskega predloga je govoril, "toda pri tem moramo biti gotovi, da bodo sredstva, ki jih uporabljamo, v skladu s pravimi ameriškimi načeli o pravčnosti in človeških pravicah."

Francozi zajeli večji oddelek komunistov v Indokinji

SAIGON, Indokina. — Francozi so obkobili v bližini obalnega mesta Hue okoli 3,000 mož komunistične uporniške vojske in jo sedaj uničujejo z osredotočenim napadom letalstva, vojnici ladij in suhozemskih vojske.

Nekateri bataljoni komunističnih bojevnikov so se že predali, ostalim pa je onemogočen vsak umik v gozdovi portugalci. Komunistični oddelek je več mesecev oviral zvezne med obalnimi mestni in nadlegovali prebivalstvo.

Jugoslovani se pogovarjajo sosedi

BEOGRAD, Jugoslavija. — Predstavniki jugoslovancev in rumunske vlade se sestanejo 27. julija v Temišvaru, da se pogovore o obmejnih spopadih. Podobni razgovori so predvideni tudi z Madžarsko, le da še ni znan čas in kraj sestankova.

Donovan imenovan za poslanika v Siamu

WASHINGTON. — Predsednik Eisenhower je imenoval gen. William J. Donovan za poslanika v Siamu (Thailand).

Donovan, ki je star sedaj 70 let, se je udeležil prve sestanke vojne, v času drugega svetovnega vojne, pa je bil načelnik OSS (Osrednjega obveščevalnega služba).

Pravilna in napačna borba proti komunizmu

Še ob času lanske volilne borbe se je izjavil načelnik ameriške F. B. I., da bo bodoča administracija naredila dosti proti svetovnemu komunizmu, če bo storila vsaj toliko, kolikor je Trumanova. Za borbo proti prodiranju svetovnega komunizma je prejšna ameriška vlada izvedla takozvani Marshallov načrt, ki je v svoji velikopoteznosti nekaj edinstvenega v svetovni zgodovini. Poleg tega pa je bivši predsednik Truman priključil našim diplomatskim zastopstvom v tujih državah odpolance ameriških delavskih unij, ki naj bi med delavstvom v tujih državah vodili borbo proti svetovnemu komunizmu. Tega tudi še ni bilo nikdar v zgodovini, da bi kaka država poslala zastopnike svojega organiziranega delavstva v tuje države kot člane diplomatskih poslanstev.

O uspešnem delovanju enega izmed teh delavskih "diplomatov," če bi ga smeli tako imenovati, je pred kratkom poročala Chicago Daily News in po njem tudi demokratski magazin Democratic Digest, ter tudi drugi časopisi.

Predsednik Truman je namreč poslal že generalu MacArthurju na Japonsko in Tokijo katoliškega Irca Dicca Deveralla kot nekakega načelnika odbora za delavsko vzgojo pri štabu tega generala, da bi vodil delo protikomunistične borbe med delavskimi množicami vzhodne Azije. Ta odlični zastopnik delavske unije iz Detroita je s komaj tisoč dolarji mesečne podpore izvršil veliko delo v borbi proti komunizmu, pokazal je izredno iznajdljivost in vtrajnost pri svojem težkem delu, s čemur je dosegel mnogo več kot vse bučno in kričeče delo ameriške radio postaje Radio Free Asia in druge ameriške agencije, ki so izdale velike svote za propagando.

Kot odličen katolik ima Mr. Dick Deverall izreden čut za delavsko razpoloženje in pri tem velik humor, ki mu pomaga delavce spraviti v dobro voljo. On ne nastopa kot kak imeniten Amerikanec, se ne udeležeje šumečih družabnih prieditev ameriške in japonske družbe, marveč se preprosto glibje največ med delavci in se udeležeje njih shodov na Japonskem, v Indiji, Burmi, Thailandu, na Filipinu in na Cejltonu. Z vso odločnostjo pogosto pomaga delavskim slojem v njih težavah za njih pravice proti kapitalističnemu izkorisčanju, ki cvete v vzhodni Aziji.

Deverall je tudi odličen pisatelj, na Japonskem izdaja v japonsčini mesečno časopis, spisal je tudi knjigo "Rdeča zvezda nad Japonsko," kjer razkrinka komunistično infiltracijo in protiamerško rovarjenje. Komunisti se namreč predvsem skušajo vgnezditi v delavska društva v Aziji in jih izrabiti za politične namene proti Združenim državam. Komunisti so v deželah Vzhodne Azije že marsikoga prepojili s svojo propagando.

Nekoč je prišel v Tokijo k Deverallu odličen Indijec na obisk. Ta mu je naravnost očital, da ameriške vojaške sile širijo med Japonci nemoralnost. Deverall je Indija mirno poslušal, nato pa brez ugovora naročil taksi, s katerim sta se peljala v najbolj rdeči del Tokija, ki je znani tudi po svoji nemoralnosti. Tri ure sta tam hodila po ulicah in obiskala razne lokale. Ko sta končala pot, je Deverall mirno vprašal Indijca:

"Koliko Amerikancev ste tu videli?"

Ves presenečen je odgovoril obiskovalec: "Jaz sem presenečen, niti enega Amerikanca nisva tu opazila, vti ti tisoči so sami Japonci. V Indijo se vračam popolnoma drugačno mišljena, nekdo nas je zelo potegnil za nos."

Tako je Deverall spreobrnil vplivnega Indijca, filokomunista in protiamerikanca na nediplomatski, toda najbolj učinkovit način.

Prihodnjo noč se je Deverall udeležil velikega delavskega shoda, kjer je ves čas mirno poslušal, ko je delavski komunistični agitator proslavljal delavski raj Sovjetske Rusije in slikal kapitalistično suženjstvo delavca v Združenih državah. Ko je govornik končal, je Deverall mirno vstal in rekel: "Jaz bi rad stavl le eno vprašanje: kdaj je bil v Sovjetski Rusiji kak delavski štrajk in koliko jih je bilo med tem časom v Združenih državah?" Samo s tem vprašanjem je bilo vse govorjenje komunista ovrenzo.

Marshallov načrt in delavski zastopniki pri ameriških diplomatskih zastopstvih so najbolj učinkovito orožje v borbi proti komunizmu posebno radi tega, ker se vrši vse delo brez kakega strankarstva.

Velika napaka republikanske borbe proti komunizmu, dasi je včasih zelo ostra in glasna, pa leži v tem, da je preveč vprežena v strankarski voz. Saj je McCarthy odličen borec proti komunizmu, toda že med volilno borbo je izrabljal protikomunistično borbo predvsem proti demokratski stranki, se pri tem precej zaletel, kar je sicer prineslo nekaj glasov republikancem, toda borbi proti komunizmu je pa škodovalo.

Ko se je po nekaj mesecih McCarthyjeve borbe proti komunizmu v Združenih državah pokazalo, da postaja njegovo postopanje pri preiskovalnem senatnem odboru vedno bolj osvoraženo, so se sedaj demokratski člani tega odbora iz strankarskih ozirov umaknili iz njega. Tako stran-karsko politični oziri zelo ovirajo resno borbo proti komunizmu. Iz strahu pred volitvami se je pričela celo republikanska stranka ohlajevati za borbo, kot jo vodi McCarthy.

Ljudje, ki so prišli iz držav, kjer vlada komunizem, povedujejo, da nosi veliko krivdo za prihod komunizma na oblast prevoljno strankarstvo, ki je oviralo uspešno borbo proti njemu.

M. Ijen, je bil pri koncu svoje službe. Rad bi bil ostal še dlje, zato je dal na glasovanje: "Vsi, ki ste zato, da ostanem še eno leto, recite JA." Nihče se ni oglasil. "Dobro," je dejal. "Kdor molči, ta se strinja." Me veseli, da ste me zopet izvolili."

Dve poroki zadnjega soboto sta poslali dva para v svet zvezana tako tesno, da ju nobena moč razen božje ne more ločiti. Ne predsednik ne papež ne more raztrgati te vezi. Pred oltar sta prišla najprej Dolores Kushner in William Baker. Lep par, o katerem upamo slišati še marsikaj lepega. Drugi par pa je bil William Perko, iz družine Joseph Perko in Ane rojene Slak, in pa Dolores Fenckach. Nevesta je ruskega pokoljenja, ki je pred par tedni vstopila v katoliško cerkev. Upamo, da bosta srečna vse skozi in se tako rada imela, kot se imata zdaj.

V Albuquerku, N. M., imajo takozvani "curfew." Ko ta zavoni ali zatuli, morajo vsi otroci pod 12 letom biti doma ali pa se arretirani. (Ko bi še Cleveland imel takolega.) Neki par je bil prijet po "curfew" in pripeljan pred sodnika. Ko pa je sodnik slišal, da je fant šel po svojo mater v saloon, ga je izpuštil. Kaj ne, kako čudno se to sliši, da mora deček po mater v saloon. Poročilo ne pravi, da je sodnik mater kaznoval mesto dečka, kar bi bilo zelo prav.

Baptisti krščujejo tako, da gresta krščenec in krščevalec čes pas v vodo. Zato se je pa moglo zgrediti, ko je minister Arizona Brisco krščeval spreobrnjenca, mu je grdi tat odnesel hlača in še $81.00, ki jih je imel v žepu. To so res zlikovci, kateri zaslužijo, da bi kdo nje potukanil in potem pod vodo držal nekaj časa.

Neka katoliška družba je poslala svojega zastopnika prodajat Sv. pismo. Knjiga je res lepa in vsaka hiša bi jo moralama imeti. Le, ker je zelo dobro vezana, je precej draga. Kar sem hotel s tem je to, naj bi si nabavila vsaka hiša Sv. pismo tega ali pa katerega bolj poceni, ki ga dobite v vsaki trgovini, kjer prodajajo religiozne stvari. Zlasti Novi testament je zelo priporočljiv za vsako hišo. Paziti pa morate, ker tudi protestanti ponavljajo njihovo "Sveti pismo." Njihova knjiga je pomankljiva, ker so izpustili vse tisto, kar njim ni bilo všeč. Berite katoliški Sv. pismo!

Razlita voda

Lin-Yu je bil zelo reven. Koma, da je zaslužil za najpotrebenejše. Sicer je hodil dolgo časa v šole in bil zelo učen, pa vendar ni mogel dobiti službe. Živel je od riža in vode, ki jo je njegova žena nosila iz vodnjaka. Večkrat je manjkalo tudi riža.

Lin-Yu je upal. Imel je vero sam vase in bil je prepričan, da nju bosta vzdržnost in zaupanje prinesla boljši dni.

Yun-Meng pa se je čakanja naveličala. Prosila je moža, naj ji da prostost, da si bo lahko poiskala drugega, bogatejšega.

Lin-Yu jo je gledal in molčal. "Saj ti ni treba več skrbeti za me," je končno dejal, "tisto mamo, kar sedaj z menoj deliš, naj bo le tvoje, samo tvoje. Toda, ostani pri meni, ljubim te."

Žena pa ni odnethala prositi za svojo prostost. "Ne morem več čakati, revščine sem sita, bogatega moža si hočem poiskati!"

Njene besede so gabolele in pustil je, da je odšla.

Kmalu nato se je obrnilo. Dobil je službo, se izkopal iz revščine in užival ugled.

Tedaj se je Yun-Meng vrnila in ga prosila, naj jo spet vzame.

"Kako naj jo zberem, če sem jo razlila?" je vprašala žena.

Lin-Yu je prikimal in odšel.

Žena pa je spoznala, da se razlito ne da več zbrati, pa naj bo to voda ali ljubezen.

Ali se da kaj napraviti, da se prepreči izbruh protina?

Seveda se da, saj vemo, da dednost igra veliko vlogo pri širjenju protina. Zato naj odroki staršev, ki imajo sedaj srežo obliko protina, in drugi srodniki bolnikov napravijo preventivno vse, da se izognede protinski napadom.

Tak napad lahko nastopi po dajanju čistilnih sredstev (ricinovega olja) pred operacijo, ker se s tem odstrani iz telesa precej tekočine, nasičenost krvi s solmi sečne kisline se pa poveča.

Njene besede so se počutile in vodnik, ki je zaslužil za najpotrebenejše. Sicer je hodil dolgo časa v šole in bil zelo učen, pa vendar ni mogel dobiti službe. Živel je od riža in vode, ki jo je njegova žena nosila iz vodnjaka. Večkrat je manjkalo tudi riža.

Lin-Yu je upal. Imel je vero sam vase in bil je prepričan, da nju bosta vzdržnost in zaupanje prinesla boljši dni.

Yun-Meng pa se je čakanja naveličala. Prosila je moža, naj ji da prostost, da si bo lahko poiskala drugega, bogatejšega.

Lin-Yu jo je gledal in molčal. "Saj ti ni treba več skrbeti za me," je končno dejal, "tisto mamo, kar sedaj z menoj deliš, naj bo le tvoje, samo tvoje. Toda, ostani pri meni, ljubim te."

Žena pa ni odnethala prositi za svojo prostost. "Ne morem več čakati, revščine sem sita, bogatega moža si hočem poiskati!"

Njene besede so gabolele in pustil je, da je odšla.

Kmalu nato se je obrnilo. Dobil je službo, se izkopal iz revščine in užival ugled.

Tedaj se je Yun-Meng vrnila in ga prosila, naj jo spet vzame.

"Kako naj jo zberem, če sem jo razlila?" je vprašala žena.

Lin-Yu je prikimal in odšel.

Pismo
Vrhenškega
Tineta

Well, ne vem kaj bi rekel. Pri Prosveti vsak urednik hodi svojo pot. Pri nekaterih je več pri nekaterih manj "tovariškega" duha. Ampak Tito je njihov mesija! Kakopak! Kakor petelin med kokoši!

V prav isti številki sem našel pa se druge zanimivosti. Kakšne? Le berite in sledite!

Iz Monaca Pa, piše neka Olga Russ. Kdo je ta Olga Russ to jaz ne vem. Le njen dopis sem bral v Prosveti z dne 22. junija t. l.

Tam Olga Russ kritizira A. D. Prav "junaško" povdarja, da A. D. potvarja preteklost. Takoj v prvem stavku ta nemirna duša zapiše, da mora napisati nekaj v odgovor, drugače ji vest ne da miru. Very well, če so to zdravila za take bolezni, potem draga Olga kar piše v Prosvetu! Morada bo še kak Prosvetin dopisnik dočakal, da bodo dopisi v Prosveti pomagali zdraviti revmatizem. To bo sijajna bodočnost za dopisnike Prosvete! Kaj pa tovarišica Olga piše, da je tako zanimivo? Olga pravi, da je po "naključju prejela Ameriško Domovino. Ah, saj razumemo kaj je to "po naključju." Ne dolgo tega mi je pravil prijatelj, da se je peljal z nekim znancem na deželo. Tisti znane, je pa "tovariškega duha" in čita samo "napredne" liste. Tamkaj na deželi je pa videl pri znancih list Ameriško Domovino. Da si ga videl, kako jo jebral! Vsako vrsto je preduhval. Po takem "naključju" bero vsi "napredni tovariši" Ameriško Domovino. To sicer ni nič slabega, ampak le znamenje, da "tovariši salamsko upoštevajo Ameriško Domovino! Drugače bi ne utikali svojega nosu vanju, kakor ga.

Mlada dvojica šla v smrt molic... Eisenhower odklonil pomiloščenje z ostro trpkim izjavom. Obrambeni odvetnik ostro obsevil kruto justico.

Potem poročilo omenja razne dogodke. V New Yorku pravi, d se je zbral "ogromno število ljudi..." kajpada v protestnih demonstracijah proti eksekuciji... Potem omeni, da je bilo čez 5000 ljudi. Za New York, ki ima okrog 8,000,000 ljudi ni to tako "ogromno." Ampak beseda "ogromno" je privrela ali prikipele iz "tovariškega" srca!

Dalje, ko se je izvedelo, da je bil zadnji poizkus izgubljen, "jemnočica plakala in več žensk je omedlelo..." Seveda! Na koncu vpraša tovariši, ki je poročal v Prosvetu: "Če sta bila kriva, ali ni bilo druge poti ko smrt?"

Well, jaz sam ne odobravam smrtne kazni! To je nekaj strašnega, najstrašnejšega. Ampak človeška družba to prakticira že zadnjih 6 ali 7 tisoč let, morda še več. In za tovariša pri "Prosveti" bi bilo morda važno to le: Ali je Stalin kedaj koga vprašal, če sme koga ubiti ali ne? Ali je njegov ljubljenc Tito koga vprašal, ko je tisoč Slovencev, Hrvatov in Srbov "čistil" po Stalnovem receptu? Če on ve za kak tak slučaj, ga uljudno prosim, da to objavi da se zagorskemu "junaku" Titu to odračuna.

In Rosenbergovima se je dalo 27 mesecev časa, da dokazeta svojo nedolžnost, ali pa, da povesta da sta bila v to zapeljana in kdo vse je bil v njihovi družbi, ali v družbi, ki ju je zapeljala v tako "elitno" družbo, ki vodi v "mrtvi konec" ulice. Ne ono ne drugo nista storila, ne sama, ne njuni zagovorniki.

Kritizirati in odpirati usta je lahko!

Jaz bi le rad ponizno vprašal, kedaj je Stalin, ali pa njegov učenec Tito, dal kakemu nasprotniku 27 mesecev časa, da dokazuje svojo nedolžnost?

Ne bodimo smešni! Srečen je, kdor jutranjo zarjo dočaka, če pada le v nemilost pri komunističnih velečinah, takih kakor je bil Stalin, ali kakor je v Jugoslaviji Tito. Ampak "tovariši" pri sopotniških listih take reči gledajo z drugimi očali v Ameriki! Razumemo!

Predsednik Eisenhower, kot general razume, kaj pomeni izdajstvo. Bojeval se je na številnih frontah in več kako nevarna izdaja. "Radi izdaje atomskih tajnosti ruskim špijonom," tako berem pa komentar v uredniškem članku na drugi strani Prosvete, "sta bila obsojena. Tu pa drugi pisev prizna nekaj o neki izdaji, dasi oseba, ki je pisala poročilo za prvo stran iste številke je drugega "tovariškega" duha."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Opaskar Wed Half Century

On August 9, 1903, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Opaskar, nee Kolar, old Slovenian pioneers, now residing at 3435 Euclid Hts., Boulevard, Cleveland Hts., O., were married at the City of Ljubljana in Yugoslavia, which was then Austria. He is 76 and she is 75.

Immediately after the wedding they sailed for the United States on their honeymoon, arriving in this country about August 25, 1903, but they never returned to their native land. They settled in Cleveland, O. — originally on old Clinton Street now E. 38th St. Mr. Opaskar went into the building and contracting business and was instrumental in the construction of thousands of homes in the old Glenville Ave. -Fisher Body area, later Cleveland Hts., Shaker Hts., and City of Cleveland, in association with many other builders, many of whom have departed. In this city he helped build several of the buildings on the old Painter Estate now used as Beaumont School for Girls.

They have been members of St. Vitus parish from the days when it was located in a farming area, and Mr. Opaskar's building activities date back to the time when everything east of East 55th Street was rural, the present E. 105th St. then Doan St., being a race track at that time.

They are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary with a service at St. Vitus Church at 9:00 a.m. Aug. 9th, and an open house at the residence of a son, Mr. and Mrs. Fr. V. Opaskar, 2524 Miramar Boulevard, University Hts., O. from 4 to 7 p.m.

Summer School of Catholic Action

The Summer School of Catholic Action will be here at Hotel Cleveland Aug. 3-8 at a midway stop on its tour of 7 cities.

Fifty courses, conducted by a staff of 19 Jesuits and 3 lay instructors will be offered by the Summer School, which is in its 23rd consecutive year. Since the opening of the school in 1931, 133,000 persons have attended the different sessions.

The SSCA, held here at the invitation of Archbishop Edward F. Hoban (himself a sodalist for 60 years) is being sponsored locally by the Greater Cleveland Diocesan Sodality Council which includes parish, high school, college and alumni sodality groups.

Combining an education and a retreat with a vacation, the school promises "six days you'll never forget" to conventioners. It aims to train leaders among Catholic youth groups. The theme each year is based upon the annual statement of U. S. Bishops. This year it is "Religion — Our Most Vital National Asset."

In a general session, entitled "Religion is for life", Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J. and Rev. Louis J. Twomey, S.J. will explain that respect for all lawful authority has its origin in the relationship between man and his Creator.

The school is open to all, both Catholic and Non-Catholic. Priests, Religious, seminarians, lay men and women and students have been invited. Courses on Sodality Organization, Catholic action, Social Order and Spiritual action will be offered.

A committee of 66, representing parish, high school, college and alumni groups is headed by Miss Marie J. Okarma, 10200 Parkview Ave., S.E.

Priest-directors of the Diocesan Sodality divisions are acting in advisory capacity. These include: Rev. Joseph M. Misich, Diocesan Sodality Director, Rev. Joseph M. Spitzig, Collegiate Director, Rev. Casimir Ciolek, parish groups, and Rev. Edmund Mondzelewski, High schools.

Wedding Bells

Tomorrow morning at 9 in St. Christine Church on E. 200 St. Miss Dolores Kausek will become the bride of Arnold Jamnik. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kausek, 21200 Nauman Ave., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jamnik, 1014 E. 169 St. The wedding reception will be held in the evening at the AJC on Recher Ave.

Speeding on U.S. streets and highways last year killed 13,430 men, women and children.

Teach Safety to Children

1. Children should be taught early in life that fires burn them, falls hurt them, poisons make them ill, and knives and scissors cut them.

2. Poisons, disinfectants and medicine should be kept in locked cabinets or high out of the child's reach.

3. Children should be shown the dangers of bonfires and matches and how to avoid them, but at the same time fireplaces should be screened and matches kept out of the reach of children.

4. Handles of kitchen pots should be turned toward the back of the stove and out of the reach of children.

5. Guns, if kept in the house at all, should be put away unloaded and under lock and key.

6. Children should be taught how to walk carefully with sharp knives, scissors, and glass containers as soon as they are able to understand the dangers of such things. Until that time make sure sharp instruments are put away safely.

7. Children should be guarded from perilous climbs and from dangerous ledges and stairs. Screens should be fastened securely with the screening nailed tightly to the frame.

"Parents must teach safety to their children and shape the child's behavior and habits to meet this problem in the early years at home. Over-protection is not the answer to accident prevention. Careful instruction combined with intelligent precaution will achieve far greater and more lasting safety," Dr. Johnson, President of The Ohio Society for Crippled Children, advises.

LADIES AUXILIARY ST. VITUS POST 1655 CWV

A new member has been added to our auxiliary ranks, namely Elizabeth Vokac. A hearty welcome is extended to you, Betty, from all the members and we hope to see you being very active and taking part in our many doings.

Our own Dorothy Grum spent a heavenly vacation at Chalet Co-chand, a resort that's nestled in the Laurentian Mountains not very far from Montreal, Quebec. Much of her time was spent at their beautiful swimming pool; also, she took part in a tennis tournament which was held for the guests at the Chalet.

A planned hike with a guide and lunch at the summit of the mountain also proved to be quite interesting.

Dotty said one of her most exciting moments came about when she rode on the ski chairs up Mont Tremblant, one of the finest places in Quebec for skiing.

Evenings were leisurely and a hilarious time was had by all at the Masquerade party, in which all guests at the resort had to participate in a skit of some sort.

Dorothy got together with one of the men and together they put on a Sheik of Arab skit, dressing as Sheik and harem girl, and then dueting "Sheik of Arab" and "Forever and Ever".

Gov. Lausche reminisced about his own days at St. Vitus School some 45 years ago. He recalled Sister Mannetta and Sister Candida among others. He then invited everyone into his private office. There he shook hands with each individual that made the trip, including the smallest baby. He asked each one his name and talked in a friendly manner individually. Over a half hour of the governor's time was given to us. Finally, Father

Governor Lausche

This was dwarfed a few minutes later, as the whole crowd was presented into Gov. Lausche's meeting room. Here, our gracious, friendly Frank our own boy was tickled pink to see so many of his former neighbors. He was presented a plaque in memory of our visit, and, for his Slovenian ancestry, a large potica. The governor was a friendly host who made the boys at home by naming one of the boys Roger Ritchie, as Governor for a day. He then had a lieutenant governor and a whole complete cabinet appointed. The real governor Lausche then stepped back into the crowd and said, "Now, you are the government — just what will you do for the state?" The boys were full of suggestions as to improvement of highways — more and bigger vacation from school, etc.

CAPITOL DIGEST

by
Ted S. Alexander
Columbus, Ohio

The thunder in Ohio's legislative halls is fading away. Its last clap will come on July 31st when the 100th General Assembly returns to consider Gov. Frank J. Lausche's vetoes and officially quit for the year.

But the rumble left from "shotgun" legislation and "take it or leave it" law-making will echo for a long time. Seven months of sessions did little to lift the prestige of the 3-to-1 GOP-dominated Legislature.

One of the final and reportedly most resented blows came when the House of Representatives concluded its work on July 14. The gavel was pounded without notice to the Senate, leaving the upper chamber to "rubber stamp" any legislation it wanted. Despite the lack of liaison, the concluding sessions were orderly as compared with regular working sessions when debate was encouraged.

The abrupt ending left some members complaining that the leaders of the two houses had promised that their pet legislation would get consideration.

As in all political activity, history will be the best judge of the effectiveness of the GOP-leaders last-minute program (practically no major legislation was approved until mid-June). But already the politically-conscious and the unbiased have clashed.

The Cleveland Press reported the 100th would be "distinguished by what it didn't do—its acts of omission—rather than what it did." The Press pointed to the huge (record) budget and imposition of nearly $50 million a year in new taxes, and then noted the following "FAILURE" items:

"FAILURE" to pass FEP, rewrite utility rate fixing laws, strengthen strip mining laws, adopt tighter narcotics laws, improve workers' compensation legislation, restore $10 million in cuts in welfare department appropriations.

On the other side came such reports as "An impressive record," and "100th Legislature has Record that will be Hard to Surpass."

Gov. Frank J. Lausche is expected to return some bills to the Legislature with his disapproval. Whether any of his vetoes will upset the pork-barrel balance achieved by the 100th remains to be seen.

The legislature has been a long one, an expensive one. It has imposed more new taxes than any in the last two decades and the equity of the new taxes is highly questionable. Perhaps the best summary of the last 7 months would be that lobbyists were active as never before and there were few voices speaking for the people of Ohio.

Novelist Janez Mencinger

By E. A. KOVACIC

Janez Mencinger (1838-1912), born in the village of Brod in the Bohinj valley under the highest Slovenian mountain Triglav, served after his graduation from Vienna University as a lawyer in the towns of Brežice, Kranj and Krško in Slovenia. As a student, he co-operated in the literary circle "Javaevci", first as a poet and later as a novelist.

Mencinger was the author of a number of short stories describing the tension between the peasant and the city-dwellers. From 1865 until 1881, he did not write anything for the public. At the end of the century, he became one of the most original Slovenian writers. Satiric and realistic in style with an excellent language, Mencinger became the philosopher in the Slovenian prose, for he always put some of his ideas in his writings.

Mencinger's satiric writing dealt with contemporary problems of the Slovenian literature, while his masterworks were the expression of the ideas of the "philosopher of Krško". Those were the utopies "Abadon" and "Moja hoja na Triglav" (My climbing of Triglav).

In "Abadon", published in 1893 in the magazine "Ljubljanski Zvon", Mencinger described the perils of materialistic and totalitarian ideas for the humanity. He called his novel "a fairy tale for old people" and described in it the dreams of a young man misled by modern pessimistic philosophers. With the evil spirit Abadon, to whom the young man gave his soul, he saw the future destiny of the Slovenians and the entire mankind. The future showed him a horrible war and the decline of religion and morality, a victory of atheistic materialism with the exploit of technical progress and totalitarian slavery.

In "Abadon", Mencinger expressed his belief in Christianity as the only salvation. His novel was one of the earliest utopian novels in European literatures condemning totalitarian ideas. Mencinger's last novel "Moja hoja na Triglav" in 1897 was the author's farewell from the field of literature. In his last work, Mencinger described the beautiful native valley nad the climbing of Triglav which peak he never reached, but used all the description of the climbing for discussions of cultural problems.

ST. VITUS

Tom invited him to come to the St. Vitus 60th Anniversary Celebration on Sun., Aug. 30th. He promised to attend the morning and afternoon ceremonies. Our heartfelt thanks to the Governor for his friendly visit with us.

Conclusion

This concluded our most important part of our visit. Later the boys marched to the Columbus Museum of Art and were shown some of its famous exhibits. Then the Cubs were taken back downtown where they were given a chance to "Swim" in a cold drink which refreshed everyone. The afternoon was spent in sightseeing in the downtown district and of course a chance for some shopping. An evening meal at a Cafeteria brought a close to our visit and the boys marched back again to the Union Depot. Reason for all the marching — was a transit strike in Columbus.

After waiting for a train that was over half an hour late, the trek home started. The train made marvelous time and we arrived home only 10 minutes late. Tired and happy, the party dispersed at the Terminal with hopes that another trip on the same order, would not be too far away.

We wish too at this time to thank Mr. Leo Leslie, especially, and committee men of Pack 100 for a job well done.

My Washington Window

By Our Washington Correspondent

Washington, D. C.—The increasing number of letters and telegrams sent to the White House by Americans requesting an intervention of our government in regard of the medical aid to Cardinal Stepinac, gave a clear picture that the American people do not agree with the support of the Communist tyrant Tito. More and more letters should be sent and no American citizen believing in Freedom and Democracy should fail to request a protest by our government against the religious persecutions behind the Tito's curtain. If we consider Tito as an ally, then we demand that he keeps his promise given to the U.N. by signing the Proclamation of Human Rights.

Since Tito's interior policy follows the Soviet pattern, we can't understand why Yugoslav refugees are not treated on the same basis as refugees from other terror stricken countries. Our charity organizations are in no way able to take the responsibility for those who are forgotten by organizations which are taking care of iron curtain refugees. Should the international gangster Tito influence our policy toward refugees and even immigration? For among the proposals of emergency immigration there are dangerous trends to exclude Yugoslav refugees from emergency immigration just because Tito would not like it.

The Communist press in the US is rejoicing in the great success of the Communist propaganda against the honor of President Syngman Rhee and the gallant Korean nation who don't intend to stop fighting Communism even if we break our solemn promises. The Communist "Daily Worker" in New York is able to quote a number of American papers who unconsciously followed the party line by supporting our policy of appeasement. A nationally syndicated columnist on labor, Victor Riesel, says that we are "in a hysterical stampede to sell the Soviets the rope with which they plan to hang us." The American Legion condemned our dealing with the Korean people placing in contrast the promises made to No. Koreans if they would abandon the Communist cause with what is happening to them now. In the case that our government doesn't stop its policy of not keeping promises, our allies all over world will be afraid to oppose Communism, for it is still better to have a position under the Communist dictatorship than to be sent by the Free World to the Communists to a certain death.

Recently, two escaped Polish airmen and a university professor from Poland urged the US to take positive steps to encourage freedom-loving people behind the iron curtain. They demand a proper guarantee for refugees that they would not be turned back to certain death.

In Toronto, Canada, loyal citizens organized a committee of "Canadians for Non-Recognition of Red China." In their proclamation, the Canadians say that "to recognize the Red regime of China today is to stand on the side of Communism in the struggle of Asia." In our opinion, the Canadians should condemn the British policy making business with the enemy when the American people are engaged in the struggle with Red China.

The fall of Beria in the Soviet Union did not surprise anyone who knows the Communist system, for purges in the Communist Party are no news at all. The present dictator of the Soviet Union apparently follows the tradition of his predecessor who removed and sentenced a number of the most prominent Lenin's friends. Trotsky, the founder of the Red Army, Buharin, after Lenin the most prominent Communist philosopher, Radek, Zinovjev, etc. were proclaimed as traitors to the party. It seems to be mighty difficult for a party member to stay in the party line, for Beria, who was yesterday the most powerful police-chief of the Red empire, is today victim of the same brutal system he helped to create. The revolution is still devouring its children, which means that it is still a revolution. After Stalin's death, his countryman from Georgia in the Caucasus was removed from the scene and he will very likely face the same death he prepared to so many others.

Bait Ads Promise Much, Give Little

"Bait advertising of unscrupulous firms has long been a thorn in the side of reputable merchants. No business is immune, but 'bait-vertisers' have been going to town with used cars, television sets and other appliances, siding and furniture. You might see an ad offering late model cars for as low as $600—the line below, in small type, tells the rest of the story: $600 below the 'average market.' What do you suppose is the 'average market' for those cars?

Some of the bait ads would be amusing if it were not for the tragedy of gullible people believing them. For example, a furniture store recently offered a complete 3-room outfit for $169, consisting of a 10-piece living room, 9-piece bedroom and 58-piece kitchen.

The bedroom set actually was made up of two pillows, a bed and a chest of drawers. How did they figure nine pieces? Believe it or not, the salesman kept a straight face as he counted up the nine pieces including the headboard, footboard and the cross bars that held the bed together!
