RODBINSKA SREČA

ROMAN

Naša hiša je bila ena izmed starih podeželskih hiš, v kateri je preživelo v spoštovanju in ljubezni drugo do drugega več sorodnih pokolenj. Iz vsake stvari je vejal po dobrih, poštetih rodbinskih spominih, ki so postali takoj, ko sem stopila v hišo mahoma tudi moji spomini. Pohištvo in red v hiši je imela Tatjana Semjonovna starodavno. Ne morem reči, da bi bilo vse odlično in lepo; toda od poselov pa do pohištva in jedi, vse je bilo čedno, tečno, lično in je vzbujalo spoštovanje. V sprejemnici je stalo pohištvo simetrično, na stenah so viseli portreti in na tleh so bile razgrnjene domače preproge in takiči. V salonu je stal star klavir, dve omari različnih slogov, divani in mizice z medenimi okovi in vložki. V moji sobici, ki jo je z veliko skrbnostjo uredila Tatjana Semjonovna, je stalo najboljšo pohištvo vseh vekov in slogov, med njim tudi ogledalo, katerega od početka nisem mogla pogledati brez zadrege, kaj mi je pozneje postalo drago, kakor star prijatelj. Tatjana Semjonovna ni bilo nikdar čuti, toda vse v hiši je teklo kakor navita ura. Dasi je bilo poslov veliko preveč, so vendar vsi ti ljudje, ki so nosili mehke škornje brez peta (Tatjana Semjonovna je bilo škripanje podplatov in topot peta najbolj neprijetna stvar na svetu), vsi ti ljudje so se zdeli ponosni na svoj poklic in so trepetali pred staro gospo, na naju dva z možem pa so gledali s pokroviteljsko ljubeznijo in so, kakor se je zdelo, s posebnim veseljem vršili svoje delo. Redno vsako soboto so v hiši pomivali tla in izpevali preproge, vsakega prvega v mesecu je bila opravljena pobožnost z blagoslovljenjem vode, za god Tatjana Semjonovne, njenega sina (in prvič to jesen—na mojega godu dan) je bilo pogoščeno vse sosedstvo. In vse to je bilo v navadi, kolikor daleč nazaj je Tatjana Semjonovna pomnila. Mož se ni vmešaval v gospodinjstvo in je imel opraviti samo s poljskim gospodarstvom ter s kmeti; opraviti je imel zelo veliko. Celo pozimi je vsitjal zelo zgodaj, tako da ga ni bilo nikoli več v postelji, ko sem se zbudila. Vrnil se je navadno do čaja, ki sva ga pila sama, in je bil ob tem času po opravkih in neprijetnostih v gospodarstvu, navadno tiste ne navadno vesele volje, ki sva jo imenovala besno veselje. Večkrat sem zahtevala od njega, kaj mi pove, kaj je zjutraj počel, mi pripovedoval mi je take neumnosti, da sva umirala od smeha. Včasih sem zahtevala, naj govori resno; tedaj je zdržal oči in je pripovedoval. Jaz sem mu gledala v oči, na premišljanje se ustnice in nisem ničesar razumela, le veselila sem se, da ga vidim in da slišim njegov glas.

glas iz njenega drugačnega, dostojanstvenega, solidnega kotička, da se dostikrat nisem mogla zdržati ter da sem se mesto odgovora samo zasmejala hišni, ki je položila roko na roko in je enakomerno pripovedovala, da so "Tatjana Semjonovna veliki vprašati, kako ste spali po večerajšnjem izprehodu, da je njih vso noč na strani bodlo in da je neki neumni pes na vasi vso noč lajal, da niso mogli spati. Potlej so pa še veliki vprašati, kako vam je vseh današnje pečivo, in so veliki povedati, da ga danes ni Taras pekel, temveč za poizkušnjo prvič Nikolaša, in češ, da čisto dobro, posebno obročke, suhar se mu je pa preveč zapekel." Do kosila sva bila malo skupaj. Igrala sem, brala, on pa je pisal in je šel spet po gospodarstvu; toda pri kosilu, ob štirih popoldne, smo se sešli v sprejemnici, pripravljala je iz svoje sobe mama in za njo uboge plemkinje in romarke, ki so bile zmeraj dve ali tri v hiši. Redno vsak dan je ponudil moji materi roko, da bi jo vedel k mizi, toda ona je zahtevala, naj poda drugo meni, in tako smo se redno vsak dan prepirali in lovili med vrati. Pri kosilu je imela prvo besedo mama in tekla je spodobno—razsoden in nekoliko svečan pogovor. Najjane preproste besede so prijetno razdirale svečanost teh obednih sej. Med sinom in materjo je prišlo včas do preprirov in do posmehovanja drug drugemu; meni so bili ti prepri in posmehovanja posebno ljubi, ker se je v njih bolj kot v čemer koli izražala njuna nežna in trdna ljubezen. Po kosilu je mama sedla v sprejemnici v velik naslanjač in je trla tobak, ali pa je rezala nove knjige. Midva pa sva brala na glas ali pa sva šla v salon h klavirju. Tiste čase sva veliko modrovala včas in si prizadevala govoriti po tistem, da bi naju boljše naslada, ker nama je vsakokrat zbudila v srcih nove strune in ker naju je vselej kakor vnovič razodela drugega drugega. Kadar sem igrala njegove najljubše skladbe, je sedel na najboljši oddaljeni divan, kjer sem ga komaj še razločila, in je radi sramežljivosti čuvstva skušal skriti vtis, ki ga je nanj napravila muzika; toda često sem vstala od klavirja, ko se tega ni nadejal; stopila sem k njemu in sem skušala ujeti na njegovem obrazu sledove ganutja, nenaadni blesk in vlažnost oči, ki mi jih je zaman hotel skriti. Mami se je večkrat zahotelo naju pogledati toda gotovo se je bala, da bi naju ne motila. In včasih je šla z navidezno resnim in ravnodušnim obrazom skozi salon, kakor da naju ne vidi. Ali jaz sem vedela, da nima v svoji sobi česa iskati in se tako kmalu vračati. Večerni čaj sem točila jaz v veliki sprejemnici in vsi domači so se zbrali za mizo. To slavnostno zborovanje okrog blestečega samovarja in razdajanje kozarcev in škodelic mi je bilo dolgo časa nerodno. Zdelo se mi je, da še nisem vredna te časti, da sem še premlada in prelahkomišljiva, da bi smela obračati pipo tako velikega samovarja, da bi smela postavljati kozarce Nikiti na pladenj in ukazovati: "Petru Ivanoviču, Marji Minični," spraveš: "ali je sladk?" in puščati sladkor za pestno in zasluženo služinčad. "Izborno, izborno," me je večkrat vzpodbujal mož— "kakor velika," in to me je spravilo še v večjo zadrego.

Po čaju je mama razkladala karte, ali pa je poslušala vedeževanje Marje Minične. Nato pa naju je oba poljubila in pokrivala in odšla sva v svojo sobo. Vendar pa sva večji del sama posedala čez polnočno uro in to je bil najin najlepši, najprijetnejši čas. Pripovedoval mi je o svoji preteklosti, delala sva načrte, nastalo je nekaj posebnega proti revmatizmu. Vprašajte nas. MANDEL DRUG CO. Lodi Mandel, Ph. G., Ph. Tako sta minila dva meseca; prišla je zima s svojim mrzom in s snežnimi meteži. In čeprav je bil mož pri meni, sem pričela čutiti, da sem sama, da se življenje ponavlja in da ni ne v meni ne v njem nič novega, marveč nasprotno, da se nekako vračava k staremu. Začel se je baviti s svojimi posli večinoma sam in spet se mi je jelo zdeti, da ima v svoji duši nekaj poseben svet, v katerega mi noče dovoliti vstopa. Njegova večna pokojnost me je razburjala. Nisem ga ljubila manj kot preje in nisem bila manj kot preje srečna, zavoljo njegove ljubezni; toda moja ljubezen se je ustavila in ni več rastle in poleg ljubezni se je je-lo vihotalpljati v mojo dušo neko nemirno čuvstvo. Zdad, ko sem okusila srečo ljubezni, mi je bilo premlado, da bi ga samo ljubila. Hotelo se mi je preimkanja, ne pa mirnega poteka življenja. Hotelo se mi je razburjen, nevarnosti in žrtvovanja same sebe za svoje čuvstvo. Imela sem moči v izobilju, zakaj v najinem tistem življenju se niso imele kje izčrpati. Presenečali so me izbruh žalosti, ki sem jih kot nekaj slabega skušala skriti pred njim, in izbruh neugnanenosti in veselosti, ki so ga navdajali s strahom. On je še prej nego jaz opazil moje stanje in mi je predlagal, da se preseliva v mesto; toda prosila sem ga, da ostaniva in da ne spreminjavajva najinega življenja, da ne razdirajva najine sreče. In bila sem v resnici srečna; toda mučilo me je, da me sreča ne stane nobenega napora, nobene žrtve, dasi imam toliko moči za napor in žrtve, da mi ne dajo živeti. Ljubila sem ga in sem vedela, da sem zanj vse na svetu; toda hotelo se mi je, da bi ves svet videl najino ljubezen, da bi me ljudje ovirali v ti ljubezni, jaz pa da bi ga vseeno ljubila.

(Dajle pridonjiti)

"No, kaj sem pa rekel, ponovno me je vprašal. Toda nisem mogla ponoviti. Tako smesno se mi je zdelo, da on meni pripoveduje nekaj ne o sebi in ne o materi, temveč o nečem drugem. Kakor da bi ne bilo vseeno, kaj se tam godi. Sele dosti pozneje sem začela nekoliko razumevati, kaj me zanimati za njegove brige. Tatjana Semjonovna ni bilo do njena in izpregled; čaj je pila nave po poslih. V najinem potnem, norčavo srečnem majhnem svetu je tako čudno zvenel

NAZANILNO IN ZAHVALA

Globoko potrti in žalostnega srca naznanjamo vsem sorodnikom, prijateljem in znancem tužno vest, da je kruta smrt posegla s svojo košeno roko v našo sredo in mi odvzela mojo preljubljeno soprogo in drago sestro

MARY GUZELI

rojena S T E R L E

Blagopokojnica je po kratki in mučni bolezni izdihnila svojo dušo v Polyclinic bolnišnici dne 17. oktobra 1953. Pogreb se je vršil dne 20. oktobra iz pogrebnega zavoda Joseph Zele in sinovi na pokopališče Calvary, kamor smo položili njeno truplo k večnemu počitku v naročje matere zemlje.

Pokojnica je bila doma iz vasi Sekiršče, fara Rob pri Velikih Laščah, kjer zapušta enega brata, tri sestre in več sorodnikov. V Ameriki se je nahajala od leta 1912 in je bila članica društva Vodnikov vencil št. 147 SNPJ ter društva sv. Cecilije št. 37 SDZ.

V dolžnost si štejem, da se tem potom iskreno zahvalim vsem sorodnikom in prijateljem za krasne vence in cvetlice, ki so jih položili h krsti blagopokojne. To mi je bilo v veliko tolažbo v dneh žalosti ter v dokaz, da ste pokojnico ljubili in spoštovali.

Iskrena hvala vsem, ki so darovali za sv. maše, ki se bodo brale za mir in pokoj njene duše. Enako prisačna hvala vsem, ki so dali svoje avtomobile na razpolago pri pogrebu, kakor tudi vsem, ki so jo prišli pokopit, ko je ležala na mrtvaškemu odru, in vsem, ki so jo spremili na njeni zadnji poti na pokopališče.

Hvala lepa pogrebcem, ki so nosili krsto, in sicer članom društva Vodnikov vencil št. 147 SNPJ ter članicam društva sv. Cecilije št. 37 SDZ za molitve ob krsti in za sprejem na pokopališče.

Zahvalo izrekam sosedom na E. 66 St. in prijateljem za krasen skupni vencil in darilo v gotovini, posebno hvalo pa nabiralkam Kati Hotuja in Mrs. Starin.

Hvala tudi pogrebnemu zavodu Joseph Zele in sinovi za vsestransko poslugo in lepo urejen pogreb. Posebna hvala tudi družini Jamnik iz Imperial, Pa., ki so prišli pokojnico obiskati v njeni bolezni in bolnišnici, ter se udeležili njenega pogreba. Enako hvala tudi Jennie Trušnovec.

Torej, še enkrat najlepša zahvala bodi izrečena vsem, ki so mi stali ob strani v času bolezni, kakor tudi v dneh smrti, mi izrazili svoje sočutje in bili v pomoč na en ali drugi način.

Preljubljena soproga in sestra! Prestala si trpljenje tega sveta in odšla tja, kjer ni več muk ne bolečin. Ostavila si me samega, žalostna je sedaj hiša a usoda tako odloča. Spomin na Tvoje dobro srce si ohranim za vedno, dokler tudi jaz ne pridem na kraj večnega miru in blaženstva.

Počivaj v miru—snivaj sladko!

Zalujoči ostali: FRANK, soprogo V stari domovini brat JOHN in tri sestre ter več sorodnikov

Cleveland, Ohio, dne 27. novembra 1953.

VINKO STARMAN

Svoje trudne oči je zatisnil za vedno dne 28. nov. 1949

Globoko pod zemljo, tam v ozki hladni hiši zdaj truplo Tvoje leži, rešen si vseh skrbi.

V srcih nosimo ljubeče glas, spomin in pogled Tvoj, dokler nit življenja steče in vsi gremo za Teboj.

Zalujoča soproga Mary in otroci

Euclid, Ohio, dne 27. nov. 1953.

ENAKOPRAVNOST

Paulich Specialty Co. Moves To Waterloo Rd.

A man's hobby can sometimes develop into a full time job and that is just what has happened in the case of John Paulich, Jr., 1851 Haldane rd.

Once known as the "Gimmick man of St. Clair," John is now president of the rapidly growing Paulich Specialty Company, direct factory representative and distributors for executive, advertising, remembrance and grand opening gifts.

Just this week John partially reached a goal he set some five years ago. On Monday he and his pretty and hard working wife Jo (it's really Josephine—formerly Mihalic of Glass Ave.) closed a deal giving the Paulich Specialty Company a permanent home.

The Paulichs purchased a two story building with full basement, two apartment suites, large store, small store and three show rooms at 15813 Waterloo Rd. The building was formerly occupied for 35 years by Daniel Stakich & Company. Paulich hopes to have his display rooms open within a month.

Paulich has the store now and he hopes that some day he may be able to manufacture some of his own specialties.

"Hunzy" as he is known by his many friends in the St. Clair-55th vicinity, first got into the gimmick game while going to East Tech. That's when he helped out his dad, John, Sr., in their restaurant at East 53rd and St. Clair. Young John would sneak in under dad's nose and entertain customers with his magic and novelties.

After graduating from Tech,

John enrolled at Kent State to take up advertising and promotions. Just about the time he was ready for his collegiate cap and gown Uncle Sam beckoned.

Four years with the U. S. Army intelligence gave Hunzy a wide contact with different types of people. Sort of a prep course for his new work as a salesman in civilian life.

However, after getting his discharge in 1946, John figured he could stand a few more months in school to earn a degree before "facing the public." That he did, finishing his school and earning a B. S. degree.

John's idea of selling was slightly interrupted when his dad figured it was time to retire after more than a decade in business.

"I'll handle it for you" said energetic Johnny. And that he did and very well. Meanwhile he continued to fool around with magic, gimmicks and novelties.

Finally he decided hustling food and entertaining customers with his accordion at Paulich's Cafe was not for him.

He got into the "pencil and gimmick" sales game. The first three years were tough but his persistence paid off as can be seen today.

He presently has some 18 salesmen, full and part time covering Cleveland, Lake County, Lorain County, even men in Pennsylvania and as far away as California. (That's where mom and dad Paulich are enjoying the sunshine at present.)

Big profits are not with Paulich yet because he continues to invest in new ideas, new gimmicks, new gifts and freely passes cut gifts to customers, their children and most any kid he runs into while he's out "pounding the pavement." And that he does today despite the fact that he is head of his own company.

John has two judges at home at all times, expressing their opinions on new gifts. They are his two daughters, Karen, 6, and Jane, 8. Quite naturally the girls have girl friends and it is no wonder that John's samples can be seen all over the neighborhood at some time or other.

White summer shortie gloves are seldom fresh enough to be used the next year. Here's a good way to make them fashionable and oh-so-stubborn lipstick-stains from linen napkins. Rub petroleum jelly into the stain before washing and the spot will come out without scrubbing.

With the holidays coming up and extra entertaining to be done, you'll be glad to know how to remove those inevitable and oh-so-stubborn lipstick-stains from linen napkins. Rub petroleum jelly into the stain before washing and the spot will come out without scrubbing.

Brussel sprouts and carrots make a colorful and tasty combination and both are plentiful now. Serve the two some with this delicious cheese sauce: Melt 1/2 cup cheese in top of double boiler. Add 1/2 cup milk gradually. When smooth, stir in 1/2 cup real mayonnaise. Heat until thickened and pour over hot vegetables.

For calorie-counters only: Liquid saccharine is now available in most drug stores. Its particular advantage is in cooking because it dissolves instantly, immediately penetrates foods and eliminates the stirring which is necessary with the tablet type.

Here's a tasty but easy-to-make fruit dessert: Peel, core and halve fresh pears. Dip in lemon juice, sugar and then in melted vitaminized margarine. Roll in crushed cereal flakes. In center of each pear add a bit of lemon rind mixed with sugar. Bake in moderately hot oven 25 minutes. Serve with a simple vanilla sauce.

Green plants make charming indoor decorations and with a little household or attic rummaging, almost anything will do as an imaginative plant holder. Grandma's china sugar bowl or teapot, an antique inkwell, a small beer stein or a straw sewing basket become conversation pieces when filled with ivy, philodendron, coleus, peperomia or begonias.

The vegetables you serve with your holiday turkey or capon deserve special attention, too. Broccoli becomes elegant with a mustard sauce made this way: Melt 2 tbs. vitaminized margarine in a saucepan, blend in 1 tbs. flour, 1 cup sour cream, 1 tbs. mustard with horseradish, 1/2 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. sugar.

Bouffant petticoats in organdy, nylon net, and taffeta are still the last word in femininity. They're priced for most anyone's budget and really make full skirts "stand out." For the washable petticoats, be sure to use a generous amount of starch to keep them crisp.

'Round The World' Adventure Series

The most informative travel film talk during the entire season of 'Round the World Adventure Series will be shown on Wed. Eve. Dec. 2. "The Changing Orient" is the exciting travelogue and "Singapore Joe" Fisher is the producer, narrator.

"Vacation in the Alps" originally scheduled for this date will not be shown. This is the last film showing scheduled before the holiday season. The series will resume Jan. 6, and again, all films will be presented at the Masonic Auditorium, 36th and Euclid. Wednesday evenings—8:15 p. m.

Truly a citizen of the world "Singapore Joe" Fisher has journeyed 14 times around the world as an Adventurer, Philosopher, Lecturer and Businessman. With the beginning of World War II he lost to the Japs a string of theatres all over the Far East, and retired from the theatrical business after these extensive war losses in the Orient.

The American public is indeed fortunate that 'Singapore Joe' decided to remain in the States and turn to the travelogue field. An evening with 'Singapore Joe' is a good substitute for a journey to the far ends of the earth.

The film tour leaves San Francisco, arrives at Honolulu Waikiki Beach. On to Wake Island . . . Guam, first contact of Malayan influence. To Hong Kong . . . Repulse Bay . . . Shanghai . . . Manila. All over the Straits of Mindoro to Sarawak . . . Singapore — "Crossroads of the World" — completely rebuilt. India . . . Bombay . . . New Delhi . . . Benares . . . Calcutta . . . etc.

Places you either know or dream of seeing some day. This plus remarkable stories of personal experiences in unusual places with most unusual people narrated by master raconteur 'Singapore Joe' Fisher.
