Easter

Not all of us can live in Easter always. One did. St. Paul, alone of all the apostles, did not know Jesus in His earthly life. The Savior Who had triumphed over death came to be nearer and dearer to him than to the rest. The ascended Christ was a greater reality than the One Who had trod the earth, Who had preached, taught, and comforted. The burden of the preaching of the Apostle of the Gentiles was, "If Christ be not risen your faith is in vain: ye are yet in your sins." Small wonder that his constant prayer was "that I may know Him, and the power of His Resurrection." Great as may be the value of the transcendent fact of the Resurrection, great as might be the knowledge of it, a greater remained: the power behind it; the influence it would exert. Furthermore, that influence shall be personally felt. This only is complete knowledge. Men deny the fact that Easter proclaims, setting it with those things that please fancy and flatter hope. Others give it their credence, as they might any vouched for fact. To deny would do violence to reason. These latter do not stop to inquire, "What relation has the Resurrection to me? What influence will it have on my life and actions?" Only those who feel will know its power. Not the mind alone but the whole man must know. There was an earthquake in San Francisco, this is a fact. How different the statement, "I was in the midst of it, tossed about by the swaying earth, blistered by devouring fire, and homeless by the devastation that followed." Information of the Resurrection is not enough. Experience is essential. The difference is, knowing a power. St. Paul's prayer should be the prayer of all Catholics on Easter Sunday. We are not like Christ's immediate followers. They brought spices to anoint His dead Body. His enemies brought stones and seals, and soldiers to keep Him down. He afterward had to show His hands and His feet, and they were glad. We are not to put our fingers into His hands, and our hands into His side. Ours is not to be the evidence of the senses. We have had our faith for the conscious contact with God. Out of this have sprung realities as real as the satisfying of Thomas, as conclusive as the vision of Magdalen. We are sure that Christ has risen. Heart says this to heart throughout the world. Let those deny, let them mock, let them quibble. Christ triumphed over death. With that is bound up hope that we shall share the victory. "We too shall rise," is the unshakable assurance of our immortality, bound up with Christ's. He rose: so shall we. This is the message of gladness and joy, that no man shall take from us.

Postpone Savine's Concert

Chicago, Ill.—The symphony concert which was to be held March 26 was postponed by Prof. Alexander Savine, conductor, to April 23. The postponement follows the request of many society women and also because of the Lenten season.

Among the patrons who are interested in this great concert are Dr. Leonid Pitamic, the Yugoslav minister to U. S.; Rufus Dawes, president of the World's Fair; Otto Kerner, attorney general of the state of Illinois; Mrs. Strong and other prominent personages too numerous to mention.

This proves to us Jugosiavs in Chicago that at last we have a man in our midst who is a great musician, composer and conductor. It is hoped that he will be able to continue with his good work for many years.

Besides the excerpts from Prof. Savine's unique opera, "Xenia," there will be presented for the first time exquisite musical compositions by Mozart, Wieniawski, Chopin, Ippolitov-Ivanov and Dvorak.

The vocal ensemble includes soloists and Prof. Savine's students, who have already made their mark in the musical world. Among them are our own Slovenians, Mrs. Mary Sinkovec, alto, and Ludwig Skala, radio and concert singer, who is the best known Slovenian baritone in the Middlewest. On many occasions he has been called the Slovenian silver-voiced baritone.

In order that every Yugoslav man and woman may be enabled to purchase a ticket for this outstanding event the Jugoslav Arts Committee has arranged for special rate tickets. Call Mr. Skala at Roosevelt 7871, or write to him for information, 2116 W. 21st Pl., Chicago, Ill.

PLAN AFTER-EASTER DANCE

Youngstown, O.—The SS. Peter and Paul Cadets basketball team under the leadership of Social Chairman, George Staresinic, have completed plans for a dance to be given April 27 in the school auditorium.

The Yankee Rhythm Girls will wave the baton from 8:30 to midnight. The public is cordially invited to attend. Admission 25 cents.

Are you going to the Junior Convention?

GRACE and gladness to your heart, and may it be partly directed in blending with the spirit of our organization. Officers of the Union and the entire membership has my sincere wishes for a joyful Easter.

Frank Opeka,
Supreme President.

Masterful Monk Plays to 1,000 at 6th Presentation

Joliet, Ill.—The sixth presentation of "The Masterful Monk" given at De La Salle High School on March 30 played to over 1,000 people. It is estimated that between 2,500 and 3,000 people have already viewed this modern love and tragedy drama. Many people, who have witnessed it three and four times, have stated that they will see it again if it is repeated.

The Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality and the cast of "The Masterful Monk" are very grateful to the Ven. Brother Basil for his kind invitation.

"The Masterful Monk" was dramatized by the Rev. M. J. Hiti with the permission of the Rev. Owen Francis Dudley, author of the novel by the same name. The Rev. Fr. Dudley and his publishers are now arranging with the Rev. Fr. Hiti to print the play for world-wide production. The dramatist has received letters from all sections of the United States asking for a copy of the play and permission to stage "The Masterful Monk."

The sodality and the cast of "The Masterful Monk" realize that they cannot adequately thank the Rev. Fr. Hiti for his great kindness in allowing them to first present his exceptional drama. In return for his favor we assure him of a remembrance in our prayers for the continued success of "The Masterful Monk."

Waukegan Edges Joliet in Grade Cage Series

Waukegan, Ill.—The Mother of God Grade School basketball teams forged ahead to take the lead in intercity competition with the Joliet grade school quintets in a home and home series staged recently.

The Waukegan varsity graders won both tilts, defeating Joliet 24 to 11, on the Waukegan floor March 27, and then traveling, April 4, to Joliet, where they tripped the locals, 29 to 22, on the De La Salle floor.

In the first tilt the Joliet boys led 11 to 6 at the half-way mark, but the locals rallied to outpoint the visitors. J. Aic paced the winners with 11 points, while Lekan scored four for the losers.

In the return game the Waukeganites held a 12 to 9 lead at the intermission, and continued to win the verdict. Madruh and Kovacic, with 15 and 9 points, scored high for Waukegan, while Adamich and Cernugel tallied 10 points apiece for Joliet.

The Joliet B team beat Waukegan, 29 to 23, on the Waukegan floor and evened up the series by dropping 25 to 18 on the Joliet court. Mutz and Tezak tallied high for Joliet in the series, and Gerjol, F. Grom and J. Grom paced the Waukegan

Teeth and the Eyes

Very many of the leading ophthalmologists in this country stress the importance of the part focal infection plays in producing the various affections of the eyes.

In all diseases of the eyes, the teeth should be given a careful examination.

The most common site for focal infection is the mouth. In children it is found oftener in the adenoids, tonsils and sinuses, than in the teeth, while in the adults it is the teeth rather than the tonsils or adenoids that are the seat of trouble.

Iritis, a very common ailment of the eyes, is in most cases caused by toxins from infected teeth. Positive results of focal infection have been shown in congestion of the eyelids and globe. When vision is cut down without any apparent cause look for some trouble in and about the teeth.

No doubt the reader has heard at some time or other of someone suffering from some specific eye ailment who had his trouble cleared up by having their infected and bad teeth taken care of.

From the hundreds of clinical cases reported, we are forced to conclude that infected teeth and ocular troubles are very often interrelated.

An eye man who does not give his patient the advantage of these observations fails in his duty to his patient.

MISSION COMES TO CLOSE

La Salle, Ill.—Elaborate services marked the closing of the mission at St. Roch's, conducted by Father Alexander, pastor of St. Stephen's Church in Chicago.

A procession, consisting of small children of the parish, who were dressed in white, paraded through the aisles of the church. The Litanies were sung by the members of the senior choir and the parishioners.

Father Alexander stated that he was more than satisfied with the attendance and he complimented the members on their faithfulness.

St. Joseph Flashes on Interlodge League Windup

Cleveland, O.—Although the cage season is practically over, the St. Joseph Sport Lassies will engage in several more tilts, one of which will test the caliber of the Jay team.

The Flashes have made such a creditable showing this season, although they have no cups or trophies to display, that they have been booked to prelim the boys' Interlodge League finals Thursday, April 13, in the St. Clair Bathhouse.

Manager Frank Schneider announces that the Flashes will be opposed either by the Pat Young quint, city and intercity Class A champs, or the Penn-Webbs, who defeated the Patisies by a four-point margin and the Flashes by a two-point advantage. The game is scheduled for 7 p. m.

The Dehler-Grdina combination of Jay basketballers, through their manager and sport boosters of Cleveland, have angled for a Midwest booking with a KSKJ team, but according to present announcements no definite answer has been received either from South Chicago or Waukegan, where the team aimed its challenge. It was proposed to arrange a game with the St. Annes of Waukegan, where the Clevelanders would play in an early game Saturday night, April 22, and a tilt in South Chicago for the afternoon of April 23. Following the failure of the two communities to respond definitely in favor or against the proposal, Manager Schneider comments, "Perhaps we should have tried to book a game with Joliet Booster Club or the St. Stephen's of Chicago, then the possibility of booking a game would have been greater."

The Flashes last year also issued a general challenge to meet any KSKJ team, any place, but there was no response.

TICKETS GO FAST FOR EASTER HOP

Pueblo, Colo.—The young people of St. Joseph's Society have during the past two weeks made unbelievable progress in disposing of tickets for their Easter Sunday dance.

Spring is here, and from all indications at the local sandlots, someone passed the word around to the boys that it is time to get the ball a-rolling and a little batting practice. It may bring out a lot of new prospects.

The boys are figuring on copping the championship this year. The St. Joes need a couple of good southpaw hurlers, and if this one weakness is remedied, they will be a dangerous contender. Each and every one of the players will be given an impartial tryout for the team.

Sometime in the near future plans will be made to celebrate St. Joseph's 40th anniversary. Peter Culig Jr.

Hold Last Rites for Former Prexy of KSKJ

Cleveland, O.—Last rites for Paul Schneller, former supreme president of the KSKJ, were held in St. Vitus' Church April 6 and followed by burial in Calvary Cemetery.

The deceased expired April 3, after a period of three days' illness culminating in a complication of pneumonia and a diabetic coma.

He was born Sept. 13, 1870, in Sinji vrh pri Vinici, Bela Krajina, Yugoslavia. In 1886 he came to America and settled in Calumet, Mich., where he was married to Anne Vertin. The marriage was blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters.

Paul Schneller became a supreme officer in the KSKJ in 1902 when he attended the seventh general convention of the KSKJ in Cleveland, at which time he was elected to the office of Supreme Jury Committee. At the following two conventions he was elected to the presidency of the Board of Trustees.

In 1911 at the convention in South Chicago he was elected to the presidency and was re-elected at the 12th and 13th conventions in Milwaukee, Wis., and Eveleth, Minn.

He moved to Chicago with his family in 1915, at which time he served as manager of the Glasilo, holding the position simultaneously with the presidency. One year later he made his residence in Cleveland, where he organized the International Savings and Loan Co., of which he was secretary from the time of the company's organization.

His relation with the KSKJ was severed when his proposal of reinsuring the Union was rejected. In his years of service to the KSKJ, Paul Schneller served the organization enthusiastically, and contributed to the success the Union now enjoys.

Besides the widow and children, he is survived by two brothers, Math in Yugoslavia and Joseph in Detroit, Mich., and two married sisters in San Francisco, Cal.

MAY FESTIVITIES

Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Stephen's Church, Chicago, Ill.

The coronation of the May Queen Sunday, May 7, 7:30 p. m. This ceremony will be beautiful and impressive, and we invite all to attend.

On Mother's Day, May 14, we will entertain our mothers at a play and dance. The play, "The Mystery of the Masked Woman," will be a thrilling episode. The characters are well chosen and will do their utmost to please. Between the acts there will be two or three beautiful gifts for the mothers. The tickets for the play and dance will be 35 cents; for the dance alone 25 cents. Johnny and his Merrymakers will lend their tuneful harmony for the evening.

On May 26 we will invite our mothers to join us at our monthly meeting. They will partake of some delicacies and enjoy a very amusing program—"The Home Talent Show." Each of our mothers will receive a small token of appreciation and remembrance.

Sunday, May 28, the sodalists will receive Communion with

Stephen's Sports Groom Ball Team

Chicago, Ill.—The St. Stephen's baseball squad is working hard and is rounding into fine shape. Other than a few sore arms and aching muscles, the boys are in tip-top form and will be on deck when the first game is called.

Joe Kappa, the only married man on the squad, came to camp before expected, after he shelved his candy business.

Jake Basco, the big "prison" of the Midwest league, has also left the candy business. Fans think he will leave the baseball team for a married life, but "Prison" says, "Nothing to fear, as yet."

While the boys are rounding into form, the girls are getting along fine in their own camp, according to Hugo Atwell, who claims the girls have a fast in-field combination and a hard-hitting outfield. Elsie Wencel put three over the fence in a practice session.

In a warm-up game last Wednesday the regulars beat the subs, 8 to 6, in a tilt that went 10 innings. Hank Basco and Ribic were the hurlers for the regulars, while the subs used seven. G. Banich connected for a home run in the third. Sharlie Allen.

To Inaugurate Social Program After Lent

Joliet, Ill.—After Lenten activities of the Joliet KSKJ Booster Club will be inaugurated April 25 when the club sponsors its second annual candy dance in the Slovenia Hall.

The committee, Anton Lilek, chairman, assisted by Anton Kochevar, Louis Skul, Alice Planker, Margaret Lukanich and Genevieve Laurich, has plans in formation and announces that Ted Bolte and his Red Coats will furnish the music.

The mothers and fathers of the members will be entertained May 11 in a program arranged especially for them by the boosters. The features include two orchestras composed of booster club members. It will be an invitational affair.

Joe Sports End Basket Season

Cleveland, O.—The St. Joseph Sports did not place first in the Interlodge basketball League nor did finish in the runner-up position. They wound up the league season in an exhibition game last Friday and took a trouncing at the hands of the Loyalties, but still they feel that they had a successful season.

Winning eight tilts in 15 encounters in a stiff league such as the fraternity wheel, is a good showing. That is the contention of the fans who have marked the Sports as one of the peppiest, scrappiest and play-to-the finish teams. The first year's experience in the league, added to the youth of the team, for the boys are young fellows, may compensate for the inability to throunce the leaders. The boys won the admiration of the fans because they apparently play the game for the sake of the game.

The statistics compiled and announced April 6 by Joe Vidmar show that J. Debenjak, Sports Flash who figured in JJay attacks, placed second in the league scoring by parting the meshes for 44 goals and 21 charity tosses for a total of 109 trailing the leading scorer Meehan of the Pioneers who tallied a total of 117.

Debenjak was also selected as forward on the second all-star teams picked by the American Home Junior and Journal and Observer, Cleveland publication.

Dolenc, another Jay pointer who collected 72 points in league play, was given honorable mention by the American Home Junior.

The team will now pack its suits in mothballs, for the Sports are ready to start with their two ball teams, hardball and softball, added to a girl-combine that will cavort on the softball diamonds.

LA SALLITA HAS PLEASANT DAY-DREAM

Every now and then I am possessed by that strange and yet thoroughly enjoyable affliction known as day-dreaming. Its causes, most likely, are the natural turn of a tired mind seeking rest by painting pictures of happy times at happy events.

Whatever may be the cause of these reveries, they bring back with vividness, cheer and color the events of bygone days and bygone bowling tournaments.

I had just stirred out of one of these reminiscent spasms when I was gently reminded that I would be expected to contribute an article toward this year's tournament, thus giving me something of an idea what to write about.

I saw plainly, just as if it were today, the Joliet tournament of 1930, my first entry into the bowling world. I visioned James Zefran of Chicago displaying the graceful steps of a ballet dancer as he toed the foul line. On alley No. 10 I saw Ed Kompere and his St. Florian Lodge getting spares, strikes and a good share of splits and errors. It seemed as if they were out for a good time, instead of bowling. Being during Lent, there was no dance or social affair—but in the offing is the well-known Blamers get-together—the flashy looking yellow roadster—and its handsome driver.

Joliet Jays Will Follow All Sports

Joliet, Ill.—The Joliet KSKJ Booster Club is sport-minded and will participate in a number of sports as soon as weather permits.

The club intends to place in the field a strong baseball team, following discussion at the recent meeting.

The while the indoor sport, bowling is still in season, the Tezak Florals, composed of the following members of the booster club, Josephine and Ann Ramuta, Ann Papesch, Helen Vesel, Berta Vershay and Mitzi Jontes, are spilling pins over local alleys.

The club also entertains sponsoring a golf tournament, the tentative date being set for May 30. A special meeting to discuss plans will be called shortly.

In the line of unorganized sports the boosters will take to the beaches this year. Picnics, with races, baseball, swimming, wieners and all that goes to make picnics grand times will also be arranged for booster club members.

Pueblo, Colo.—Sunday, April 16, will be the regular Communion Sunday for the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church.

Above is the Queen of Maps and Mineralites, and she has nothing to do with oncoming festivities of the May pole dance. She is the queen of KSKJ women bowlers, and at present, and for the past three years, represents the bowlers of St. Mary's Lodge, No. 79, of Waukegan, Ill.

The girls of the Waukegan lodge won the championship so often that were the throne other than mythical, one would not hesitate to say that it should be shipped to their meeting chamber where they could use it to advantage.

Not only do the Waukeganites hold the five-woman team championship, but they have a string of championships, two-woman, individual and all-events honors won by members of the lodge. They have a monopoly on all laurels to the extent that the statistician compiling the records for the women's events already knows that Waukegan is to be affixed to the events.

How long will the Waukeganites reign? How long will other Jay lassies look wistfully to the coveted crown? At the present time no odds or even money is offered as to what the outcome will be at the forthcoming tourney to be held in Chicago, April 29 and 30.

The Waukeganites may bowl as they have in the past three years, each year beating their own record—and they may not. The champion, however, always holds the edge.

Following the next tourney, there will again be a corotation. Advance reports show that all the Kay Jay lassies who will compete this year are rated as A-1 pin crushers, and it will be nothing unusual for the scorekeepers to mark up 200 games for the girls—even, possible making the men get down to real business of bowling to protect their records.

Up to the last reading midnight, April 8, the following quotations came over the quarter-inch tape; all quotations listed as Jay Goodwill Inc.:

Waukegan, par plus 100%
 Joliet, par plus 100%
 Sheboygan, par plus 100%
 Milwaukee, par plus 100%
 Joliet, par plus 100%
 South Chicago, par plus 100%
 Chicago, par double plus
 Cleveland

All evaluations are determined, using last year's trading as a base.

The ticker clogged as the Cleveland quotation was about to appear—that is what the one in charge said. But, it was midnight at the time, and a bit too dark to make any quotation. However, the do-fangled clockwork hasn't been working since, and the engineers are now entertaining the possibility that the tape ran its wind.

In the event that the ticker will not be in running order by the time this hits the ink and the presses, typewriter will be hooked up to the wires, and the big shots of the Jay trading world may continue to send in their requests, and quotations will be made.

The influence of the 18 amendment, recognition or not of Russia, the outcome of the disarmament conference will have no bearing on Jay Goodwill Inc. As in past years the shares will be a sell-out, according to present predictions made by the bowling headquarters and the Chicago committee.

JAY PIN LEAGUE STOPS ROLLING

Vidmar Bakeries Top Joliet Kay Jay Booster Pin Circuit

Joliet, Ill.—The last ball of league rolling in the Joliet KSKJ Booster circuit was rolled Tuesday, April 4, and found the Hickory St. Markets topping the list with 34 wins and 17 losses.

The high scores show Edward Ramuta with 205. John Churnovich 200 and Bertha Vershay 200.

Vidmar Bakeries placed second with 29 victories and 22 setbacks, while the Slovenic Coal Co. tallied 26 wins and 25 losses. The Eagle Furniture Co. finished last with 14 advantages and 37 reverses.

The booster club is grateful to the sponsors of the teams, namely: Vidmar Bakery, Hickory St. Market, Slovenic Coal Co. and the Eagle Furniture Co. Joseph Zalar, supreme secretary of the KSKJ, lifted the league curtain by rolling the first ball, paving the way for a 51-game schedule. Al Juricic rolled the final ball and with it garnered 203 for the evening's score.

Chicago Committee Adds to Final Tourney Preparations

Chicago boys and girls are busy putting on the final touches to the preparations for the guests for the Sixth Annual KSKJ Bowling Tournament. Nothing is being overlooked that would tend to increase the comforts and pleasures of the visitors.

The St. Stephen's and the St. Aloysius' societies are working with an enthusiasm inspired by a desire to make this event another noteworthy record in the annals of KSKJ sports.

The dance music on both occasions, Saturday and Sunday, April 29 and 30, will be furnished by Rudy Deichman of Joliet and his famed Victor recording orchestra. They are capable of playing just the kind of pieces that will appeal to most of our people, especially the younger generation, and for that reason the arrangement committee has gone far out of its way to procure the best. In addition, a three-piece "domaća" orchestra will help entertain the guests in the lower hall.

The committee has also provided something new in souvenirs for this year. These souvenirs are not only novel, but also artistically made especially for this event. After the tourney their utility will serve as a useful and pleasant reminder of the sixth "junior convention."

The booster banquet will be in charge of the leading KSKJ booster, Edward Kompere of South Chicago. Eddie did a mighty nice impromptu job at Waukegan last year, and now, having plenty of time to get ready, he will undoubtedly put over the affair in grand style. Eddie is making arrangements for the entertainment which is to be furnished by the various booster organizations since this part of the two-day program is to be dedicated to the KSKJ

Now that the first effects of the "new deal" are being felt, bringing forth the long overdue prosperity, and the amber fluid is again permitted to flow, legally of course, the old song, "Happy Days Are Here Again," shall once more be in order.

The coming tourney will be a true test of the present spirit of the KSKJ. It will determine what effect, if any, the depression has had on the sport loving KSKJers. A repeated success will mean that we are unbeaten and ready to push the KSKJ to greater heights on the wave of the coming prosperity. Therefore, every true and loyal Kay Jay, whoever finds it possible, will be on hand on these two eventful days and lend his support. Joseph Gregorich.

CHURCH STEEPLE NEARS CLEVELAND

Heads up, Cleveland! Just received word that our steeple was going over your city. It was noticed that one of the sky-hooks was straightening out and consequently our apprehensions are at their worst. We also realize now that we have forgotten to put a sign on that steeple of ours "Not responsible for accidents." Therefore, Clevelanders, heads up!

Last week most of the time was taken up in having the articles signed up for the coming Booster-La Sallita match. La Sallita was calm and eager to sign on almost any terms, but not the Booster. It is difficult to say whether it was his business acumen or La Sallita's calmness that caused him to hesitate. Anyway, after showing him that the prize list has been enriched by a number of old street car transfers, odd cuff-buttons, two-piece shoe laces which were separated by wear, etc., and that many more such offers to the prize list were received almost every day, he signed, but with a trembling hand.

Our Joe Kukman is a very enterprising business man. For some time he has been remodeling the rooms above his store, spending a young fortune doing it. The old foggies in the neighborhood shook their heads and questioned the wisdom of making such huge expenditures in times like these. But Mr. Kukman, always with an eye on business, proved to them that there was "method in his madness," for it has just leaked out that these rooms are to be transformed into a hotel. And the Centry of Progress Exposition only a few months away! Of course, the building itself is not new and Mr. Kukman is not sure that it can withstand the rush of business that he expects during the exposition. He is therefore, making all haste possible to have it ready for the bowling tourney, believing, and rightly so, that if it can withstand the strain of a KSKJ bowling tourney, it ought to withstand anything that might come along. We have some fears for this new hostelry on 22d street, for we have seen such large institutions as the Woodruff, Louie Joliet and Karcher dancing on their foundations during KSKJ tourneys, and, as a consequence, these hotels have never been the same since.

Our own "McCarthy" strenuously denied the interview mentioned by "Sharley Allen" in last week's Our Page. He said, however, that he would consent to give us an interview and stated that in his opinion the medals for the "past forty class" should be solid gold. He is convinced that Chicago is going to win in this class this year, and if the committee will furnish solid gold medals for this event this year, it would help Chicago make up for the several gold-plated ones they lost to Waukegan in the past years. All we want to say to that is that if "Mac" denies this interview, as he did the other, we hope to stick his head in a bucket of paint that he is now using to spruce up his place for the coming tourney.
