CLEVELAND, OHIO, SATURDAY (SOBOTA), APRIL 28, 1945

Amerikanci in Rusi strnili sile v Nemčiji

Rdeča vojska zavzela zrakoplovišče Tempelhof; Berlin pade vsak čas

WASHINGTON, 27. aprila—V Beli hiši je bilo danes objavljeno zmagoslavno naznanilo, da so anglo-ameriške in sovjetske armade strnile svoje sile v srcu Hitlerjevega rajha in razklale Nemčijo na dvoje.

Uradno naznanilo zgodovinskega srečanja anglo-ameriških in ruskih armad je bilo naznanjeno istočasno v Washingtonu, Moskvi in Londonu ob enajstih dopoldne (clevelandski čas) po naprej dogovorjenem načrtu.

Predsednik Truman je izjavil, da strnitev zapadne in vzhodne vojske pomeni, da je Nemčija razklana na dvoje, potem pa je prijavil:

"To sicer še ni ura končnega trionfa v Evropi, toda ura, za katero je tako dolgo delalo in molilo vse ameriško ljudstvo, vse britsko ljudstvo in vse sovjetsko ljudstvo, ni več daleč.

V izjavi, ki je bila podana hkratu z Angleži in Rusi je predstnik dostavil, da so anglo-ameriške armade pod poveljstvom gen. Eisenhowerja srečale sovjetske sile, "kjer so jih imele srečati po naprej napravljenem načrtu—v srcu nazijske Nemčije."

Spojitev oborožene sile velike trojice se je uresničila včeraj ob 1. uri popoldne (clevelandski čas) v malem mestu Torgau ob reki Elbi 75 milj južno od Berlina. Ameriške in ruske patrle so se uspešno ustvarile stik že en dan prej.

WASHINGTON, 27. aprila—Prvi stik z Rusi ob reki je nastal 69. ameriška divizija, kateri poveljuje general major Emil Reinhardt iz Detroita. To je nova divizija, ki je prvič stopila v boj na evropskem bojišču 8. marca kot del petega zborja prve ameriške armade.

NEW YORK, 27. aprila—Poročnik William Robertson iz Los

Angelesa je bil prvi ameriški vojak, ki je segel v roke nemu izmed ruskih vojakov pri zgodovinskem srečanju ameriških in sovjetskih čet v mestu Torgau.

MOSKVA, 27. aprila—Maršal Stalin je naznanil spojitev Rdeče vojske z Amerikanci ob reki Elbi ob grmenju salve zmagoslavja, ki je bila izstreljena v Moskvi po naznanilu zgodovinskega srečanja. Stalin je objavil posebno dnevno povelje, v katerem je rekel:

Čete na fronti prve ukrajinske armade in čete naših anglo-ameriških zaveznikov so z udarci od vzhoda in zapada razklale nemško fronto ter 25. aprila ob 13:30 (1:30 popoldne) strnile svoje sile v centralni Nemčiji pri mestu Torgau.

"S tem so nemške čete na severu odrezane od čet na jugu.

"Na čast temu zgodovinskemu dogodku in zmage, bo Moskva nocoj izstrelila 24-kratno salvo iz 324 topov in s tem počastila čete prve ukrajinske armade in zavezniške anglo-ameriške čete.

"Živela zmaga svobodoljubnih narodov nad Nemčijo!"

Stalin je poleg tega v imenu sovjetske vlade naslovil posebno poslanico zahvale in priznanja poveljnikom in moštvu sovjetskih in anglo-ameriških sil, ki so s svojimi borbami omogočile prihod zgodovinskega dneva.

TORGAU, Nemčija, 26. aprila (Zadržano)—Srečanje ameriških in ruskih čet v tem mestu je bilo danes bučno praznovano na obeh bregovih reke Elbe. General major Clarence R. Huebner, rodom iz Kansasa, je stisnil roko in izmenjal darila z ruskim poveljnikom, nekim major generalom.

Ruski poveljnik je izročil Huebnerju v spomin na zgodovinsko srečanje razcefrano rdečo svilnato zastavo, ki je plapolala nad Stalingradom tekom velike odločilne borbe med Rusi in Nemci v omenjenem mestu. Obenem je ruski poveljnik vzel s prs svoja lastna odlikovanja in jih pripel na Huebnerjevo bluzo in ga imenoval častnim članom ruskih gardistov. Ameriški poveljnik je dal sovjetskemu poveljniku tri steklenice ameriškega whiskeyja.

Potem so se pile zdravljice z vodko. Huebnerjevi pobočniki so kozarce z vodko najprej samo nesli k ustom, ampak ko so jih Rusi pokarali, so kozarce na dušek izpraznili.

Drugi ameriški in ruski vojaki so drug drugega udarjali po hrbtih, pili šampanjec in pivo in izmenjavali zdravljice.

Potem se je pelo in plesalo in vojaki obeh armad so navzlic jezikovni zaviri postali dobri prijatelji, kajti družila jih je misel, da so zavezniki in da so z združenimi močmi zadali poraz sovjetskemu.

Rusi, ki smo jih srečali, so mladi čvrsti fantje in se neprestano smejejo in stiskajo roko vsakemu, ki ga srečajo. Za števili škornjev imajo vtaknjene revolverje, za pasom pa ročne granate in nože.

Proslava, ki je sledila srečanju, je bilo nekaj, kar še ni videla ta vojna. Bila je ena sama velika družba, ki se je smejala, pela in plesala in skušala pogovarjati z znamenji. Nekateri Amerikanci, ki govorijo rusko, so svojim prijateljem pomagali kot tolmači.

Kot se je zvedelo, so Rusi imeli načrt, da Amerikance sprejmejo na posebno glavnost način in so celo začeli graditi poseben lok zmagoslavja. Toda razigranost vojakov na obeh straneh je te priprave potisnila na stran in namesto pompa in ceremonij se je srečanje spremenilo v nekontrolirano zabavo s petjem, napivanjem zdravljic in plesom.

TRIE GLASOVI PILI PRIZNANI OV. RUSIJI

Toda konferenca je zavrgla prošnjo Rusije za priznanje sedežev lublinski vladi

SAN FRANCISCO, 27. aprila—Rusija je danes očividno izgubila borbo, da bi Zaruzenih narodov priznala za Zavezniško vojsko, toda zmagala je v svoji borbi za tri glasove na konferenci, ko sta bili Bela Rusija in Ukrajina od zbornice priznane kot polnomočni članici predlagane mednarodne organizacije.

Vprašanje priznanja lublinski vlade, ki je priznana od Rusije, je bilo izročeno štirim namiznim, kiso konferenco sklicali Rusiji, Kitajski, Angliji in ZDA, da bodo z izjemo Rusije, ki je vsi glasovali proti temu, da Poljska dobila zastopstvo na konferenci.

Vprašanje predsedništva rešeno s kompromisom

Nesoglasje, ki je nastalo na konferenci glede predsedništva, je bilo končano, ko je Molotov v interesu harmonije sprejel kompromisno rešitev.

Na temelju sprejetega kompromisa se bodo zunanji ministri in štirih veleposlanikov, ki imajo v imeni od časa do časa do katerih bodo skupni izideli program. Državni tajnik Stettinius pa bo ostal predstnik dveh najvažnejših odsekov konferenca — eksekutivnega in odseka in pa odseka za dnevni center konference

PARIZ, 26. aprila.—Ameriške oklopne kolone so včeraj vdrle v Avstrijo, obenem pa prodirajo čedalje globlje v Bavarsko, kjer se nahajajo samo še 26 milj od Monakovega.

Naši fantje-vojaki

Mr. in Mrs. Frank Slejko, 16203 Arcade Ave., sta pred par dnevi prejela zelo zanimivo pismo od svojih dveh sinov, Stanley in Eddie, ki se zopet skupno nahajata pri mornarici. Dodeljena sta godbi na matični ladji ter sta bila skupaj 15 mesecev, dokler nista bila zadnjič doma za božične in novoletne praznike. Ko sta se tedaj vrnila na službeno mesto nekam v Californijo, sta bila razdružena. Eddie je bil poslan na Havajske otoke, Stanley pa je ostal na ladji in šel proti Japonski. Od tedaj pa je Stanley doživel mnogo. Ladja, na kateri se je nahajal, je bila od sovražnika torpedirana na morju, pri čemur je zgubil svoja dva godbena instrumenta in vse drugo. Piše, da je bil srečen, da si je rešil golo življenje. Po 32 dneh se je pa zopet znašel s svojim bratom Eddy.

Pismo, ki sta ga brata pisala staršem, je zanimivo, ter ga boste lahko čitali v Enakopravnosti v ponedeljek.

Druga spojitev ameriških in ruskih sil ni več daleč

LONDON, sobota, 28. aprila—Ruske armade so včeraj po zavetju več kot dveh tretjin razdejanega Berlina in okupaciji znamenitega zrakoplovišča Tempelhof prepustile umirajočo nemško prestolnico udarnim edinicam, in udarile z dvojno ofenzivo dalje proti zapadu za drugo strnitev z ameriškimi silami in za obkolitev zadnjih nemških luk na obali Baltičkega morja.

Včeraj so Rusi na južnozapadnem obronku prestolnice zavzeli slovit predmestje Potsdam, zgodovinsko zibelko pruskega militarizma, in s Potsdamom vred so padla druga velika zapadna mestna okrožja Spandau, Schmargendorf, Steglitz, Neukoelln in Tempelhof.

Istočasno udarja druga beloruska armada maršala Rokossovskega na 63-miljski fronti preko planote Meclenburg proti baltiški obali severno od Berlina in se vali proti lukam Rostock in Hamburg.

The important factor in the distribution of the spare clothing and bedding which are being collected for the war-devastated areas, need not trouble the makers of such articles.

Many, on reaching or hearing the appalling conditions in that particular country, and desiring that that country receive their clothing gift, have been bothered at learning that contributions marked by them cannot be accepted as part of the United National Clothing Collection.

This clothing drive is the one being conducted for overseas relief. It is a one-for-all collection in which the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration and the various voluntary war relief agencies participate. And, through mutual agreement among them, the destination of the garments, shoes and bedding will be determined by the relative need of the peoples of all the countries involved.

The scene representatives of UNRRA and the relief agencies have been and still are investigating and reporting the dire situations throughout the once-Axis-occupied lands. We know, from first-hand knowledge, where the clothing needs are greatest, where the need is most acute and most urgent. And it will be on the basis of the acuteness and extent of the need that the shipment and distribution of the needed clothing will be made. Right now the most important thing is that a sufficient quantity of serviceable used garments, shoes and bedding be contributed to assure the fulfillment of these desperate needs. With this accomplished, we will know that, although our contributions may not be to the particular country or area in which he or she is interwoven, their clothing will go where theirs is filling a need more or equally urgent than suffering peoples elsewhere.

The goal of the United National Clothing Collection is to collect millions of pounds of serviceable clothing. With hundreds of millions of pounds of such spare clothing lying unused and forgotten in American homes, that it should be easy of achievement is every American does his part.

Have you visited your attic lately? A visit there may enable you to over-subscribe your contribution to the United National Clothing Collection for the war-devastated areas.

Clean-Up Week

Mayor Thomas A. Burké is focusing the attention of Clevelanders on Clean-up Week with a proclamation covering April 30th to May 5th.

Miss Virginia Wing, Secretary of the Clean-up Committee, issued in this regard the following statement:

"The Clean-up Campaign this year is designed to meet some of the pressing community problems. The past winter was long and severe, leaving more dirt and grime than ever before. Service departments are working hard, but many public services must be curtailed for some time to come. The people themselves will need to pick up their own rubbish and observe sanitary laws to the letter if they wish parks and beaches as well as their own yards to be fit for use this summer."

POT ROAST WITH TOMATO GRAVY

—Submitted by "Inter-Racial Press of America"

The less expensive cuts of meat—which today are easier to get than choice cuts—may be the basis of attractive, flavorful menus.

In this recipe for pot roast with tomato gravy, preliminary browning in bottled salad oil and long cooking over a slow fire bring out the full meat flavor of an inexpensive blade roast. Tomato juice adds its own zesty flavor to this economical roast. It is wise to purchase tomato juice in the large-size bottle, for in addition to its importance as a beverage, it has countless uses in cooking.

The following recipe will provide at least six to eight servings:

4 to 5-pound blade pot roast
4 tablespoons bottled salad oil
1 clove garlic, if desired
1/2 teaspoon marjoram or thyme

With Allied Armies driving to a junction near Berlin, latest newsreel pictures from the Western Front at Telenews show Supreme Commander Eisenhower personally directing the advance of his American Forces as they begin to close in on the German capital.

U. S. Infantrymen advance into towns, and blast out Nazi snipers. White flags fly everywhere as hundreds of thousands of German troops give up to the advancing doughboys.

As the flood of Nazi prisoners continue to mount to staggering proportions and the Allied Armies speed along the German Superhighways to victory, General Eisenhower warns that "there's plenty fighting before we celebrate V-E Day."

ARMY & NAVY NEWS

SLEJKO BROTHERS MEET AGAIN

Stan and Ed Slejko, Musicians 2/c with the U. S. Navy, have been touring the waters together for 15 months. Sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slejko, well-known family of musicians, 16203 Arcade Ave., they were last home for Christmas and New Year's, returning to their base in California on Jan. 2nd. There they embarked for the high seas, and for the first time since being in Uncle Sam's service, were separated. Eddy was sent to Hawaii, while Stan went on towards the Japs. Much had happened during this time, about which the boys wrote home to their parents, and after 32 days Stan and Ed were again pleasantly surprised to find themselves together.

The ship on which Stan was aboard, was torpedoed. Both his instruments with the entire music was lost in the waters, and he was lucky to save his bare life. Friends may get their address at the home of their parents.

Stan's letter reads:

April 9th

Dear folks:
Well, it finally happened. Ed and I are together again. I could have gone back to the States with a 30 day leave, but I was afraid of what happen after that even if they did promise us shore duty. Being with Ed and playing with a good band is O. K. with me. I hope you will not mind the fact that I chose to stay here. It might be better in a long run. I bet you're wondering how I got here so soon. Well, to tell you the truth we ran across some difficulties, but I am afraid I can't go into that until the news gets out. Whatever you might hear about our cigar box just disregard it as another thing. Someday I'll tell you the whole story—it will make your hair stand on high. I'm thankful to be alive. I'm still a bit on edge but nothing that this wonderful place can't cure in a jiffy. Folks, I might as well tell you that I lost my bass fiddle, all my music, and also the bow to play with. You should have seen me imitating a bass fiddle by playing on a "coke" jug. Now I really got the ball rolling. At first I didn't get the neck of it, but as they say—practice makes perfect. Remember, I never really did enjoy playing on the two by four. I'll gladly take the one you made, Pops.—Don't mind me if I call you Pops—pops. I'm just so happy that I can't help it. This place is doing wonders for me already.

I'll bet by the time you read this letter, the pupils in your eyes will be dancing the polka. Yes, it's my pen again. The more I fool with it, the worse it gets. It never worked like this before—my what a mechanic! You want to hire me? Very cheap, very cheap, no guarantee. Enough! Enough!

Ed just told me I should expect a salami. It'll be a long time before it reaches me now that the ship is gone. It shouldn't spoil, so I won't worry, although my mouth is watering for a well-cooked "klobasa."

The next time you look at me you may as well call me Atlas the II. I've got the bones, but not the muscles (?) that go with it—just be patient.

Oh, I forgot to tell you—on Easter eight of us in the band sang for the Catholic High Mass. Six of us were Protestant and the other two were neither. I didn't mind the singing.

If you should ever see a story or a picture of our ship, cut it out so that I can keep it in a

Collinwood Hi Honor Roll

Since the beginning of this tragic war a number of students who formerly attended or graduated from Collinwood High School are in the service of our country. Collinwood has started an Honor Roll in memory of our fighting boys and girls, so if you as an individual will fill out the following blank you will help us to complete the list on the Service Roll. Individual pictures would also be appreciated, so if you have any, please enclose one with the blank. Thank you!

Address all mail to:
Miss Dorothy Orehovec,
c/o Collinwood Honor Roll,
960 E. 157th St.,
