Nadaljevanje

Ceprav je to hotel druge vrste, je vendar zelo elegantno opremljen. Njegovi gosti so pred vsem Anglo-Indijci, in sicer višji uradniki in častniki, ki so imogredre v Londonu, ali pa bogati Indijci, ki si prihajajo ogledat Evropo.

—Sploh je pa to hiša, je menil detektevskov detektiv, ki se mi iz več vzrokov zdi sumljiva. Opazil sem že čudne ljudi, ki so prihajali in odhajali.

Lionel se je s svojima dvema spremjevalcem na videz brezbrzino, sprehal po pločniku nasproti hotela. Opazovali pa so pozorno vhod, okrašen z rastlinami, in živahno vrvenje potnikov in luiriranih uslužbenec.

—Poglejte, je dejal naenkrat Pinker in sunil Terryja š kobilcem. Ali veste, kdo je oni svetlo brado, ki ima debel vrat kot kak bik?

—To ni nihče drugi kot Fritzler, imenovan Gregorjev, nemški boljševik! Prišel je v London, da proda nakradeno zlato in platino in brezvdomno tudi, da znova povzroči nered v delavskih vrstah. Rad bi vedel, kaj je v tem hotelu.

John Terry ga ni poslušal.

Ob istem času kot Fritzler je

Elleno. Brez našega dovoljenja ne sme zapustiti hotela. Štirje gospodje, ki se pogovarjajo tik poleg hotelskega vhoda, so detektivi, moji ljudje.

Med tem ko sta Lionel in John Terry sledili detektivu v njegovo podstrešno sobico, sta miss Ellen in njen čudni spremjevalec prišla v stanovanje v četrtem nadstropju hotela.

—Ah, to je Ellen! je jeknil bankir ves razburjen. O tem ni dvoma.

—Veseli me, da se nisem motil, je dejal detektiv navidezno skromno.

Da, ona! je nadaljeval John Terry; a najbolj čudno se mi zdijo, da je moja hčerka tako mirna in da se skoraj smehla v položaju, v katerem je. Tudi si ne morem razložiti, zakaj je Ellen zadovoljna s tem, da se sprehaja s starcem in ne skuša ubežati. To je naravnost skrivnost!

—... razlagalo vam dam prav kmalu. Stopite z menoj v šesto nadstropje te hiše. Najel sem v njej podstrešno sobico, ki mi služi kot opazovalnica in od koder lahko vidim, kar se godi po hotelskih sobah.

—Zakaj ne bi takoj stopili v hotel? ju ugovarjal Lionel.

—To bi bilo lahko nevarno za miss Ellen. V taki delikatni stvari se človek ne sme prenagličiti. Sicer pa se ni batil za miss

"CALL ME MADAM" AT MUSICARNIVAL

It's open season on politicians again and Musicarnival is getting into the spirit of the approaching campaign with the hilarious hit show "Call Me Madam," which opened Monday, July 16, for a two-week stand through July 29 at the spectacular tent theater.

Authored by those three specialists in Broadway hits, songwriter Irving Berlin and playwrights Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse, this high-spirited spoof about a party-giving lady ambassador with her own ideas about foreign policy takes a lot of good-natured pokes at bipartisan politics, spiced with rib-tickling satire and hit songs like "You're Just In Love," "Hostess With The Mostes," "Something To Dance About," "Washington Square Dance," and "It's A Lovely Day Today."

Performances of "Call Me Madam" will be nightly, rain or shine, at 8:30 through Sunday, July 29, with special twi-night performances on Sundays at 7:30.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN CAMPS ANNOUNCED

COLUMBUS, O.—Pitchers, picnics and polywogs are essential parts of a successful summer for all youngsters. Aided by wheelchairs, crutches and braces nearly 1100 Ohio youngsters will get their share at nine Easter Seal camps for crippled children this summer.

Close to 200 of these boys and girls from 7 to 17 years old will gather from all parts of the state at the Ohio Society for Crippled Children sessions—August 5 to 17 and August 19 to 31—at Camp Pittenger near Tiffin and McCutcheonville in Seneca County, announced Walter B. Underwood, executive director of the Ohio Society.

The other camps serving children from limited areas will be operated by groups in Butler, Cuyahoga, Franklin, Hamilton, Logan, Lucas, Mahoning, Summit and Trumbull counties.

Guided by Miss Marguerite Whipple registered physical therapist on the staff of Gorman School for Crippled Children in Dayton, the children at Camp Pittenger will have opportunity to become familiar with nature, achieve camping skills, make new friends, and participate in outdoor sports.

Miss Whipple will be assisted by a staff of 20 counselors and the permanent camp staff which includes the director, dietitian, cook, waterfront supervisor and swimming instructor, registered nurse, and the kitchen, grounds, laundry and maintenance crews who live on the campsite. In addition two physicians and a dentist are on call in nearby Tiffin. At Camp Pittenger, campers may come from any county in Ohio and often are "sponsored" by their local county society for crippled children with funds realized in the annual Easter Seal campaign. Camperships for the two-week session again will be $60.00 and, as in the past, local service clubs may wish to underwrite the expenses for children from their communities, Miss Whipple said.

Applications for Camp Pittenger are now being received at the Ohio Society for Crippled Children, 5 W. Broad St., Columbus 15, O. Preference is given to children too severely handicapped to be accepted in camps for normal children, including wheelchair patients. However, the Ohio Society camp cannot accommodate children who require total care by one attendant.

GRANDVIEW TRACK OPEN

Off to a flying start, Grandview, Ohio's glamour trotting track, located on state route No. 43, just east of Solon, Ohio started its first week-end of activity on Friday night. The meeting will continue through Tuesday night, August 21st with some of the nation's top trotters and pacers seeking fame and riches on the rebuilt half-mile track.

Post time each night is 8:30 p.m., with the daily double windows closing at 8:20 p.m.

VIDA CHENOWETH TO PLAY MARIMBA AT "POPS"

Vida Chenoweth, marimba soloist, will make her debut with the Cleveland Summer Orchestra, Louis Lane, conductor, at the "Pops" Concerts in Public Auditorium this summer. Miss Chenoweth will be the first marimba player to be a soloist in eighteen seasons of the popular summer series. She will make her appearance on Wednesday, August 8, and will be one of many new attractions scheduled for the "Pops" this summer.

Miss Chenoweth is a graduate of William Woods Junior College in Fulton, Missouri, and the Northwestern University School of Music in Evanston, Illinois. She also studied music in Paris and received her Master's degree at the American Conservatory in Chicago. She began to study the piano at six and the marimba at fourteen. She became so interested in the latter instrument that she concentrated on it and in 1948 she won a thirty-state marimba contest sponsored by the Chicago Tribune and played at a Chicago Land Music Festival Concert before an audience of 80,000.
