Zamotana zadeva z italijanskim parnikom Saturnia

Nemčija bo pričela z intenzivnimi napadi na Veliko Britanijo, ki bo napadena najmanj desetkrat na dan.

Iz istega vira se poroča, da bodo nemški bombniki poslej vsak dan najmanj desetkrat napadli Anglijo. Po prvem bo vreme za take napade neugodno, zato se bo zdaj izkoristilo sedanje lepo vreme zaradi česar je pričakovati, da se bo s temi napadi pričelo nemudoma.

Predmet nemških napadov Rečeno je, da bo predmet nemških napadov angleški pomorski bazi v Rosyhu in Scapa Flovu, Liverpoolu in Newcastlu ter vojaški arzenali v Woolwichu, v bližini Londona.

Papež Pij XII. poziva v svoji encikliki na mir

O Poljski, ki jo imenuje "našo drago Poljsko", pravi, da ima upanje v njeno skorajšnje vstajenje.

CASTEL GANDOLFO, 27. oktobra. — Papež Pij XII. je izdal danes svojo prvo papeško encikliko, v kateri je obsojal vlade, ki se "postavljajo na mesto Vsemogočnega."

Papež, ki pravi, da je njegova prva enciklika naslovljena na ves krščanski svet, tolaži premagano Poljsko, obsoja kršitev pogodb in nasilnost ter pravi, da je še nadalje pripravljen delovati za mir.

O Poljski pravi, da upa, "da bo naše draga Poljska spet vstala, in da pričakujejo Poljaki ure svojega vstajenja v harmoniji s principi pravice in resničnega miru."

V splošnem poziva papež v svoji encikliki na pravico in mir ter na končanje brezpravnosti, ki bodo vodile do nadaljnjih vojn.

Italijansko časopisje je priobčilo sumariizacijo enciklike v eni sami kratki koloni, toda v vatikanskem glasilu "Osservatore Romano" je priobčen njen celotni tekst.

POŠKODOVANA PODMORNICA

LONDON, 27. oktobra. — V Goodwin Sand na Severnem morju je bilo nocoj poslanih več angleških reševalnih ladij, ker je bila tamkaj splovljena k obrežju poškodovana nemška podmornica, katere stolpič gleda iz vode. Podmornico so poškodovali angleški rušilci, možno pa je tudi, da je postala žrtev bomb angleških letalcev. Angleška admiraliteta upa, da je nekaj mož na podmornici morda še vedno pri življenju.

VELIKA ROOSEVELTOVA ZMAGA: SENAT PREKLICAL EMBARGO

Embargo je bil preklican z ogromno večino 63 glasov proti 30. — Velika radost v Angliji.

NACISTI PRAVIJO, DA SE BODO MORALI ZDAJ PODVIZATI

WASHINGTON, 27. novembra. — Predsednik Roosevelt je izvojeval nocoj nadaljno veliko zmago, ko je senat z veliko večino odglasoval preklic embarga.

Senat je s 63 proti 30 glasovom sprejel nevtralnostno predlogo administracije, s katero se preklicuje prepoved izvoza orožja, ki bo zdaj na razpolago vsem bojujočim se evropskim narodom na "cash-and-carry" bazi.

Zdaj bo šla ta predloga v poslansko zbornico, kjer se bo vnela zaradi njenega sprejema nova bitka. Toda nobenega dvoma ni, da bo predloga sprejeta tudi v poslanski zbornici, kjer se bo o nji glasovalo najbrž že v petek.

Nacisti se bodo podvizali

BERLIN, 28. oktobra. — Nacistični voditelji so, ko so izvedeli, da je ameriški senat preklical obstoječi embargo, izjavili: "Zdaj se bomo morali podvizi (z vojno)." Dalje so nacistični krogi tudi izjavili, da niso presenečeni nad tem odlokom ameriškega senata.

Veseli v Angliji

LONDON, 28. oktobra. — V Angliji je izzvala akcija ameriškega senata veliko veselje. Vlada ni sicer podala še nobenega komentarja, toda časopisje poroča na dolgo in široko o odloku ameriškega senata. List "Daily Express," ki ima nad tri milijone naročnikov, ima preko naslovne strani velik napis: — "Zedinjene države bodo prodajale zaveznikom orožje;" ta velika Rooseveltova zmaga pomeni, da bo prihodnji teden odposlanih iz Amerike 300 letal.

"Daily Sketch" pravi: "Amerika je odglasovala pošiljanje orožja zaveznikom; Zedinjene države bodo odposlale ogromno število letal."

Napisi v "Daily Mailu" se glase: "Rooseveltov triumf nad embargom." List "News Chronicle" pa pravi: "Zedinjene države so preklicale prepoved o izvozu orožja."

Čudne razmere v zavodu za ostarele ljudi

Cincinnati, 27. oktobra. — V četrtki so našli v neki sobi zavoda Stiegler Rest Home mrtvi dve stari ženski, ki sta se zastropili s plini, uhačajočimi iz neke peči. Mrtvi sta Mrs. Irene Carter, stara 73, in Mrs. Agnes Herman, stara 65 let. Obe sta bili baje nekoliko duševno zmedeni.

Koroner Frank M. Coppock je izjavil, da bo uvedel preiskavo, ker sta imeli obe ženski zvezane noge in bili sta tudi brez obleke, ko so ju našli. Mrs. Pauline Stiegler, ki upravlja zavod, je izjavila, da so jima zato zvezali roke, da se ne bi sami poškodovali, goli pa sta bili zato, ker je v dotični sobi zelo vroče.

OB TEDNU...

Danes ni nobenega dvoma več, da se nahajajo na širnem morju najmanj tri nemške bojne ladje, ki izvajajo staro piratsko "obrt" med ladjami zaveznških in nevtralnih držav. Te ladje utegnejo povzročiti paroplovbi mnogo večjo škodo kakor nemške podmornice, ker so hitrejšje, bolj oborožene in ostanejo lahko tudi mnogo dalj časa na morju. Vendar pa se te ladje ne bodo drznile napasti tako zvanih konvojov, to je skupine trgovskih ladij, ki jo spremljajo križarke in nagli rušilci, zato ni govora, da bi mogle izolirati Anglijo. V kolikor se je moglo doslej ugotoviti, ne obnavljajo te ladje svojih zalog v nobenem mehiškem ali južnoameriškem pristanišču, temveč imajo za svojo bazo najbrže rusko severno pristanišče Murmansk.

Najuspešnejša taka novodobna piratska ladja je bila nemška križarka Emden, ki je tekom prve svetovne vojne pogreznila v desetih tednih v Indskem oceanu 21 ladij ter uničila za deset milijonov dolarjev vrednosti v blagu, ki se je nahajalo na pogreznjenih ladjah, preden jo je pogreznila neka avstralska križarka.

Nacijski agentje v Jugoslaviji sabotirajo z vsemi svojimi močmi nedavni srbo-hrvaški sporazum, dosežen v svrhu zadovoljitve jugoslovanskih manjšin. Tehnika teh nacijskih špijonov gre za tem, da prepričajo Hrvate, da jih je njihov voditelj dr. Vladimir Maček prodal Beogradu in zaveznikom, da bo hrvaško vojaštvo kmalu poslano v Francijo, kjer se bo moralo boriti ob strani Francozov in Angležev proti jugoslovanskim "prijateljem" Nemcem, in da bodo Srbi zasegli ter zaplenili Hrvatov zemljo in živino pod pretvezo, da zahteva to "nujnost vojne dobe." Poročila nevtralnih diplomatov naznanjajo, da je ta nacijska kampanja tako uspešna, da se je pred desetimi dnevi večja skupina hrvaškega vojaštva uprla, ko se ji je naznanilo, da bo premeščena v drugo garnizijo. (To se je zgodilo na postaji v Karlovcu, o čemer smo že poročali. Vojaštvo je, misleč, da bo poslano v Francijo, zbežalo v bližnje gozdove, iz katerih so jih šele z veliko muko spravili zopet na dan. Op.uredništva.)

Vojna, ki danes "divja", je kaj čudna in svojevrstna kakršne še ne pozna zgodovina. Na zapadni fronti si stojita nasproti dve ogromni sili, ki pa se ne obdelujeta z bajoneti in bombami, temveč z obzirnostmi in vljudnostmi. Ta teden so na primer Francozje razstrelili neki most preko reke Mosele, toda so prej vljudno sporočili Nemcem, kaj nameravajo storiti in so jih opozorili, naj se varujejo, da jih ne zadeneja ruševine.

Kako angleški letalci odmetavajo nad Berlinom letake mesto bomb, je znano. V zvezi s tem kroži te dni v Angliji sledeča zgodba:

Ko se je vrnila nedavno s takega poleta nad Berlin eskadra angleških letalcev, so ugotovili, da manjka en letalec in njegovo letalo. Oblasti so ga zapisale za pogrešanega in so nanj že skoro pozabile, toda po treh tednih pa se letalec živ in zdrav pojavi s svojim letalom zopet v Angliji. Ko so ga vprašali, kje je bil in kaj se mu je pripetilo, da ga ni bilo z ostalimi vred domov, je odgovoril: "Ko sem priletel nad Berlin, je bila tako lepa in mirna noč, da se nisem mogel premagati in sem na berlinskem letališču pristal. Nato pa sem vzel letake, ki bi ji bil moral odvračati, ter sem jih lepo raznesel po hišah od vrat do vrat, kjer sem jih osebno izročil prijaznim Berlinčanom."

Tekoči teden se je izvedelo o prvih večjih vojnih naročilih, ki sta jih dali v Ameriki Anglija in Francija. Kakor smo te dni poročali, je dobila White družba v Clevelandu naročilo za dobavo 2,000 tovornih avtov, ki bodo stali približno $3,500,000, nadaljnje naročilo za 2,000 trukov pa je dobila neka druga neodvisna avtna družba, katere ime ni označeno. In neka tretja neodvisna kompanija je prejela še nadaljnje naročilo iz Francije.

Angleška vlada pa je naročila v Zedinjenih državah velike množine gumijastih cevi, ki so prevlečene z blagom iz bombaža. B. F. Goodrich kompanija v Akronu je izjavila, da je prejela na dan, preden je izbruhnila vojna, iz Anglije naročilo za 400,000 čevljev teh cevi, nadaljnje naročilo za 245,000 čevljev teh cevi pa je prispelo pretekli teden. Hewitt Rubber družba v Buffalu, N. Y., je že odposlala v Anglijo 800,000 čevljev takih cevi, pretekli teden pa je prejela naročilo za nadaljnjih 500,000 čevljev cevi.

Poročila iz Bratislave, glavnega mesta Slovaške, naznanjajo, da je bil premier msgr. Tiso soglasno izvoljen za prvega predsednika slovaške republike.

V Vatikanu so sprejeli to poročilo s skrajnim nezadovoljstvom, ker smatrajo, da bo to izzvalo težke notranje in zunanje komplikacije za slovaško državo in za slovaško ljudstvo. V visokih cerkvenih krogih naglašajo, da Vatikan nikoli ne želi, da bi duhovniki zasedali visoka politična mesta. V dr. Tisovem slučaju pa je stvar še kočljivejša, ker je Tiso navaden duhovnik in kot tak podrejen bratislavskemu škofu, ki je najvišja cerkvena avtoriteta v Slovaški. Zdaj bo moral škof priseči zvestobo župniku Tisu, svojemu lastnemu podložniku.

S tem pa komplikacij ne bo še konec, pravijo v Vatikanu. Dr. Tiso bo moral kot predsednik države, ki je samostojna samo po imenu, v resnici pa vazalka Nemčije, šestkrat v Berlin, kjer ga bodo v raznih pozah fotografirali s kancelarjem Hitlerjem, ki je znan kot zatiralec katolicizma.

Dalje ima Slovaška svojega reprezentanta v Moskvi, iz česar sledi, da bo imel katoliški duhovnik kot predsednik slovaške države svojega zastopnika pri ateistični moskovski vladi, katero je Vatikan že šestkrat označil za najhujšo sovražnico katoliške cerkve.

Kako se bo znašel Tiso v svojem novem položaju, ko bo moral služiti hkratu trem gospodarjem — zatiralcu katolicizma, Hitlerju, brezbožniku Stalinu, in sv. očetu papežu, svojemu cerkvenemu poglavarju, je zagonetka, ki je doslej ni še pojasnil.

UREDNIKOVA POŠTA

KONCERT "ZVONA"

Spomini pridejo in gredo, toda drag in trajajoč bo spomin na "Zvonovo" 25-letnico za Mr. Joe Blatnika in Mr. Martina Martinška, ki sta ustanovna člana "Zvona".

Koncert vsebuje lepo izbrane pesmi in tudi nekaj kompozicij pevovodje Zorman. Koncert se prične točno ob 4 uri popoldne v nedeljo 29. oktobra v Slovenskem narodnem domu na 80. cesti. Program otvorimo s pesmijo "Svatba na morju", katero zapoje celoten zbor, po številu kakih petdeset pevcev in pevk in zatem bo sledila pesem "Se ena".

Zenski zbor, ki šteje kakih 25 pevk vam bo podal "Stoji na gori zelena", "Zalost" in "Oglar", ki so dobro poznane narodne pesmice.

Sylvester Paulin eden najboljših bariton pevcev, bo zapel solo "Nekdaj in sedaj", katero je skomponiral g. Zorman.

Zvonov moški zbor je pa itak dobro poznan za svoje lepe-petje in bo zapel "Mi hočemo pesmi" in "Petelinčkova ženitev" in duet v tej pesmi bodeta pela Mike Plut in Joe Blatnik. Pred odmorom pa zapoje moški zbor "Povejte ve planine!".

Se kot majhen otrok sem posečala Zvonove koncerte in izmed vseh pevcev sem vedno najbolj zanimivo opazovala enega, katerega glas se mi je zdel posebno močan in lepo dobe. Ker je to prvi koncert, pri katerem nastopim z zborom nisem seveda nikoli ničesar pisala in zato želim omeniti par besed sedaj.

Pevce, ki se mi je tako dopadel je bil pokojni Andrew Zagar. Zal, da ne bo med navzočimi ustanovitelji v nedeljo, kajti kdor ga je poznal, mora pripoznati, da 25-letnica Zvona bi bil višek užitka v njegovem življenju ako bi ga bil ukačal. Če tudi ne bo stal poleg nas, sem pa gotova, da se bo tekom nedeljskega koncerta, prej ali slej misel vsakega pevca in pevke obrnila na človeka, za katerega Zvon ne bo našel namestnika, in v mislih bo Zagar zopet pri nas. V tolažbo nam je le to, da nas je zapustil pevec, toda zapustil je tudi najlepše in najdražje spomine v kulturi.

Po odmoru kot 10. točko zapojeta v duetu Mrs. Josephine Sever (Vrček) in Mary Grozdanič "Vabilo". Solistinja Agnes Žagar pa poda E. Nevinov "Rožni vence", katero je poslovenil g. Ivan Zorman.

Moški zbor ponovno nastopi in zapoje "Sijaj, sijaj sončece" in "O Kresu".

Program pa zaključijo celoten zbor s pesmijo "Oprezo deklet", "Kaj nam pa morejo" in Gregorčičevo "Nazaj v planinski raj", ki je po mojem mnenju najlepša slovenska pesem.

Po končanem pevskega programu se bo pa vršil banket in ples. Želim, da se občinstvo kar največ mogoče ideleži.

Na svidenje v nedeljo ob 4 uri popoldne.

Pevka Albina Kodek

Glas iz Loraina

Nisem pevk, a ljubim petje tem posvetim uho istemu in svojo preprosto sobo, ne teoretično; a motim se ne, ako priznam samostojno "Zarja" kot enega najboljših pevskih zborov v državi, kolikor jemeni znano.

Zakaj tako? Ker so člani istega nastopili že pred našim in tujim narodom, skupno in posamezno, v koncertih in operah, in vsi so dobili veliko priznanje tudi od tujih kritikov, ki ne razmejo našega jezika. Na ponovni predstavi opere "Gorenjski slavček" v mestni dvorani se mi je zdelo, da sem v ljubanskem gledališču z ozirom na predstavu, ki je bila v vseh ozihi, glasovno in godbeno, perfektna.

"Zarjani" so tudi gentlemani, kajti ponovno so se že odzvali na naša abila. V našem lorainskem S. I. Domu so že večkrat nastopili ter napolnili naša srca s svojim krasnim zvrženjem. Najbolje priznanje pa so želi v naših selah in zunanem narodnem občinstvu 100-letnice našega mesta, ko so zaplesali in zapeli narodnih nošah ob zvokih harmonike na večerni predstavi "Pageant".

Kredit gre vsakemu zboru "Zarja" in njihovim kromenu, po žrtvovalnemu povodju Mr. I. vanuscu za voščto petja in orkestra, zato rajno skupno delo in žrtve. Ali to niso bile neupoštevane žrtve. Kdor ljubi zemljo, naravo, ljubi petje.

Zanimanje za predstavo opere "Il Trovatore" po pevskem zboru "Zarja" je veliko in upamo, da bo prekosila vse dosedanje. Iz ozira na posetnike izven Clevelanda so člani "Zarje" pripravili pričetek opere ob 3. uri popoldne, 5. novembra.

Hvala za pozornost, "Zarjani"! Naš narod vam je hvaležen za usluge in požrtvovalnost od vaše strani in to hoče pokazati, in pričakuje, da ne bomo med zadnjimi.

Vida Kumše.

Spet bomo veseli!

Euclid, O. — Jesen prihaja, listje rumeni, pa vsaka ptička žvrgoli, pa vsaka mi poje prav žalostno, za mojo rajžico.

To se spominjam, ko smo peli v starem kraju ravno ta mesec, v oktobru, ko je listje pričelo odpadati od dreves in izbrani fantje so jemali slovo od svojih domačih deklet in se oblekli v vojaško suknjo. Imam še prav dobre spomine na to, ko so nam dekleta pripenjale lepe pušice za slovo in točile debele solze.

Tako jih pa mi sedaj točimo po naši prosti naravi, ko smo se morali umakniti in preseliti v gorkejšje prostore, to je v notranje prostore in to kar brez vsake parade. Kako je bilo fletno, ko so nam naši rožniki tako lepo žvrgoli, ter smo jih tako radi poslušali in sedaj pa mislim, da so že odšli. Tudi eden ni rekel zbogom France, čeravno sem jih dostikrat našel, pa sem bil vseeno vesel, samo da sem jih slišal, kako so se kosali, kateri bo lepše zapel.

Tako bo pa pri nas pri klubu Ljubljana in sicer na 31. oktobra, ko bomo imeli Card Party. Ko pa partija mine, se bo pa razvil pravo veselje, kakor na vsaki seji omenjenega kluba.

Na ta večer bo pa še vse kaj lepšega in boljšega. Glede nagrad ne bom omenil; te je že naš podpredsednik lepo orisal. Zato bi tudi jaz rad omenil, da bi vsak meščan ali meščanka pripeljal vsaj enega ali dva prijatelja s seboj, da bomo bolj židane volje. Reči ne smem, da pridite vsi ali vse; bili bi zadovoljni s tem, da bi našo dvorano napolnili.

Torej na svidenje 31. oktobra v Slovenskem društvenem domu na Recher Ave.

Duluth, Minn. — Danes sem prejel šte. 246 lista Enakopravnosti. Kdo ga je poslal, ne vem. Obenem sem prejel obvestilo, da je prišlo v Cleveland osem velikih zabojev iz Wakefield, Mich. V teh zabojih so večina časopisi od leta 1891 naprej.

Ne vsi in vseh se nikdar ne bo več dobilo, ker jih je več uničenih. Knjige, kadar jih pregledam, pride čas, da jih tudi pošljem pod gotovimi pogoji. Časopisov že kakih pet let ne spravljam več.

Veseli me vse to, še bolj veselje pa je, da čeprav sem vsled bolezni zadržan, da čez čas vse spravim v red in pošljem kamor spada.

Za sedaj sem hvaležen bodritelj za mojo reč, bratu po S. N. P. J. Mr. Ivanu Moleku. On mi je dajal korajžjo, ter se sam zanimal za narodno delavsko zbirko. Obljubil mi je tudi za sedaj pomoč in sem nekaj tudi njemu poslal, ker mi je neznanil, da tudi on uredi za slovenski Muzej v Slovenskem narodnem domu v Clevelandu, Ohio.

Knjig, spisov in kaj vse se bo dobilo, to je še nepreiskano.

Moral sem odpotovati po nadzorovanju v Wakefield, Mich., in začasno vse drugo opustiti. Bil sem tam dober teden, zdelo pa me je za več časa, zato sem druge pošiljatelj moral odložiti do leta 1940.

Od časa do časa je mogoče, da kaj malega pošljem. Večjo pošiljatelj bom spravil skupaj in čez čas poslal. Do takrat pa družstva brez razlike, kaj so, pošljite skupaj stare zastave, stare privatne knjige, zapisnike, zapiske, pravila, slike itd.

Ne čakajmo, da se stvar uniči, ker ta mladi včasih nimajo pojma za to stvari. Lansko leto sem v Tower, Minn. mlo poslal, da naj se počaka s podiranjem starinskega, zgodovinskega dvo-nadstropnega župnišča, kjer so se tiskale prve številke, po 10 številki naprej — Amerikanskega Slovence, po blagopokojnem, prvem naseljencu in Indijanskem misijonarju Buhu, ali zadel sem na posmehljive opazke. In kaj vse je bilo gori v podstrešju v omenjenem župnišču.

Pismo sem prosil v Tower n Ely, ampak me niso hoteli poslušati. So tako nazadnjaški, puhli, da so ravno narobe delali, to je, mnogo reči uničili, kar je velikega obžalovanja vredno.

To ne pišem, da bi koga osebno žalil, ne, pač pa opozarjam s tem vse tiste, ki še kaj imate, da ja ne storite tako, da bi uničili, pač pa pošljite v slovenski Muzej v Cleveland, O., na naslov: Slovenski narodni dom, 6409 St. Clair Ave.

Proti Bigelowi predlogi

S sprejetjem Bigelowega načrta bi dobile vse osebe, stare nad 60 let, penzijo in sicer samci ali samice $50.00 mesečno, oženjen par pa $80.00 mesečno, pod pogojem, da niso nikjer drugje upošleni za plačo ob istem času.

Pravijo, da je 690,000 oseb v Ohio v tej starosti, da bi bile upravičene do navedene penzije. S sprejetjem te predloge bi se naložilo, kot trdi davčna komisija v Ohio, 310 milijonov dolarjev novih davkov.

Za kritje teh penzij je sedaj predvidevana naložitev davka na posestva, ki se cenijo v vrednosti $20,000 aker in več ter naknadne davke na privatne dohodke, osebami, ki že sedaj plačujejo dohodninske davke federalni vladi. Te dve stvari se namerava dodatno obdavčiti za 20 mill. Medtem pa davčna komisija trdi, da ti davki ne bi bili izdatkov za penzije in strah

The Story of "Il Trovatore"

Old Count di Luna, long since dead, had two sons of almost the same age. One night while the infants were asleep under a nurse's charge, a Gypsy hag, who had stolen unobserved into the old Count's castle, was discovered bending over the cradle of the younger child. She was driven away, and because the child grew wan and pale afterwards, she was believed to have bewitched it. She was caught, and after the fashion of the times, burned to death at the stake.

Her daughter, Azucena, a young gypsy woman with a child of her own, witnessed the execution. She swore vengeance. The following night she crept into the castle and stole the younger child of the Count from its cradle. She hurried back to the scene of the execution where the fire that had consumed her mother still raged. She intended to throw the Count's child into it, thus securing her vengeance. Blinded, half crazed with the horror of the sight she had witnessed, she hurled her own child into the flames. Her vengeance temporarily thwarted, Azucena fled with the Count's child and rejoined her gypsy tribe. She reveals her secret to no one; brings the infant up as her own son; and though she grows to love him, still she cherishes the thought that through him she may wreak vengeance on his family.

When the opera opens, this child has grown up, and is known by the name of Manrico, the Troubadour. Azucena has become old and wrinkled, but she still thirsts for vengeance. The old Count has died, leaving his elder son, the Count di Luna, who appears in the opera, sole heir to the title and possessions.

ACT ONE

The soldiers of Count di Luna are keeping guard in an outer part of the Aliaferia palace grounds. The captain of the guard, Ferrando, tells them that Count di Luna is jealous of a certain Troubadour who has been serenading the Lady Leonora, whom the Count loves. He then passes away the time with a story of the gypsy who was burned for casting a spell on one of the children of the former Count, and he tells about her daughter who, for vengeance, stole the present Count's brother and is believed to have burned him to death at the place of her mother's execution. He relates his story as a clock strikes midnight and the soldiers already frightened by the tale, march into the palace for night duty. In the gardens of the palace, the fair Leonora strolls with her attendant and a companion, Inez. To her she confides her interest in an unknown knight, victor at the recent tournament. She knows that he loves her, for the hero has since serenaded her, thus it is that they refer to him as "The Troubadour."

The ladies enter the palace just as the Count di Luna comes into the garden. He has barely appeared, before the voice of the Troubadour is heard singing his serenade. Leonora again comes out of the palace. Mistaking the Count in the shadow for her Troubadour, she hurries towards him. The Troubadour then steps out of the bushes and Leonora realizing her mistake, rushes to him and declares her love for him. The Count is in a terrible rage and demands to know the intruders' identity. Unmasking, the Troubadour reveals himself as Manrico, a follower of the Prince of Biscay. Unable to restrain their jealousy, the two men draw their swords to fight a duel. Leonora falls fainting. . . . Continued next week.

Algy - The Crazy Cat

By Louie

Here I am with a big double column to fill, and no Algy around yet to give us an idea. It's a tough assignment; but there's the good, dependable and uncontroversial subject of nature always at hand. Everyone should go out and see the radiant glory of the trees in their resplendent display of color work. The blending of violent and soothing colors to compose a beautiful whole is an exciting view. And the trampling of the leaves in search of mushrooms is a pleasure that warms up the spirit beyond description.

Nature is generous with her display at the SNPJ farm. All the black walnuts have come down, and since the caretaker said that there weren't any squirrels around to gather them, why we up and gathered quite a few.

When the leaves turn brown and red, and then they gently spin to the ground, you can be pretty sure to find Betka and me out somewhere just taking it easy and taking in the drama. It must be a primitive ghost that still directs the senses of this body when autumn time is here; because many other people do not behave as we do.

Out of a twilight sometime ago dawned a little verse which is offered here:

The woods in October a certain solemn stillness hold
At the fading of misty twilight, when the air gets thin and cold.

The mystic moon conjures a rune;
And from out the gloom specters
loom

In every shadow of the silhouetted trees
Where they stalk and whisper in the flutter of a breeze.

COMRADES WILL HOLD NOVEL HALLOWEEN PARTY TONIGHT

The Comrades are presenting one of the most hilarious parties they ever attempted to stage at the SNPJ Recreation Grounds tonight.

The list of exciting entertainment includes square dancing, games, amateur show and a grand march. All those who feel that they may have acting, singing and dancing ability are urged to come out prepared to enter the amateur show.

The Comrades and invited SNPJs are asked to come masked or costumed and with noise devices to the big doings at the SNPJ play spot.

In event some guest or friend has any transportation problem, he may call Pauline Spik at HEnderson 0786.

OUTDOORSMEN HALLOWEEN DANCE

On Tuesday, October 31st, the Outdoorsmen Gun Club will sponsor a Halloween Dance at the Slovene National Home, 6417 St. Clair Ave. Music will be furnished by the popular Frankie Yankovic's orchestra. Dancing will begin at 8 and last till 1 a.m. Admission is 35 cents.

Royal Hi-Hats

Don't forget the date you have with the Royal Hi-Hats, Saturday, November 18. They are celebrating their Second Anniversary at the Slovene Auditorium on St. Clair. Music will be furnished by the well known Melody Club.

Believe it or not: Joe Kastle traded his old tin can in for a new Plymouth. No more razzing for Joe.

It's a Baby Boy!

Mr. Frank Koss of 18104 Neff Rd. is proudly telling the world that he is the father of a baby boy. Mother and son are doing well at the Mount Sinai Hospital. The mother's maiden name was Mary Jeran.

THIS WEEK

A paragraph about the Lunder-Adamic success last Saturday: It has been a long time since such a mammoth crowd attended a social evening at the Slovene Auditorium. Gosh, there were so many people there that it was difficult to move about. And on top of that, every one seemed to be enjoying himself. The great success is owed to those old timers of that biggest of the SSPZ lodges who kept constantly on their toes; and knew what the public wanted. The Spartans and the Utopian lodges of the SSPZ were well represented by their attendance. And at this affair the Spartan gang promised to be at the big Halloween barn dance given by the Comrades at the SNPJ farm. So it will be a big time tonight, when this jolly Spartan crew comes out and helps add to the general gaiety.

LODI MANDEL WINS ANOTHER TROPHY

For the fifth consecutive year, Lodi Mandel, the proprietor of a pharmacy out Collinwood way, has emerged victor in national retail drug contests. The field he competed against stretches from coast to coast and includes around 60,000 pharmacists.

Last week at the 41st annual convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists at St. Paul, Minnesota, he was again awarded first prize for the best retail promotion in connection with national First Aid Week. The trophy that was bestowed to him is displayed at his drug store. Mr. Mandel is one of the few Slovene pharmacists in the U. S.

BOOKS

Memorial Branch Library has two recent books of outstanding interest to young people, — "Captain Horatio Hornblower" by C. S. Forester, and "I wanted to be an actress" by Katherine Cornell.

The former will perhaps appeal more to boys. It is one of the grandest stories ever told of that last thrilling period of naval sailing ships, the Napoleonic era, when the wooden walls of England's navy were the envy of the world and American sailors were the only ones who cared to meet English sailors ship for ship. Captain Hornblower, the hero, is a character who is a real man sailing real ships on real seas. He is a minor Nelson, a Hamlet of the seas, hero to his crews and genius to his officers.

The second book mentioned is the life story so far of one of our most popular and successful actresses. It is the intimate record of Katherine Cornell's career, her school days in Buffalo, her early apprenticeship in stock companies, her notable successes, and her record-breaking tour of the whole United States. An attractive feature of book is a section of photographs showing the actress in her various roles up to the present time. This will be of special interest to girls.

Halloween Dance

A Halloween Dance will be given by St. Christine's Guild for the benefit of the Church at the school hall at 8 p. m. There will be prizes for the best dressed and the most comical masqueraders. Everybody is invited to come. Admission is only 35 cents. At this affair, we would like to see Mr. Ely and Mayor Sims come and join in the fun.

Celebrate Hallowe'en

A grand way to celebrate Hallowe'en is to come to the 20th Anniversary Banquet and Dance given by the Waterloo Grove of Woodmen Circle, Sunday, Oct. 29th, at the Slovene Workmen's Home on Waterloo Rd.

The banquet is a real Slovene feast with all the trimmings. During the dinner hour, the Vadal Funsters are going to put on one of their special shows. They will also furnish the music for dancing which will begin at 8 o'clock. Hallowe'en noise makers and hats will be on hand to add to the gaiety of the affair. Some lucky person is also going to win a Zenith table radio.

All members and their friends are urged to attend. Dinner will be ready to serve promptly at 6:30. The charge for adults is 75 cents, children up to 14 years of age, 35 cents. Dancing only, 25 cents.

News About Town

By Elsie M. Desmond

Yes Louie, we all read your articles on "Algy — The Crazy Cat," and "The Jungle Conference." Who could miss it? Yes, we also read your article the week before on women's hats. Now we, of the fairer sex, all wonder about the reaction that Algy had to have about women's hats. We think that the writer would also be left in a lurch after his article on Women's hats; but it seems that these men reporters have to have an equal chance too, sometime?

Care to go anywhere tonight? I'll tell you where some dances are going on. A dance will be held at the Slovenian National Home by the Cleveland Slovenes, No. 1, SDZ. A dance will also be held at the Slovenian Workmen's Home on Waterloo; sponsored by local 1228. A dance will also be held at the Two-Light Ballroom located on St. Clair Ave. And a dance will be held at the Slovene Society Home on Rechar Ave. Probably you will find your reporter at the latter.

I was disappointed that I couldn't get down to the Higbee Company and get the book, "Christ in Concrete," autographed by Mr. Di Donato. He has lived in New York and has been a bricklayer for fifteen years. He wrote the best book-of-the-month.

Have you heard about the big campaign the SDZ is having? No? Well then let me tell you something about. The campaign is called the SDZ Six-Month Bicycle Race. It is open already and will end on the 31st of March, 1940 (my birthday by coincidence). Both adult and juvenile members are eligible. Points are to be scored according to the amount of members one gets. So all members of the SDZ who are interested consult officials of the SDZ.

Through an appeal put into the Nova Doba by Louis Adamic, Slovene author, it was announced that we, the Slovenes, should put it up to our lodges and different unions to help Mr. Zvonko Novak, who, at the present time, is living in Chicago. Mr. Novak is a well known Slovene journalist and editor. He has come to the conclusion that he wants to make understanding of the language easier for the Slovenes living in the United States by publishing a Slovenian dictionary. This will cost a lot, but with the help of the people of Cleveland, I believe that it will be possible. So Slovenian citizens of Cleveland please appeal to your lodges so that we can help Mr. Novak.

Notes of the Betsy Ross dance held last Sunday at the Waterloo Slovenian Home: Behind the bar were Mike Krall and George Kovach. . . Patsy Krall, their fine baseball player, at the door collecting tickets. . . Yankovic's orchestra doing swell with all their fine pieces. . . Yours truly enjoying herself with Bill Golich, who told me he is trying (when on the dance floor) to compose a poem on "Dancing." Told him I would help him. Yes, he is a swell jitterbug. Thanks to all the people who came to the dance and made it a success.

Last, but not least, I want my friends and readers to know

A LETTER FROM ALICH

(Editors note: John Alich is a Cleveland who has won a fellowship to study Social Services in Pittsburgh. He sent us this excerpt from the "Social Study of Pittsburgh" by Phillip Klein.)

"In the mining communities of Allegheny County only one group, the Grannish, or Slovenes, seem to have had the initiative to overcome the disadvantages of these many-nationality communities. Although a small group, its members have been thrifty, many of them having saved money to build homes, some by taking boarders and some by starting grocery stores or other small businesses. This group values their community facilities as well as its family ones — as their community halls in Coverdale, Sygton, Moon Run, Presto, and Penton testify. For this group, the community hall takes the place of the church, lodge, hall, and recreation center — lodges for women and young people, as well as for men, meeting there, and occasional dances being given to pay for the halls and their upkeep. There are picnics in the summer, attended by the Slovenes from miles around. The other residents of the community are welcome at the dances, but most of the activities are limited to the Slovene group, who in turn do not mix much with the rest of the village. In the mining communities as a whole there is little of a social nature for women except in some communities which had a sufficiently large nucleus of English-speaking people to start a woman's lodge such as the "Royal Neighbor of America" in Moon Run.

On the other side of the picture, an observer reported that the lack of recreation for the young people in these mining communities was perhaps most serious among the thrifty Slovenes. The parents are inclined to think of playing and reading stories as a waste of time; they do not encourage athletic games because they wear out shoes and clothing; they discourage company in the home by being careful of the good houses they have built."

Alich asks our opinion of this social study and here goes: Everything that has been said is true of the Slovenes as individual cases; but to try to analyze the whole people as a unit and to say that they have certain definable characteristics which are peculiar to them and alien to any other people, is only halucinatin' gossip.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY DANCE

The SDZ Cleveland Slovenes baseball team is sponsoring their third annual dance tonight at the Slovenian National Home on St. Clair Avenue. Music will be furnished by Frankie Yankovic and his orchestra. The admission is only 25 cents. Refreshments will be plentiful.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. T. Lipovec, 15409 Daniel Ave., recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Andrew Omerza, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Omerza of 15500 Daniel Ave.

about another young journalist and writer who may be known in the future as one of the biggest reporters. Wishing him the best of luck in his work I want to introduce Tony Orehek, Jr. He is the president of the St. Vitus Holy Name Society, and is the reporter for the American Home on "St. Vitus Junior Holy Name Weekly Review." Tony is also assistant editor for his school's paper at Benedictine High School. So the best of luck to another young journalist and reporter, Tony.

Zvonko Novak's Dictionary

By Louis Adamic

Several montns ago I was greatly interested and pleased to learn that the well known Slovenian journalist and editor Mr. Zvonko Novak, now living in Chicago, was working on the preparations of a comprehensive dictionary of the Slovene and English languages. Since then I have had the privilege of examining parts of the manuscript, and could not help but be impressed by the thoroughness and excellence of the work. Mr. Novak's motives in this undertaking, which he began as a great personal sacrifice, were non-commercial. They were purely cultural. They came from his interest in, and concern for, the future of the Slovenian language in the United States.

I understand now that the first volume of this great dictionary, which will run to about 800 pages in print, is ready for the printer, while Mr. Novak continues work on the second volume. The problem is how to finance the publication of the book, which promises to fill a crying need in the Slovenian world in America.

To say that Mr. Novak is a prosperous man is carrying understatement to the extreme. In fact, due in large part to his two-year absorption in this and his family find themselves in none too favorable circumstances; and, as it is frequently a singularly unaggressive man in material matters. So, after brief talk with him recently, I decided to write this little article for the Slovenian press and appeal to Slovenian organization and individuals to come interested in this important and praiseworthy cultural enterprise.

The printing of dictionaries is an expensive process. The market for this dictionary will be limited. It is hardly possible that any regular American publisher will be prepared to publish it. And in all probability it will be for the Slovenian immigrants to finance the printing, binding and other costs. Also it is my opinion that Mr. Novak should be remunerated for his long and painstaking labors.

The dictionary will be of value for all Slovenians in the United States, including (especially) the American-born sons and daughters of Slovene immigrants. Copies of it should be put on the reference shelves of all American libraries in cities and towns where our people in considerable numbers. It is too, that the book will be welcomed also by libraries and intellectuals in the old countries.

I have given Mr. Novak a pledge for such financial support as I am capable of giving him, but several thousand dollars will be needed, and I sincerely hope that other Slovene Americans and their organizations throughout the country will take it upon themselves to aid him in this venture.

His address is: Zvonko Novak, Room 302, 612 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.
