pravi:

kot doslej še noben ameriški politik. Malokdo pomisli na primer, kako je tragedija Kennedyjevi družini odločilno vplivala na Humphreyjevo politično pot. Še na demokratski konvenciji l. 1960 je bil Humphrey politik drugega razreda. Vsi so poznali njegove ambicije, nihče pa ni pričakoval, da se bodo že 8 let pozneje uresničile radi tragičnih dogodkov v Kennedyjevi družini vsaj do demokratske konvencije. Dogodki so namreč preje spravili Johnsona v Beloe hišo, ko pa je Johnson kandidiral l. 1964 in bil prepričan, da bo čisto gotovo izvoljen, je izbral Humphreyja za podpredsedniškega kandidata ne morda zato, da bi z njegovo pomočjo zmagal, ampak

Humphrey ni dolgo okleval, zagrabil je za priliko, ki si jo je v svojem srcu že davno želel. Z Johnsonovim blagoslovom in pristankom vodilnih demokratskih krogov je prijavil svojo kandidaturo. Njegova kandidatura ni sprožila viharnega navdušenja, ves političen svet je namreč dobro od nekdanje Johnsonove politike, ne pa napadati sedanje. Ako ne bi poznali Humphreyjeve okretnosti, ki skoraj dvomili, da bi se mu to moglo posrečiti. Od uspeha na tem polju je pa odvisna njegova zmaga.

Družinska sreča—
G. Johnu Raymondu in njegovi ženi ge. Helenci, rojenemu Mauser, se je rodil včeraj v Euclid General bolnici sinček, njuni drugi otrok. S tem sta postala ge. Karl in ga. Marija Mauser drugi stara starša. Iskrene čestitke!

BUKAREŠTA, Rom. — Romunski komunistični vodniki s včeraj v posebni izjavi glavnem partijskem glasilu "Scienteia" poudarili, da poлагajo "izredno važnost" na "popoln umik" vseh vojaških sil Varšavske zveze in ČSR "čim krajšem času". Izjava Centralnega komiteta je odločna in jasna ter ne kaže prav nobene pomirljivosti do Moskve.

Moskva pokazala svoj pravi obraz

Svoboda je najhujši sovražnik vsake diktature, komunistične še prav posebej. Ko so v Moskvi začutili, da vdira svoboda v Češkoslovaško, pa čeprav je ostala ta še vedno močno omejena, jih je postalo strah. Zbali so se, da se bo ta v ČSR utrdila, potem pa začela pronicati od tam tudi na Madžarsko, Poljsko, v Vzhodno Nemčijo in tudi v samo Sovjetsko zvezo, kjer so Ukrajinci v zadnjih letih nekam čudno živahni.

Zmerni del v vodstvu Sovjetske zveze je bil za previdno postopanje in za uporabo političnega in gospodarskega pritiska na Prago. Ko ta ni bil dosti naglo uspešen, je morala v Kremlju prevladati bojovita skupina. Odločila se je za nagli vojaški nastop, ki naj pokaže Pragi, da Moskva ne pozna šale in da se Kremelj ne da izigravati.

Vojaškega odpora ni bilo in zasedanje ČSR je potekalo gladko, če ne upoštevamo malega odpora sredi Prage pred poslopjem radio postaje. Politična stran je bila pripravljena slabše, verjetno zaradi popolnoma napačne presoje položaja v ČSR. V Moskvi so mislili, da bodo Dubček in tovariši pred ruskimi četami zbežali, nakar jih bo lahko proglasiti za izdajalce in postaviti na njihovo mesto nove, Moskvi vdane češke in slovaške komuniste. Dubček in tovariši so ostali na svojih mestih, pozvali narod, naj se ne upira, ampak se potegne v pasivni odpor, in čakali Ruse. Ti so zastojni pritiskali prvi dan v Pragi na Dubčka in tovariše, da bi pristali na njihove zahteve.

Ko razgovori niso uspeli, so jih prijeli in odpeljali. Med tem je češka in slovaška javnost ostala zvesta svojim vodnikom in očitno kazala svoje sovraštvo do ruskih zasedbenih čet, pa tudi naravnost do Sovjetske zveze. Odpor je bil vedno močnejši in podtalno vodstvo je grozilo vsem kolaboraterjem s smrtjo. Ta odpor ni bil omejen samo na Prago in na Bratislavo, kazal se je povsod po vseh predelih republike. Rusom ni uspelo dobiti na svojo stran niti dotedanjih konservativnih članov prezidija Komunistične partije ČSR. Nihče od njih ni maral postati češkoslovaški Kadar.

V sredo in četrtek je moskovsko časopisje zmerjalo Dubčka in tovariše z izdajalci, ki "so očitno podpirali protirevolucijo", v soboto so jih na zahtevo predsednika ČSR Svobode pripeljali kot udeležence k razgovorom o ureditvi novih odnosov med Prago in Moskvjo ter k ureditvi razmer v ČSR. Po štirih dneh trdih pogajanj je prišlo do nekakega "sporazuma" in Svoboda, Dubček ter tovariši so se vrnili v Prago in prevzeli tam svoje položaje, na katerih so jih Rusi 6 dni preje prijeli in zaprli. Ruske čete so med tem zapustile središče Prage, ki je svoje težko preskušene vodnike navdušeno sprejela in pozdravila.

Moskva je izjavila, da bodo sovjetske in ostale zasedbene čete odšle iz Češkoslovaške, ko bo "položaj normalen", to nemara ne bo tako kmalu. Sovjetske čete so se premaknile za sedaj na področje proti meji Zahodne Nemčije in Avstrije, del pa se jih vrača na svoja oporišča na Poljskem, v Vzhodni Nemčiji, na Madžarskem in v Sovjetski zvezi. Moskva je obljubila, da se čete, ki ostanejo v ČSR, ne bodo mešale v notranje zadeve republike.

Predsednik L. Svoboda je v sporočilu narodu dejal, da se ni odrekel nobenim pravicam in reformam, ki jih je uvedla Dubčekova vlada od pretekega jenuarja sem. Kakšna je "nova stvarnost", bo pokazal šele čas.

Sovjetska zasedba ČSR je zaprepastila ves svobodni in nevtralni svet in dvignila burjo protestov. Moskve niso obsodile le zahodne sile, ampak tudi komunistične države Jugoslavija, Romunija, Albanija in rdeča Kitajska, nevtralne Indija in Malezija, Japonska, Tanzanija in vrsta drugih. Od okoli 90 komunističnih partij jih je le 10 odobrilo moskovski vdor v ČSR, vse ostale z italijansko, francosko in britansko na čelu pa so ga trdo obsodile.

V Varnostnem svetu je Rus Jakob Malik zastoj zatrjeval, da so šle sovjetske in satelitske čete v ČSR na prošnjo "vladnih in partijskih vodnikov". Poslanik ČSR pri ZN Jan Muzik je to gladko zanikal, nato je ponovno zavrnil sovjetsko trditev sam zunanji minister Jiri Hajek, ki ga je sovjetski vdor v ČSR presenetil na počitnicah v Jugoslaviji.

Trezna, preudarna presoja položaja na Češkoslovaškem bi Kremlju svetovala, naj pozorno zasleduje razvoj, potem, ko se je v Černi in Bratislavi "pomiril" s Prago, in pusti Dubčku in sodelavcem proste roke doma, pa zavaruje ohranitev ČSR v Varšavski zvezi, s čimer bi bile potrebe varnosti Sovjetske zveze in njenih zaveznikov očuvane. Boljše in varnejše bi bilo za Ruse imeti za zaveznico demokratično urejeno socialistično ČSR, ki bi stala na njihovi strani s srcem in pametjo, kot pa ČSR z "vdano" komunistično vlado, pa z narodom, ki je sovražno razpoložen ne le proti lastni vladi, ampak še bolj proti njenim tujim ukazovalcem v Kremlju. Čehi so bili doslej edini narod v Srednji in Vzhodni Evropi, ki je na Ruse gledal prijazno, sedaj je Moskvi uspelo spremeniti tudi Čeha v svoje sovražnike. Sovjetska zveza je doživela težek poraz, komunizem kot sredstvo v njeni zunanji politiki je mrtev. Svet, ki je hotel videti v zadnjih letih v Kremlju trezne vodnike, ki jim je do ohranitve svetovnega miru, ki se ne vrtajo v notranje razmere tujih držav, vodnike, s katerimi se da pametno razpravljati, je sedaj nenadno spoznal stvaren obraz sovjetskega komunističnega režima.

Zagovrniki močne roke v Kremlju so preslabo pretehali vse okoliščine in morebitne posledice svoje odločitve. Poraz, ki so ga s tem prizadejali Sovjetski zvezi in vsemu komunističnemu gibanju na svetu, ne bo ostal brez posledic tudi za nje same v Kremlju!

Čehi in Slovaki so v težkem trenutku pokazali, da tanki in topovi ne zmorejo vsega, če je narod trden in enoten ter ve, kaj hoče! Teden po zasedbi njihove dežele 21. avgusta bo med tistimi njihove preteklosti, na katerega bodo najbolj ponosni!

Moskvi je uspelo zapreti vrata vsakemu močnejšemu dihu svobode na Češkoslovaškem, uspelo spraviti pod varstvo demokratizacijo vlade, javne uprave, družabnega in gospodarskega reda, toda vse to je le začasno, želje in stremjenja po svobodi ni mogoče ubiti.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Mariborskega škofa dr. Maksimilijana Držičnika življenjska pot

CLEVELAND, O. — Rojen je bil 5. oktobra 1903 v Orlici, župnija Ribnica na Pohorju. Gimnazijo je študiral v Mariboru in je bil gojenec Dijaškega semenišča. Bogoslovje je začel v Mariboru in ga nadaljeval v Rimu, ter postal doktor filozofije in teologije na papeški univerzi Gregorijani. Mašniško posvečenje je sprejel v Rimu 30. oktobra 1932. Po končani študiji v Rimu je bil eno leto kaplan v Ribnici na Pohorju, nato dve leti v Celju. Leta 1936 je postal prefekt v Dijaškem semenišču v Mariboru in istočasno docent za moralno filozofijo v bogoslovju; leta 1937 je postal docent za Staro Zavezo Sv. Pisma in obenem podpravnatelj bogoslovja. Poleg profesorskega dela je bil tudi v odboru Katoliške akcije, kjer se je aktivno udeleževal versko-kulturnega dela.

Med okupacijo po nacistih ga je Gestapo aretiral in odpeljal v Meljsko vojašnico v Mariboru dne 21. aprila 1941. Od tam je bil transportiran v Rajhenburg 11. junija 1941. Nacisti so spreminili samostan očetov trapištov in njihova gospodarska poslopja v taborišče za prisilno delo. Dne 5. julija 1941 je bil z drugimi duhovniki odpeljan v Zagreb; tam je vzel izgnane duhovnike iz mariborske škofije pod svojo zaščito tedanjim zagrebski nadškof in poznejši kardinal Stepinac. — Nastavljen je bil za duhovnega pomočnika na Hrvaškem v kraju Visoko, kotar Novi Marof dne 12. avgusta 1941. Tam je ostal do 22. nov. 1945. Ustavi se ga na povelje hitlerjančev aretirali leta 1942 in bi moral biti z drugimi duhovniki iz mariborske škofije v taborišču Jasenovac ubiti; vendar so ga verniki in hrvaški duhovniki še pravočasno rešili strašne smrti.

Ker so po drugi svetovni vojni mariborsko bogoslovje ukini in so morali bogoslovci študirati v Ljubljani, je tudi dr. Držičnik leta 1946 postal docent ljubljanske teološke fakultete. Dne 15. septembra 1946 ga je sv. oče imenoval za mariborskega pomožnega škofa; škofovski posvečenje je prejel 15. decembra 1946.

Po smrti mariborskega škofa dr. Ivana Tomažiča je 1. marca 1949 postal apostolski administrator škofije, 15. junija 1960 pa rezidenčni škof; ustoličen je bil 25. septembra 1960.

Takoj po drugi svetovni vojni je bila škofija v zelo težkem položaju. Mnogo duhovnikov se iz pregnanstva ni vrnilo, mnogo vernikov se je Cerkev odtujilo. Posledice so bile zelo težke. Že za nacistov je škofija izgubila staro in novo bogoslovje, dijaško semenišče, kapiteljsko hišo, redovne hiše, cerkve pa svoje zvonove. Mesto Maribor je bilo hudo bombardirano; pa tudi du-hovno življenje je silno trpelo radi okupacije in njenih posledic. V takem položaju je težko biti škof. Toda s svojim geslom Z nami Bog in njegova Mati se je škof Držičnik lotil obnove. Najprej duhovne obnove. Z velikim pogumom je začel s farnimi misijami. Leta 1959, ob stoletnici, ko je v sluhu svetosti umrl škof Slomšek, predstavil škofijski sedež v Mariboru, je škof Držičnik priredil veliki misijon v Mariboru in sicer za vse župnije istočasno. Uspeh je bil nad vse pričakovanje velik. Potem so začeli tudi po župnijah kar po vrsti prirejati misijone.

Mariborski škof dr. Maksimilijan Držičnik

Vedno bolj je škof Držičnik čutil pomanjkanje duhovnikov in duhovniških poklicev. Zato se je odločil, da ustanovi novo Slomškovo dijaško semenišče. Prostore je dobil v nacionaliziranem delu frančiškanskega samostana. Gojenci so bivali v semenišču, a so hodili v državno gimnazijo, kakor je bil to slučaj pred vojno. Mnogi so dvomili, da bi semenišče lahko tako uspevalo; bali so se, da se bodo poklici poražgubili radi tega. Pa se je zgodilo ravno obratno: gojenci so si v zunanji gimnaziji pojme izčistili, se v krščanskem načelu v semenišču še bolj utrdili in se skoro vsi po končani gimnaziji javili za bogoslovje.

Ko so tudi v drugih slovenskih škofijah dobivali vedno več kandidatov za duhovniški poklic, je v Ljubljani začelo primanjkovati prostora za bogoslovce. Bati se je bilo, da ne bodo mogli vsi biti sprejeti iz mariborske škofije v ljubljansko bogoslovnico. Zato je bilo potrebno misliti, kako rešiti to vprašanje kar najbolj ugodno. Škof Držičnik je želel kupiti v Ljubljani primerno stavbo v ta namen, da bi mariborski bogoslovci imeli v njej svoj začasni dom v času bogoslovnega študija. Toda nakup take stavbe je bil nemogoč. Zato je bilo treba iskati drugo rešitev, da se pozida za nekaj letnikov bogoslovja primerne prostore v Mariboru. Tudi tukaj ni bilo možno tega vprašanja rešiti drugače kakor samo z nadzidavo stolnega župnišča. To delo se je tudi v letu 1968 izvršilo. Hvala Bogu, pa tudi dobrotnikom! Zelo lepe vsote so zbrale domače župnije mariborske škofije, nekatere so celo prekorale povprečje 4 ND na osebo; pomagala je tudi Caritas Internationalis Roma, odnosno z njo v zvezi avstrijski škofje. Prazna stavba še ne zadostuje, treba jo je primerno opremiti in vzdrževati, obenem pa skrbeti za kakih 60 bogoslovcev. Profesorji ljubljanske bogoslovne fakultete se bodo morali voziti predavati v Maribor, tako bo očitno skupna teološka fakulteta. To novo stolno župnišče in bogoslovje pod skupno streho bo trajen spomenik škofu Držičniku.

Posebno skrb je škof Držičnik posvetil procesu za beatifikacijo Slomška. Ob začetku koncilja je ponesel s seboj vse spise Slomška in po zaključku škofijskega procesa zaprosil za apostolski proces za Slomškovo beatifikacijo. Koncil je bil tudi lepa prilžnost, da je predstavil Slomška na koncilu zbranim škofom. Zato je izdal v Rimu kratek Slomškov življenjepis v raznih jezikih in ga dal razdeliti vsem udeležencem koncilja. In sedaj stalno nadzoruje, da proces za beatifikacijo ne zastane.

V Baragovem letu je odredil, da se tudi v mariborski škofiji berejo Baragove šmarice in se moli za njegovo beatifikacijo. Škof Držičnik smatra, da je za deva beatifikacije Slomška in Barage skupna zadeva vsega katoliškega slovenskega naroda in da bi bila tudi velika pomoč za ohranitev vere doma in tudi za misijonske poklice iz slovenskega naroda. Največje njegovo veselje bi gotovo bilo, da bi dočkal te velike slovesnosti, ko bi bila Slomšek in Baraga proglašena blaženim.

Škof dr. M. Držičnik pride danes v Cleveland

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Danes, dne 30. avgusta, ob 4.48 popoldne pride z letalom iz Washingtona, D.C., na letališče v Clevelandu v spremstvu Fr. Varga mariborski škof Maksimilijan Držičnik. To bo prvič v zgodovini, da bo Slomšek naslednik obiskal Ameriške Slovence. Tekom svojega tritedenskega potovanja po ZDA in Kanadi bo obiskal razne slovenske naselbine.

V nedeljo, dne 1. septembra, bo ob 11. uri popoldne imel slovesno sv. mašo pri Lurški votlini na Chardon Rd.

Upamo, da se bo slovenski Cleveland izkazal in v velikem številu udeležil sv. maše in prejel škofov blagoslov. Povabite tudi svoje znance in prijatelje. Kdor le more, naj pride v narodni noši.

Po maši ob 1. uri popoldne bomo počastili slavnostnega gosta z banketom v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Ave. v Collinwoodu. Vstopnice za banket bodo po $3 za odrasle in $2 za otroke.

Vabimo vas prisrčno, da se udeležite banketa. Preskrbite si pravočasno vstopnice. Vstopnice dobite pri potniški pisarni Mirko Antloga, 6516 St. Clair Ave., tel. 431-3500.

Pridite, štejte si v čast, da boste lahko navzoči pri tej slovesnosti.

Občni zbor staršev slovenske šole pri Sv. Vidu

CLEVELAND, O. — Novo šolsko leto je pred vrati za vse učence, tudi za one, ki obiskujejo sobotno slovensko šolo. V slovenski šoli se pripravljajo na novo šolsko leto tudi odbor staršev. V soboto, 7. septembra, ob 8h zvečer se bo vršil občni zbor tega odbora.

Vsi starši, katerih otroci obiskujejo slovensko šolo pri Sv.

Father Jager - 75-letnik

CLEVELAND, O. — Pri fari Marije Vnebovzete je gospod župnik Fr. Matija Jager dočkal 75-letnico rojstva. Res da poteka njegovo življenje, odkar je bil upokojen, dokaj tiho in skromno, vendar ta življenjski jubilej ne sme in ne more biti zamačen. Prav je, da se vsaj na kratko, a s toplo ljubeznijo in hvaležnostjo, spomnimo njegovega življenja in dela, ki ga je izvršil že doma in zlasti med Slovenci v Clevelandu.

Fr. Jager se je rodil 4. septembra 1893 v Ljubljani. Tam se je tudi šolal in stopil v bogoslovje. V duhovnika je bil posvečen med prvo svetovno vojno l. 1916 na praznik sv. Petra in Pavla. Predno je odšel v Ameriko, je deloval v dušnem pastirstvu na Borovnici, v Dobu in pri Sv. Jakobu v Ljubljani. Tam ga je dosegel v njegovih tridesetih letih klic clevelandskega župnika Jerneja Ponikvarja. Odločil se je in sledil temu klicu.

V skrb za duše in potrebe Slovencev v Ameriki je zapustil prestolnico Slovenije in zamenjal mesto šentjakobskega kaplana z onim pri Sv. Vidu. Tako se je začelo zanj v začetku leta 1927 novo obdobje njegovega duhovniškega delovanja. Enako vneto kot poprej v domovini je vršil svojo službo v novem amerikanskem okolju. Starejši farani pri Sv. Vidu še zdaj vedo povedati, kako lepo jim je govoril v svojih pridigah o Bogu in verskih resnicah. Za zveličanje v Ameriko preseljenih slovenskih duš se ni bal razširiti svoje delavnosti tudi na prosvetno in kulturno področje. Za njih nebeški in zemeljski blagor se ni strašil nobenega truda v katoliških in prosvetnih društvih, pri igrah, pevskih zborih in orlovskih nastopih.

Leta 1940 je Fr. Jager postal župnik v Barbertonu, in nato, po dvanajstih letih, l. 1952, pri fari Marije Vnebovzete v Collinwoodu v Clevelandu. Kot župnik je še bolj razvil svojo vsestransko dušeskrbje in delavnost. Njegovo vzgledno duhovniško življenje in gorečnost sta zapustila v obeh krajih lep in nepozaben spomin. V obeh krajih je zidal in zgradil dve lepi in mogočni cerkvi: Presvetemu Srcu in Mariji Vnebovzeti v čast. S tem, da je skupaj s svojimi zvestimi farani zgradil tempelj Kristusu in Mariji, je postavil tudi sebi in faranom trajen spomenik.

Res je, Fr. Jager si je že z veličastno cerkvijo, zgrajeno v Collinwoodu pred 10 leti, dovolj zaslužil našega spomina in hvaležnosti. A koliko je tistega tihega, manj vidnega, skritega dušnopastirskega dela v spovednici in drugod, posvečenega živim templjem njegovih vernikov? Tem dušam in Cerkvi božji je Fr. Jager posvetil nepreklicno

Vidu, ki vsa leta vestno podpirajo to svojo šolo, bodo z veseljem prišli na ta občni zbor, da s svojo navzočnostjo potrdijo, da njih podpora šoli ni samo nekaj zunanjega, temveč da resnično čutijo, da je šola potrebna in koristna. Na tem obnem zboru bo izvoljen nov odbor, ki bo v novem letu urejal šolske prireditve. Skupno s tem odborom bomo pomagali slovenski šoli skozi novo leto in pomagali našim otrokom do novega znanja. Jože Likozar vse svoje življenje.

Zato torej, 75-letnica našega zaslužnega župnika Jagra ne sme neopazno mimo nas. Dovolj imamo razlogov za hvaležnost in priznanje. Praznujmo ta njegov jubilej skupaj z njim. Fara Marije Vnebovzete vas vabi, da se udeležite v čim večjem številu slovesne sv. maše, ki jo bo daroval prihodnjo nedeljo naš jubilar v Collinwoodu, ob pol enajstih, v zahvalo za vse velike reči, ki jih je storil Bog njemu in po njem tudi nam. Ob koncu sv. maše pa smo vabljeni vsi njegovi prijatelji in znanci v šolsko dvorano, da se osebno srečamo z njim, čisto po domače, ob kavi in krofih, spregovorimo z njim in se mu prisrčno zahvalimo za njegovo dobroto in veliko duhovniško delo opravljeno med nami in za nas.

K 75-letnici rojstva naše iskrene čestitke! Bog naj nakloni našemu slavljenju še mnogo zdravij, mirnih in srečnih let!

Mleko na več načinov

Uporaba mleka je pri nas zelo pestra, saj dobimo v prodaji poleg mleka tudi sire, skuto, jogurt, maslo, smetano in druge mlečne izdelke.

Me, gospodinje vemo, da lahko pripravimo iz sira in skute najrazličnejše okusne jedi, ki enakovredno in najceneje nadomestijo meso.

Tudi kislila smetana je v vsakem gospodinjstvu nepogrešljiva živila. Z njo izboljšamo okus in videz jedi prav vsem omakam, mesnim ali zelenjavnim, z njo zagostimo, namesto s prežganjem in z njo jed tudi hranilno bogatiziramo.

Iz jogurta lahko pripravimo najrazličnejše priboljške za družino. Kombinacije jogurta s sadjem, čokolado, orehi, ugažajo še tako razvajenemu okusu. Z njim lahko poskusimo okusati solato. Pa tudi mleko lahko ponudimo na različne načine, ohlajenega v kozarcih, mešanega s sadjem, s čokolado, kakaom in drugiče.

Mleko je naša vsakdanja pijača, saj ga pijemo pri zajtrku, pri kosilu, pri večerji, za žejno in tudi iz navade. Večkrat pa slimo gospodinje in matere, ki tarnajo nad družinskimi člani, ki jim mleko nikakor ne tekne, da celo eno ali dveletni otroci začno odklanjati vse mlečne jedi. Mati, ki svojemu otroku poruši in se sprijazni z dejstvom, da otrok mleka pač ne mara, zagreši veliko napako. Ne sme ga pa seveda zgrda ali s silo pripraviti do pitja mleka. Pri tem mora najti pravi način, najboljši uspeh doseže dober zgled. Zato je prav, če starši pred otroci uživajo mleko, ki jim sčasoma postane vsakdanja hrana.

Pojdimo pozdravit škofa dr. Maksimilijana Držečnika

CLEVELAND, O. — Pravkar berem pismo iz New Yorka, kjer je rečeno, da so tam in v Bridgeportu škofa Držečnika zelo lepo sprejeli. Bilo je veliko Slovencev pri sv. maši na obeh krajih, kljub veliki vročini. "Gospod škof je zelo domač in odkrit..." Razumljivo, da se je tudi škof ob takih sprejemih dobro počutil med domačimi ljudmi, čeprav daleč od doma.

Kar toplo mi je postalo pri srcu, ko sem bral v omenjenem pismu, kako so škofa Držečnika ocenili Newyorčani, da je namreč domač in odkrit, prekaljen v trpljenju in preziranju, zvest posnemovalac Slomškov, ki ga dišijo prenekatere kreposti, kakor njegovega svetniškega predhodnika Slomška. Slovenski narod sme biti ponosen na takega svojega škofa. Vem, da tega velikega moža prav tako spoštujejo in ljubijo njegovi duhovniki in verniki doma, saj ves živi za duhovni blagor svoje črede. In tudi to verujem, da je glas ljudstva — božji glas. O škofu Držečniku smemo to misliti v polni meri.

Glavne točke programa, po katerem nameravamo sprejeti in pozdraviti visokega gosta v Clevelandu: Na Hopkins letališče pride škof v petek, 30. t. m., popoldne ob pol petih. Tam ga bodo na kratko pozdravili otroci in slovenskih narodnih nošah. Tudi odrasli ste lepo povabljeni in dobrodošli pri pozdravu. Saj veste, da prvi vtis mnogo pomeni. Več ko nas bo, lepše bo!

V soboto, 31. avgusta, si bo škof ogledal nakatere zanimivosti mesta ter obiskal clevelandskega škofa Issenmanna. Glavni sprejem pa bo pri Lurški votlini na Chardon Rd. v nedeljo ob enajstih dopoldne, kjer ga bodo pozdravili in spremili k oltarju otroci iz slovenskih šol ter čim več rojakov iz vsega Clevelanda in narodnih nošah. Po maši in pridigi, ki jo bo tam opravil ljubljani nadpastir iz Slovenije, sledi kosilo v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Avenue. Tam bi naj g. škofa pozdravili zastopniki slovenskih organizacij. Dobrodošli in povabljeni so seveda vsi, ki uspejo dobiti vstopnice. Prostih mest v dvorani je 450. Vstopnice so naprodaj v potniški pisarni Antloga na St. Clair Avenue in pa pri članih štajerskega kluba.

Pridite pozdravit velikega slovenskega duhovnega voditelja škofa Držečnika!

Praznovanje in prošnja

CLEVELAND, O. — Letos mineva ravno 70 let, odkar je bila sezidana naša župnijska cerkev v Sostrem. Dne 1. septembra bomo proslavili ta jubilej in smo za to slovesnost naročili dvojce umetniških cerkvenih oken, ki uspejo dobiti vstopnice. Prosti mest v dvorani je 450. Vstopnice so naprodaj v potniški pisarni Antloga na St. Clair Avenue in pa pri članih štajerskega kluba.

Tako je pisal današnji sosterški župnik p. Konstantin Ocepek. Dobro vem, da smo kar zasukati s prošnjami od vseh koncev in krajev. Vendar se mi zdi, da je nekaj, kar nas zganja, ko gre za farno cerkev. Vsak, tudi če je daleč od doma, ima do svoje farne cerkve do smrti poseben odnos. V farno cerkev so nas prinesli h krstu, v njej smo bili prvič pri sv. obhajilu, v njej smo bili birmani in v njej smo bili tolikokrat pri sv. maši. Ta odnos v človekovem srcu ostane, vedno je nekaj, kar nas na farno cerkev veže. Ko je škof Baraga po dolgih letih prišel v doberniško cerkev, v kateri je bil krščen, je jokalo pri krstnem kamnu. Odnos do farne cerkve v dobrem slovenskem verniku ostane in če je njegova farna cerkev v tiski, ji po svoje rad pomaga. Obračam se na vse sosterške farane, da bi po svojih močeh prispevali k 70. letu farne cerkve. Tudi majhen dar bo hvaležno sprejet. Kdor želi, lahko pošlje svoj dar naravnost na gospoda župnika: P. Konstantin Ocepek, Sostro, pošta Dobrunje pri Ljubljani. Lahko pa vsak svoj dar pošlje na moj naslov: Ciril Selan, 6617 Schaefer Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44103.

V nekem oziru je farna cerkev naša duhovna mati. Mar ni prilika, da ji vsaj nekaj duhovnih darov povrnemo z majhnim darom usmiljenja?

Neuspeli ali uspeli bombni atentat v Trstu?

Dne 16. avgusta ob 20.45 je močna eksplozija pretresla ulico Boccacio v Trstu v bližini Jugoslovanskega konzularnega poslaštva. Za prvo eksplozijo, ki se je zgodila v ali pod avtomobilom, je začel slednji goriti, nakar sta sledili še dve eksploziji. Avtomobil "Opel 1700" z evidenco tablico 1323 J 93, iz Francije, okraj Seine Sain Denis (Paris) je eksplozija popolnoma uničila, pod avtomobilom pa izkopala globoko jamo. Ob trenutku eksplozije sta bila v avtomobilu dva mladeniča. Truplo enega je ostalo razmrcvarjeno v avtomobilu, dočim je drugega vrglo ven ter je med prevozom v bolnišnico radi močnih opeklin podlegel.

Policija je ugotovila, da se gre za Josipa Krtalića, starega 26 let in rojenega v Mostarju, ter za Anteja Znavrja, roj. v Zmijavi. Oba sta kot begunca pred nekaj leti pribežala iz Jugoslavije in se prijavila tržaški policiji ter zaprosila za politični azil, nakar sta iz Trsta pobegnili v Francijo, kjer sta dobila zaposlitev in stalno bivališče.

V avtomobilu so dobili časopise "SVOBODNA HRVATSKA", ki izhaja baje v Nemčiji.

Zakaj "neuspeli"? Ena verzija govori, da sta oba mlada protikomunistna pripravljala eksplozivo, da ob določeni uri eksplozira, in nista bila morda dovolj previdna, pa je prišlo do nesreče. Radi bližine Jug. konzularnega poslaštva meni policija, da so mislili minirati zgradbo.

Zakaj "uspeli"? Policija je dobila v avtomobilu žensko perilo, tudi neka priča govori, da je videla v avtomobilu plavoslaslo dekle, ki se je pred eksplozijo oddaljila neznano kam. — Policija slednje išče in ne izključuje, da je bil atentat po UDBI napravljen na njiju. V tem slučaju je uspeli atentat, seveda za UDBo.

ČSR pod fujo zasedbo

Rusi pritiskajo in groze, da bi vse vrste svobodo čim bolj omejili, če že ne kar čisto strli.

PRAGA, ČSR. — Sedaj prihaja počasni dan, kaj vse so morali Dubčekovi komunisti popustiti, da so rešili svojo osebno svobodo in položaje v vladi in stranki. Čete varšavskega pakta — vsaj dve diviziji — bodo ostale stalno na meji med Čehoslovaško in Zahodno Nemčijo. Od drugod bodo pa šle nazaj v svoja stalna bivališča, kakor hitro bo zavladal red. To bodo seveda določili v Moskvi. Ruski generali bodo Pragi naredili uslugo, da bodo svoje čete umaknili s prometnih točk, da ne bodo ruske uniforme bodle v oči domačinov.

V približno dveh tednih se bodo začela trgovska pogajanja, kjer bodo češki delegatje zvedeli, kaj bodo dobili na svoje predloge, ki so jih že davno sporočili Moskvi. Proizvodnji na Čehoslovaškem je namreč začelo primanjkovati nekaterih industrijskih surovin in pogonskega materiala. Še bolj manjka Čehom kapitala. Obstojna nevarnost, da bodo Rusi pri pogajanjih hoteli vpoštevati tudi svoje politične cilje. Kako to znajo, so že 1. 1948 pokazali Titu.

Vpeljana je "začasna" cenzura za tisk, radio in televizijo. Izginiti morajo seveda vse tajne radio postaje in tajne tiskarne. Tujim časnikarjem in turistom je pa zopet "začasno" zabranjen dostop v Čehoslovaško. Pod policijsko kontrolo so prišle naravno tudi vse manifestacije in demonstracije. Konec je tudi nekontroliranega združevanja. Pod udar bodo prišli tudi vsi vidni češki liberalni javni delavci.

Ni zato čudno, da je češki parlament odklonil ratifikacijo sporazuma, ki so ga komunistični voditelji prinesli iz Moskve.

Vse to je šele začetek nove tragedije. Značilno je namreč, da je začelo ravno te dni moskovsko časopisje novo gonjo

Položaj rešil Svoboda

Predsednik republike gen. L. Svoboda je ohranil zvestobo Dubčeku in tovarišem ter s svojo trdnostjo rešil nje in njihovo vlado.

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Po podatkih Reuterjevega sodelavca so Rusi vpadli v urad Dubčeka v poslopju Centralnega komiteta v sredo zjutraj, 21. avgusta, ko je ta hotel telefonično ugotoviti obseg sovjetskega vdora v ČSR. Prijeli so njega, Černika in Smrkovskega ter jih zaprli, pa jih nato odpeljali nekam na Slovaško. Tam naj bi bilo njihovo življenje "v hudi nevarnosti", kot je povedal predsednik vlade O. Černik. Rešila jih je dejansko nepopustljivost predsednika L. Svobode in složen naroden odpor Čehov in Slovakov.

Trije konservativni člani prezidija Centralnega komiteta KP so s sovjetskimi poslanikom v Pragi Červonenkom zahtevali od Svobode, da odstavi Černikovo vlado in imenuje novo "kmetov in delavcev" pod lastnim predsedstvom. Ko je ta to odklonil, so ponudili predsedstvo vlade J. Lenartu, bivšemu predsedniku vlade. Ta tega ni maral sprejeti. Svobodi so grozili, da bodo v slučaju nadaljevanja odpora odtrgali Slovaško od Češke in Moravske ter jo priključili ZSSR kot sovjetsko republiko, Moravsko in Češko pa spremenili v nekaj ruski protektorat.

Gen. L. Svoboda je vse zahteve trdo odklonil in zahteval izpustitev Černika in Dubčeka ter odklonil vsake razgovore z Rusi, dokler te zahteve ne izpolnijo. Izpolnili so jo šele v soboto, 24. avgusta, ko je bil Svoboda v Moskvi. V Kremlju so tedaj že videli, da so ga grdo polomili in so začeli iskati poti iz zagate. "Trojka", ki je hotela drugi dan po zasedbi prevzeti vodstvo Komunistične partije v Pragi, je naslednji dan odletela v Svobodo v Moskvo, pa se od tam doslej še ni upala vrniti, ker jo je Radio Svobodna Praga proglasil že tedaj za "narodne izdajalce".

Artnik je razprl desnico in jo sukal v prazno:

"Premehak, popustljiv, omahljiv, brez jedra in stržena. Goba, če hočeš vedeti... Tebe bi mi bilo žal, če bi se vrgel po njem. Tebe ne bi rad črtil, da veš!"

"Glavo bi stavil, da se midva ne bova sprla, gospodar. Jaz vsaj vam ne bom dal povoda za to."

Artnik se je hotel napraviti, kakor da je preslišal, spet je odločneje zasadil okovanko in pospešil korak. Molče sta premerila globel, zdaj sta se polagoma vzpenjala med grmičjem v hrib.

"Doma bodo veseli, ko te zagledajo," je čez čas povzel Artnik. "Veš, saj nisem tako divji, kakor sem prejle hrumele zaradi vojske, toda hudo nas že naganja ves ta direndaj. Lepo te prosim, kdaj se je pa kaki stari

Mirt.

"Ampak v mesto mi ne bo več sama hodila!" se je zdajci spet ustavil Artnik, se obrnil na petah in hudo pogledal Mirta, "V Ljubljano še celo ne, da veš!"

"V Ljubljano? Zakaj pa ne. Ta je ne bo ugonobila. Narobe! Zastran mene ne bo v slabi družbi!"

"Ze, ze," se je medil Artnik. Mirt mu je pomagal:

"Kaj pa, če vam jo nekoč izpeljem v Ljubljano? Lenki bi zaman branili, verjemite!"

Artniku je za trenutek zaprlo sapo. Spet se je obrnil in se vprašujoče vbdel vanj. Mirt je vzdrl njegov ostrni pogled, še več, od srca se je moral zasmejati.

Tedaj se je izpred domačije oglasil vesel pozdrav:

"Seveda sta!... Oče in Mirt!"

Lenka, ki so jo bili priklicali, je prihitela naproti. Ni si vedela pomagati drugače, kakor da je Mirtu tresla desnico, najrajši pa bi ga bila objela. A vpricho vseh, ne, ni še čas. "Tetka, ljuba tetka!" je ljubeznivo preprosila Agato, ki jo je velika radovednost prignala na plan, "le vi obračajte v kuhinji, da bo vse prav. Saj vidite!"... Ostala je z Mirtom. Počasi sta obšla domačijo. Marsikaj se je od lani spremenilo. Mrtvi ognjenik je oživel.

Po malem se je dramil. Mirtu se je zdelo, da je to šele prvo premikanje plasti, ki pa je napovedovalo izbruh ognja, strasti, sovrašstva, boja. Prav tisti dan so bile prišle nove čete v rezervno, pripravljale so prenočišča.

Vojaki so prihajali h kuhinji, najrajši pa so postajali okrog hleva, kjer so se dekline venomer nihale. Artnik je postopal po dvorišču, še je zabadal palico v tla in sršil obrvi, kakor da se noče nad nekom znesti. Togotno se je nazadnje zadril v kuhinjo:

"Kje je pa Marka? Komaj iz mesta domov, že spet na potep! Kod se klati, poba malopridni?"

Iz kuhinje se je čul Agatkin odgovor: "Da te vendar, Andraž, ne kolni, saj je tvoja kri!"

"Pastorek, ne pa moja kri!" je jezno odbil z besedo in palico. "Kje je? Neklestim ga, da bo tulil!"

"Kdo bi vedel! S Kumpom sta jo ubrala že popoldne. Puško je vzel, svojo risanico, — mar ti nisem že stokrat rekla, da bo nesreča!"

"Mmmm!" je svoje monljal gospodar. "Ni čudno, da je še fant ponorel. Ali, da so Kumpa izpustili — takim naj Bog posoli pamet!"

Noč je bila polna nemira in slutenj.

Jezen od vsega tega dne se je Artnik zgodaj spravil k počitku.

Lenka je po večerji posedela z Mirtom v gostinski sobi. Okna so bila zagrnjena, luč ni smela več sijati v noč.

"Da veš, Mirt, poštenih besed hočem s teboj!" se je naenkrat zresnila Lenka. Poštenih in odkritih."

"No, menda ne testamenta?"

"Nikar šale, Mirt. Kaj nameravaš z menoj?"

"Kaj hočem... Tebe, nič drugega na svetu!"

"Imel si me... ali me boš tudi obdržal? O, ko bi ti vedel."

Zalostna se je nagnila k nje-mu. Mračno je rekla: "Ne bova srečna."

"Ne boj se!" jo je hrabil Mirt. "Ali se je kaj zgodilo?"

"Zgodilo. Tvoj rod ne bo izumrl, Mirt. Le zate se bojim..."

Nežno jo je prižel k sebi. Tisto noč, ko so drugod zorele strašne zgodovinske odločitve, je Mirt praznoval najsvetlejši praznik svoje ljubezni.

Ni mu mogla prisrčneje dokazati svoje trpke sreče, kakor da ga je povabila, naj to kratko uro, ki jima je skupno še usojena, počije v njeni sobici. Sama, je rekla, bo morda legla k Neški ali k tetki Agati. Ni drugače, vojaštvo se je razmestilo po vseh praznih prostorih. Tiho, obzirno, a vendar pogumno, brez sence strahu ali odgovornosti pred komer koli je s plapolajočo svečko v rokah povedla Mirta po stopnicah. Ko je odprla vrata, ki so rahlo zaječala, se je Mirt zavzeto razgledal po njenem prijaznem majhnem svetišču. Dehtelo je po njeni svežini, kakor dehti sočni sadež. Ko se je pogreznil v šumečo posteljo, ga je minila poprejšnja zgovornost, čeprav je imel še toliko tega na srcu. V molku je sledil z očmi fantastičnim sencam, ki jih je metal na strop in na stene naga-jivo utripajoči plamenček. Ko je pogledal v njen obraz, ki ga je predano sklanjala k njemu, se je prepričeval, da se sreča ne da dopovedati, marveč res le čutiti.

A v globini, v podzavesti ga je zgala otožnost, tista vedna spremljevalka, ki ga je ganila vselej, kadar je doživljal vzvišeno, srečno uro. Tokrat je otožnost silila bolj in bolj na dan in je vedno določneje oblikovala misel in zavest: treba je od tod, treba je v prvo črto, kjer bo morebiti že jutri začela kositi smrt. Mar se je boji? Ne, si je obotavlja se odgovoril in v duhu brž pristavil: ampak sla po življenju je močnejša od strahu pred smrtjo!

Lenka ga je molče gledala, ko je razmišljal in samega sebe go-ljufal. Položila mu je dlan na čelo, bila je hladna, a se je naglo ogrela in napajala Mirta s svojo prijetno toploto. Kmalu je zadremal. Kopica vtisov izza zadnjih dni se je gnetla v sanjah, ki so bile izprva prijetne, vesele, burkaste, kmalu pa so igrivo segle nazaj v mladost. Znašel se je pred podobo, ki jo je bil bogve kdaj kot študentek gledal v bogve katerem zborniku in ga je navdala z grozo. Kazala je beg ljudstva za rimskih časov pred bruhačim ognjenikom, pred gorečo lavo, ki se je razlila po dolini in grozila zaobjeti in pokončati kakor tisočglava debela kača vse, kar je dosegla.

Failproof Scotch Oat Fudge

Here is a rich fudge young people will enjoy preparing on a warm afternoon. With the help of pantry shelf foods, Peanut Butter Scotch Oat Fudge can be made in no time. It features such favorite "kid" foods as packaged butterscotch pudding, marshmallow creme, peanut butter, and oat puffs. It merely is boiled one minute, Beaten until thickened. Then spread in a buttered pan to cool and set. The little cereal puffs lend crunch to the creamy fudge plus adding a nutritional bonus of food energy, protein, minerals, and the B vitamins.

Peanut Butter Scotch Oat Fudge

|--|--|
| 1 package (4 ounce) butterscotch pudding and pie filling (not instant) | 1 package (6 ounce) butterscotch bits |
| 1 cup sugar | 1 cup marshmallow creme |
| 1/2 cup undiluted evaporated milk | 1/2 cup peanut butter, creamy or chunk-style |
| | 1 teaspoon vanilla |
| | 2 cups oat puffs |

Combine pudding and pie filling, sugar, and milk in a heavy saucepan; mix. Cook over moderately high heat, stirring constantly, until syrup is boiling to center of pan. Boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; stir in butterscotch bits, marshmallow creme, peanut butter, and vanilla. Beat until mixture begins to lose its gloss. Stir in cereal. Turn into buttered 8-inch square pan. Spread evenly. Cool and cut into squares. Yield: 36 squares.

Uszko, 1451 Clermont, $50 Milan Zajec, 1439 Larchmont, $25 Rocco La Penta, 711 E. 159 St., $25 Mrs. Jennie Muhic, 16002 Holmes Ave., and door gifts Joseph Kolosa and Susan Korenchan.
- ★ Wolverhampton, England — The label on the can read pineapples. When Mrs. Gladys Smouth opened it, she found only a pair of neatly folded rubber gloves bearing the legend "Product of South Africa."
- ★ St. Louis, Mo. — Robert Hoffman, assistant prosecutor attorney in St. Louis, indorsed his paycheck and then lost it. Several days later a Roman Catholic priest came to Hoffman's office and turned over $233.63, the amount of the check. "An unidentified man came to me the other day," the priest said. "The man said his conscience bothered him."
- ★ Salinas, Calif. — Cong. Burt Talcott (R-Calif.) definitely believes in the two-party system. Talcott, who was unopposed for reelection as a Republican, received 4063 write-in votes from Democrats in the June 4th primary. He will be listed on the November ballot both as the incumbent Republican and as a Democrat.
- ★ Los Angeles, Calif. — Rebel, a 105-pound German shepherd, has piled up an impressive record in six months by catching marijuana smugglers in California with his nose. Rebel's handler, U.S. Customs agent Bob Gore, says the dog will seek out the weed and even places where it has been hidden or smoked and will claw and dig until he gets to it. Rebel recently became obsessed with a package containing a portable tape recorder. When the recorder was disassembled, 11 plastic bags of marijuana were found stuffed under its top and six more bags in the bottom, nearly two pounds.
- ★ St. Louis, Mo. — Policeman George Anderson became suspicious when he saw a school bus speeding at 2 a.m. Anderson forced the bus to the curb and discovered five youths, two new tires, 26 pairs of slacks, 30 sweaters and eight sport coats inside. The youths were booked on suspicion of stealing. One told police they had borrowed the bus and found the tires and clothing on the street.
- ★ Lander, Wyo. — Students in John Adell's outdoor survival course learned that living off the land may be hazardous. Adell was showing his charges how to kill sage-chickens for use as food in an emergency. A justice of the peace pointed out sage-chickens are out of season and fined Adell $64 for poaching.
- ★ St. Louis, Mo. — A spider monkey up a tree at the home of Louis Rascher ignored bread, peanuts and bananas — or stole them and ran as Rascher tried to coax it down. Rascher wilted in the 90-plus heat and opened a beer for himself. Lyeing the jabbering simian, Rascher put some beer in a small tin container and waited. The monkey refreshed himself with the brew — and a neighbor boy hooked a leash to his collar.
- ★ Oakland, Calif. — A 75-year-old widow who roamed the streets in tattered clothes and scavenged for bottles and junk managed to pile up a fortune of more than $110,000 before she died in California. Mrs. Ursula Branch lived the life of a pauper, but she had $70,000 in cash and $60,000 in savings when she died. Officials have been unable to contact any relatives of the woman who was born Ursula Cotta Shunk on July 4, 1893, in West Virginia. She attended West Virginia teachers college and graduated in 1916.
- ★ Toronto, Ont. — Drivers using ring tabs from beer cans as slugs in parking meters are costing Canadian and U.S. municipalities $25 million a year in lost revenue according to a survey by the Municipal Parking Congress.

Pina Added to Tribe Hill Staff
Cleveland, O. — The Indians recalled two minor league pitchers for their stretch (for second place) run. Newcomers are 23-year-old Horacio Pina, summoned from Puebla (Mexican), where his record was 9-5 with a 3.23 earned-run average; and 26-year-old George Woodson, recalled from Portland (Pacific Coast), where his record was 10-8 with a 3.07 ERA. Both are right-handers.

Recently, though, Woodson was sent back to Portland for a little more seasoning.

Room on the roster for Pina and Woodson was made when infielder Dave Nelson returned to the military list and rookie relief pitcher Hal Kurtz was optioned to Portland.

Pina made an impressive debut against the Tigers on Aug. 14 when he worked two innings in relief of Luis Tiant in a 3-0 Tiger Victory.

Horacio faced six batters, striking out four. The other two went out easily, on a grounder and short fly to center.

Banks Recalls Facing

Paige in Batting Drills

Chicago, Ill. — Ernie Banks, the veteran Cub first baseman, says he is looking forward to the day (or night) when he'll be batting against Satchel Paige.

Banks said he never faced Paige during a regular game, but that he did hit against him once in batting practice.

This was in 1950 when Banks was a 19-year-old shortstop with the Kansas City Monarchs in the old Negro American League.

"It was in Des Moines, Ia.," Banks recalled. "I don't remember all the details. Only that it was an exhibition game and Satch kept telling me where his pitches were going to be."

Rog Doused by Brew

St. Louis, Mo. — Roger Maris showed remarkable restraint when he was hit by a cup of beer, which sprayed him as he made a catch in right field in the Cardinals' Aug. 13 game in Chicago.

At least it was the right product that was hurled by a bleacher fan — even though it wasn't the right brand.

Maris is now an Anheuser-Busch distributor in Gainesville, Fla.

Euclid Slovene Culture Concert Announced

The United Cultural Groups of Euclid, composed of Singing Society Zarja, Euclid Chapter of Barber-shop Singing, Baton Twirlers, Dawn Choral, Dramatic Society Zvezda, Sloven Men's Chorus and S.N.P.J. Circle No. 2 Jr. Chorus will present a combined program on Oct. 6, at the Slovenian Society Home on Recher Ave., at 4 p.m.

Each group will present a 15 minute program, which will add up to about a two hour program. This should prove to be a varied and delightful affair, as many different types of talent will be presented.

After the program, delicious dinners, sandwiches and krofe, made by our expert cooks of the Women's Auxiliary, will be served in our comfortable air-conditioned lower hall, as well as the Annex. Following the serving of dinners the popular Frankie Kramer Orchestra will play in the Ballroom.

This will be a great opportunity to hear all the different groups at one time and for one admission and should prove to be a real bargain. This affair will be the beginning of another exciting year at the Euclid Slovenian Home, as most of these organizations will have their own programs in the months to come and this should be an excellent preview of the good things to come.

Admission will be $1.50 and tickets are now available at the Slovenian Home Club Room from Chuck and Bertha Starman and also from the members of the cultural groups that are participating. If you can't come for the afternoon program you can join us for the dancing in the evening after 6:30, for which tickets will be available at $1.00. Please try to join us in this important affair, which is planned to please young and old alike.

We would also like to extend an invitation for everyone to drop in at the Slovenian Society Home Club Room to see our new bar, which was put in to make the place more attractive, as well as more practical and efficient.

Stanley Pockar, sec'y.

BARAGA AUTHOR VISITS CHICAGO

On his recent visit from the Vatican in Rome to Chicago, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Maximilian Jezernik, autographed his book, a study on Bishop Frederic Baraga, missionary to the American Indians, for Lud and Corinne Leskovar of Chicago's Slovenian Radio Hour in their office on Cermak Rd. With Msgr. Jezernik on this trip was secretary to the Bishop of Ontario, Canada, Rev. Francis Turk, also seen on this photo.

Msgr. Jezernik's book is based on the archives of the Congregatio de Propaganda Fide of which he is the director. It is the papal institution educating young seminarians from all over the world for leadership in the Catholic church. This being the Baraga Centennial year, he visited many places in America which influenced Baraga's career and ultimately brought a message from the Holy Father, Pope Pius VII to Bishop Charles Salatk, of the diocese of Marquette, Michigan, Baraga's successor.

Msgr. Jezernik is also the rector of "Slovenicum" the Slovenian college for seminarians and priests in Rome which fund drive is gaining momentum in Slovenian parishes throughout the country.

Action to memorialize Baraga in Chicago is being taken currently by the American Slovenian Civic Alliance.

WEE SCHOLAR—Fall's offering for the nursery school set: a bright red and turquoise plaided jumper with a matching solid turtleneck house in cotton knit, the set in the center.

Attention! Parents

School days are just around the corner. Youngsters are looking forward to the familiar routine of school and classmates they haven't seen.

Parents are shopping for clothes, pencils and notebooks. But one preparation they may forget, according to the Heart Association of Northeastern Ohio, every school bound youngster should have a physical examination.

A check up now, the Heart Association says, may turn up some small health problem that could become serious later. An examination before school starts may be the difference between good or low grades. A healthy child usually performs better than an ailing youngster.

The illnesses of childhood spread rapidly among the small fry if they get a foothold in the classroom. Colds and sore throats are common. The strep sore throat, more serious than others, starts with the first cold weather. Statistics show that the number of streptococcal infections reaches the highest peak in February and declines as spring begins.

The streptococcal infection which strikes children of school age, may be followed by Rheumatic Fever, which can lead to Rheumatic Heart Disease. Rheumatic Fever is not contagious, but a strep infection such as a sore throat or scarlet fever often passes from one child to another.

Prompt attention and treatment of a strep infection may prevent Rheumatic Fever. Consequently, if a child complains of aches and pains in his legs, arms or joints, has frequent colds and sore throats, is listless and irritable, parents would be wise to have a physician check the child early to treat the infection before it starts the rheumatic process.

Fortunately for the children of our community, the Heart Association supports a Rheumatic Fever Prevention Program, designed to aid the doctor in the diagnosis of streptococcal infections. The program utilizes mail in throat swabs for cultures which are provided to doctors free of charge.

Even though a child is treated for a strep infection, the Heart Association warns that the child should be watched for several weeks even though he is not ill. A "silent" period of several weeks will elapse before Rheumatic Fever develops. A warning sign that all is not well, will be a reappearance of one of the earlier symptoms.

If a child does develop rheumatic fever, his heart may not be damaged. In all probability however, long term medication will be prescribed to prevent recurring attacks. The child should be allowed to resume his normal activities unless the doctor limits him.

The child who has repeated attacks of rheumatic fever, the Heart Association warns, should be examined regularly to detect developing heart disease.

For more information about rheumatic fever or related diseases of the heart, contact your Heart Association.

LABOR DAY

LABOR DAY — the first Monday in September — has much the same significance to Americans as May Day has to workers in other lands. In fact, both Labor Day and May Day originated in America within a few years of each other.

It was in New York City in 1882 — 86 years ago — that the first Labor Day was celebrated. Earlier that year, on May 8, Peter J. McGuire, a young union leader, in addressing a meeting of the Central Labor Union, had proposed that a day be set aside to honor labor. Monday, September 5, was selected. Few if any workers had the day off. Some employers warned their workers that they would be fired if they stayed away. But some ten thousand singing and cheering workers, after a mass meeting in Union Square, marched up Broadway with banners demanding the eight-hour day.

The Labor Day idea spread rapidly. Oregon made it a legal holiday in 1887. In 1894 Congress made it a holiday in the District of Columbia and in all U.S. territories. By 1923 all the states had recognized it. And for many years the first Monday in September has been a day to pay tribute to labor — a day of celebration, meetings, picnics and parades in thousands of cities and towns from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Now About Making A Retreat During the 75th Anniversary?

Our parish is celebrating its 75th birthday this year, so here is a way of coming closer to your God for a few days as part of the parish observance of the 75th Anniversary.

Have You Ever Made a Retreat?

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Often times confusion and despair harass our lives. In those moments of trial, we turn to God for a helping hand. There is no better way than a retreat to give one the grace and help to find his way thru the darkness.

A retreat is a unique experience. It's a wonderful, quiet "meditation week-end" with God, during which one can think out his problems. The DIOCESAN RETREAT HOUSE, 18425 Lake Shore Boulevard provides both the spiritual atmosphere of a church and the personal comforts of home.

Retreatants take part in daily Mass, at which their closeness to God is keenly felt. They pray the Rosary at the outside Grotto and say the Stations of the Cross daily. During free time, a retreatant may meditate with God, either in the Chapel, on the secluded grounds along the lake, or in the privacy of his comfortable room. The Retreat Master helps him find a practical approach to every day problems, both in his public conferences as well as in private talks upon the retreatant's request.

One's material needs are also well provided. Private and double room accommodations, and excellent meals prepared by the Sisters of St. Joseph of St. Mark, make the week-end seem home-like. A library containing the best of meditative and spiritual reading matter is available to retreatants at all times.

This year the retreat for the men of ST. VITUS CHURCH will begin on Friday evening, Sept. 27, at 7 o'clock with dinner, and conclude on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29. In the event that you are unable to attend the entire retreat, at least try to attend on one day (Saturday or Sunday).

Reservations are being accepted at the St. Vitus Rectory Office any day during the week or call Michael Kolar UT 1-6587 or Joseph Avsec Jr., HE 1-5436, in the evening, make reservations by Wednesday, Sept. 18.

Please read the following list of OBJECTIONS TO MAKING A RETREAT and admit that one or the other will be exactly what you may have said to yourself at some time or other:

1. I don't have the time!
Can't you give to God, who gives you every minute you have, a mere week-end? Everyone knows that if he wants to do something, he can always find the time to do it!

2. I spend my week - ends with my family — it is the only time I have with its members!
You're a fine man, but aren't there 52 week-ends in the year? Your family will be more than willing to sacrifice your companionship for ONE week-end, if it is going to make you a better person for the other 51 week-ends!

3. Retreats are for pious Joes!
I am just an average man!

Is there a law against raising your batting average? Remember, Christ said, "Be ye Perfect as your Heavenly Father is Perfect." Aren't you a follower of Christ? Don't forget your batting average HERE... is your average for all Eternity. There is no batting practice in heaven. NOW is the time for improvement and there is NOTHING that will improve your life more than a retreat.

4. I can't afford it!
You can ill-afford to pass up this opportunity to make up to God for misspent time and money.

5. I don't go in for such church-going and praying and sermonizing that one gets in a Retreat?

Perhaps you have never made a retreat. If you had, you would know that a retreat is NOT just a lot of sermons and praying. There are talks and you do pray — but that is just a small part of it. You have time to read, to rest, to think, etc. In a word, you have a great deal of free time — time to spend as you wish to spend it.

6. I don't know any of the men who are making the Retreat!
It is better if you DON'T know the others who are making the retreat because the retreat is something between YOU and YOUR GOD. The less distraction, the better. St. Ignatius made his first retreat entirely alone!

7. They tell me you have to keep silence — I couldn't do that!
You won't be the first to learn that the silence is the easiest aspect of the retreat and one of the most satisfying. You will find that keeping silence for a week-end is a pleasant experience, a wonderful way to make up for the times one has spoken out of turn and in a sinful way.

8. I am so tired after my week's work that I just couldn't make a Retreat — I don't have the energy!

Take A Shake Break

When it's time to relax, give the family a break—a selection of new frosted shakes. These fluffy rich drinks are available in a quartet of flavors—chocolate, vanilla, strawberry and chocolate fudge—all ready to drink as they come from the can.

Just pop the easy to pull open tab, and all the goodness pours forth. The flavor's the finest when the canned shakes are refrigerated until served, then poured over finely cracked ice. To appeal to the eye, the Borden Kitchen suggests decking the rim of each glass or tip of each straw with a trinket or toy... a bit of chocolate or a plump fresh strawberry to hint at the good taste to come.

For more truly tasty touches add a cinnamon stick stirrer, maple flavoring, or a crest of sprinkles. Besides drinking frosted shakes, try as a flavoring for homemade sherbet or ice, the base for a sauce over cottage pudding or gelatin desserts.

But there's a built-in bonus too. These rich Borden shakes are vitamin fortified; each 9 3/4-ounce can provides 40 per cent of the adult minimum daily requirements for vitamins A, B-1 and B-2.

Frosted shakes are great to look at, even better to drink at shake breaks and mealtime, at home or when warm weather wows the family to the open road for an impromptu day trip or a long planned for vacation.

TRAGEDY IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

The Soviet Army, in concert with the forces of four other Warsaw Pact Nations, has given the world an impressive demonstration of the application of military power against a weaker adversary. As a result, the fragile flame of the move toward Freedom that shone so briefly in Prague, has been extinguished just as it was in Hungary 12 years ago. Once again it has been demonstrated that Freedom in the eyes of the Soviet leadership, is a dangerous commodity, to be watched closely and suspiciously, and to be stamped out if it starts to grow too fast. Such liberalization as is going to be permitted will be parcelled out in measured rations from Moscow.

Meanwhile, the Free World can only watch and weep, and wonder how long it will be before the Soviets learn that no nation, no fabricated ideology can forever hold back mankind's progress to Freedom. The brutal Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia should serve as an object lesson to those who keep saying that Communism is mellowing.

CONSTRUCTIVE PROPOSALS AND ALTERNATIVES. In spite of the fact that Republicans do not control the White House or Congress, we can point with pride to an impressive array of legislation which we have shaped and influenced.

Just to cite a few recent examples, 10 Republican proposals were adopted as part of the Omnibus Crime Bill signed recently by the President. The anti-loan sharking amendment to the Truth-In-Lending Act was Republican sponsored. A G.O.P. program to assist low-income families in owning their own homes and stimulating private enterprise to construct the needed low-cost housing was included in the Housing and Urban Development Act enacted recently.

Other recent Republican legislative achievements include the manpower development and retraining program juvenile delinquency control, the National Defense Education Act, and a code of ethics and standards of conduct for members of Congress.

There are various other Republican-sponsored programs, which represent constructive alternatives to the Great Society approach. They include the Human Investment Act to provide tax incentives to encourage business and industry to train unemployed men and women; the Human Renewal Fund to reallocate spending priorities to meet problems of unemployment, education, housing, crime and rural revitalization; the Community Development Corporation Act to assist people in urban and rural communities to secure employment and achieve ownership and control of the resources of their community. We have called also for a program of revenue sharing with local and state governments; tax credits for tuition costs and other expenses of higher education; automatic cost of living adjustments for Social Security recipients; block grants to the states for improved education; and a clean elections law to re-establish greater confidence in the integrity of our election process.

These are but a few of the Republican achievements and proposals for sensible solution to many of our nation's complex problems.

All the MORE reason for making one! Although we speak of the "spiritual exercises", a retreat is also a most restful experience for the body. The change of pace is so great that one leaves a retreat more physically rested than he has been in years.

9. I can't sleep with another person in the same room — I'm a terrible snorer!

Don't let THAT worry you! You may have a private room, if you ask for it sufficiently early. There are several such rooms available.

10. I'm on a diet — A very strict diet. The Menu out at the Retreat House may not be suitable for me!

Please don't worry about the Menu. The Sisters are the finest cooks available. Inform them of your dietary needs and they will provide the proper foods.

11. I have a heart condition and the stairs and walking wouldn't be too good for me!

There is a first floor room, and if that is already reserved, there is an elevator which is constantly in use — self-operated. The distance to the chapel and the dining room are not too great. You need not take part in the more strenuous exercises — the outdoor recitation of the Rosary and the Stations of the Cross. You may make these privately in the chapel.

Well, what have you to say NOW, dear reader? No need to say any more — simply call in YOUR reservation TODAY! Let's have a record turn-out this year!

The New York Yankees move into the Stadium to round out the Tribe's next home stand with a four-game weekend series — a two-night doubleheader on Friday, August 30, a Saturday night game (7:30 p.m.) on August 31 and a Sunday single afternoon contest on Sept. 1.

The first game of the two-nighter on August 30 begins at 5:30 p.m. and is a make-up of the 2-2 tie game played on May 15 — a game that was called in the eighth inning because of rain. The customary Friday night fireworks display will be scheduled immediately following the first game next Friday.

The season's first Saturday night game at the Stadium on August 31 does not affect the Tribe's usual Saturday policy of Ladies Day and Golden Agers Day. The only difference is that it will be Ladies Night and Golden Agers Night. All ladies will be admitted for $1 less than regular seat prices, and Golden Agers will be admitted for only 50c at Gate B. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The Yankees final appearance at the Stadium this season on Sunday, Sept. 1 is Little League Day. Game time is 2:15 p.m. Prior to the game, Little Leaguers are invited to take part in a parade around the track area of the Stadium and then be guests of the Tribe for the game.

Information on obtaining entry into the Stadium as guests of the Tribe can be obtained by writing the Indians' publicity office, care of The Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio, 44114. All Little League organizations are welcome to take advantage of this offer. The only requisite, of course, is writing the Tribe publicity office.

Parents and chaperones of the Little Leaguers can sit in the same sections with the youngsters by buying a general admission seat for $1.50. Managers and coaches will be guests of the Tribe — as will the Little Leaguers.

New York City Ballet Schedules 4 Performances At Blossom Music Center Starting This Weekend

The world famous New York City Ballet will give three evening performances and one children's matinee during the final weekend of the Blossom Music Festival. Evening performances are scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 30, 31 and September 1, with the children's matinee to be presented on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. All performances will be assisted by The Cleveland Orchestra under New York City Ballet conductors Robert Irving and Hugo Fiorato. The Friday and Saturday evening performances will start at 8:30, and the Sunday performance at 7:00 p.m. George Balanchine and Lincoln Kirstein are Directors of The New York City Ballet. The full Company will participate in the Blossom performance. Principal dancers appearing in the various productions include Suzanne Farrell, Melissa Hayden, Patricia McBride and Violette Verdy with Anthony Blum, Conrad Ludlow, Nicholas Magallanes, Francisco Moncion and Edward Villella. Programs for the weekend are as follows:

August 30 at 8:30 p.m.

"Jewels"

Full-length ballet in three acts

August 31 at 2:00 p.m.

"Swan Lake"

"Western Symphony"

August 31 at 8:30 p.m.

"Swan Lake"

"Glinkaiana"

"Afternoon of a Faun"

"Western Symphony"

September 1 at 7:00 p.m.

"Haydn Concerto"

"The Cage"

"Tarantella"

"Stars and Stripes"

The repertoire of The New York City Ballet as represented by the wide variety listed above is designed to exhibit the great strength of the Company in the complete art of ballet — from the classics to the daringly modern — as represented by "The Cage" and the popular "Stars and Stripes" with the corps de ballet looking for all the world like the Rockettes in the brass finale. Aside from the superb artistic level of performance of the Company, its flawless sense of showmanship is greatly responsible for a renewed interest in ballet on the part of the public.

The New York City Ballet has made its winter home in the New York State Theatre at Lincoln Center since 1964. The Company acquired a summer residence at the Saratoga Performing Arts Center in 1966 and currently spends the month of July there before touring in the United States and Canada.

The ballet "Jewels" which opens the Company's Blossom appearance was choreographed by George Balanchine. Act One is entitled "Emeralds" and is set to music by Faure from "Pelleas et Melisande" and "Shylock". Act Two, "Rubies", is set to music from Stravinsky's "Capriccio for Piano and Orchestra". Act Three, "Diamonds", is set to the music of Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 3. The dazzling costumes for "Jewels" were created by Karinska. "The Cage" features music by Stravinsky from his String Concerto in D with choreography by Jerome Robbins and costumes by Ruth Sobotka. "Glinkaiana" is set to Glinka's "Polka", "Valse Fantaisie", Jota Aragonesa and "Divertimento Brillante" with Mr. Balanchine's choreography and costumes by Esteban Frances. Choreography for "Haydn Concerto" is by John Taras with costumes by Raoul Pene DuBois. "Afternoon of a Faun" is set to Debussy's well-known music with choreography by Jerome Robbins and costumes by Irene Sharaff. "Stars and Stripes" is described as a Ballet in Five Campaigns with music adapted by Hershy Kay after music by John Philip Sousa. Choreography is by Mr. Balanchine and costumes by Karinska.

"Swan Lake" is a 1961 production of the Company with Tchaikovsky's music, choreography by Mr. Balanchine after Ivanov and costumes by Rouben Ter-Arturian. "Tarantella" is set to music by Louis Gottschalk reconstructed and orchestrated by Hershy Kay with choreography by Mr. Balanchine and costumes by Karinska. The popular "Western Symphony" features music by Hershy Kay, choreography by Mr. Balanchine and costumes by Karinska.

Reserved seats in the pavilion are available for all three evening performances priced from $2.50 to $4 and on sale at the Blossom Box Office, Severance Hall and all Burrows Stores. Tickets for the Children's matinee on August 31 are $2.00 with children 12 and under admitted at half price. There is no reserved seating for the matinee and all pavilion seats are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

General admission to the spacious lawn area for the evening performances Friday, Saturday and Sunday is on sale at the gate priced at $2.00 with children 12 and under admitted for $1.00.

Convenient ticket reservation stations are located as follows:

Stokers Host Chicago Soccer Mustangs Sept. 4

Ruben Navarro

On Wednesday, Sept. 4 at 8 p.m. the Chicago Mustangs will return to Cleveland for their last chance to beat the Stokers. The Mustangs who have scored more goals than any team in the league probably wish they were less familiar with Ruben Navarro who is the hub of the Stokers defense which has given up only two goals in the three previous games with the Chicago team.

Several cliché comparisons could be made about Ruben Navarro, 35-year-old defensive stalwart of the Cleveland Stokers, who is the only Cleveland player to play every minute of every game this season.

For instance, he's like old man river, he just keeps rolling along. He's sipped from the fountain of youth.

He's harder than an Iron Man. But none of these comparisons say as much as the facts. Ruben, a former Argentine national team star, has played the full 90 minutes in 26 games and the 50 minutes of the rain-shortened game in Detroit July 23 for a total of 2390 minutes. The only other Stokers to play more than 2200 minutes are goalkeeper Paul Shallow who left one game 15 minutes early; fullback John Best who missed only one game because of a league suspension; and forward Hank Liotard.

What is most amazing about Navarro's endurance record is that he is the most veteran player in the league. He played all over the world in 38 international matches for Argentina before coming to the U.S. He's listed at 35 years old in the league handbook but it's generally believed he may be older than that. Birth certificates are not issued in Argentina so his age is whatever he says it is. But considering the way he plays, who cares how old he is.

Ruben has quite a two-year playing record. Last year he played in 31 of 32 games for the Philadelphia Spartans, missing one game because of a concussion he received in a collision with brawny Willy Roy, then of the Chicago Spurs. Ruben was named most valuable player in the league by his fellow opponents.

Ruben shrugs off any questions about how much longer he'll play. Besides his natural talents and excellent conditioning, there is another reason why Ruben can still dominate games at his age.

"He makes himself do it. He pushes himself while younger players lag," praises Stokers manager Norman Low.

Navarro has slowed up a little and doesn't go as far into attack as he did earlier in his career but he certainly doesn't shy from contact.

Collisions are frequent because of his center halfback position in the Cleveland defense. It's usually the opponents who end up on the ground. Running into Ruben's muscular 185-pound frame is like running into a brick wall.

He's not just a brute however. He complements his physical strength with uncanny positioning

Cleveland Clean Up Campaign

Eleven railroad hopper cars filled to the top will give you the equivalent amount of litter and debris picked up from Cleveland streets, alleys, tree lawns and vacant lots in the first two weeks of the Cleveland: NOW! Clean Up Campaign.

Special city crews have gathered and disposed of some 1,000 tons of debris, weeds, tires, garbage and old furniture in the city-wide beautification drive. Guiding lights in the effort are Service Director Ralph S. Tyler and Assistant Streets Commissioner Robert Beasley. They have overseen the cleaning up of approximately one half of the city since the inauguration of the campaign on August 1st. This includes the clearing of some 115 lots on the East Side and 82 on the West, as of Monday, Aug. 19.

Each day a brigade of 300-odd youths descends on eight previously selected sites scattered throughout the city. Regular waste collection has preceded them by one day and their job is to remove any remaining visible and unwanted objects from streets, treelawns, alleys and vacant lots. The third step of the process comes the following day in the form of mechanical flushers and sweepers, which put the finishing touches to the job.

The city is also installing 1,000 new trash and litter containers around the city. Consultations on exact placement have been held with the respective councilmen. Each ward can now look forward to receiving approximately 30 orange-and-white containers. Seventy have been installed thus far, with the remainder to follow as fast as they can be produced.

Twenty-three teenage girls have been canvassing the neighborhood commercial areas, interviewing merchants and businessmen. Each is asked to clean up his property and sign a pledge that he will cooperate with the Clean Up effort by maintaining a clean, uncluttered place of business.

Each person interviewed has received a Clean Up poster, which he is asked to display in his front window, and those signing the pledge are awarded a special certificate. 4,968 posters and 4,483 merchant award certificates have been distributed.

Individual homeowners will also be interviewed, with the hope of enlisting their aid and support in making the Clean Up campaign a continuing effort.

Anyone wishing to know how they can help, or anyone who has questions about the Clean Up program, can get in touch by calling one of City Hall's Litter Lines. Numbers are: 694-2148 or 694-2149.

★ International Falls, Minn. — Faint cries of "help me" led a small carrier here to the rescue of a 6-year-old boy, trapped inside an abandoned refrigerator and near unconsciousness. The carrier, Armand Sequin, 59, revived Leonard Roy with artificial respiration and the lad walked away feeling well. Sequin said he had started on his route five minutes early and was ahead of schedule. Had he been on time, Sequin said, the child likely would have been dead of suffocation.
