Ohranjati »ravnotežje«

Današnji evangelij nam ponuja pouk, ki je tudi danes sodoben in je lahko koristen pri ekumenskem prizadevanju. Pripravlja ga odlomek iz četrte Mojzesove knjige, ki gre v isto smer. Drugo berilo pa govori o nepravičnih bogataših. V evangeliju Janez pravi Jezusu: »Učitelj, nekoga smo videli, da je v tvojem imenu izganjal hude duhove, in smo mu branili, ker ni hodil za nami.' Jezus pa je rekel: 'Ne branite mu!«.

Evangelij nam poudarja pomembnost razlikovati kdaj moramo biti nepopustljivi in kdaj smo lahko prožni. To presojanje in razlikovanje je v življenju zelo pomembno.

Janez pravi, da je treba biti neomajen. Nekomu, ki ni bil član dvanajsterih, je prepovedal, da bi izganjal hude duhove v Jezusovem imenu. Zdelo se mu je namreč prav, da je treba zato, da bi služili v Jezusovem imenu, tudi biti z njim in ne neodvisni od njega.

Vendar pa je Jezus nasprotnega mnenja, saj apostolom pravi: »Ne branite mu! Nihče namreč ne more storiti mogočnega dela v mojem imenu in takoj grdo govoriti o meni. Kdor ni proti nam, je za nas.« Tako se Jezus pokaže, da je prožen, da sprejema druge in da ni nepopustljiv. Želi, da se ne prepove dobro, ki ga je mogoče narediti, čeprav se zdi, da nekatere okoliščine niso povsem pravilne.

Podobno ravnanje je v prvem berilu, ko mora Mojzes porazdeliti svoje obveznosti med sedemdeset starešin. Gospod nato odvzame duha, ki je bil nad Mojzesom, in ga porazdeli nad starešinami. Ti začnejo prerokovati - to je govoriti po navdihu; tako so pokazali, da jih je Bog izbral, da bi vodili svoje ljudstvo.

Dva pa sta ostala v taboru. Bila sta med zapisanimi, vendar nista prišla k šotoru. Duh je prišel tudi nadnju in začela sta prerokovati. Neki mladenič se je nad tem pohujševal: teh dveh ni bilo v skupini, ko je šla k šotoru, zato ne smejo prerokovati. Mladič gre in vse to poroča Mojzesu. Jozue se takoj postavi Mojzesu v bran in pravi: »Mojzes, gospod moj, prepovej jima!« Mojzes ni ljubosumen; zato odgovori Jozuetu: »Si ti ljubosumen na moj račun?« In doda: »Ko bi se le vse Gospodovo ljudstvo spremenilo v preroke! Da bi Gospod dal nadnje svoja duha!« Tako odvrže od sebe ljubosumnost in posedovalno ljubezen. Gospodove milosti ne smejo biti priložnost za ljubosumnost in zavist, temveč za odprtost za ljubezen in vsestransko naklonjenost.

Podobno Jezus v evangeliju: »Ne branite mu!« Potem doda: »Kdor ni proti nam, je za nas.« Človek je morda daleč od Jezusa in ni z njim združen kot pravi učenec, a če naredi nekaj dobrega v njegovem imenu, je z njim. Ni proti njemu, kajti skupaj z njim dela dobro. Zato Jezus pravi »je za nas«.

Jezus poda nekaj primerov, kjer je treba biti nepopustljiv. Gre za pohujšanje. »Pohujšanje« pomeni nekoga zapeljati v slabo, v greh. Jezus začenja z obrambo najmlajših pred pohujšanjem kakršne koli oblike: »Kdor pohujša enega od teh malih, ki verujejo vame, bi bilo bolje zanj, da bi mu obesili mlinski kamen na vrat in ga vrgli v morje.«

Jezus brani otroke z izjemno močjo: pravi, da bi bilo bolje pretrpeti najhujšo telesno kazen (nekomu okrog vratu zavezati mlinski kamen in ga vreči v morje) kot pa pohujšati otroke.

Zatem navaja še druge primere, kjer moramo biti nepopustljivi: »Če te tvoja roka pohujšuje, jo odsekaj. Bolje je zate, da prideš pohabljen v življenje, kakor da bi imel obe roki, pa bi prišel v peklenško dolino, v neugasljivi ogenj.« Jasno je, da tu Jezus uporablja simbolno govorico; saj niso ne roka ne noga tisti, ki človeka vodijo k slabemu, temveč njegovi hudobni nameni.

Kristjani moramo biti sol zemlje, moramo ohraniti ves naš »okus« in prepoznavnost. V drugem berilu apostol Jakob uporablja zelo močne izraze proti nepoštenim bogatašem, ki izkoriščajo delavce: »Glejte, plačilo, ki ste ga utajili delavcem, ki so poželi vaša polja, kriči in kliči žanjcev so prišli do ušes Gospoda nad vojskami.« Jakob želi z božjo grožnjo doseči, da bi se ti ljudje pokesali.

Današnja božja beseda nam daje pomenljive spodbude. Prosimo Gospoda v evharistiji, naj nam da moči, da bomo res nepopustljivi takrat, ko bo to potrebno; in na drugi strani, naj bomo prožni takrat, ko to zahteva ljubezen.

(prim. Oznanjevalec 2003, št. 4)

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Response: The precepts of the Lord are right, and give joy to the heart.

First Reading: Numbers 11:25-29

Moses rejects any claim to ownership of God's work and prays that the Holy Spirit be with all his people.

Second Reading: James 5:1-6

St James invokes judgement on the selfish rich who exploit the poorest of the poor.

Gospel: Mark 9:38-43. 45. 47-4

Christ speaks the most severe of all his words. What is at stake is our redemption and the safety of the little ones of his kingdom.

"But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better cast into the sea."

Illustration

Nelson's Column is one of the landmarks of London. The 18-tonne statue of the admiral is more than five metres tall and stands on top of a 56-metre granite column in Trafalgar Square. It is taller than the column of Trajan in Rome, but, to the chagrin of some, shorter than Napoleon's column in Paris! Something of the history of warfare is in that statue. Nelson has lost his right arm to cannon shot. His ship's surgeon had to amputate his arm to save his life. The other wound is not obvious as we look up at the statue: he has lost the sight of one eye but not the eye itself. This happened at the first of his great victories, the Battle of the Nile in 1798. Nelson was fortunate to survive amputation. Many did not because of shock or subsequent infection. Surgery advanced in the coming centuries, but so, tragically, did the development of weapons used in the conduct of war. Amputations continue to this day. There are those who refuse to be defeated by such life-changing injuries. The Invictus Games serve as an example. First held in 2014, these international events involve injured servicemen and women. The word “Invictus” means “unconquered”, chosen as an embodiment of the fighting spirit of those who refuse to be defeated by their wounds. To their number, we must add all who take part in the Paralympic Games.

Gospel Teaching

Such are the tragic wounds of war. We are engaged in a more fundamental war: that between good and evil, between Christ and the arrogant claims of Satan. It is a war for the redemption of all humanity. Today’s Gospel calls us to the sacrifices we must carry out in our lives. We are to cut out whatever holds us back from the true following of our Saviour. This is painful, but necessary for salvation. It demands courage. Christ uses very powerful metaphors, so serious is what he requires of us. He also speaks of hell. This is not “Sheol”, the place of the dead, to which he descended after his death. It is “Gehenna” which, in Our Lord’s Jewish culture, was the destiny of those who completely reject God and his mercy. Christ speaks also of the damage that can be done to the faith of the “little ones” – be they children or adults – who are especially dear to him. As a mother has love for the weakest of her children, so does Our Lord for these who are the least in his Church; he does so with all the fulness and tenderness of his divine love. He also speaks with the righteous anger that comes with that love. Our Saviour knows the effect of scandal on the most innocent and vulnerable of believers. He uses the images of the grimmest punishments for what is done to those who have his protective love. In contrast, those who show the humblest act of kindness to the little ones are blessed by Christ. This Sunday’s Gospel passage begins with a call to tolerance as opposed to the apostle John’s angry claim to ownership of the power of the name of Jesus.

Application

There are several messages in today’s readings, and they all call upon the authenticity of our bond with Christ. He asks us to cut out of our lives any sin that may hold us back from true service of his kingdom. This demands courage: it is painful but necessary for true discipleship. His words are stern, but even more stern is his righteous anger against those who damage or undermine the faith of the “little ones” who are dear to him. Unrepented scandal deserves the fate of the damned. Christ takes sin seriously, so seriously that he is on his way to Jerusalem to suffer and die for our redemption. We cannot be passive or casual about the insidious power that sin can have over us, and its effect on those to whom we are called to show a special protective love. The Letter of St James calls us to the same hunger and thirst for justice. The fire of the Holy Spirit is to be in our minds and hearts, and not some insipid faith that demands so little of us. We heed the cry of Moses: “If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!” Each day we pray for the same Holy Spirit, not the spirit of timidity and fear but of all that makes of us a prophetic people, speaking and acting as servants, not self-appointed owners of God’s kingdom. There is no place for such elitism among the Catholic people. The “little ones” teach us otherwise.

60th Anniversary Celebration

Pri sv. Gregoriju Velikem v Hamiltonu

Preteklo nedeljo, 22. septembra 2024, je bilo v slovenski župniji sv. Gregorija Velikega nadvse praznično ob njeni 60 letnici uspešnega delovanja.

Rojaki so se navdušeno odzvali in napolnili cerkev in dvorano do zadnjega kotička.

Izredno slavnostno je bilo bogoslužje treh duhovnikov, to so bili: gospod John Puntino (ravnatelj salezijanske skupnosti v Torontu, gospod Andrej Golčnik (župnik iz Boštanj v Sloveniji) in župnik Drago Gačnik ob sodelovanju številnih laikov ter oktetom Jurij Dalmatin iz Slovenije (Boštanj) in domačim angleškim zborom.

Po skupni fotografiji pred cerkvijo, so se ljudje podali v dvorano.

Kot vsako leto, je pred kosilom »Slovenian Canadian Scholarship Foundation«, s štipendijami nagradila študente višjih šol.

Pred kosilom je oktet Jurij Dalmatin zapel nekaj slovenskih pesmi, nato so otroci slovenske šole, in udeleženci Day Campa – tisti, ki so se udeležili slovesnosti - pod vodstvom Milana Vinčeca navdušeno zapeli nekaj pesmi.

Kosilu je sledil zanimiv program:

Po obeh himnah je bila na kratko predstavljena, v sliki in besedi, bogata 60 letna zgodovina župnije.

Posebni gostje dneva so bili Vera in Ema Margutsch, Marjan Kolarič in ambasador Andrej Gregor Rode skupaj z ženo Moniko. Ambasador je v imenu Urada Vlade Republike Slovenije za Slovence v zamejstvu in posvetu izročil več priznanj.

Priznanje in zahvalo Slovenski župniji sv. Gregorija Velikega ob 60-letnici delovanja.

Priznanje župniku g. Dragu Gačniku za njegov neprecenljiv 21-letni doprinos župniji sv. Gregorija Velikega.

Priznanje Heidy Novak, predsednici župnijskega pastoralne sveta, za njen doprinos župniji in slovenski skupnosti.

Župniji sv. Gregorija Velikega je, v imenu Vse slovenskega kulturnega odbora, predsednica Vera Margutsch izročila Plaketo s čestitko.

Oktet Jurij Dalmatin, pa je na ta prazničen dan z dovršenim nastopom v cerkvi in dvorani zaključil svojo uspešno turnejo po združenih državah Amerike in Kanadi.

Skratka, bilo je enkratno in nepozabno doživetje jubilejnega slavlja slovenske župnije sv. Gregorija Velikega v Hamiltonu.

RESULTS OF THE DEANERY MEETINGS

COMMUNICATION / RELATIONSHIPS

The development of better communication, as stated earlier, is needed in all areas of the Church's life and ministry. We all need to become better at helping each other understand the "why" behind decisions.

The sending out of memos from the chancery only stating policy and rules have made priests feel as if they are simply employees and not co-workers with the bishop in the vineyard of the Lord. Memos sent on Friday afternoons are not helpful. Deacons feel the priests do not share with them or invite them into the strategic planning for the parish and that priests do not allow them their proper role in the liturgy. In regards to communication with our Catholic schools, some feel that Catholic school principals do not talk to pastors and pastors do not talk to Catholic school principals. The bishop needs to be more visible and accessible to parishioners. We need to find a way past the "us and them" mentality. Better communication, leading to forgiveness and a healing of relationships, will hopefully lead to deeper trust and a sense of being together in guiding and leading our diocese.

Therefore, it will be important to discern carefully how communication will grow and support the people and ministries in our diocese.

- ◆ We need to find a better and more effective way to communicate to parishes and the people of our diocese the various services and ministries already available to support them. There is a lack of awareness about programs and initiatives due to poor communication. We need better advertising and promotion about what the diocese is doing, what we as Catholics believe, and whom the Church supports.
- ◆ There needs to be a "multi-pronged" approach in communication, i.e. bulletins and electronic media.
- ◆ The diocese needs to lead this initiative by developing a strong Communication Department that can help the diocese and parishes showcase all that is offered to build the faith.
- ◆ Priests and deacons must be present and available before and after the celebration of liturgy.
- ◆ There should be clear means for the laity to contact the priest and the bishop, as well as an effective process to share ideas between the people and the clergy.
- ◆ Messages, from the chancery to parishes and from pastors to parishioners, need to be clear and transparent.
- ◆ More opportunities for gatherings between the people and the priest/bishop should be developed.
