Some European Easter traditions

At many Slovenian parishes on Palm Sunday Slovenians like to parade to Mass carrying the traditional butare or spring flowers. They are usually made a few days earlier in the church basement or auditorium with pussy willows, ferns, and such which are assembled on a pole. A few of the poles can be six feet tall and are carried into the church by the most brawny of the men in the procession.

On the Saturday afternoon before Easter, various traditional foods such as hard-boiled decorated eggs, ham, zelodec and sausages (klobase), and especially potica [nut bread], some horseradish, are assembled in a basket, covered with a cloth and taken to the church to be blessed by the parish priest.

On Easter Sunday morning, after mass this blessed food, called žegen is then spread on a table and eaten throughout the day by the family members and friends as they come to visit.

In the Easter Basket of the Slovaks, they cut off a small piece of sausage and paska (Easter bread) in a dish with boiled egg, and a slice of sirok (an egg roll or egg cheese), homemade butter, and a generous helping of horseradish mixed with beets. It is eaten with a large cup of coffee.

Slovenian School says thanks

Slovenska šola pri sv. Vidu wishes to express its heartfelt thanks to the many patrons and guests who attended the annual school benefit dinner on Sunday, March 9.

The initial estimate indicates that 715-720 dinners were served. The proceeds from the dinner will be used to support the operating needs of the school.

As expressed in a previous article in the Ameriška Domovina, approximately 16 students are making plans for a two week stay in the Republic of Slovenia this summer. The two-week stay is the culmination of many years of study of the Slovenian language, history, geography, literature, etc. The students will stay at either begins the 'silent week' which ends with the double holiday of Easter Sunday and Easter Monday.

On Palm Sunday, people may greet their friends and relatives and implore good luck by whisking them lightly with virpovitsa willow twigs. On Easter Sunday they return the good luck blessing by giving an egg, sweets or a coin.

On Good Friday dark attire and strict behavioral norms emphasize the serious nature of the day. Several chores were banned on Good Friday including making a cooking fire or sweeping the floor, or visiting friends.

Children were spanked early in the morning on Good Friday to remind them of Christ's suffering.

The night before Easter, the children come home from church carrying and using a loud musical instrument, or cowbell. The noise would signify the end of the silent week.

An old Easter tradition is to await the rising sun early in the morning to signify a new beginning. Many churches call this Sunrise Service. It is most impressive in Slovenian Catholic Churches. Early in the morning the church is dark, all of sudden you hear singing, then the lights come on, a few at a time, then eventually the entire church is aglow. Christ is risen!

the Bishop's School or another religious facility. A tentative schedule is being planned.

An Ad Hoc Committee of parents and teachers has been formed by the school to address the many details for this schedule. More information on this initiative will be provided to the general public soon.

The Frances and Jane S. Lausche Foundation is thanked for the generous donation of $3,000 toward the operating support of St. Vitus Slovenian Language School.

We also extend a blessed and happy birthday/name day to all Josephs and Josephines as we approach the Feast Day of St. Joseph.

Diana Fir's graduate recital in San Francisco is awesome

In the San Francisco Bay area, the crowded musical scene is becoming accustomed to being regaled by the wonderful singing of Diana Fir.

For two consecutive years, she has had outstanding performances as a soloist in a number of soprano roles in the Sing-it-Yourself MESSIAH — a most popular annual Christmas concert at the San Francisco Davies Symphony Hall.

Before that, she had a dazzling performance for her senior recital at the Conservatory of Music. But on February 23, Diana's GRADUATE VOICE RECITAL, was a treat not to be missed, a milestone in the singing career of this young singer, and, we hope, a springboard to a success-filled career.

Neither a simple nor a florid description could really do justice to her performance. One had to be there.

So the following is a poor substitute. As young as she is, we have enjoyed Diana's singing for many years, but in this performance she reached heights not yet expected from a still young voice. Diana has matured fast into a wonderful person, a beautiful woman, with an exceptionally pleasing voice, with an ever greater mastery of her talented musical instrument.

Diana Fir, with father and mother Jože and Maria

From her entrance on the stage, radiating beauty and joy she captured her audience. As she began to sing, her artistry transformed and transported the audience to that higher plane of pure rapture.

So totally captivated, we become oblivious of time and there was only moment after moment of sheer joy.

Her program was quite extensive and varied, with difficult musical compositions including "Exsultate, Jubilate," and "Exsult, Rejoice" by Mozart, demanded knowledge of several languages. Yet through it all, she sailed with ease, comfort, exuding confidence, seemingly delighted in and making light of the most difficult passages.

She is so skilled in her craft that we did not notice and were not allowed to dwell on the technical difficulties of the music, but were immediately and completely immersed in an experience beyond compare — what Aristotle would happily call a glorious cathartic event.

After the performance, her proud parents, Joze and Marie, outdid themselves in providing a delicious array of foods and drinks for some 400 delighted guests, while Diana again charmed us all with her gracious manner, generously giving due attention to everyone. For all of this, but especially for the gift of Diana, we are overjoyed. How great to be part of this community and to share in the life of a rising singing star!

The Easter Bunny

The Easter bunny has its origin in pre-Christian fertility lore. The hare and the rabbit were the most fertile animals known and they served as symbols of the new life during the Spring season.

The bunny as an Easter symbol seems to have its origins in Germany, where it was first mentioned in German writings in the 1500s. The first edible Easter bunnies were made in Germany during the early 1800s. They were made of pastry and sugar.

The Easter bunny was introduced to American folklore by the German settlers who arrived in the Pennsylvania Dutch country during the 1700s. The arrival of the "Oschter Haws" was considered "childhood's greatest pleasure" next to the visit from Christ Kindel on Christmas Eve. The children believed if they were good the "Oschter Haws" would lay a nest of colored eggs.

The children would build their nest in a secluded place in the home, the barn or the garden. Boys would use their caps and girls their bonnets to make the nests. The use of elaborate Easter baskets would come later as the tradition of the Easter bunny spread through out the country.

Notice to Old-Time Radio Fans

Would you like to again hear some of the radio programs of the Shadow, Lone Ranger, Fibber McGee and Molly, etc.?

In Northern, Ohio, just turn your radio dial to 1420 (WHK-AM) at 9:05 p.m. to 10 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Also, a powerful station is (WHO-AM) in Iowa at 1040 on your dial which we can catch in Ohio that plays old-time radio programs from 10 to 11 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Hi-ho Silver, away! (Say, sheriff, who was that masked man? Why don't you know? That was my dentist.)

On Easter do you ever feel overstuffed? It's one of the few words that contain four letters of the alphabet in a row: rstu.

Persons have said, "I'm too old to learn how to use a computer." To that I say, nonsense.

It's a lot easier than a typewriter. People often don't believe that. But it's true. If you make a mistake such as misspell the word misstake. What happens is a red wavy line comes under the word and mentions that, "Hey, fumble-fingers, you hit the wrong keys again." So you have to go back and correct it or else you'll have a computer screen full of red wavy lines.

It's a riot though, when you write some Slovenian names. In that case, yes, your article will be full of words with red wavy lines underneath. Take the word, "Debevec," I use it every once in a while. There is no American English word for it yet there is no wavy line underneath it. Why? Because I outfoxed the computer. When I first received it, I clicked on the "spelling" part of the "Tools" command and highlighted the word "Debevec" with my command device (called a mouse) and clicked on the "add" button. That means I have added Debevec to the dictionary of correctly spelled words, thus the computer will not tell me I don't know how to spell my very own name.

Then when you're finished and you want to add a sentence in the middle of a paragraph, with a typewriter, you have to set the whole thing again, perfectly. With a computer you just insert the sentence and the entire article automatically readjusts itself.

Then there is the word "the." You will never see the word misspelled because the computer automatically corrects it. For instance, if I want to say, "You do not spell the word "the" -- hte. In order to misspell it, I had to stop and override the computer and demand that it make an error, which it wasn't happy to do because now there is a red wavy line under it, saying, "Na, na, you didn't spell it right."

Anyhow when you're typing fast, your little finger might not have enough power to fully hit the shift key enough to make the first letter after a period into a capital letter, so the computer does it for you every time which is sometimes infuriating because in a few instances you may not want the first letter after a period to be in capitals. Such as "Hamilton Razors Ltd. Is a good company". See the letter "I" became cap and I swear I never hit the shift button.

The other day a sign all of a sudden flashed on the screen, "This program has performed an illegal operation in Explorer, if the problem persists, contact a technician." That'll scare the heck out of you. You have no idea what you did wrong, but you better not do it again. Makes you think - such as, "Where is my typewriter?"

Other than a few helpful peculiarities (which I didn't know how to spell, but this machine figured it out when I asked), what you mainly have to do is learn the computer language.

If your instructions tell you to "boot it up." It doesn't mean to kick the computer, but simply to turn it on and wait a minute until it notifies all its electronic components to wake up and get ready for work.

On the keyboard is the command "Scroll Lock." Don't pay any attention to it. Nobody knows what it means, and nobody has ever used it. But computer geeks who first made these machines, put the command key there and everyone since has been afraid to remove it.

Then someone will say my e-mail address is so and so dot com, or so and so dot net. Well, you can look high and low all over the keyboard and you won't find a "dot" key. There isn't any. The dot is a period - period. This is the truth, when I first went on the Internet, I was talking to a big, big, major corporation representative and she said their e-mail was such-and-such dot com. "Oh," I said, your e-mail address is such-and-such period com. She said "No; it's such-and-such dot com." I tried it out; but, when typing in the "dot" I hit the period and it worked.

So, when telling someone what my e-mail address is, I pretend I know what I'm doing and say it's jim at buckeyeweb dot com. You notice I didn't say @ I said "at" which the @ means. And you don't use any spaces because the machine gets confused if you do and thinks you're telling it two commands. So you type away like some nut who doesn't know how to type, but the machine doesn't mind and gets you to where you want to go - most of the time, anyhow.

To reiterate, if you think you're too old to use a computer, please reconsider. The computer is totally stupid, (but very fast); you just have to tell it what to do. Once you get used to doing everything electronically instead of by hand, you will do fine.

During the first three months, however, always look nearby to make sure Father John Kumse isn't around, because you'll be calling the computer some names that even you didn't realize you knew. However, after some months of frustration, you'll be glad you purchased the computer and do everything it tells you, just like a good husband. And once on the Internet, you, too, will be saying, "The days just aren't long enough," because you're having so much fun.

Another time you might want to try some of the long-forgotten words of frustration is when you first get the computer and you're pushing all the buttons on the screen and you discover three of them on your upper right-hand corner. The first one is a square with a dash in the lower middle. If you hit that, your screen will go blank and you've been working for a half an hour and you think, "Uh, oh. What did I do now?"

But after a while you will realize this is a good thing. Because what you really bought the computer for is to play its best game, solitaire. The nifty feature of electronic solitaire is you don't have to do one of the most tedious chores of playing cards and that is to shuffle the deck. The computer does it for you automatically. And if you go out with all 52 cards on top, the machine rewards you by showing a roller-coaster of cards moving up and down. Such fun!

So, what good is the dash button we spoke about earlier? What you do is start

MAPLE SUGARING !

Next time you spread that syrup on your pancakes, think about the "little old me" who finally got to make some.

By true maple syrup, I don't mean the one with ingredient listed as follows: "sucrose, fructose, water, corn syrup, cellulose gum, artificial flavor, salt, ascorbic acid, sodium benzoate, natural flavor, caramel color, sodium hexametaphosphate."

The SYRUP that I am describing is Pure Maple Syrup, made by boiling anywhere from 45 to 100 gallons of sap to make one gallon of syrup and NOTHING ELSE!

Two Saturdays ago in the Wilmot, Ohio Amish community, it took 85 gallons of sap to make one gallon of syrup.

"Abe" was the official cook while "Aden" kept the fire going under the 14 feet long evaporator around the clock for 48 hours. Mercina filled the jugs.

Freezing nights and warm sunny days with a dab of snow make for an ideal, fast running sap. Forgot to mention that 800 holes had to be drilled and "spikes" driven into the holes and 800 buckets as well as a mile of tubing had to be prepared before the first golden drop of syrup touched our lips. It was sure GOOOOOD!

working on a document, then, when no one's around, you bring up the solitaire game. This is called using your window, or having two or more documents working at the same time. But, halfway through the game, you're doing great, but, suddenly, the boss (whether at home or at the office) comes into the room.

What you do is hit the dash-square button and instantly, the game disappears and your work reappears. After the boss pats you on the back, and commands you for all the work you're doing and he/she leaves, you hit the mini "Solitaire" bar on the bottom of the screen and the game reappears as if by magic, exactly as you left it.

Even if you don't like to play solitaire, it's fun on the computer. You can change the back of the cards to 12 different pictures. My favorite is a desert island with a palm tree on one end, and water all around with the sun shining in the upper right-hand corner. While you're playing, all of a sudden, you think you saw something move, but you're not sure. Then you see it again, the sun turns into a smile face ☺ with sunglasses. It flashes by in half a second. But won't come out again if you stop to watch for it. Then it instantly comes out and (this is the truth) sticks out its tongue at you. THE MACHINE IS INSULTING YOU. There is nothing to do but ignore the sarcastic sun and continue the game ever watchful for the boss or the sun returning.

4 Žužemberk church needs help

The church of St. Mohor and Fortunat in Žužemberk was for centuries one of the prominent testimonials of Catholic faith of our Slovenian ancestors. Unfortunately, it was destroyed in 1944 during the horrible times of foreign occupation and communist revolution. Only bare walls of the once magnificent church had remained. The rectory, too, was burned to the ground.

Until 1992 it was generally believed that nothing could be done except perhaps clearing the ruins. During that year, however, Rev. Franc Povirk was appointed pastor and dean of Žužemberk. Within a year, he managed to persuade his good parishioners that with the help of God, with their own sacrifices and hard work, and with contributions from good people of Slovenia and abroad, the church and the rectory could be rebuilt.

It was a miracle of love and by 1995 a beautifully rebuilt church and a new rectory became the pride of the Dolenjska and Suha krajina region.

Unfortunately some debts still have to be paid and the good pastor is now being threatened with the confiscation of church property. We should never allow something as shameful as this to happen.

Slovenian Americans have already organized a collection first led by the pastor's brother, the noted painter and singer Janez Povirk and most persuasively supported by our beloved Bishop Edward Pevec who had also visited Father Povirk in Žužemberk, as well as Dobrnič, the birthplace of our great missionary Bishop Baraga. As Janez is still recuperating from another surgery, we urgently appeal to each and all of you to please contribute whatever you can in order to help pay the remaining debts and save these landmarks of Slovenian Catholic faith and resiliency.

Please make checks to Žužemberk church, c/o Mrs. J. Ivanka Turk, 2077 Newcome St., Richmond Hts., OH 44143. Her phone number is 481-3038, or c/o Mrs. Tillie Spehar, 903 E. 216 St., Euclid, OH 44119, or Mr. John Petric, 451 E. 156 St., Cleveland, OH 44110.

The Golden Years

Remember old folks are worth a fortune, with silver in their hair and gold in their teeth, stones in their kidneys, and lead in their feet, and gas in their stomachs.

I have become a little older since I saw you last and a few changes have come into my life. Frankly, I have become quite a frivolous old gal.

I am seeing five gentlemen every day. As soon as I wake up, Will power helps me out of bed. Then I go to see John. Then Charlie Horse comes along, and when he is here he takes a lot of my time and attention. When he leaves, Arthur Ritis arrives and stays the rest of the day. He doesn't like to stay in one place very long, so he takes me from joint to joint.

After such a busy day I'm really tired and glad to go to bed with Ben Gay. WHAT A LIFE!

P.S. - The preacher came the other day. He said at my age I should be thinking about the here-after. I told him, "Oh," I do that all the time. No matter where I am, in the front room, upstairs, in the kitchen or down the basement. I ask myself now... "WHAT AM I HERE AFTER?"

Eat soup to lose weight

Soup can play a significant role in a weight-loss program, according to researchers at the University of Pennsylvania. They found that eating soup at the start of a meal slows the rate of eating and fills the stomach, which signals the brain to curtail appetites.

EASTER BAKED HAM

Place whole ham, fat side up, on a rack in a shallow pan. Insert meat thermometer in center of thick part, making sure tip doesn't touch bone. Bake in slow oven, 325°. About 1/2 hour before ham is done, remove from oven and pour off grease. Score ham fat by making cuts 1/4" deep. Spoon orange marmalade over ham. Continue baking. Allow 1/2 to 3/4 pound uncooked ham per person or 1/3 pound cooked, ready to eat ham.

COOKED HAM: 6 to 8 pounds, bake 15 to 17 minutes per pound or 2 hours.

UNCOOKED HAM: 6 to 8 pounds, bake 25 minutes per pound or 3 hours.

Don't Be A Chicken. Try Turkey.

(NAPS)—There's no denying that Americans consider chicken to be "old-reliable" at mealtime. However, most don't know that there's an even better choice with the same great taste and convenience, but which contains even less fat (39 percent) than chicken*. Interested? It's fresh turkey—turkey cutlets, turkey breast, ground breast of turkey, turkey tenderloins and much more—the variety and great taste your family has been craving.

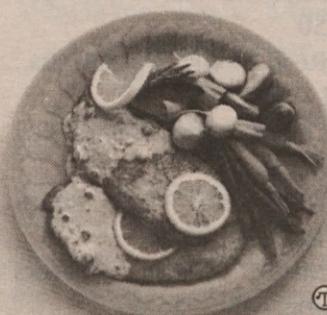

With today's quest for more convenient and lower-fat recipes, fresh turkey can be the flavorful key ingredient to those recipes in which folks might choose chicken. A healthy alternative to chicken, beef and pork, Shady Brook Farms offers the widest variety of turkey products.

For a savory substitution, serve Shady Brook Farms OnlyOne Lemon Mustard Turkey Cutlets on "Turkey Tuesday" and give your family a great-tasting and nutritious meal featuring naturally tender turkey instead of chicken. Create a tangy sauce featuring lemon juice, Dijon mustard, fresh parsley, minced onion and capers. Best of all, you can master this menu in under 10 minutes!

* Four-ounce serving of turkey cutlets vs. chicken cutlets

Shady Brook Farms OnlyOne Lemon Mustard Turkey Cutlets
Makes 4 servings

1/4 cup all-purpose flour
Salt and freshly ground pepper, if desired
Non-stick cooking spray
1 package Shady Brook Farms OnlyOne Turkey Cutlets (approximately 1 pound)

1/2 cup whole milk
1 tablespoon corn starch
2 tablespoons fresh parsley, chopped
2 tablespoons capers, rinsed and drained
2 tablespoons minced shallots or onion
2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel

Combine flour, salt and pepper on plate. Lightly dust turkey in flour, shaking off excess. Spray skillet with non-stick cooking spray and bring to medium heat. Add turkey and cook, about 2 minutes on each side until cooked through. Remove to serving plate and keep warm. Mix milk and cornstarch and pour into medium-high skillet. Heat until boiling, scraping up browned bits on bottom of skillet. Add remaining ingredients and cook until milk is slightly thickened, about 2 minutes. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Spoon sauce over turkey; serve hot.

The History of Easter Customs

By John McCollister

Easter means many things to many people.

To the dress designer, it's the time to introduce new spring fashions. To the florist, it means increased sales in lilies. To the college student, it is an annual break from textbooks for fun and sun at Daytona Beach or Palm Springs. To the Christian, it marks the center of all theology, that the resurrection of Jesus from the dead is living proof that Christ was the Son of God.

Christians, as well as many non-Christians, celebrate the festival of Easter each year not only by filling churches to overflowing, but also by observing customs commonly associated with this holy season.

The "whys" behind some of Easter's customs and symbols explain how this happened.

Why is the celebration of Jesus' resurrection called "Easter?"

The word "Easter" comes not from a Christian source, but from an ancient ritual. An illustrious monk and writer of the medieval church, the Venerable Bede (673-735), wrote that the term is a corruption of Eostre — the Teutonic goddess of spring. The label was chosen because of the time of year when the feast of the resurrection is always held.

Why is Easter celebrated in spring?

According to the New Testament, Jesus was crucified on Friday afternoon — a few hours before the start of the high holy season called "Passover." His resurrection was on the following Sunday; thus, the Christian celebration of Easter has always been linked with the Jewish observance of Passover.

The first council of the Christian Church (held in Nicaea in 325) set the date for the celebration of Jesus' resurrection as the first Sunday after the first full moon following the vernal equinox (March 21). The earliest possible date of Easter, then, is March 22, the latest, April 25.

Eastern Orthodox churches follow the Julian calendar rather than the Gregorian calendar, so their celebration normally follows one week later than most Christian denominations.

The dates of Easter between now and the year 2000 are: April 12, 1998; April 4, 1999; April 23, 2000.

Why do Christians eat hard-boiled eggs on Easter?

Early Christians of Mesopotamia were the first to apply this symbol as a visual lesson to the resurrection of Christ. This custom has its roots in folklore. From earliest times, the egg has been a symbol of fertility and immortality. During the rites of spring, many nations have included it as a sign of new life anticipated during the season of planting.

Why are Easter eggs colored or painted?

The tradition of dyeing Easter eggs with bright colors has its origin in a legend that Simon of Cyrene — the man who carried the cross of Jesus to Calvary — was an egg merchant. According to the folk tale, when Simon returned from the site of the crucifixion, he discovered that all of the eggs in his produce basket had miraculously turned into a variety of colors, adorned with drawings.

Although this may be a delightful tale that developed into an enjoyable practice, there is neither Biblical nor sound oral tradition to support it.

Why is the "Easter bunny" a part of the Easter celebration?

Like the egg, the rabbit has been a symbol of fertility, the observance of which was another part of the Anglo-Saxon mythology and the ancient celebration of spring.

In a blend of Christian and other traditions, the custom of a rabbit (or Easter bunny) leaving colored eggs in the baskets of children was brought to America by German immigrants in the late 19th century.

Why is the lily the official Easter flower?

The lily — a tall, fragrant plant with long, pointed leaves — is the symbol of Easter because of its shape resembling a trumpet that heralds the resurrection of Jesus.

Why is the picture of a butterfly a part of Easter decorations?

In many Christian churches on Easter morning, a common practice is to hang a banner featuring the image of a butterfly — a symbol of Jesus' resurrection.

As any schoolchild knows, butterflies have humble beginnings as worm-like caterpillars. While inside their cocoons, these creatures are anything but attractive. However, they emerge as beautiful butterflies, full of brilliant colors.

The miracle of change is akin to the transformation of the broken body of Jesus sealed in a grave on Good Friday to the glorified body of the risen Lord on the first Easter morning.

Why are hot cross buns served on Easter?

During the spring equinox, ancient tribes sought the favor of the gods for a bountiful yield from their newly planted crops by sacrificing an ox (called a boun [thus our word "bun"] by the Saxons). After the ritual, the participants celebrated by eating cakes marked on top with a symbol of the ox horns. The symbol divided the cakes into four equal parts, thereby making it easy to be divided equally for distribution.

Leaders of the early church adapted this custom into their celebration of Easter, with the symbol of the ox horns being now interpreted as a sign of the cross on which Jesus died.

Later, some believers thought the buns carried magical powers and brought at least one of them into their homes to ward off evil spirits.

Fishermen sometimes carried one on their boats long after the Easter celebration as a precaution against shipwreck.

"White Land" of Bela Krajina

The "White Land" of south-east Slovenia takes its name from the endless stands of birch trees that cover this little province.

It is a treasure-trove of Slovenian folklore, traditional dance and music particularly around Crnomelj and Adlesici. Many of the Stringed instruments, the tamburica, the berdo (contrabass), the guitar like brac and the bisernice (lute) are unique to this region or originated here.

Like Dolenjska, Bela Krajina is known for its Hallstatt and Roman sites; 3rd century shrine to the god Mithra near the village of Roznec is one of the best preserved in Europe.

Hallstatt is a name of a village in the Salzkammergut region in Austria where the object characteristic of the early Iron Age, from about 700 to 500 BC were found in the 19th century. Today it reflects to the late Bronze and early Iron Age cultures that developed in Central and Western Europe from about 1100 to 450 BC.

Many parts of Slovenia were settled during this period, particularly Dolenjska and Bela Krajina. Burial grounds and forts have yielded swords, helmets, jewelry and especially situas, pails and buckets that are often richly decorated with battle and hunting scenes.

Mithraism, the worship of god mithra, originated in Persia. As Rome extended its rule into Asia, the religion became extremely popular with traders, imperial slaves and mercenaries of the Roman army and spread rapidly throughout the empire in the 1st and 2nd centuries AD. The Romanemperors eventually accepted the new faith and Mithraism was the principal rival of Christianity until Constantine came to the throne in the 4th century AD.

What little is known about Mithra the god of justice and social contract, has been deduced from reliefs and icons found in temples like the ones at Ptuj and near Crnomelj in Bela Krajina. Most of these portray Mithra clad in a Persian-style cap and tunic sacrificing a white bull in front of Sol, the sun god. From bull's blood, grain, grapes and living creatures sprout forth.

Sol's wife Soma, the moon, begins her cycle and time is born. The letters "VSLM" that you see on many Mithraic stones are part of a secret code thanking Mithra for his good deeds and recognizable only to the faithful.

Mithraism and Christianity competed strongly because of the striking similarity in many of their rituals. Both involve shepherds, an ark built to escape the flood and a form of baptism. Devotees knelt when they worshipped and a common meal, a "communion," was a regular feature of the liturgy.

That much for an introduction to the Mithra site you visit in Bela Krajina where the people are particularly proud of their rich tradition in popular arts and crafts. The colorful Easter eggs called "pisanice," are still made in Bela Krajina.

The hand weaving of flaxen cloth will not sink into oblivion, nor will the age-old style of embroidery, called "ralicenje," which continues to be practiced with mastery by the local women. During long winter evenings men weave baskets and potters are busy at their turntables.

The people of Bela Krajina are a cheerful and hospitable lot. They are happy to invite passers-by to drink a glass of home-made wine and a chat for a while. Despite urbanization and industrial development, they are still very much attached to their land and especially to the vineyards.

Discussion inevitably turns to this year's crops and the quality of the new wine. They are wine-growers in heart and soul. No wonder that the biggest events in the region revolve around wine. "Cvickarija" in Novo Mesto is dedicated to the popular red wine of Dolenjska - cvicek. Every year Slovenia and International vintners and connoisseurs of fine wines meet in Metlika, the region's wine-growing and wine-trading capital, to celebrate the events called Vinska vingred.

They are also especially proud of their two beautiful rivers, the Krka and the Kolpa. They are making sure that the purity is preserved and do not allow human selfishness to build up their banks. In summer days the two rivers are a heaven for fishermen, bathers, or anyone in search of peace and quiet. Together with their tributaries, especially the Lahinja, the Radulja, the Tezka voda and the Temanica, they are a fishermen's paradise.

For the hunter there is game galore in the well kept range with an attentive attitude to game management. In the low-lying areas, pheasants, hares and deer are hunted. Higher up, especially near Brezova Reber and Kocevski Rog, one of the most pristine areas in Slovenia, has been a protected nature area for more than 100 years. The hunter's prize catch is deer, brown bear, wild cat and boar.

The equestrian centers offer riding courses as well as cross country riding. Depending on your skill level in this noble sport, you can choose between the patient Halfingers and the swift and lively Holsteiners and Hanoverians. In Bela Krajina and Sentjernejsko Polje, trotting is the popular sport.

The people of Bela Krajina love their land and they cultivate it with care, because they know that their efforts will bear fruit. This land has sustained them for hundreds of years, sometimes more abundantly, then more humbly again.

They know that the most meager slice of bread is also the sweetest if baked at home. They take care to preserve the pristine features of their land, which they have inherited from their grandfathers and which they wish to hand down to their own grandchildren. They are confident that they will appreciate this gift.

What's Your Opinion?

Time For An Update?

Would you change these faces of U.S. history if you could?

(NAPS)—If you could vote on whether to replace any of the presidents on Mount Rushmore, would you vote to replace Washington, Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt or Abraham Lincoln?

Recent visitors to The Lincoln Museum in Fort Wayne, Indiana, were asked the same question. They voted to keep Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, but John F. Kennedy was their choice to replace Roosevelt on the South Dakota national monument. Abraham Lincoln had the most votes. Teddy, by the way, finished seventh in the voting.

How would you rearrange Mt. Rushmore's lineup? Send us your vote and we'll send you a free brochure describing the highly acclaimed museum that combines historical artifacts and computerized multimedia presentations to portray the extraordinary life and times of Abraham Lincoln. Learn more about the United States—and the not-so-united states of Lincoln's time.

Located in northeastern Indiana and within driving distance of other Lincoln sites, The Lincoln Museum features such fascinating artifacts as Lincoln's pocket knife, his shawl, the inkwell used to sign the Emancipation Proclamation, 200 documents signed by Lincoln, handwritten notes and personal family photos.

Write to cast your vote to "Rushmore Vote," The Lincoln Museum, P.O. Box 7838, Fort Wayne, IN 46801-7838.

American Slovenian Club of South Florida

On March 2, the American Slovenian Club of South Florida met at Nob Hill Recreation Center in Sunrise, Florida.

In keeping with St. Patrick's Day, some persons donned green attire. The ultimate Irish acknowledgment was the super-delicious corned beef brisket and cabbage prepared by our member, chef Gus Gselman. What a treat! The ladies and gentlemen rounded out the buffet with tasty additions. Erna Klauz contributed sharkel. That may have been a first on the table.

A snapshot of a couple in costume was making the rounds. You would have to be told that the handsome "sultan" was none other than the accordion player, Ed Squirlock; and his wife, Marie, has to be the most beautiful woman in his harem. They participate in the Mummers' functions. Marie and Ed have been married for 50 years and their upbeat attitude contributes to their full lifestyle.

March birthday celebrants were guest Erna Rundio and members Jo Grimsic and Sophie Svoboda. Jo and Sophie are 80 plus. You have to marvel at Mary Premru who is 95 years old. Her spirit and agility belie her age. Guests Erna and Henry Rundio celebrated a 50-plus wedding anniversary. Congratulations to Mary and Bill Zupanc who have a March wedding anniversary. Mary doesn't attend meetings because of her constant need for oxygen.

Our condolences are extended to Mary Grilc on the death of her sister, Jean Race of Cleveland.

Please keep in your prayers our house-bound members, Marion and Chuck Machacek. Dorothy Punchak is still sporting a sling for her broken arm. It doesn't detract from her bandbox appearance.

Paul Tucker does not let his health problems interfere with leading us in "God Bless America." He honored requests that he sing "Danny Boy." His rendition tugs at your heartstrings.

Next meeting is on April 6. Call 954-561-8270 for more information.

An Overview of the Sydney Olympic Games

The City of Sydney in New South Wales, Australia, is honored to have been chosen by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) to host the Games of the XXVII Olympiad in the year 2000.

The Games will be held between Friday September 15 and Sunday October 1, 2000 in Sydney's spring which is an ideal climate for the athletes. The daily average temperature is 16°C - 21°C. September is the driest month of the year and the humidity is low.

Sydney's Olympic Plan is centered on providing the best environment to enable the athletes to perform at their peak.

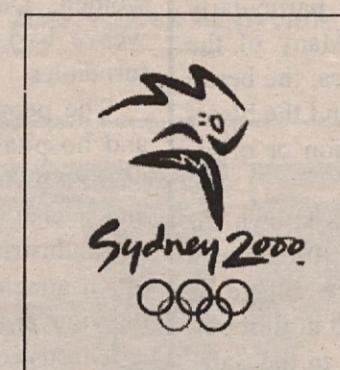

All athletes will live in the one Olympic Village - for the first time in modern history. All competition venues will be within 30 minutes travel of the Olympic village.

In every aspect of Games planning SOCOG continues to apply the strictest environmental standards.

Sydney Olympic Park, 14 kilometers from the Sydney city center, will have venues for 14 sports including the 110,000 seat Olympic Stadium within walking distance of the Olympic Village. Many of Sydney's competition venues have been built or are now under construction.

- Sydney enjoys a low security risk, world class health care, high environmental standards and sophisticated television/ telecommunication technology.

- Sydney is home to people of more than 140 nations - living happily together in one of the great multicultural cities of the world.

Athletes from all parts of the world will have an abundance of "hometown" cuisine, religion, culture and language as well as a ready-made cheer squad.

- Australia has a proud Olympic record. Greece and Australia are the only two nations to have competed in every summer Games since 1896.

- The Sydney Games enjoy strong community support - from Government, opposition parties, ethnic communities, aboriginal communities, trade unions, media, the business community and environmental organizations including Greenpeace.

- Sydney has the written endorsement of all the International Sports Federations (IFS) and will pay for athletes, officials and their equipment to travel to and from Australia.

- Sydney has a first class media plan that includes an International Broadcast Center (IBC) and Main Press Center (MPC) that will provide a high technology working environment for all broadcasters, journalists and photographers. The centers will be connected by optic fiber to all Olympic facilities and will operate 24 hours a day.

- Sydney has ample accommodation including more than 30,000 hotel rooms at present. A further 5,700 will become available between now and the year 2000. Already Sydney has signed an agreement to regulate the cost of accommodation and in-house services.

- Sydney's transport plan has been designed to move up to 450,000 people a day in a secure, quick, reliable and convenient manner.

Withdraws support of WCPN

John P. Seseck of Garfield Heights, Ohio wrote a letter to Kathryn Jensen, General Manager of WCPN Public Radio Cleveland. Parts of it are reprinted here:

I write to withdraw my moral and financial support from WCPN. This is despite the fact that I am a passionate supporter of NPR news and many of the wonderful feature programs such as A Prairie Home Companion, Terri Gross' Fresh Air and Michael Feldman's "Whad'ya know?"

I am withdrawing my support because WCPN failed to appreciate the value of ethnic or "nationality" broadcasters. The fact that Cleveland Public Radio had nearly 10 foreign language broadcasts on Sunday was a source of pleasure and pride to me. Like countless other Northeast Ohioans, my roots go to Eastern Europe, specifically Slovenia. But my support extended to the whole idea of ethnic broadcasting, not just Slovene.

What is distressing in particular is the apparent lack of good motivation for the changes. The ethnic broadcasting hours apparently brought in more than their share of financial pledges, per hour. Further, the broadcasts were limited to Sunday afternoons and evenings; hardly the most competitive radio hours. As a listener, I am left with the sad thought that cultural diversity is not valued at WCPN unless it comes packaged with the current, politically correct marketing.

I think you missed an opportunity to be different, to be Cleveland.

I will still listen to and support Public Radio, but my support will now go to WKSU in Kent.

The Lesson of a Rose

This was the eulogy which was delivered on February 21, 1997 during the funeral mass at St. Vitus church for Rose (Zalka) Zupan.

Seventy-nine years ago, on August 31st, 1917, the sixth child was born to a happy couple in the tiny hamlet of Zupeca vas in the Dolenjska region of Slovenia. The little baby girl was so beautiful that the Racic parents named her Rozalija, which means Rose. A most beautiful flower it is, but accompanied by thorns as well. Rose would bring beauty wherever she went in life, yet nobody ever imagined how many thorns would pierce her life as well.

The Racic family was poor, subsistence farmers. An elementary school class photo shows Rose as a little girl with a pained look on her face instead of a smile, because as a child she was constantly hungry.

But even poor children are happy; music flooded the Racic household. Both her parents sang in the church choir, and this musical talent was in Rose's genes; soon she was singing in the choir too.

A child's function is to occasionally add a white hair or two to a parent's head, and little Rose was no different. She once fell from the top of a huge linden tree, and miraculously survived with only a pair of broken wrists; the bones never set properly, and she was forever reminded of this fall.

Rose studied hard in school because she knew that education was her ticket to a better life; but at the age of 13 she was forced to quit school and get a job to help support her family. Jobs were scarce in her part of the country, so she had to travel to the other end of Slovenia. Here she was, a 15-year-old teenager, a stranger in a strange land, and so homesick for her parents, brothers and sisters. So she worked all the harder now, and sent back her earnings to her parents.

Times change, but not people: then as now, a teenage girl has only one thing on her mind: boys. But here a thorn again pierced her life. World War II erupted, and her dreams of socials and dances were replaced with the sounds of gunfire and terror. Young men were scarce in wartime.

There was one young man she felt attracted to; he was quiet and shy, who also came from a good solid family like her own. And he was attracted by her beauty, inner as well as physical.

The war was drawing to a close, and everybody longed for a return to some sense of normalcy. Just a woman's intuition, but Rose felt that any day now he would ask the question.

But another thorn developed, as world politics interfered with postwar peace. The communists had taken over her country, and her beloved was on their death lists. His only salvation was to leave his country, and Rose decided to follow her own heart as well: his fate would be hers.

Shortly after they crossed the border into Austria, they hurriedly married. Her wedding day was another time of joy which she was not able to share with her parents, who had remained behind.

Once again, a stranger in a strange land. The first five years of marriage were spent in one displaced persons camp after another. Along came three babies. In those desperate postwar years she had absolutely nothing to give her babies except her devotion and love, and she bathed them with these things throughout her life.

In 1949 they immigrated to the USA. Rose soon was happy to give birth to another son, the first child of hers who was not born displaced. The USA was the land of opportunity, but, of course, they had to start at the lowest rung of the ladder again.

Strangers again, and now further than ever from her parents and the place of her birth. She vowed that her own children would not experience the thorns that had pricked her own life. Though she herself had been forced to quit school before high school, Rose would ensure her own children would receive a higher education.

This took money, naturally. So as she cleaned offices at the end of the business day, she consoled herself with the thought that one day one of her own children would sit behind an office desk like this, pushing a pencil instead of a mop. No factory job was too menial for her, for she wanted her children to grow up in a better world than hers.

Grow up they did, and gave her back 13 grandchildren. Rose had more love to spare.

Rose had two special talents: first of all, true to her name, Rose loved flowers. In the course of her life, Rose had learned that a flower can beautify any surrounding no matter what. Inside as well as outside her home, there was always room somewhere for one more potted plant, one more seedling. She could nurse back to health any ailing flower just as easily as a child's bruised knee.

Rose's other forte was cooking and baking. She was a miracle worker in the kitchen; she could transform the lowliest ingredients into the most grandiose meal. She knew the favorite food of each child and grandchild, and readily provided it when the time came.

These talents were just extensions of her love. No matter what you did you knew you would still be accepted by Mama. She would listen patiently to your problem, and then give you her sound advice, whether you asked for it or not. A person's image of God is shaped by the example of one's parents: Rose wanted to teach her children and grandchildren that God was above all a devoted and accepting God in an otherwise undevoted and most inexplicable world.

As the years advanced, Rose was beset with many thorns of ill health. A severe stroke had left her with sight in only one eye and difficulties in mobility. There were also scars from an earlier bout with TB. Then came the last but sharpest thorn in her life: an inexplicable and painful form of lung cancer, confirmed just before Christmas.

The doctors said six months at most. As she walked among the dormant rose bushes in her garden in front of her house, she mused aloud to her daughter, "I wonder if I'm going to see these bloom in the spring."

But God had other plans. This cancer wasted no time. She admitted the constant pain, but rarely complained. She herself never was the first to request a pain pill to ease the constant pain, but took one only after it was offered, and then simply said, "Thanks."

It would have been so easy to succumb to the cancer and pity herself, but she refused to do either: like all the other thorns in her life, she would fight this as best she could all the way to the end, to her last breath on February 18, 1997.

Rose had definitely "fought the good fight," and had earned her eternal reward. She finally reached the garden where flowers never die.

And the legacy? There is, of course, "one more angel in heaven, one less place at the table, one more tear in my eye," and above all, the one lesson of a Rose: a garden is made beautiful not by the thorns on a stem, but by the blossom on display at the top.

DID YOU KNOW
Slovenia... Joseph Zelle

Alojz Rebula's latest book, Maranatha, or the Year 999. has been published by the Mohorjeva druzba of Celovec. It is again a historical novel. Literary critics feel it is Rebula's best work thus far. The author is the recipient of the Preseren Award.

Also Dr. Janko Zerzer has published the first Carinthian cultural historical tourist guide in Slovenian. The book was issued by the Christian Cultural Union and published by Mohorjeva druzba of Celovec, Ljubljana, and Vienna.

Rev. Ivan Kobal passed away on January 14. More than 80 priests from the Koper and Gorica Dioceses concelebrated the funeral mass with Bishop Metod Pirih. For the last 12 years the Rev. Kobal had been pastor in Vrbovce. R.I.P!

Another obituary is that of the Rev. Mirko Valentic. In recent years he was retired in Semper, where he died. God rest his soul!

In Opcine, Photographer Maria Magajna held a triple exhibition of photographs from Terst covering the past 52 years.

Likewise Jasna Merku displayed her paintings in the Ars Gallery in Terst.

This year's Slovenian Emigrant's Almanac has been published. It is the 44th annual publication which is intended for Slovenian emigrants scattered throughout the world. This edition covers historical, cultural, political, and literary contributions from Slovenians around the world.

Jan Budin is considered one of the best basketball players in the Terst region. Recently he returned from London after several weeks of training with English London Towers. He hails from Salez.

Our congratulations to the Rev. Dr. Franc Perko who is observing the 10th anniversary as Archbishop of Belgrade.

Archbishop Alfredo Batisti has named the Rev. Emil Battistig as pastor of Zabnica, which includes the famous shrine of Svete Višarje. Father Battistig hails from Matajur and is conversant in Slovenian, Italian, and German. Thus Slovenian pilgrims are assured of having a Slovenian priest available at the shrine.

The diocesan gymnasium in Maribor is expected to open this year. Temporary quarters have already been secured for the incoming students.

Msgr. Alojzij Ilc is a Slovenian priest celebrating his golden anniversary of ordination. He is the pastor of the cathedral in the diocese of Anapolis, Brazil. We are proud of Msgr. Ilc and his work. We wish him many more years of happy work in the Lord's vineyard.

SAZU, the Slovenian Academy of Arts and Science, in Ljubljana introduced a new four language dictionary. Slovenian, French, German, and English are listed side by side. Earlier a German-Slovenian-German dictionary had been published.

It was 60 years ago that Lojze Bratuž was killed by Fascist fanatics. He was an organist, and composer. On Christmas day he was forced to drink crank-case oil by the mob. As a consequence he suffered prolonged torture for a couple of months before he finally died. He is considered a hero and martyr for the Slovenian minority cause following the World War I partitioning of Slovenia.

MAKING FAMILY LIFE MORE FUN

Building The Very Best Easter Baskets

Twenty percent of all chocolate is purchased at Easter and is used to assemble the beautiful baskets traditionally associated with Easter.

Needed Supplies

- Creativity and imagination
- A plain or painted basket
- Scissors
- Hard-boiled eggs (boiled and dyed previously)
- Multi-colored plastic eggs
- Green recycled paper
- Plain white paper
- Various colors of ribbon
- Felt tip pen
- Nestlé Nesteggs
- Nestlé Fun Size Candy Bars
- Nestlé Chocolate Easter Eggs
- Nestlé Crunch Easter Disks
- A roll of pennies and quarters
- A small stuffed animal (or other Easter toy)

Special Easter candy, such as Nestlé Nesteggs, Nestlé Chocolate Easter Eggs, Nestlé Easter Fun Size candy and Nestlé Crunch Easter Disks can help build a better basket. These familiar favorites with an Easter flair are perfect for Easter baskets, egg hunts or holiday entertaining.

To create a breathtakingly beautiful Easter basket, shred green recycled paper for filling instead of the traditional plastic grass. A stuffed bunny or other Easter-themed doll or toy makes a great addition. You can also add an educational element with a book on Peter Cotton Tail or B'r'r Rabbit or a history of why people color eggs.

Here are some better basket-building tips:

- A new book for your child
- Non-toxic paints (if you're feeling creative with the plastic eggs).

Steps to Building The Best Basket

1. Determine which items will go in each basket and lay them aside.
2. Cut or shred the recycled paper to use as the nest. Place in the basket.
3. To make colored plastic eggs more colorful, decorate four to seven with non-toxic paints (lettuce) or stickers.
4. Cut different shapes out of the white or colored construction paper to use for coupons. Shapes can be traced with Easter cookie cutters and cut, if you have the time.
5. Write different messages on the "coupons" (they can be messages of encouragement, history about Easter customs, a voucher for a day without chores during Easter or anything else you can come up with). Put the messages and/or the coins in the plastic eggs.
6. Put the biggest item in the basket first (a stuffed animal or book). Then arrange the Nestlé chocolates, the hard-boiled eggs and the plastic eggs around that item.
7. Add ribbon to the handle of the basket as the finishing touch.
8. You've just completed your Very Best Easter Basket.

Slovenska Šola pri sv. Vidu (St. Vitus Slovenian School)

News Letter Update

As previously stated in the "Ameriška Domovina/American Home" enclosed is the final list of donor names regarding the third and final "Angel Campaign" (1996) of Slovenska Šola pri sv. Vidu for its operating and capital needs. Again, we thank all individuals, families, organizations, lodges, and businesses who responded to this annual request. We are most grateful and appreciative for any donation, small or large, that was made on behalf of the development of our young children. A final gross total of $4,025 was raised with an estimated $215 for expenses.

Slovenska Šola pri sv. Vidu is able to provide a lifetime experience for young children each year for the past 43+ years with tuition, annual benefit dinner, summer picnic, annual solicitation plus dedicated teaching staff, supportive spiritual directors, parents, & friends of the school to provide the necessary resources to accomplish its stated mission. As a point of reference the school budget is between $10-to-$15,000 per year. The following activities will occur in March/April 1997:

-March 22: Making of Slovenian "butare" (Slovenian designed bunches for Palm Sunday). Combines usage of pussy willow branches, selected greenery, red, white and blue color ribbons, and other items.

(Died March 19, 1993)

Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other".
I know He said, "Well done, Mother."

Tea may cut Stroke risk

Drinking tea on a regular basis may help reduce your risk of stroke.

That's the conclusion of scientists at the National Institute of Public Health in the Netherlands after they tracked the diets of men ages 55 to 69, for 15 years.

The researchers were trying to see if flavonoids — a compound found in plant foods, such as black tea (the kind most Americans drink) and fruits — protected people from strokes.

Flavonoids act like antioxidants, which prevent LDL or "bad" cholesterol from oxidizing, and help reduce the risk of heart disease and stroke.

VELIKA NOĆ 1997 - EASTER 1997

St. Mary Church - Sv. Marija Vnebovzeta

Dragi farani!

Post je skorajda za nami. Vstopamo v najsvetejše dneve cerkvenega leta, ko se bomo spominjali trpljenja, smrti in vstajenja Jezusa našega Odrešenika. Ti dnevi so srčika našega prepričanja, da ljubezen premaga zlo, resnica premaga laž, in življenje premaga smrt. Naj bo urnik bogoslužja v velikem tednu opozorilo, kako čudovitih dogodkov se spominjamo. Naj služi tudi kot osebno povabilo, da boste sodelovali v pri teh velikih skrivnostih naše vere.

Prosimo Vas, nadaljujte z molitvijo, postom in pokoro v teh zadnjih dneh posta.

Opravite iskreno spoved, tako, da se bo Bog miru in usmiljenja lahko dotaknil vaših src.

Naj Gospodovo vstajenje okrepi vašo vero, obnovi vaše upanje in napolni z veseljem in mirom vstalega Zveličarja!

Vaši v vstalem Kristusu!

Dear Parishioners,

Lent is nearly over. We enter the most sacred days of our Church year, remembering the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus our Savior. These days are the very heart of our hope that love conquers evil, truth conquers deceit, and life conquers death. May this schedule of Holy Week Services be a reminder of the wonderful events we commemorate. May it also serve as a personal invitation to you to participate in these Great Mysteries of our Faith.

Please continue in your prayer, fasting and penance during these final days of Lent. Make a sincere Confession so that God's mercy and peace may touch your heart.

May the Resurrection of Jesus strengthen your faith, renew your hope and fill you with the joy and peace of the Risen Savior!

Yours in the Risen Christ,

Fr. John Kumse

VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

Dokaj laskave ocene o obisku italijanskega premiera Romana Prodi

Slovenske ocene po obisku italijanskega premiera Romana Prodi v Ljubljani pretekli teden so zelo pozitivne, nekatere celo laskave. V srečanju s slovenskim kolegom dr. Janezom Drnovškom naj bi Prodi obljubil italijansko podporo za vključitev Slovenije v širiti tako Evropske zveze kot Nata. Takšno vključevanje Slovenije naj bi bilo po Prodijem mnenju v skupnem interesu. Prodi je še rekel, da bo Italija ratificirala pridružitveni sporazum za EZ (to morajo storiti vse države članice EZ) že do konca leta, Drnovšek pa odgovoril, da bo isto storil slovenski parlament. Med obljubami z italijanske strani je bila ta, da bo Italija Sloveniji vrnila arhiv, ki je v njeni posesti. Še bolj pomembna pa je Prodijeva obljuba, da bo italijanski parlament letos vendarle odobril s strani slovenske manjšine v Italiji dolgo pričakovani zaščitni zakon za to manjšino. Kritični komentatorji v slovenskih medijih poudarjajo predvsem, da gre zaenkrat samo za obljube.

Predsednik parlamenta Janez Podobnik na obisku v ZDA — Mihaela Logar (SLS) naj bi bila naslednica dr. Petra Vencija

Ta teden se mudi na obisku v ZDA, tu predvsem v Washingtonu, D.C., Janez Podobnik, predsednik parlamenta. Imel je že daljšo vrsto srečanj z raznimi člani zveznega kongresa, danes se bo kratko dobil tudi z vodjo predstavnika doma Newta Gingricha, obiskal je tudi Pentagon. Veleposlanik dr. Ernest Petrič je na Podobnikov čast priredil sprejem v ambasadi, jutri zvečer pa bo Janez Podobnik gost na slavnostnem poslovilnem banketu, ki ga za veleposlanika dr. Petriča prireja Slovenska narodna podpora jednota (SNPJ) v Imperialu, Pa., blizu Pittsburgha. V svojih srečanjih poudarja Janez Podobnik, da Slovenija s svojim novembra lani izvoljenim parlamentom in pred tedni od tega parlamenta potrjeno vlado želi doseči vključitev v prvi krog pogajanj o razširitvi Nata. Janez Podobnik je vodilni član vladne SLS, njegov brat Marjan je pa strankin predsednik in podpredsednik vlade.

Kot kaže, bo članica SLS Mihaela Logar postala državna sekretarka za Slovence po svetu. To mesto je doslej vršil dr. Peter Vencelj, član SKD. Ker je pa SKD prešla v opozicijo in so morali vsi člani SKD zapustiti svoja od vlade odvisna mesta, je odšel tudi dr. Vencelj. Mihaela Logar je med drugim že bila v ZDA in jo poznajo številni rojaki. Sliši se, da bo morda prišla na obisk v ZDA in Kanado že konec aprila in začetku maje, ko bo v obeh državah gostoval v številnih slovenskih skupnostih mešani pevski zbor Emil Adamič. To pa uradno še ni potrjeno.

Ze potekajo priprave na uvedbo devetletne osnovne šole — Uvedena bo v šolskem letu 2002/03 — Precejšnje spremembe

Slovenijo čakajo kar obsežne spremembe v izobraževanju otrok oz. v samem šolskem sistemu. Na torkovi novinarski konferenci na ministrstvo za šolstvo in šport so povedali med drugim:

»Nova devetletna šola bo razdeljena na triletja. Ob koncu vsakega triletja bodo znanje slovenskega jezika, matematike in na višnji stopnji tudi tujega jezika, enega naravoslovnega in enega družboslovnega predmeta preverili z nacionalnimi preizkusi znanja. ... Posebnost zadnjega triletja bodo izbirni predmeti.« Najbolj sporna tu je vera oz. verstvo kot izbirni predmet.

Narodni muzej v Ljubljani je pripravila razstavo z naslovom Neandertalski človek in njegova flavta. Osrednji predmet razstave je »flavta«, ki jo drži v roki strokovnjak. Najdena je bila med raziskovanjem naselbine iz kamene dobe, ki se nahaja na kraju nad Idrijo. »Flavta« je zbudila mednarodno zanimanje tako strokovnjakov kot javnosti, ker naj bi bila najstarejši tovrstni predmet, ki ga je izdelala človeška roka. Doslej je rekord držalo glasbilo s starostjo 35 tisoč let. Po strokovnem preverjanju v ZDA naj bi bilo glasbilo, najdeno v Sloveniji, starejše kar za dobrih 10 tisoč let, torej ima starost 45.000 let. Če bo ugotovitev držala, bo treba spremeniti marsikatero dosedanje teorijo o kulturnem razvoju človeka in tu še posebej neandertalskega človeka. Omenjena razstava v Narodnem muzeju bo trajala do 8. junija.

Žužemberk prosi za našo pomoč

WILLOUGHBY HILLS, O. — Med nami je lepo število zavednih Slovencev, ki so doma iz Žužemberka ali iz sosednjih krajev, oddaljenih manj kot 40 kilometrov. To je manjša razdalja kot med Clevelandom in Slovensko pristavo v Genovi, Ohio. Zahodno od Žužemberka proti Grosuplju in Ljubljani se vrstijo kraji Zagradec, (Jurčičeva!) Muljava, Veliki Gaber, Šentvid in staroslavna Stična.

Le dober streljaj proti severu je Dobrnič, domača fara našega svetniškega kandidata Barage, pa tudi dosedanjega ljubljanskega nadškofa in metropolita dr. Alojzija Šuštarja in ameriškim rojakom dobroznanega dr. Goleta iz Milwaukee. Še malo više proti severu je Trebnje, proti vzhodu pa Straža, Šmihel, Dolenjske Toplice in Novo mesto. Proti jugu ležita že kar slovita Ribnica in za vse čase z mučeniško krvjo zaznamovano Kočevje, da omenimo le nekaj krajev iz bližine trga Žužemberka.

Kot povsod v Sloveniji najdemo tudi v teh krajih polno prgiče lepot in zgodovinskega bogastva. Za Iliri so že v četrtem stoletju pred Kristusom tod živeli Kelti in še danes vidimo njihove obrambne nasipe; na Rimljane, ki so jim sledili, pa spominjajo ostanki stare rimske ceste.

Žužemberk leži na obeh bregovih slikovite Krke, ki ima v bližnjem zgornjem toku kar okrog 25 slapov. Zgodovinarji menijo, da je trg dobil ime po starem gradu nemških graščakov Seisenburg, ali Grad slapo.

Zapiski tudi pokažejo, da je Žužemberk že vsaj od leta 1399 znan kot trg, torej kot kraj s posebnimi tržnimi pravicami, ki je imel tudi višje sodišče, v bližini pa so živeli pokrajinski knezi, na kar še danes spominja kraj Dvor. Vsaj trikrat so te kraje napadli in izropali Turki in sicer leta 1473, 1491 in 1628.

Najstarejše slovenske zgodovinske korenine pa so zasidrane v krščanstvu. Že v 13. stoletju so Žužemberčani zgradili cerkev sv. Nikolaja, v 14.

stoletju pa je bila posvečena cerkev sv. Mohorja in Fortunata. Naši neizmerno požrtvalni predniki so leta 1769 pozidali veliko istoimensko renesančno svetišče, ki je postalno in ostalo ponos bližnjih in daljnjih krajev vse do 4. maja 1944. leta, ko so ga začgali partizani pod vodstvom komunističnih revolucionarjev. Razen ožganih in v veliki meri porušenih zidov se je ohranil le Marijin kip, ki so ga rešili pogumni verniki.

Kdor je še pred par leti obiskal ta čudoviti kraj, morda ob svojem romanju v Baragov Dobrnič, se je moral zgroziti ob pogledu na očrnelne razvaline in dva oskrunjena zvonika, ki sta kot proti nebu preteča prsta obtoževala barbarstvo tuje okupacije in komunistične revolucije. Zakaj vendar teh žalostnih razvalin ne porušijo do tal, da ne bo dobrih ljudi ob pogledu nanje bolelo srce?

Pa je prišel 15. avgusta 1992 v Žužemberk novi župnik in dekan č.g. Franc Povirk — vicedec, junaški človek, neumoren garač in spreten organizator. Dobro leto je prepričeval neverne Tomaže, da bo s trdim delom in s pomočjo dobrih ljudi od blizu in daleč mogoče obnoviti svetišče, čigar korenine segajo še v dobo pred Kolumbovim odkritjem Amerike. Ta mož, ki je bil najprej klic vpijočega v puščavi, je tudi sam zavihal rukave in zagrabil za vsako delo. Korajšni dekan, prostovoljni delavci in obrtniki in gradbeno podjetje Pionir iz Novega mesta, kjer je bilo zaposlenih tudi več domačinov, so neumorno obnavljali cerkev in gradili pravtako porušeno župnišče.

V Ameriki je neugnanemu župniku prvi priskočil na pomoč njegov brat Janez Povirk, naš priljubljeni slovenski Job, ki so mu odrezali obe nogi in še nekaj prstov na roki in se je po nič koliko operacijah spet nasmejan pojavit med nami. Njegove slike najdete na Slovenski pristavi in pri Mariji Vnebovzeti, pa tudi po številnih slovenskih domovih, da ne omenjam vseh tistih deklet, ki so tako ponosna na prelep slovenske skrinje, ki jih je ustvaril ta edinstveni talent.

Po obisku Slovenije je Janezu navdušeno priskočil na pomoč tudi sam clevelandski pomozni škop dr. Edward Pevec, njemu pa še številni drugi posamezniki in bratska zveza AMLA.

Žrtve iz vse Slovenije in tudi iz Amerike, Nemčije in od drugod so obrodile sad: do 1995. leta je na pogorišču zrasla nova prekrasna cerkev in tudi lepo novo župnišče kot osrednja dekanjska zgradba za vso dekanijo in vso Suho krajino.

V tem župnišču se zbirajo župniški sveti, katoliški in prosvetni društveni delavci, katoliška mladina in večkrat tudi Baragovi romarji v sosednji Dobrnič, zlasti slovenski misijonarji iz vsega sveta, ki želijo med kratkim obiskom domovine pohititi tudi v cerkvico, kjer je bil krščen največji slovenski misijonar in naš svetniški kandidat škop Baraga.

Dekan Povirk, ki bi se brez njega nikdar ne zgodil ta čudež ustvarjalne ljubezni pa se je takoj umaknil v podstrešno sobico s poševnimi stenami. Občudujemo njegovega pogumega brata Janeza, ki se je pred kratkim spet vrnil iz bolnice in upa, da bo kmalu zopet prepel na koru. In kdo ne bi občudoval g. dekana Povirka, ki je dosegel, kar se je pol stoletja zelo drugim povsem nemogoče.

Vendar občudovanje ni dovolj! Pionir, ki je bil cerkvi naklonjen in je gradil tudi v Rusiji in drugih državah, je nakučil za svoje gradnje po svetu zalogo potrebnega železa in komu nekatere stranke niso pravočasno poravnale računov, so upniki po sedanjem »gospodarskem sistemu« pritisnili nanj in ga prisilili v konkurenco. Upniki pa zdaj neusmiljeno pritiskajo tudi na dekana Povirka in mu grozijo z zaplebo cerkvenega premoženja.

Kar je dosegel g. Povirk s pomočjo dobrih faranov, škofije in dobrotnikov od blizu in daleč, med njimi tudi ameriških Slovencev, je pravi čudež ljubezni in poguma. Ta zmagoslavni pohod krščanstva ne sme zdaj klavrno končati v sramoto vseh vernih Slovenev. Škofija skuša pomagati, a ne smemo pozabiti, da je sama v hudi finančnih stiskah, saj ji komunisti še do danes niso vrnili mnogo pokradenega premoženja, tista poslopja, ki so jih vrnili, pa rabijo ogromno popravil in predelav.

Cerkv se tudi zaveda, da je dobro vzgojena mladina največje upanje za srečnejšo in plemenitejšo Slovenijo, zato obnavlja škofiske zavode, gimnaziji v Želimlju in Vipavi in upa odpreti še to jesen tudi novo klasično gimnazijo v Mariboru. Pomagala bo po svojih skromnih močeh tudi Žužemberku in nekoliko bodo priskočili na pomoč celo tujci in drugi dobrotniki.

Gotovo se bodo odzvala dobra slovenska srca tudi v Ameriki. Kdor more, naj se prosimo čimprej pridruži s svojim darom, ki ga bomo takoj poslali g. dekanu Povirku, imena darovalcev pa skupaj z zahvalo objavili v tisku. Gotovo Vam bo Bog, ki ne ostane nikdar dolžan, bogato povrnil Vašo dobroščnost. Češki naj bodo naslovjeni na »Zuzemberk Church Fund» in poslani kateri sledečih oseb:

NOVA CERKEV V ŽUŽEMBERKU: Posnetek je bil napravljen lani in kaže novo cerkev v Žužemberku. Pričujoči članek sicer govori o težavah v zvezi s poravnava-njem posojila za župnišče oziroma odplačevanjem posojila, gre pa za skupen projekt. Kot doslej, bomo tudi pri tej ponovni nabirki objavili seznam(e) darovalcev.

Utapljači rod?...

CLEVELAND, O. - V šestem in sedmem stoletju se je Slovenski rod naselil na današnjem ozemlju pod Karavankami. V osmtem stoletju je bil pod oblastjo Nemcev, pozneje pod avstrijsko nadoblastjo. Ko pa se je začela francoska revolucija, je pod Napoleonom francoska vojska zasedla naše kraje in so poimenovali to provinco Ilirija.

Šele leta 1848 se je narod prebudil in se začel kulturno in politično udejstvovati. Ko pa je izbruhnila prva svetovna vojna, so se naši mladi fantje in možje borili pod avstrijsko zastavo na Šoškem in drugih bojiščih. Ob koncu vojne je Avstrija razpadla in je bil slovenski del ozemlja priključen južnim bratom.

Skozi vse to je narod obdržal svoj materinski jezik. Ko pa se je začela druga svetovna vojna, je bil naš narod tudi prizadet. Ljubljansko pokrajino so zasedle fašistične čete, severni del Slovenije pa naciistične. Toda ob koncu vojne se je v Sloveniji zgodil največji zločin naroda, odkar prebiva na vnožju Triglava.

Slovenski rod se je uprl pred ljudmi, ki so bili v gozdu in sanjarili o raju v prihodnosti. Domobranci so odšli na Korosko, kjer so bili zvijačno izdani, pretveza angleških zasedbenih sil je bila, da jih pošiljajo v območje Apeninskega polotoka, a je bila pot takrat nazaj v Slovenijo-Jugoslavijo v roke komunističnih Titovih partizanov.

Zakaj vse to še danes?

Prišli smo v deželo svobode in blagostanja. Mnogi so že tu rojeni in drugi so prišli na vpolj svojih. Tu pozabljamo svoj materinski jezik, čeravno nas tu nihče ne ovira pri njegovi uporabi. Mnogi ste prišli tu do akademskih naslovov, ki jih pod Triglavom ne bi imeli.

Tabor DSPB - S.V.

Raztreseni ste od Atlantika do Pacifika ter od severa do juga ZDA.

Ali kdaj še domislite, kaj so vam starši pravili o tem, kaj se je zgodilo ob koncu vojne. Tu imamo v mislih tudi tiste vas, ki ste sem prišli na vpolj svojih. Ali se zavedate, da je bilo zverinsko mučenih in nato pobitih preko dvanajst tisoč mladih fantov tvojih let? Ti so dali svoja mlada življenja za narod — mi pa tu uživamo to blagostanje.

Dotlej ni bilo še nikakega priznanja. Vedno še prevladuje mit o sodelovanju z okupatorjem. Toda pomnite! Ti mladi fantje, po večini kmečkega rodu, so spoznali, kaj je v ozadju. Zato so se uprli in se združili v vaške straže. Ko pa je bilo ustanovljeno domobranstvo, so vstopili, branili domove pred ljudmi tujega sanjarjenja. Ali se še spominjate boja na gradu Turjak, kod je pomagal in dal orožje? In naslednje: Dolomitska pogodba z nacisti? Prvi so odšli iz Ljubljanske pokrajine brez vsakih izgub, drugi pa so imeli pogodo o nenapadanju.

Morda vam je že spomin obledel na vse to — ali pa vam je vse dovoljeno?

Zato, dragi bralec, pridi na družabni večer Tabora DSPB Cleveland, da podpreš to organizacijo, ki stremi samo za tem, da vrne čast domobrancem. Večer bo v soboto, 5. aprila, v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Ave. S svojo udeležbo boste podprli delo in pripomogli, da lahko vklešemo imena padlih na farnih ploščah in zadnje na Žalah v Ljubljani. Ako pa si oddaljen ali ne moreš osebno priti, priloži dar in ga pošlji na organizacijo. Pridi, pridruži in podpri, cenili bomo vašo navzočnost in podporo! Nasvidjenje!

Mlade skavtinje odreda št. 1692 skrbno in vendar s preprostim otroškim veseljem sledijo nasvetom ge. Mary Cendolove o oblikovanju slovenskih rogljičkov.

Skavtinje odreda št. 1692 so si izbrale Slovenijo

EUCLID, O. — Vsako leto na pomlad se odredi skavtinj zborejo na World Friendship Day. Plod nekajmesečnega dela je postavitev stojnice s predstavljivo dežele po izboru.

Odred št. 1692 pri župniji St. William's v Euclidu si je letos izbral Slovenijo za predmet študija in spoznavanja.

Pridobiti zanimanje in sodelovanje štirinajstih sedemletnih deklic predstavlja izviv. Pri odredu št. 1692 so deklice: Kayla Braidic, Leah Cole, Barbara Griman, Hannah Groudle, Kelsey Ivanicic, Aleksandra Kastrevc, Lindsey Kelly, Rachel Lawrence, Elizabeth McFadden, Ashley Powers, Ashley Sloat, Jaclyn Spuzzillo, Tiana Vuyancic in Stephanie Zmina.

Začnemo že v decembru. V čem se Božič v Sloveniji razlikuje od ameriškega praznovanja? Navdušene so, da je melodija za Sveti noč enaka v obeh jezikih. Ganjena sem, ko složno v zborku ponavljajo besedo »Božič«. Kako rade se učijo in kako dojemljivi so njihovi mladi možgani.

Sledi klasična predstavitev dežele: kot pri uru zemljepisa. Tudi zapojemo po slovensko.

Dežela so ljudje. Nihče ne bi skavtinjam Slovenije bolj približal kot gostji naših naslednjih dveh sestankov.

Gdč. Florence Unetich si je odtrgala čas od svojega natrpanega urnika za obisk našega odreda. Prišla je nasmejana, okrašena s slovenskimi priponkami in otvorjena s polno torbo zakladov slovenskega izročila. S svojim zanimivim pripovedovanjem nas je postavila pod lipo na slovensko podeželje, kjer sta si slovenska mladec in mladenka ravno izmenjala na semnju kupljeno židano ruto in lectovo srce. Štirinajst parov oči in ušes ni trenilo ves čas predstavitev.

Podoba skrbne slovenske matere in dobre gospodinje se je za nas utelesila v obliki ge. Mary Cendolove. Pod svoje okrilje je vzela naše skavtinje in jih seznanila z umetnostjo oblikovanja slovenskih rogljičkov. Punčke so jih valjale s tako vnemo, da je sproti zmanjkovalo narezane testa.

Za skavtinjam in skavi vedno stojijo skrbne mame. Tudi v našem primeru so se povezale in s skupnimi močmi naredile peče za vsa dekleta, ki so se lahko odločila za motiv klasa, nageljna ali žita.

Naše priprave so bile zelo dolge. Sam World Friendship Day je pomenil njihov vrhunc. Na dan 9. marca 1997 v telovadnici pri St. Felicitas, je naša stojnica blestela. Naj se zahvalimo g. Slapniku za darovane nageljne, g. Nosanu pa za pecivo. Predvsem pa so blestele naše skavtinje. Presrečne so bile s svojim izgledom in pečah in rutah. Lahko pa se tudi pohvalijo s svojim pridobljenim znanjem o Sloveniji. Ali ne izgledajo kot pušljci slovenskih deklet?

Odred št. 1692 pri St. Williamsu

Gdč. Florence Unetich skupaj s skupino svojih najnovejših »učenk«. Do svoje upokojitve je gdc. Unetich namreč učila angleščino v višjih šolah clevelandškega šolskega sistema. Tokrat so bile njene učenke veliko mlajše, po vsej verjetnosti nasprosto pa tudi veliko pridnejše.

Portret tedna

Dr. Franc Rode

Jožica Grgič

Dr. France Rode se po dolgih letih nehotenega bivanja v tujini vrača v domovino. Odšel je kot desetletni šolar, vrača se kot ljubljanski nadškof in slovenski metropolit. Papežev imenovanje dr. Franca Rodeta za nadškofa je razlog, da se že sme vrniti v domovino. Če bi ne bilo tega imenovanja, bi prišel v Slovenijo šele čez dobro leto, ko bi mu potekel mandat v vatikanski službi. Vprašanje, ali bi se res, če ne bi to ostala le njegova pobožna želja, kot je bila malone vsa leta, ki jih je preživel v tujih krajih.

Ves čas se je nameraval vrniti, a v resnici se je samo enkrat po letu 1945, ko je odšel. To je bilo 1965. in takrat je ostal doma 16 let. To je tudi celotno obdobje v 63 letih njegovega razgibanega življenja, ki ga je preživel doma, če ne štejemo prvih desetih let otroštva.

Toda dr. Franc Rode je bil navzlic odsotnosti v Sloveniji nenehno navzoč, verjetno bolj kot kateri koli drug v tujini živeči Slovenec. Tu je preživel dopust in praznike ter neutrudno predaval, objavljal v cerkvenem in laičnem tisku, izdal pa je še vrsto knjig. Tudi novinarji smo nadpovprečno skrbeli za njegovo publicitetom, saj je prijazen, komunikativen, zanimiv in šarmantan sobesednik.

V njegovi drži, mimiki in načinu pripovedovanja je nekaj aristokratskega, kar pri Slovencih zaznamo zgolj izjemoma. So mu to prikupno lastnost dali geni ali italijansko, špansko in francosko kulturno okolje, iz katerih je posrkal, kolikor se je le dalo?

Slovenijo ima raje kot katero koli od treh držav, v katerih je živel, čeprav njegov ognjevit temperament z ničimer ne daje niti slutiti, da gre za moža slovenskega izvora. Nič ne oporeka pripombi, da je izrazito mediterranski tip človeka. Bilo bi čudno, ko ne bi bil, pravi, saj me je določilo okolje: špansko v Buenos Airesu, francosko v Parizu in italijansko v Rimu.

In če bi bilo merilo slovenstva pohajanje po hribih, bi se slabo odrezal. Nikoli, res nikoli, ne gre v hribe, na morje pa vselej in zelo rad. Čeprav je njegovo pregnanstvo rodilo obilo sadov, je bilo tudi trda in žalostna preizkušnja.

Osmega maja 1945 je njegova družina zbežala od doma, z Rodic pri Domžalah. Umaknili so se na Gorenjsko, za dva tedna, nato pa so se nameravali vrniti domov. Potem so šli malo dlje, čez Karavanke in umik je postal dolgoletno pregnanstvo.

Brez razloga, pravi dr. Rode. Dva brata sta bila pri domobrancih, kratek čas, brez orožja, brez sodelovanja pri čemer koli. Brat Andrej je ravno maturiral in je moral končati življenje v rudniški jami v Hrastniku. Če bi samo slutili, da gremo za več kot štirinajst dni, se sploh ne bi odpravili, pravi ljubljanski nadškof. Potem so njihovo hišo nacionalizirali in niso imeli več kam.

Ta izguba doma in domovine ga je najbolj usodno zaznamovala. V Avstriji je družina živila v begunske taboriščih. Kratkohlačnik Franc Rode je v Judenburgu obiskoval šolo, po treh letih pa se je s starši odselil v Buenos Aires.

Domotožje je bilo tudi v napol odrasel fant nepopisno. V Buenos Airesu je maturiral in stopil v semenische, k lazarištu. V tistih najstniških letih je bil velike bitke sam s seboj, novi in novi dvomi so se nasejevali v njegovi rahločutni duši. Tudi o krščanstvu, Bogu in Cerkvi, ki jim je kasneje, ko je dvome premagal, zapisal svoje življenje. Takole se spominja:

»Moja otroska, od staršev in vernega okolja sprejeta vera z rahlim janzenističnim pridihom, ki je bil dokaj navzoč v slovenski krščanski vzgoji v predvojnih letih, je bila ob izbruhu življenjske pomladi močno ogrožena. Ta izbruh se je ujemal z mojim vstopom v Novi svet. Južnoameriška tropska pokrajina s temnimi in vlažnimi gozdovi, z velikimi kalnimi vodami, s silno podmladno svetlobo je napolnila srce petnajstletnega fanta.

Trenutki omamne sreče so se menjavali z urami neznanke žalosti in bolečega hrepenjenja po čistoti, po zasneženih vrhovih planin onkraj oceana. Zemeljske sile so vdirale vame in pologoma ožile življenjski prostor Bogu, ki mi je postajal vse bolj nadležen in odveč.

Obenem so se v moji zavesti prebudili stari grški bogovi. Vstajali so kot davno pozabljeni nosilci globlje in lepše življenjske resnice od tiste, ki mi jo je dajalo krščanstvo. Hlastno sem prebiral vse, kar mi je prišlo v roke s področja grške mitologije.

Toda s časom so te očarljive fantazme zbledele in izgubile vsakršno konsistenco. Ateizem se mi je vse bolj kazal kot edino logično in pošteno stališče v življenju. Vendar se v dnu srca nisem nikdar ločil od Kristusa. Pač, svet je bil tu, sijajen in trden, in to mi je zadostovalo.

V tem precepu sem se srečal z Romanom Guardinijem. V roke mi je prišla njegova knjiga Der Herr, ki je bila zame pravo razodetje. Pokazala mi je nov in sprejemljiv lik Jezusa Kristusa. Tako se je začel proces poglabljanja v veri, kar je vplivalo tudi na mojo dokončno odločitev za duhovništvo.«

Ta izpoved, ki bi ji brez zadržka lahko rekli literarna, priča o nadškofu Rodetu dvoje: o njegovem nagnjenju h kontemplativnosti in opazovanju ter o izrednem čutu za slog pripovedovanja. Zato ni čudno, da ga je v tistih letih nezadržno gnala želja po umetniškem izražanju. Poskusil je pesniti, a je bil tako nezadovoljen s seboj, da je začgal vse, kar je spesnil. Danes kot da mu je malce nerodno ob spominu na takratne poskuse, a se tolaži, da tako ali tako skoraj vsak Slovenec želi pisati pe-

smi. Zakaj bi torej on bil izjema, pravi.

Ko je samokritično presodil, da mu pesnjenje ne gre, se je poskušal izražati z glasbo. Ogrel se je za komponiranje.

»Prisluhnili sem notranjim zvokom, ki so bili vse močnejši, in se predajal ekstazi melodij, ki so se mi zdele povsem nove in izvirne. Postal sem koncertna dvorana svojih še ne zapisanih skladb. Tačas sem uglašbil nekaj Kettejevih pesmi za solo in klavir, napisal nekaj klavirskih skladb in zasnoval uverturo za orkester z imenom Sed de amor, kjer se prepletajo naivni melodični motivi s krčevitimi sinkopami in strahotnim bobnenjem.«

Tudi obdobje komponiranja je minilo in maturi je sledil študij filozofije na Visoki teološki šoli v Argentini. Po dveh letih se je odpravil študirat teologijo na Gregorijansko univerzo v Rimu in, spet po dveh letih, nadaljeval na Katoliškem inštitutu v Parizu. Leta 1960 je študij dokončal in tri leta zatem na istem inštitutu doktoriral.

Leta 1965, po dvajsetih letih, se je vrnil v Slovenijo. Od 1967. je bil ravnatelj bogoslovcev lazaristov, dve leti pozneje pa je začel predavati na Teološki fakulteti v Ljubljani. Najprej je bil honorarni predavatelj za misijologijo in zgodovino nekrščanskih verstev, pozneje pa še za osnovno bogoslovje in moderni ateizem.

Leta 1971 je postal docent in pet let zatem izredni profesor. V tistem času je veliko objavljajal v Družini, Bogoslovnem vestniku in pri Mohorjevi družbi. Bil je prvi urednik revije Znamenje.

Leta 1981 ga je pot spet peljala na tuje, tokrat v Rim. Še vedno je veliko objavljajal, tudi v francoščini, za to ga je predsednik Chirac lani odlikoval z redom viteza za zasluge. Prijaznje ima še večjo težo, ker Francozi le redko odlikujejo tuje.

V Rimu je opravljal različne službe, med drugim je bil tajnik papeškega sveta za dialog z neveruočimi, in potem, ko so ga 1993. združili s Svetom za kulturo, tajnik tega sveta; do imenovanja za ljubljanskega nadškofa. (dalje na str. 22)

Angela Gospodarič

San Francisco, Kalif.

✓ Ob 1. obletnici smrti Frances Kranjc

skrbne gospodinje v slovenskem župnišču Rojstva Gospodovega tu v San Franciscu. V adventu l. 1949 je prišla v župnišče na Linden Street, kjer sta poleg župnika g. Vitala Voduška bila še mlađi, visoko izobražen gospod Dabovich (za Hrvate) in upokojenec George Trunk, bivši župnik v Leadville, ter dva ali trije študentje. Evropsko izučena kuharica, šivilja in vrtnarica se je z uspehom mogla lotiti vsakega dela, napredovala je v znanju angleškega jezika in ameriškega načina kuhanja. Nekoliko ji je pomagal Clarence Sever, ki je kot študent prišel v župnišče že pet let poprej.

Ob božiču leta 1949 in 1950 je prišlo k polnočnici toliko vernikov, da so napolnili cerkev in mnogo jih je dobilo sedeže v cerkveni dvorani, da so ob zvočniku sledili sv. maši in petju, ki je bilo večinoma v latinščini. Ob navadnih nedeljah so bile sv. maše v angleščini, slovenščini in hrvaščini. Med angleško mašo je orglal g. Vodušek in verniki so glasno molili v angleščini. Za Slovence in Hrvate je orglal in vodil petje pevsko izobraženi Aleš Šimenc. Ob delavnikih se je udeležilo treh sv. maš lepo število vernikov.

Vsej tej množici se je Frances kmalu privadila, da je moga spremeno pomagati, kjer koli je bilo treba. Za časa župnikovanja g. Voduška je bilo v župnišču stotine lončnic. Frances je lahko izbrala najlepše za cerkev, ki je bila vzorno čista in oltarji strokovno okrašeni.

Začela je gojiti cvetje in okrasno zelenje tudi na svojem vrtu na 19. cesti. Tedensko se je na svoj prosti dan vračala s tega vrta vsa obložena s cvetjem in tudi s povrtninami za kuhinjo, saj je bilo treba praviti mnogo hrane. Poleg domaćih so bili pri mizi še posvejali ali slučajni gostje, posebej pa je še imela zavitke za reveže.

Tedensko je prihajal pomožni škop Guifoyle k. g. Dabovichu za pouk italijanščine in hrvaščine, ostal na večerji in se tudi prijetno razgovarjal s kuharico. Slovenski begunski škop dr. Rožman, škopje iz Jugoslavije, misijonarji, redovnice ob raznih misijonskih postojank so se ob potovanju ustavili v San Franciscu in jim je Frances znala pripraviti udobno začasno bivanje in okusno domačo hrano.

Australski potajoči misijonar dr. Mikula se je vselej ustavil v našem župnišču in pozdravil svoja sorojaka g. Trunka in zdravnika dr. Ernella. Tudi Voduškovi iz Ljubljane so večkrat prišli obiskati svojega brata župnika.

Po odhodu g. Dabovicha in Clarencea Severja, po smrti g. Trunka in g. Voduška (1973) se je delo zmanjšalo. Razmere so se spremenile ob nastopu župnega upravitelja, iskrskega Hrvata J. Mihovilovicha. Mlađi rod se je tudi začel odseljati in stari rod izumirati. Nekoliko šola je prenehala zaradi pomanjkanja otrok. Frances je še vedno prinašala rože s svojega vrta, skrbela za cerkev, dvorano in župnišče.

Leta 1991 je v svoji sobi nešrečno padla in se poškodovala v kolku. Nezavestno so jo odpeljali v bolnišnico. Ni ji bilo več dano vršiti svoje službe. Iz bolnišnice so jo odpeljali na njen dom na 19. cesto, a še preden je ozdravela, je leta 1993 spet nesrečno padla. ... Zelo, zelo jo je prizadela krivična ukinitve slovenske župnije, za katero je z vsem srcem delala nad štiri desetletja.

Ko je v januarju 1996 izpolnila 90 let, so jo zelo oslabelo prepeljali v bolnišnico, kjer ji je srce odpovedalo po hudem trpljenju 15. marca. Morali smo najeti drugo cerkev za njen pogrebno mašo (Mission Dolores), prejšnji župnik g. Mihovilovich je vodil obrede ob udeležbi zvestih prijateljev in znancev ob štiriglasnem petju njej priljubljenih pesmi. Orglala in pela je njena dobra prijateljica Linda Angin (soprano), Jane Dabovich (alt), Aljoša in Ivo Ravnik (tenor in bas). Nosilci krste: nečak iz Sacramenta in prijatelji Slovenci iz San Francisca.

Tončka Gregorin prinaša tedensko cvetje na njen grob. Med nami pa se čuti velika praznina, posebno še zdaj, ko nam je naša cerkev spet odprta. Mnogi izmed vas ste poznavali Frances, mnogi ste tudi sočustvovali z nami ob izgubi cerkve. Z vami in z nami je Frances prosila za ugodno rešitev naših prošenj. Hvala Bogu in božji Materi! Iskrena hvala in Bog povrni vam, ki se zanimate za verne Slovence ob Zlatih vratih pacifiškega oceana!

In še nekaj novejših vesti...

Za božič je maševel v cerkvi Gosodovega Rojstva naš novi nadškop Levada ob asistenci novega župnika, Poljaka č. g. Rybackega, in našega prijatelja Hrvata prof. Janka Žagarja. Pel je slovenski zbor. V februarju je maševel poljski škop, ki so mu podrejeni vsi katoliški Poljaki v Ameriki. Imeli smo pa že tudi krst (Elišabeth, vnukinja Katice in Franceta Pečavarja) ter pogrebo mašo Ane Rogina.

Posebna hvaležnost nas veže do slovenskega frančiškana iz Lemonta p. Davida Šrumpfa, ljubljanskega nadškofa dr. Šuštarja, koprskega škofa msgr. Metoda Piriha in še urednika Družine msgr. Petriča, ki je spremljal škofa Piriha v San Francisco. Tudi v naši domovini so nam pomagali uspeti v borbi za vrnitev naše cerkev. Čaka nas še veliko složnega dela.

OBČNI ZBOR

Kanadskega slovenskega kongresa

dejstvo in slovenska poštna uprava bo navezala stike s kanadskim poštnim predstavnikom.

KSK je družno z Vseslovenskim odborom in Slovensko gospodarsko zbornico sodeloval na željo kanadskega zunanjega ministra g. L. Axworthyja pri razgovorih s kanadskim predstavnikom pri Nato, g. Michael Bellom, kateremu so priporočili vstop Slovenije v Nato.

Vse slovenske rojake so ob času ljudskega štetja oz. cenzusa opozorili, naj se izjavijo kot »Slovenian«.

KSK se je redno udeleževal sej »Odbora Skupnosti Srednje in Vzhodne Evrope v Kanadi«.

KSK bo nadaljeval z zbiranjem slovenskega arhiva v Kanadi. Dalje, KSK je že septembra 1996 slovensko skupnost o bližajočih se državnozborskih volitvah informiral. KSK je tesno sodeloval z drugimi slovenskimi organizacijami pri skupnih slovenskih nastopih. KSK je po svojem predstavniku dr. Stanetu Bahu tesno povezan z Ljubljansko univerzo in povezovanje se nadaljuje.

Sledil je poročilo blagajnika KSK, takoj nato pa so bile volitve za 4 člane odbora. Ponovno so bili izvoljeni: dr. S. Bah, Stane Kranjc, Jože Kastelic in dr. F. Habjan.

Poročila in pozdrave so poslali: predsednik KSK za Britansko Kolumbijo Ivo Bergant, za kongresno organizacijo v Manitobi predsednik S. Vršnik iz Winnipega, za KSK v Quebecu predsednik J. Žargi iz Montrealja, za krajevno organizacijo v Windsorju dr. S. Bah, osebno pa je pozdravil in naslovil besede optimizma član glavnega odbora KSK prof. dr. Srečko Pregelj iz Ottawa.

Ob koncu je predsednik Stane Kranjc vse prisotne povabil na okusno zakusko.

Na svoji prvi seji po občnem zboru, 11. marca, se je izoblikoval sledeči odbor: Jerry Ponikvar, načelnik sveta KSK; dr. F. Habjan, predsednik izvršilnega odbora; dr. S. Bah ter Karl Vegelj, podpredsednika; bivši predsednik, Stane Kranjc; Jožica Vegelj, tajnica in blagajničarka; ing. Toni Horvat, zadolžen za povezovanje; člani sveta pa so: dr. Tone Kačnik, Ciril Soršak, France Osredkar, Rev. Valentin Batič, dr. Srečko Pregelj, Darja Keber Hughes, Jože Kastelic in Franc Rihar.

Razne in različne vesti iz Slovenije in Slovenije v svetu

Samostojne slovenske liste na Koroških občinskih volitvah dosegla velik uspeh

Občinske volitve na Koroškem 9. marca so se za slovenske samostojne liste na dvojezičnem ozemlju uspešno končale. Cilj obdržate glasove in mandate zadnjih volitev leta 1991 ni bil je dosežen, temveč znatno presešen. Samostojne slovenske in odprte liste v 24 dvojezičnih občinah so v primerjavi z volitvami leta 1991 povečale število glasov za 700, na 5534, število mandatov v občinskih svetih pa se je zvišalo od 50 na 56. Izvoljeni so bili tudi širje slovenski podžupani.

Izredne uspehe je slavila Enotna lista v Železni Kapli, saj je pridobila nad 200 glasov, podvojila mandate s tri na šest in osvojila položaj podžupana, v Globasnici, kjer je postala celo najmočnejša stranka v občinskem svetu (pridobila je en mandat več) in obdržala enega podžupana, in v Žitari vasi, kjer je poleg dodatnega mandata prvič pridobila mesto podžupana.

Dodaten mandat je slovenska volilna skupnost pridobila v Borovljah, samostojnim odprtih listam s slovensko in nemško govorečimi kandidati pa je uspelo pridobiti dodatni mandat v Škoficah in na Bistrici pri Rožu.

Nazadovale so slovenske liste v Bilčovsu (izgubile so en mandat), v Straji vasi in na Bistrici pri Piberku. V slednjih dveh občinah sta listi poleg enega mandata izgubili tudi podžupana (Andrej Wakounig oziroma Janko Zwitter).

Podžupansko mesto sta uspešno ubranila podpredsednik Narodnega sveta koroških Slovencev Nanti Olip in Bernard Sadovnik v Globasnici.

Zločin v Tekačevem terjal štiri življenga in je storilec(c) še na prostosti

V noči s sredo na četrtek oz. 5.-6. marca je prišlo do okrutnega zločina v stanovanjski hiši v Tekačevem 9 pri Rogaski Slatini. Storilci (ali storilec) so še na prostoti in je bila razpisana nagrada v višini 10 tisoč nemških mark (910 SIT) za informacije, ki bi vodile do storilcev ali storilca.

Vse štiri žrtve so bile umorjene s streli iz pištole, po prvih ocenah pa je zelo velika verjetnost, da je bil zločin storjen iz koristoljubja. Ugotovili so pač, da so storilci (ali storilec) s kraja zločina odnesli večjo količino denarja.

Žrtve najmočnejšega umora v Sloveniji v več letih so 73-letni Štefan Poharc in njegova žena, 75-letna Frančiška, 36-letna Helena Krošlin in njena 17-letna hčerka Frančiška. Slednji sta bili podnjemenci v hiši družine Poharc, ki nista imela otrok.

Komorni zbor AVE šel uspehe v ZDA

Preteklo nedeljo se je komorni zbor AVE vrnil v Slovenijo po uspešnem gostovanju v ZDA. Zbor pod vodstvom dirigenta Andraža Hauptmana je zaključil 24-dnevno turnejo. Konkretno povabilo je prišlo z željo, da bi AVE nastopil v okviru Mednarodne noči v San Dieagu v elitni družbi treh drugih vodilnih evropskih zborov.

AVE je nastopil v San Joseju, Los Angelesu, San Franciscu, San Diegu, Oklahoma Cityju in Dallasu. Najpomembnejše koncerne je zbor imel 4. in 5. marca v San Diegu, z vrhuncem na dveh ponovitvenih koncertih pred 3000-glavo množico.

Srečanje je organiziralo združenje ACDA (American Choral Directors Association), ki šteje 19.000 članov iz 44 držav, od tega približno polovico neameriških.

Med Slovenijo in štirimi članicami Cefte je razlika

Podatki kažejo, da je med Slovenijo in državami Cefte precejšnja razlika v zvezi z bruto domaćim proizvodom, Slovenija pa zaostaja za dve državi Evropske zveze z naj-nižjim BDP na prebivalca.

Po podatkih mednarodnega Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) za leto 1995 je BDP na prebivalca v Sloveniji znašal 10.606 dolarjev, v Grčiji pa 12.174 dolarjev in na Portugalskem 12.457 dolarjev.

V državah članicah Cefte je leta 1995 BDP na prebivalca znašal na Češkem 9.547 dolarjev, Madžarskem 6.639 dolarjev, Poljskem 5.522 dolarjev in na Slovaškem 4.786 dolarjev.

Slovenski BDP na prebivalca je po ocenah OECD po kupni moči leta 1995 dosegel 87 odstotkov grškega in 85 odstotkov portugalskega. Po tem kriteriju bi tako Slovenija leta 2000 skoraj dohitela Portugalsko.

Martin Strel, 43-letni učitelj glasbe, želi biti prvi slovenski plavalec čez Rokavski preliv Plavalec ultramaratonec Martin Strel, 43-letni učitelj glasbe (kitara) že tri leta drži svetovni rekord v dolžinskem plavanju. Poleti 1994 je namreč s 162,5 preplavanega kilometra med Lignaom in Ravano si ta rekord priboril.

Konec leta julija pa želi postati prvi Slovenec, ki je premagal Rokavski preliv oz. English Channel. Pa ne le enkrat, kar trikrat zaporedoma. Takole je povedal:

»Da, Angleži sem zaprosil za tri zaporedna plavanja, Anglija—Francija-Anglija—Francija. Na zemljevidu bo šlo za 99 km (63 milj) morja, če bom prišel trikrat čez. Zadnjega julija grem v vodo v Dovru s ciljem, da kot prvi Slovenec premagam Rokavski preliv. Najmanj enkrat! Potem se bom v Franciji, na peščinah Le Chateleta, obrnil in odpaval nazaj, v Angliji pa bom potem videl, ali je v meni še kaj moči in dovolj trdne volje, da postanem četrti Zemljjan, ki mu je uspelo trikrat zapored preplavati Rokavski preliv.«

Ta podvig pa je le prvi, ki ga ima Strel v načrtu. Septembra letos bi rad plaval med italijansko Sicilijo in Afriko. Tu bi Strel začel iz turističnega centra Mazara del Vallo do Pantellerie, italijanskega otoka, ki leži kakih 70 km od tuniškega pta Bon. Celotna nameravana pot je torej Sicilija—Pantelleria—Tunis (70 km), skupaj 180 km.

Martin Strel misli tudi na leto 1998. V načrtu ima plavanje med Kubo in Florido, konkretneje od Havane do Key Westa. Tu gre za 186 km morja.

Stara ljudska arhitektura Lendavskih goric kar hitro propada

Usoda vinskih kleti na območju Novega Tomaža (Ujtomas) v Lendavskih goricah, zgrajenih iz ilovice in lesa ter pokritih s slamo v slogu stare ljudske arhitekture, ostaja še naprej negotova.

Žal je najverjetnejša napoved občinske strokovne delavke Alenke Kekec, da bo ta etnološki spomenik v Lendavskih goricah v kratkem do končno propadel, saj lastnike vinskih kleti ne zanima njihova obnova (menda samo zato, ker vinski kleti nimajo podzemnih klet za sode), pa tudi država ne kaže kakšne pretirane volje in zanimanja za obnovo desetih vinskih kleti v Novem Tomažu.

Da bi v Lendavskih goricah ohranili vsaj eno vinsko klet, zgrajeno v slogu stare prekmurske arhitekture, je občina obnovila propadajočo klet Jožeta Lonca. Za obnovo kleti so se odločili še po zagotovilu lastnika, da jo bo tudi redno vzdrževal.

»Kaj več nismo mogli narediti, saj nam je država v ta namen lani in letos namenila pičla dva milijona tolarjev. No kljub vsemu obstaja možnost, da bi vsaj del območja Novega Tomaža uredili kot muzej na prostem, končno besedo pa bo seveda imela država,« je povedala Alenka Kekec.

Staro vinsko klet na obrobju Novega Tomaža je v celoti z lastnim denarjem obnovil Bojan Hojnik iz Lendave.

Več žandarjev na meji med Avstrijo in Slovenijo

Iz Celovca poroča Delo 7. marca, da postajajo vse glasnejše zahteve po večjem številu pripadnikov avstrijske obmejne žandarmerije na meji s Slovenijo. Podprt jih je tudi član zveznega sveta iz vrste Ljudske stranke Franz Ritschau. Poudaril je, da je treba zaradi najnovejših dogodkov na Balkanu obsežnejše zavarovati mejo in spomnil, da je bilo že dogovorjeno, da bi ob meji namestili 388 žandarjev.

Sto mest še vedno ni zasedenih, zato je predlagal, naj na mejo pošljejo žandarje z Durjaj.

(nadaljevanje s str. 20)

To je bila najvišja funkcija, ki jo je v vatikanski kuriji kdaj prej imel kak Slovenec, to pa, pravi, ni nekaj, s čimer bi se ponašal, saj je v Vatikanu zaposlen tako malo Slovencev. Pa jih ni malo zato, ker bi bili manj sposobni od drugih, ampak zato, ker so raje doma.

Kot tajnik Sveta za kulturo je vodil osebje papeževega urada, ki šteje 17 ljudi. Urad skrbi za stike s katoliškim svetom, s škofovskimi konferencami, katoliškimi univerzami, mednarodnimi organizacijami. Ima tudi stike z veleposlaniki pri Svetem sedežu in z nuncijski, ki Svetu pošiljajo poročila.

Svet skrbi za dialog med Katoliško cerkvijo in kulturami v sodobnem svetu in za širjenje krščanske kulture v njem. Dr. Franc Rode ima še nekaj obveznosti v Svetu za kulturo, nato se bo sredi meseca vrnil v Slovenijo.

Z njim smo se pogovarjali dan po razglasitvi za načnega, ki je bil zanj precej drugačen od drugih dni. »Ne mine pet minut, ne da bi pozvonil telefon in dobil sem goro čestitk. Kljub temu moj duh ni vzhičen, imenovanje doživljjam mirno in trezno, kot izraz božje volje.«

Prostega časa že do zdaj ni imel veliko, poslej ga bo imel bržas še manj. V trenutkih sprostitev ne bo pesnil in ne bo komponiral, zagotovo pa bo rad in veliko bral. Njegova ljubezen do knjig nikoli ni usmrnila. Najbolj ga privlači zgodovina, zato daje zgodovinskih knjigam prednost. Včasih si vzame čas tudi za kakšen roman.

Sodobne slovenske literaturre ne prebira dosti, prebere pa vse, kar napiše Alojz Rebula. Včasih je rad bral tudi Kocbekove in Javorškove knjige. Obojuje francoske pisatelje in pesnike in tudi nekaj španskih. Baudelaire je pri njem brez konkurence. Nekoč si je čisto vsak dan vzel 15 minut zanj. Ja, seveda, pa Rimbaud in Claudel, Cervantes in genialni filozofi, kot sta Unamuno in Gasset.

Tudi brez glasbe, predvsem klasične, bi težko preživel. Mozarta, Bacha, Beethovna, Schuberta se ne bi mogel nikoli naveličati. Tudi slovenski zbor Ave je vrhunski.

Toda za svoje škofovsko geslo je dr. Franc Rode iskal navdih pri Primožu Trubarju. Glasí se: Stati inu obstati. »Človek mora biti trden in po končen. Poklekni ne sme pred nikomer drugim kot pred Bogom. Trdnost, pokončnost in odločnost pa potrebuje tudi narod za svoj obstoj,« pravi nadškof. Nobenega dvoma ni, da bo v tem duhu vodil Cerkev na Slovenkem in ji dal prepoznaven pečat.

PAVEL BORŠNIK

Kaj sedaj

Slovenska volilna kampanja 1996 je slednjič zaključena in nastopila je nova vlada, ki odraža sedanjo politično razcepjjenost slovenskega naroda. Čeprav živimo zunaj nje, nas zanima življenska pot in usoda Slovenije, zato imamo tudi svoja mnenja o izidu volitev, o novi vladi, o nekaterih ljudeh v njej in tako naprej.

Na splošno bi lahko rekli, da je zdomska slovenska skupnost, kjer koli po svetu že živi, razočarana nad izidom volilne in da se je najbrž še za korak več - miselno in čustveno - oddaljila od »starega kraja«. Vse to je razumljivo.

Od tistih prvih usodnih dogodkov, ko se je Jugoslavija zrušila pod nemškim udarcem, je zdaj preteklo 55 in več let. Torej več kot ena generacijska doba, vendar se nam zdijo vsa vprašanja, ki so se pojavila po padcu tiste Jugoslavije, še vedno kritična, kot so bila v času, ko smo doživljali tiste dogodke.

Če se ustavimo predvsem pri državljanški vojni in revoluciji. Pred skoraj 150 leti je našo sedanjo domovino, Ameriko, zajel podoben vihar. Duhovi so se ločili, sovraštvo se je razpaslo po deželi, in slednjič je vse skupaj zajel vihar krvave državljanške vojne, najhujše, kar jih je videla človeška zgodovina do današnjega časa.

Vsi nosilci tega spora so že zdavnaj pod zemljo. Za njimi so ostala samo romantična bojišča, z mahom poraščeni nagnobični kamni in po muzejih razcefrane zastave. Pa vendar ne moremo reči, da je ta spor v ameriški zavesti do kraja pozabljjen, da ne igra nobene vloge več v današnjem življenu Amerike. Še danes se pojavlja odtenki tega spora v eni ali drugi obliki, in večina Američanov se tega dobro zaveda.

Isto je s slovenskim sporom. Tudi če bi se njegovi nosilci danes nekje srečali in si segli v roke ter se bratko objeli, bi tega spora ne odstranili iz slovenske zavesti. Čas brez droma celi rane, toda času se nikamor ne mudi.

Ko se je konec 80ih let zamašala stavba svetovnega komunizma, so si nekateri naivno predstavljal, da je zdaj napočil »naš čas«. Seveda je nastopil ta »naš čas«, a v drugačnem pomenu, kot so pričakovali.

Obračun s preteklostjo in njenimi nosilci je nemogoč po merilih, ki so veljala v času, ko so se tisti težki dogodki valili prek slovenske zemlje. Svet sam se je ob tisti grozi, ki ni bila samo slovenska, zavedel, da mu je potreben mehanizem, zaščita, ki bi nekaj takega za vselej onemogočila. Pa celo ves svet pri tem ni do kraja uspel. Zločin je lahko storjen v nekaj urah ali celo minutah; njegove posledice živijo desetletja.

V Sloveniji sami pa je glavno vprašanje: odgovornost. Staro »pravilo« je, da je godrjanje najcenejše. Nič ne potrebujemo zanj, nobene energije, nobenega truda, nobenega znanja. Gordnjanje je najcenejša oblika družbene kritike, toda od njega nima nič nobene koristi.

Po zaključenih zadnjih volitvah (10. nov. 1996) je bilo v Sloveniji največkrat slišati: no, saj sem vedel, nič se ne bo spremenilo, spet so isti ljudje pri koritu, zasto se na vse skupaj požvižgam... in podobno. Pa je bila vsem dana možnost, da posejajo v dogodke, samo do volišča se je bilo treba potruditi. Tako pa je lep odstotek, menda 25%, volilcev ostal doma za pečjo in gordnjal — strankam slovenske pomlad pa ni uspelo prehiteti koalicije strank stare (komunistične) kontinuitete. Za to namreč so potrebeni glasovi, ne pa godrjanje za pečjo. V tem pogledu so bile stranke slovenske pomlad v resnici poražene.

Druga stran, levica, pa je šla polnoštevilno na volišča in se ji je obrestovalo. Res sta obe glavni »nekomunistični« stranki močno pridobili, čeprav v dobrini meri na račun tretje, toda tudi to ni zadostovalo. Zadostovalo pa bi, če bi tistih 25% ali koliko glasov šlo na volišča, ker so bili to glasovi pomladnih strank, ne pa kontinuitete.

To so torej dejstva, ki so postala očitna ob koncu lanskega leta: v zdonstvu, v emigraciji nepotprežljivost, neučakanost in samobilje, v Sloveniji pa malodusje in skoraj nerazumljiva brezbržnost.

Kam od tu?

V kolikor ne pride do novih političnih »izdajstev« v parlamentu, ali do kakšnega drugega nepredvidljivega razloga, ki bi izval padec vlade in nove volitve, se - vsaj zdonskim Slovencem - za prihodnja štiri leta ponujajo precej jasne naloge:

a) vztrajati pri svoji resnici;

b) povezati slovenske skupnosti na vseh kontinentih in to tako, da bi v občevanju z vladom v Sloveniji nastopale enotno;

c) prek sedanjih nekomunističnih poslancev v slovenskem parlamentu doseči, da bo sprejet ustavni amandma, po katerem bi se parlamentarne volitve, predvidene za vsaka štiri leta, vrstile (po ameriškem vzorcu) vselej na isti dan, da bi bili onemogočeni manevri, nad katerimi ima monopol stranka, ki je na vladu, in da bi bila omogočena višja udeležba na volitvah;

d) v zdonskih skupnostih doseči skupen nastop z zahtovo, da se z zakonom določi procedura za udeležbo volilcev izven Slovenije na volitvah v njej. Ce jim že zakon daje volilno pravico, potem je zakon tudi dolžan poskrbeti, da bodo to pravico lahko tudi uveljavili;

e) po svojih najboljših močeh pripomoči, da se bo celoten slovenski politični proces odvijal v strugi resnično demokratičnega razvoja, to tako, da se bo vsaka netoleranca, vsak ekskluzivem, maščeval tistim, ki ga bodo zagrešili.

In ne nazadnje: optimizem! Ni nobenega razloga za malodusje. Na zadnjih volitvah je bil stari »establišment« definitivno poražen, čeprav mu je še uspelo obdržati večji del oblasti. Toda obdržal jo je z dvomljivim, čeprav spremnim manevriranjem, medtem ko je vsa ideološka navlaka končala na smetišču zgodovine.

Dela torej v slovenskem vinogradu ne manjka. Delavcev res ni veliko, toda brez dela, brez truda, brez potrpljenja, ne bo šlo nikamor.

Romanje v ZDA iz Slovenije ob Baragovi 200-letnici

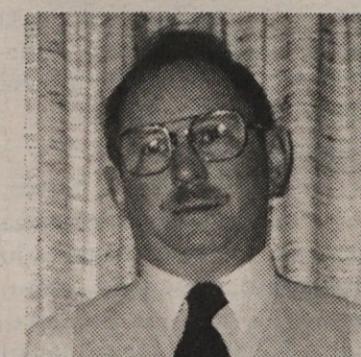

Romanje v Baragovo deželo

Ljubljana (Družina, 3. marca) — Na praznik sv. Petra in Pavla, 29. junija, bo minilo 200 let od rojstva svetniškega kandidata škofa Friderika Baraga. Družina v sodelovanju z agencijo Travelmax pripravlja romanje v Baragovo deželo, v kraju ob Velikih jezerih, kjer je ta veliki slovenski misijonar deloval med Indijanci in priseljenci sredi preteklega stoletja.

Že lani je bilo za to potovanje veliko zanimanje in tudi letos so nekateri že spraševali, ali ga bomo pripravili. Objavljamo okvirni program. Cena še ni dokončna, verjetno pa ne bo dosti višja od lanske (2400 ameriških dolarjev). Ker je odvisna tudi od števila prijavljencev in naših nadaljnjih dogovarjanj z letalskimi družbami, bo zelo pomemben vrstni red prijavljenih.

Program potovanja:

Nedelja, 23. junija: odhod iz Ljubljane prek Frankfurta do Clevelandova.

Ponedeljek, 24. junija: ogled Clevelandova in njegovih znamenitosti. Maša v eni slovenskih župnij.

Torek, 24. junija: odhod iz Clevelandova in ogled Niagarskih slapov.

Sreda, 25. junija: dopoldne Niagarski slapovi, popoldne odhod v Toronto.

Cetrtek, 26. junija: ogled Toronto in obisk ene ali obeh slovenskih župnij.

Petak, 27. junija: potovanje do Baragove dežele (Mackinaw City).

Sobota, 28. junija: s čolnom do otoka Mackinaw, kjer se je Baraga večkrat ustavljal. Nato pot v Marquette.

Nedelja, 29. junija: ogled Marquette, L'Ans. Indijanci bodo samo za slovensko skupino (Baragove rojake) pripravili posebno slovesnost v enem njihovih svetih krajev. Popoldne udeležba na osrednji ameriški proslavi ob 200. obletnici Baragovega rojstva.

Ponedeljek, 30. junija: po poteh škofa Baraga v Marquette in okoliških krajih.

Torek, 1. julija: iz Marquette v Chicago, eno največjih ameriških mest. Obisk Lemona, slovenskih Brezij v ZDA.

Sreda, 2. julija: ogled Chicagoa, obisk najvišje stavbe na svetu. Nato še obisk največjega ameriškega zabaviščnega mesta Las Vegas, zato odhod z letalom v pozni popoldanskih urah v Las Vegas.

Cetrtek, 3. julija: ogled Las Vegasa in njegovih posebnosti.

Petak, 4. julija: prosto za razvedrilo, izlete in nakupe.

Petak, 5. julija: odhod domov prek Chicagoa in Frankfurta. Vrnitev predvidoma z Adrio Airways ob 12.45 na brinisko letališče.

Na romanje smo povabili tudi škofa msgr. Alojza Urana.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1174. Lazarist mons. dr. FRANC RODE, dolgoletni tajnik Kongregacije za kulturo in neverne v Vatikanu, je bil imenovan za novega ljubljanskega nadškofa. Mons. dr. Anton Kovačič iz Severne Karoline in moja sestra Vida iz Ljubljane, sta mi skoraj istočasno v sredo, 5. marca, veselo vest sporočila.

Rojen 23. septembra 1934 v Sloveniji, je po zaobljubah bil poslan študirat v Pariz na Institute Catholique, kjer je doktoriral. V mašniki je bil posvečen 29. junija 1960. Službeno je bil tajnik v rimski Kongregaciji za kulturo in neverne od leta 1981 dalje.

Znan je po globoki ljubezni do Cerkve, temeljitem razumevanju zgodovine, pristni ljubezni do Slovenije, iskan kot predavatelj, ki obvladuje vrsto različnih jezikov.

V imenu naše MZA smo mu takoj čestitali na njegov rimski naslov v Collegio Leoniano, na Via Pompeo Magno 21, kjer sem sam delal leta 1946-47 rimski novicijat pred odhodom na Kitajsko. Bil je med tistimi, ki so kot ubogi študentje dobivali skromno pomoč v intencijah, ko se je naše sodelovanje na ameriškem kontinentu šele začelo razvijati v letu 1952.

Ker je vsa Slovenija čakala na to imenovanje, želimo novemu nadškofu obilje božjega blagoslova pri prevzemu te silno odgovorne službe, posebej v teh časih, ki so prehodni in od katerih zavisi blagor in sreča milijonov Slovencev doma in po svetu za prehod v novo tisočletje.

Ker se bo o njem pisalo na široko te tedne, mu mi samo želimo obljuditi našo zvesto molitev. Istočasno pa se zahvaljujemo nadškofu dr. Alojziju Šuštarju za izredno temeljito dolgoletno delo, ki ga je opravil bo božjih načrtih, sam pred leti poklican iz Švice domov za velikansko odgovornost v Ljubljani.

Upajmo, da bodo odnosi naše MZA z novim nadškofom prav tako iskreni in pozitivni, kot so bili zadnja leta svobodne domovine, posebej v podpiranju različnejših ustanov, kot semenišča, šentvidska gimnazija in vrsto potrebnih, ki smo jih skušali odkriti.

Smo sredi posta prav vsi in sestra Vida, ki je v ječi v Trbovljah mladoletna pretrpeila mučenje našega očeta, matere in sestre, mi je poslala pravkar lepo razglednico s citatom sv. Frančiška: »Hvaljen, moj Gospod, v naši sestri smrti, ki ji nihče v življenju ne uide.«

K temu sama dodaja: »Ob branju izreka sv. Frančiška na tej kartici razmišljam: Nihče smrti ne bo ušel, blagor pa tistim, ki se na njen prihod pripravljajo tako, da se trudijo izpolnjevati božjo voljo in s tem zorijo za večno življenje, za srečno večno življenje med pravičniki, ki so po Kristusovem zgledu brez maščevalnosti v srcu prenašali krivice v tuzemskem življenju in so se na moč trudili odpuščati, kar ni tako lahko, kot si nekateri neprizadeti predstavljajo.«

Nikdar nisem pozabil, kako mi je še čisto mlada dopovedovala, da bo študirala pri uršulinkah v Škofji Loki učiteljnice. Da se ne bo poročila, ampak meni pomagala v duhovniškem poslanstvu, kjer koli bo pač mogla. Takrat nisva misila, kako različna bodo naša poto dejansko za celo življenje. Bila sva se vedno v družini petih otrok najbližja.

Sestra Cecilia Prebil

omenja v pismu 2. marca, ko potrjuje prejem zadnjega čeka za pomoč Madagaskarju in Ruandi, da se je 25. februarja vrnil skozi Pariz v Slovenijo bolni misijonar Janko Slabe, dolga leta veliki pionir na otiku kot škofijski duhovnik dan v pomoč misijonom. Tudi g. dr. Janez Puhan da je slabega zdravja in se bo vrnil v maju za obisk domovine ter ni gotovo, če se bo lahko vrnil nazaj.

V glavnih hiših usmiljenk na Rue du Bac popravljajo čudo-vito Kapelo Čudodelne svetinje, ki jo bodo (so) spet za obiskovalce odprli 15. marca. Na tisoče romarjev navadno vsak dan romana skozi to kapelo, kjer se je sv. Katarini Labouré prikazala Marija kot »Brezmadežno Spočetja« in ji naročila dati izdelati Čudodelno svetinjo. Statistike trdijo, da obišče letno to kapelo več romarjev iz celega sveta kot slavni pariški muzej Louvre.

Dragoceni darovi v februarju.

Kosmova mama ga. Frances je bila srečna, da se je za oblet-nico življenja znašla v MSIP. S hčerko Zofi sta poslali $400. Za popravilo cerkve sv. Jožefa v Ljubljani $200, kar smo takoj odposlali preko moje sestre Vide, ki je za oo. jezuite pri sv. Jakobu zadnja leta pomagala pri gospodinjstvu kot prostovoljka in naslova za cerkev sv. Jožefa nisem imel pri rokah. Menda že goreče zbira nove darove za cerkev sv. Jožefa.

Gdč. Zofi je darovala istočasno iz te vsote v čerku $60 kot nova za članarino 1997 Prijateljev Radia Ognjišča in $140 za ljubljansko semenišče.

Istočasno ste mi poslali na ogled lepi pismi zahvale za prejeto pomoč od s. Marije Pavlišič na Madagaskarju in od brata Joškota Kramarja s Papue-Nove Gvineje.

Vdova Mari Celestina je imela zadnji objavljenega pisma njenega bogoslovca v Mariboru dodala $30 za tri sv. maše za rajnega moža Mirota, ki sem jih po njeni želji takoj sam opravil. Dodala je dar $20 za MZA misijonsko pošto.

Ga. Anne Cekada iz Cleveland je darovala $50 za popravilo zob o Podgrajška. Neimenovana družina iz Wisconsina je poslala $600: za o. Podgrajška popravilo zob, za trpeče misijonarje na Madagaskarju $200 in Karmel-Sora $300. John in Angela Zapušek iz Cleveland sta žrtvovala za slovenske salezijance $150, za letošnjo obnovo članarine PRO $60 in $20 za številno misijonsko pošto.

Neimenovana vdova iz Euclida, Ohio, je poleg dveh bogoslovnih podpor v Gani in Mariboru, dodala $140 za Karmeličanke v Sori in $60 kot nova članica PRO v Ljubljani za 1997.

Novi člani PRO 1997 so postali še: Cilka in Franc Kosar iz Toronto, Ont., Frank Šega iz Wickliffa, O., in Martin Globočnik iz Wheat Ridge, Colo. Ferdo in Mimi Martinčič iz Maidstone, Ont., sta obnovila članarino za 1997. Vsak je poslal po US $60. Tako je naše število PRO narastlo na 43. Gospod Globočnik je daroval stotak ($100).

G. Frank Šega je v čeku dodal $100 za misijonarje na trpečem Madagaskarju in $60 za sv. maše za rajnega Johna Šega, ki bodo kmalu opravljene v misijonih. Ga. Martinčič pa je dodala veselo vest, da bodo imeli v Windsorju v aprili misijonsko kosilo z nabirkom za MZA za slovenske misijonarje v Slovenskem domu. Želimo jim že v pripravah obilni uspeh.

Gdč. Maria Mlinar, Euclid, O., je žrtvovala $300 za Madagaskar in $200 za podporo njenemu slovenskemu bogoslovcu. Za s. Marijo Pavlišič je Niko Tomc, Jupiter, Fla., daroval $100 in njegova hčerka Veronika $50. Skupaj $150. G. Niko ji daje vsak mesec $50.

BOG PLAČAJ VSEM PO BOŽJE!
