OB TEDNU...

Prvi del španske tragedije je končan; zdaj se bo dvignil zastor drugega dejanja: maščevanja. General Franco je obljubil francoski in angleški vladi, da bo izvajal "milost" nad ljudmi v zavojevani deželi, ki so se borili v vrstah legalne španske vlade. Kako je zamišljena ta Francova "milost," se jasno zrcali v poročilu španskega poročevalca londonskega lista "Times" (iz Francovega tabora), obelodanjenega dne 7. marca 1939. V tem poročilu je navedeno, da je izdal general Franco že 13. februarja t. l., dekret, s katerim je odredil kriminalno postopanje proti vsem osebam, ki so že dve leti pred protustavnim uporom aktivno delovali proti fašizmu, po izbruhi upora pa so na ta ali oni način podpirali legalno izvoljeno ustavno vlado.

Sicer pa v Španiji ni zmagovalac Franco, temveč Mussolini in v manjšem obsegu tudi Hitler. Poraženo ni bilo samo špansko ljudstvo, temveč tudi Francija in v manjšem obsegu Anglija. Ti dve državi, ki nosita velik del krivde nad porazom španskega in svojega lastnega ljudstva zaradi svoje zločinske politike nevmešavanja, se bosta kaj kmalu prepričali, da Španiji ne vlada Franco, pač pa Mussolini, podpiran po Hitlerju in po njegovi zloglasni tajni policiji, o katere grozotah nad španskim ljudstvom že poročajo inozemski časnikarji iz Španije. Na programu neposredne bodočnosti nesrečnega španskega ljudstva je zdaj točka fašističnega zavojevanja v notranjosti, to se pravi, uresničenje groznih načrtov političnega maščevanja, ki se je že pričelo javljati v eksekucijah ne debelo.

Civilizacija, ki jo hočeta vsiliti vsemu svetu nacizem in fašizem, se skoraj nič ne razlikuje od primitivnega življenja v džungli, kjer močni jedo, slabotni so pa oni, ki so pojedeni.

Danes ne gre za ideale demokracije, kakor se zdi na prvi pogled in kakor je marsikdo pogrešno prepričan, temveč gre za življenjske interese narodov. Chamberlain na primer ni bil pripravljen, pričeti vojne za ohranitev Češkoslovaške, ki je bila resnična demokracija. Je pa pripravljen, pričeti vojno za obrambo Poljske, ki ni demokracija, pač pa diktatura.

Vzrok temu ni morda iskati v domnevi, da je Chamberlainu Poljska pri srcu, temveč v dejstvu, ker je postala Nemčija po monakovskem paktu tako arogantna, da je pričela tvoriti resno nevarnost angleškemu imperialnim interesom, zato tudi Chamberlain tako kliče na pomoč, ki jo je pripravljen vzeti povsod, kjer jo more dobiti.

Ni še dolgo tega, ko je Anglija ošabno vihala nos nad Rusijo ter jo ob vsaki priliki prezirala, zlasti ob sramotni izdaji Češkoslovaške. Ni dvoma, da daje sedanja angleška vlada prednost nemškemu nacijskemu sistemu pred boljševizmom, dočim se naravnost ne ogreva ne za enega ne za drugega. Neštetokrat je bilo že poročano in zatrjevano, da se Anglija aktivno ne bi vmešavala, če bi se Nemčija raširjala proti vzhodu ter se končno spopadla z Rusijo, v kateri vojni bi ti dve državi druga drugo silno oslabili ali pa se popolnoma uničili.

Zadnje dni pa vidimo, da so se odnošaji med Veliko Britanijo in Rusijo temeljito izpremenili. Zdaj je Velika Britanija tista, ki ponuja Sovjetski Rusiji vojaško zvezo, dočim je Rusija hladna in nezaupna. In kdo naj ji zameri?

Ponovno se dogaja, da nam pošiljajo nekateri rojaki in naročniki dopise, ki so bili že priobčeni v drugih listih oziroma izrezke dotičnih dopisov z naročilom, naj jih priobčimo v "Enakopravnosti." Glede te navade oziroma razvade, je potrebno nekoliko pojasniti. Takšna taktika je povsem neumestna in proti principom vsakega količnjak dostojnega časnikarstva. Kako se more pričakovati, da bomo mi priobčali dopise, ki so izšli morda že pred tednom dni v drugih zunanjih listih, dasi se tičejo ti dopisi oseb in razmer v naselbini, ki ima na razpolago lokalne liste? Iz tega seveda ne gre izvajati, da bomo tudi mi smatrali za umestno, priobčiti vse to, kar bi morda smatral za umestno priobčitev kak drug list. Jasno je, da ne bomo dali listovih kolon na razpolago različnim neumestnim kritikam slovenskih trgovcev, obrtnikov in profetionistov — to se pravi, kritikam njihovih trgovskega poslovanja, ki je, kolikor je naši javnosti znano, vzorno in

VSEBINA IGRE S PETJEM "AMERIKANEC NA TRŠKI GORI"

Na Trški gori, sredi lepe Dolenjske, ima svoje posestvo in gostilno prijazna krčmarica Katra Kopitar. Katra, sedaj že blizu štiridesetih, je bila dvajset let nazaj zaljubljena v Jožeta Polajnara, krepkega poštenega fanta. Vse je izgledalo, da se bosta poročila, ker tudi Jože je imel rad lepo brhko Katro, pa je prišla vmes "gorenjska" Mica isto lepo dekle, ki je pa imela to slabost, da je moške zelo rada imela.

Začela je laziti tudi za Jožetom, kar je pa tako užalilo Katro, da je poročila gostilničarja in posestnika Kopitarja. Ne iz ljubezni ampak iz ključovalnosti saj je bil Kopitar star in ga ni mogla vzljubiti. Živela pa je pošteno skozi leta z njim, dasi je v srcu še vedno nosila Jožeta. Rodila se jima je hčerka, edinka, ki je bila radost obema.

Ko se odgne zastor v prvem dejanju, najdemo Katro, ki je vdova še vedno cvetoča, ki z moško odločnostjo vodi gospodarske in gostilniške posle. Boli jo le, da se je "zazijala" njena hčerka Marička v Lojzeta, ki ni bil nihče drugi kakor "gorenjske" Mice sin in po njeni sodbi Jožetov sin. Z vsoto odločnosti je nastopila proti temu, da bi on kedaj dobil njeno hčer. Zvedela je pa tudi, da se je vrnil Amerikanec domov ter po sodbi vseh prinesel cele svežnje denarja. Izvoljen je bil takoj tudi za župana šentpeterske občine.

Bilo je dan pred zganjanjem. Katra je imela že vse pripravljeno, da sprejme goste in romarje. Prišla sta tudi Boštjanov Miha in Žumrov Janez, prišli so gruntarji Tone in Šimen, prišantal je mežnar Cene in prišacala je tudi vedno pijana Franca. Prišli pa so tudi fantje in dekleta ker pri Katrici je bilo vsako leto lušno.

Fantje, ti neugnanci prično peti, da je kaj. Pojejo tisto špansko: Po cest pa pride stari mož pa nese svojo žensko v koš Ko prideta na krški most vrže babo dol pod most Zena v vodi čofota: še mož na mostu krohota: "Doma nis hot'la gvanje prat, da j moraš pa po vodi čofatat".

Oh ti preljubi, dragi mož kako je bilo lušno v tvojem koš Potegni mene iz vode Britisni spet me na srce, Se mož na mostu krohota, "O le čofaj, o le čofaj dokler je še Krka kaj".

Prinesejo pa tudi Katrici vest, da jo je prišel pogledat Jože Polajnar. Seveda ne pride njej niti na misel, da bi pokazala veselje, dasi jo pri srcu kaj prijetno poseže. Poseben mežnar Cene ima besedo. Na dolgo pripoveduje kaj vse je njemu naročil Jože, da naj ji sporoči glede pižame in jedace. Nazadnje ji hoče dati poljub, češ da je Jože naročil da ji naj ga izroči.

Katra vzklipe. Vsa ogorčena nahruli žverco suho mežnarsko, ki si hoče dovoliti kaj takega. Kmalu bi priletela gorka okrog ušes. Obljubi pa, da bo Jožetu prisotila tako, da bo opoldne pošteno — ko so vendar baš ti ljudje med onimi, ki so si svojo materialno in moralno podporo stekli že nevenljivih zaslug za podvig vsega našega javnega, gospodarskega in kulturnega življenja! Kot trgovci — ne kot politiki in strankarji! — res ne vemo, kako naj si zaslužijo očitanje svojih rojakov, saj niso vendar nobeni kapitalistični zajedalci, ki bi izžemali in odirali delavske mase.

Kasneje pride Amerikanec. Po dolgih letih se zopet vidita, Katra in Jože. Pa kaj, saj ga niti ne pogleda ne in roko mu da kar odstrani, brez da bi ga pogledala.

Končno se prične razgovor, čeprav stiška. Seveda mu vrže naprej gorenjsko Mico in sina. Jože ji dopoveduje in prisega, da ni res. Ko je on Mico spoznal je ta že sina pričakovala. Končno ji vse pojasni in ves srečen objame presrečno Katro. Tudi glede Maričke in Lojzeta je posredoval pri njej, da je opustila misel, da bi jo poročila z davčnim uradnikom Globčnikom, ki ga ona ne mara.

Tako vidimo na koncu prvega dejanja kako nazdravljajo Katrici in Jožetu, Marički in Lojzetu, želeč jim srečo. Veselo petje:

Pridi Gorenc z mrzle planine vabi Dolenje iz gorke doline. Zaključ se prvo dejanje. Med prvim in drugim dejanjem mine devet mesecev. Tu vidimo Katro in Jožeta že poročena. Srečna?

Prvi tedni so bili kot v raju in Katra je bila presrečna. Pa se je kmalu obrnilo. Jože je pričel piti in za ženskami laziti. Popolnoma ga je zmešala domača dekla Lenka. Sosed Tone ga je svaril pa ni slušal. Bil je kakor obleden od vročih pogledov Ankinih.

Pa tudi Katrici ni ostalo prikrito. Gledala je in trpela. Ko pa je bilo preveč jo je hotela spoditi od hiše kar pa ni pustil Jože.

Pa sta prišla zopet Žumrov Janez in Boštjanov Miha na Trško goro. To pot sta prišla voščiti Katrici za god kakor vsako leto. Marička pa se je kar ustrašila ker je radi večnega prepira v hiši pozabila na materin god. Pozabil pa ni Lojze, ki je spravil fante skupaj in zapeli so kakor vsako leto trškogorski gospodinjji v počast:

Ne čujete polja, ki z nami prepeva

Ne čujete pesmi in njenih želja? O mati sree nam radostno veleva, naj sreča tam mnogo še let se smehlja, vsa Trška vam gora srečo želi v obilju veselja naj zdravje vam klije, kot fantom z gore iz prsi kipi.

Katra je vsa ginjena. Donesse jim seveda vina kakor se pač spodobi za trškogorsko gospodinjjo, ki jih je še vedno gostoljubno postregla. Tudi Jože je vesel. Ves razigran prosi fante, da naj zapojejo tisto:

Pleničke je prala pri mrzlem studenc

Obenem pa gleda Lenko o kateri trdi Miha da je ciganske krvi. Pa nide neki človek po Lenko, češ, da jo čaka Globčnik pred cerkvijo. Jože ji hoče zabraniti, a Lenka gre vkljub temu. On se zapodi za njo, pa ga ustavi Katra. Ne delaj sravnote ga prosi. On pa ji divje odrine ter steče za Lenko. Razvije se pretep med njim in Globčnikom, ki potegne samokres pa mu ga Jože iztrga in ga obostrel.

Tretje dejanje. Zopet tri mesece kasneje. Mali Šmaren. Na Trški gori je zganjanje. Pri Katrici ni več veselja. Jože je sedel v preiskovalnem zaporu ter bil končno oproščen. Tri mesece ga ni nihče videl. In njo je to bolelo. Postala je tiha in molčeča.

Pa vidimo Jožeta kako pride pred cerkev na Trško goro. Tono mu pripoveduje kako se imajo Jožetovi doma odkar ga ni bilo. Nagovarja ga, naj gre domov in se spravi s Katro. Jože pa je sklenil, da gre nazaj odkoder je prišel, v Ameriko. Mogoče mu bo Katra odpustila in se bo čez leta vrnil nazaj.

Slučajno pa pride mimo Katrica. Tono jo pokliče ter ji pove kam namerava iti Jože. Katrica obstane prevzeta srčne bolezn. "Ali boš pustil vse, dom, posestvo?" ga vpraša. — "Da", odvrne Jože. "In jaz in najin otrok?", vzdihne bolestno. "Najin otrok?" Ali je to res? Leto in leta sem si želel otroka. svojega otroka. Ali mi odpustiš? Katrica?

"Rada, Jože, samo ostani, odvrne ona. Nastopijo fantje in dekleta in med veselim petjem pade zastor.

ŠKRAT

Iz Ljubljane sem prejel sledeče velepomembno poročilo.

NEPOZABNI ZGODOVINSKI DAN

Ljubljana, 19. marca. — Danes je bela Ljubljana in z njo vsa Slovenija doživela nepozabni zgodovinski dan, katerega se bomo še dolgo s ponosom in hvalečnostjo spominjali in o katerem bodo poročali največji svetovni dnevniki. Belo Ljubljano je obiskal dr. Milan Stojadinović.

Visoki gost se je pripeljal z jutranjim mešanim vlakom in v spremstvu svoje visoke osebe izstopil iz nezakurjenega vagona tretjega razreda. Obstopili so ga postrešniki in visoki gost je med njihovim špalirjem odšel na peron, kjer ga je pričakoval vratar in ga nagovoril. V svojem govoru je vratar naglasil, da želi imeti vozni listek. Visoki gost mu ga je takoj izročil. Nato ga je obstopila vrsta iblatjarjev in ga toplo pozdravila s tem, da je prvi med njimi pregledal njegov ugledni kovček. Pred kolodvorskim poslopjem je pričakovala velika množica občinstva svoje znanee in prijatelje.

Stojadinović se je vsedel v priklonni tramvajski voz in se med gromovitim ropotanjem in navdušenim zvonjenjem tramvajskih odpravljal proti mestu.

Spotoma je bil odlični gost deležen velike pozornosti tramvajskega sprevednika in ko je na Kongresnem trgu v spremstvu svoje visoke osebe izstopil, mu je prišla nasproti in ga od vseh strani navdušeno objemala velika kaska praznina prostranega trga in vseh sosednjih ulic, ki so bile natlačene polne praznega. Gospod Stojadinović je bil globoko ginjen nad toliko pozornostjo in v očeh se mu je dobesedno zableskla solza. V spremstvu svoje visoke osebe je odšel dalje in obstal pred reklamno desko, kjer je bilo na plakatih še vedno ovekovčeno njegovo spoštovano ime iz blaženih časov volitev. Ob pogledu na to veličansko pozornost in ljubezen ljubljanskega občinstva, je bil naravnost vznemirjen in v glasom, ki razodeva čelga človeka, je vzkliknil:

"Hvala vam lepa, Ljubljana! ni, niste me še pozabili. Obljubljam vam zvestobo za zvestobo!"

Ves navdušen nad toliko ljubeznivostjo gre dalje, povsod ga pozdravljajo plakati vseh barv in velikosti, povsod se blesti njegovo spoštovano ime, plakati po ograjah, plakati na hišah, na drevju, na vratih, plakati povsod kamor seže pogled, njegovo ime povsod, kamor sežejo od ganotja vlažne oči. Visoki gost izreka izraze svoje globoke hvalečnosti in hiti dalje, da izpolni program velikega dne.

Po kosilu v dalmatinskem vinotoku je g. Stojadinović obiskal nekatere javne zgradbe in se je o njihovi ureditvi posebno laskavo izrazil. Nad vse mu je ugajala zgradba za notranje zadeve, kamor se človek v sili zaleti, ko ga pritirajo do tega notranje zadeve, od katere se kar ni mogel posloviti. Vse stene od vrha do tal so dekorirane z njegovim imenom, vse stene pričajo, kako zelo je še vedno pri ljubljen in spoštovan in visoki gost je z velikim zanimanjem vzkliknil:

"Da na mene niste pozabili v tej zgradbi, mi je posebno drago, da sem še vedno vaš in da ste še vedno moji. Hvala vam lepa!"

S tem je bil zgodovinski dan zaključen in g. Stojadinović je z večernim osebnim vlakom odpeljal iz bele Ljubljane.

Sprevednik: — Vi imate to to za potniški vlak, vozite se z brzim vlakom. Doplačati morate razliko.

Potnik: — Kaj pa še. Pa strojevodna vozi bolj počasi, meni se nikamor ne mudi.

— Kdo vam je rekel iti k vinogradniku?

— Gospa, vi ste rekli, grem po zdravnika, ker je šel odšel zopet zbelet, jaz pa nisem vedela, da ste mislili starega spodaj.

"Jožek, ali pa si res to zgodovinsko nalogo popolnoma sam napisal?"

"Da, gospod učitelj, samo umoru Wallensteina mi je pomagal."

IZ STARE DO MOVINE

Radi Preužitka

V Ajdovcu pri Žužemberku bil aretiran in odveden v meške zapore Alojz Jazbinšek, ki je priznal, da je zakrivil preletne preužitkarice Marje Koželjeve. Stara žena se je podala na senik po otavo in vino in, ko je bila vrhu lestve, je Jazbinšek lesto podmaknil, da je žena padla si pri padcu razbila lobanjo. Koželjeva je bila pred leti dala posestvo neki svoji sorodnici, ki se je pozneje ročila z omenjenim Jazbinškom. Stara žena si je izgovorila meren preužitev in tega Jazbinšek zdaj hotel rešiti.

Požigalci na delu

V Gerdini pri Ptujju pozni noči začelo goriti dom nje posestnika Jerneja Lantta in ogenj se je tako hitro ril, da se je družina komaj la iz goreče hiše. Gospod je planil nazaj v gorečo hišo da bi rešil nekaj prihrankov denarja, je dobil take hude poškodbe, da so ga morali odpeljati v ptujsko bolnišnico. Istočasno je tam v bližini gorela viničarija posestnika tona Novaka. Ljudstvo je pričano, da je oba požara vzročila zlobna roka.

Kip rudarja

V palači mednarodnega dela v Ženevi bo nameščen kip rudarja iz Hrvaškega Zagorja najrevnejše, a zelo romantične hrvaške pokrajine. Kip je delal znani zagrebški kipar ton Augustinčić.

Sam se je sodil

Blizu Babincev pri Ljubljani se je končal z elektriko ženski kazni, ker je svojemu možu še zažgal hišo nad glavo. Samomorilec je ponoči spustil na električni daljnovod in jožil glavo na žico. Elektrik tok je moža takoj ubil, stik pa je povzročil, da je par minut ves Ljutomer v temni senci.

SERBIANS SWEEP INTO I-L CHAMPIONSHIP

TAKE SECOND STRAIGHT FROM LITHS TO GAIN CAGE CROWN

By Stan Zorc

Parading as fine an aggregation of cage stars as ever seen performing at the St. Clair Center, the Serbians made a clean sweep of the Inter-Lodge title series by defeating the Lithuanians 34 to 32 last Tuesday night in their second series game to become the 1939 Inter-Lodge basketball champions.

Having won the first game in convincing style, the Serbs went on to prove to the fans that they were without a doubt tops in the I-L circuit. Getting off to a slow start, the Serbs gradually picked up steam and unfortunately for the Liths, were in full stride when the championship series finally got under way.

Handicapped by again having only five men, the Serbians were on the spot when only one minute after the last quarter started, Nick Lalich star of last week's battle, had to leave the floor after committing four personals. The Serbs went the remaining seven minutes with only four men as they had no replacements.

The boys fought hard to defend the slight lead they had at the time, but the Liths managed to creep up until with only a minute or so left to play, they tied the score. At that point, however, John Petrus of the Serbs was fouled and succeeded in sinking both foul shots to put the Serbs ahead again. Petrus was high man with 12 points. Malokas had eleven for the Liths.

The Serbs took the lead in the first quarter but dropped behind the Liths by one point at the half. Score stood at 15-14 at the half, in Lith's favor, but there were no indications as to the probable outcome of the game. The lead changed hands several times during the second half and it was anybody's game even to the final whistle.

Let it be said in favor of the Liths that the Serbians had to work very hard for each marker. Before the series started, George Venslovos, Lith manager, stated that since the two teams were so evenly matched, it would be a matter of who got the breaks that would decide the crown wearers. The breaks decided at least the second game of the series and contrary to the Lith manager's hopes, the breaks were against the Liths.

However, the Serbians had a well balanced and spirited team on the floor and just weren't to be beaten. They earned and deserve the credit of being recognized as tops in the I-L cage circuit. They had to beat a great team for that honor.

The Liths, although never crowned champions, have made an enviable record for themselves. Having participated in Inter-Lodge basketball activities for only two seasons, they became for the second time, runners-up in the league.

To the Serbs, hail to the champions, and to the Liths better luck next year.

In the preliminary game, the St. Clair Center girls team trounced the Collinwood SDZ girls by a 30 to 9 score.

Workmen's Home To Show Noted Film "Doomed Battalion" Twice Tomorrow

The directors of the Slovene Workmen's Home announce that they have finally obtained the much requested and publicized motion picture "The Doomed Battalion." It will be shown tomorrow April 9 at the Slovene Workmen's Home, Waterloo Rd. There will be two showings at 4 p. m. and 6 p. m.

This picture was to be shown last year, but because of complications with the producers it had to be cancelled. Because of numerous requests for the film, the directors have done their utmost to obtain it.

The picture deals with the fate of an Austrian Battalion which was seized and held captive on the side of the Dolomites Mountain during the World War by the Italian Battalion. The story weaves around the attempts of the Italian army to capture the mountain. It portrays how the Italian army tries to communicate with the Austrians but is cut off from communications. Finally, the Italian forces blow up the entire side of the mountain and in that way finish the doomed battalion. After the picture, chicken dinner will be served by the ladies' auxiliary. Dancing will follow to the music of Vic Intihar and his Swing Victorians.

The picture will be shown with a new 1000 watt projector.

Further down the Hall a large pillar decorated with colorful frescoes shows the mediaeval monasteries built by Yugoslav kings and emperors in the rich valleys of Vardar, Morava and Ibar. Glass cases placed in the center reveal historic documents of that era. Exact reproductions of ancient mediaeval architecture include the portals of the chapel in Split, which was constructed by the Roman Emperor Diocletian; the bronze portal of the Cathedral in Split, and a gravestone, in the form of a sarcophagus, adorned with hunting scenes of early civilization in Bosnia.

In the second part of the interior a decorative fountain and a tree symbolize the habit of the people of Yugoslavia to meet together to sing folk songs.

Near the fountain there stands a sculpture by Toma Rosandic, of a young athletic youth throwing a stone, representing a very old national sport of the mountain shepherds.

It will be particularly interesting to American visitors to see the panel of remarkable pictures of many parts of Yugoslavia taken by an American girl, Miss Peggy Lane, daughter of the United States Minister to Belgrade, Mr. Arthur Bliss Lane. Miss Lane is a well known artist and photographer.

Leaving over the ramp on another panel we see a description of Yugoslav history: tourism in all its beauty showing hostilities, mountains, sports such as skiing, canoeing, fishing and hunting. In some Yugoslav localities as in Bosnia and Montenegro, fishing and canoeing conditions are similar to those in the United States. Fishermen from all parts of the world find good sport in the Danube, Sava and Drava rivers and the Adriatic Sea.

There are panels and graphs sketching the development of the agricultural, social and hygienic life and institutions of Yugoslavia. Agriculturally, Yugoslavia is known through its corporation Zadruga, a very old public institution specializing in all fields of agricultural activities. It is becoming more and more the tendency for families and entire villages to till the soil together, using modern machinery.

Yugoslav Pavilion at N. Y. World's Fair Will Feature History, Natural Beauty

With the arrival of several architects and experts from Yugoslavia, to take charge of the final stages of the work, the Yugoslav Exhibit in the Hall of Nations at the New York World's Fair is nearing completion.

The exhibit is situated in the Hall of Nations. Above the entrance a large illuminated map shows Yugoslavia with her principal cities. Represented decoratively on metal panels are: the 200 year old fortress of Belgrade in whose walls European history was decided and where 140 years ago a national revolution rebuilt Yugoslavia's freedom; the city of Skoplje where the mediaeval Serbian emperors were crowned; Zagreb, the cultural center of the Croats; Ljubljana, huddling among white mountains; Dubrovnik, with its famous walls, as well as other cities which form landmarks in the long history of the Yugoslav people.

The interior of the section is evenly divided into two parts—one part a main hall before a series of ramps leading to the upper exhibit gallery and descending to the displays of the first floor. Daylight comes through high windows of transparent mediaeval images portraying the old monastery paintings.

On entering the visitor is attracted by a large painting, the work of a noted Yugoslav artist, Ljubomir Babic, representing the life of the peasants in Yugoslavia. This painting is set in panels made of different species of Yugoslav wood which is one of Yugoslavia's principal commodities.

Further down the Hall a large pillar decorated with colorful frescoes shows the mediaeval monasteries built by Yugoslav kings and emperors in the rich valleys of Vardar, Morava and Ibar. Glass cases placed in the center reveal historic documents of that era. Exact reproductions of ancient mediaeval architecture include the portals of the chapel in Split, which was constructed by the Roman Emperor Diocletian; the bronze portal of the Cathedral in Split, and a gravestone, in the form of a sarcophagus, adorned with hunting scenes of early civilization in Bosnia.

In the second part of the interior a decorative fountain and a tree symbolize the habit of the people of Yugoslavia to meet together to sing folk songs.

Near the fountain there stands a sculpture by Toma Rosandic, of a young athletic youth throwing a stone, representing a very old national sport of the mountain shepherds.

It will be particularly interesting to American visitors to see the panel of remarkable pictures of many parts of Yugoslavia taken by an American girl, Miss Peggy Lane, daughter of the United States Minister to Belgrade, Mr. Arthur Bliss Lane. Miss Lane is a well known artist and photographer.

Leaving over the ramp on another panel we see a description of Yugoslav history: tourism in all its beauty showing hostilities, mountains, sports such as skiing, canoeing, fishing and hunting. In some Yugoslav localities as in Bosnia and Montenegro, fishing and canoeing conditions are similar to those in the United States. Fishermen from all parts of the world find good sport in the Danube, Sava and Drava rivers and the Adriatic Sea.

There are panels and graphs sketching the development of the agricultural, social and hygienic life and institutions of Yugoslavia. Agriculturally, Yugoslavia is known through its corporation Zadruga, a very old public institution specializing in all fields of agricultural activities. It is becoming more and more the tendency for families and entire villages to till the soil together, using modern machinery.

Ivan Cankar Dramatists Give Play Tomorrow For Dr. Ivan Lah Memorial

The Slovene dramatic club "Ivan Cankar" will present the play "Amerikanec na Trški Gorici" Sunday afternoon at the St. Clair National Home.

The performance is being given for the benefit of a memorial to be erected in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, in honor of Dr. Ivan Lah. Dr. Lah was an outstanding citizen of the Yugoslav state. He was a doctor of philosophy in one of Ljubljana's universities, a national worker, an ardent democrat and the author of some of the best Slovene books.

A graduate of the University of Prague, Dr. Ivan Lah was in his time a student of Masaryk. It was here that Dr. Lah became friendly with the future leaders of Czech democracy. Later when Dr. Lah returned to Yugoslavia (then under Austrian rule) he worked with greater effort for the emancipation of his homeland. A believer of democracy, he worked continuously for social freedom. After the war he continuously labored for the solidarity of the Slav nations. This, he felt, was the greatest guarantee against aggression. A great man, Dr. Ivan Lah was known in almost every European country. A few years ago he was given an honorary membership in the Pan-Slavonic League; the ceremonies taking place in Roumania.

Patently working at his writing, which had gradually increased to a mountainous task, Dr. Ivan Lah died suddenly in May, 1938. The book at which he was working is being completed by his friends.

A memorial at his grave will be completed soon. The dedication will take place May 1939, on the anniversary of his death.

The guest speakers at the Cankar play will be Louis Adamic, widely known American Slovene writer, and Ivan Zorman, a personal friend of Dr. Lah.

Mr. Adamic, although he is very much occupied with his forthcoming book "A Nation of Nations," has kindly accepted to speak in behalf of his friend now deceased, Dr. Ivan Lah.

Mr. Zorman, ranks as an outstanding Slovene in Cleveland. He is well known as a writer of Slovene poems. He has also translated many Slovene poems into English, of which there is a book. Mr. Zorman and Dr. Lah were life-long friends, born and raised in the same locality.

The performance is presented by the ablest dramatic group, the Cleveland Slovene colony. Curtain rises at 3 p. m. Admission is 25 cents. Dancing and entertainment, after the afternoon program, will continue throughout the evening.

Sea Scout Ship "Saratoga" To Stage Annual Easter Ball at Center April 16

The Sea Scout ship "Saratoga," division of Troop 250, local Boy Scout group, holds its second annual Easter Ball on Friday, April 14, at the St. Clair Recreation Center, beginning at 8 p. m.

A floor show at 9:30 p. m. is one of the attractions of the evening. Louis Trebar's orchestra will furnish the music for dancing.

Admission is by invitation only and bids may be secured from any member of the "Saratoga," at Mohar's plumbing shop or at Makovec's Confectionery.

Extensive decorations are planned which will transform the gym of the Recreation Center into a real ballroom. One feature is the laying of a false ceiling which hides the balcony of the gymnasium and gives the illusion of a large ballroom.

Among those invited as guests of the "Saratoga" on that evening are Mayor and Mrs. Harold H. Burton, Judge and Mrs. Frank J. Lausche, Commodore and Mrs. Paul G. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Clark, the latter being president of the greater Cleveland Council of the Boy Scouts.

Skipper Felix A. Danton is chairman of the committee on arrangements for the Ball and is assisted by Frank Jaksic, Jr., Ted Sulak, Fred Prince, Joseph Saitz, John Ayster, Jr., John Sefchik, Jr. and Robert Olschansky.

All friends of Scouting are cordially invited to attend the dance and help the Sea Scouts make it a real success.
