

Janko N. Rogelj:

Ga. Lovšetova o slovenski pesmi

Naša umetnica ga. Pavla Lovšetova je imela med ameriški Slovenci štiri koncerte. Dva koncerta sta se završila v Slovenskem narodnem domu v Clevelandu, potem v Farrelu, Pa., in zadnji koncert v Slovenskem narodnem domu v Newburghu, O. Njen prihodnji koncert bo v Slovenskem delavskem domu v Collinwoodu dne 9. decembra. V mesecu januarju odide v Chicago, La Salle, Milwaukee in Sheboygan, potem v Lorain in New York. Druge slovenske naselbine nameravajo povabiti umetnico, toda nimajo odločene še dneve, kar pa se pričakuje z vsakim dnem.

Po prvem koncertu v Clevelandu se je sililo mnenje posameznikov, zakaj je vseboval njen prvi koncert samo slovensko pesem, saj je ona operna pevka. Na programu je bila le arija iz opere "Gorenjski slavec".

Povedal sem to mnenje ga. Lovšetovi ter jo tudi prosil, da naj mi pojasni njeno stališče in vzroke, zakaj ni njen prvi koncert vseboval mednarodno glasbo.

Gospa se je prijazno nasmejala ter rekla: "Prav rada ustrezam vaši želji. Menim tudi, da ne bi bilo prav, ako ne bi tudi ameriškim Slovincem povedala to, kar sem preživelja na prejšnjih turnejah ter si štajem sedaj v izpolnjevanje moje dolžnosti."

Situacija je sledeča:

"Ko so me pozivali moji rojaki v Italijo in Nemčijo na koncertna gostovanja, so vedno izražali željo, da zapojem na koncertu slovensko pesem, bodisi umetno ali narodno. Ugladni rojaki, ki je živel v inozemstvu nekaj let v stiku s kulturnimi delavci raznih narodnosti, mi je rekel nekoč:

"Nada sem me nekaj časa ne sililo od drugih pevcev, pa najsi so to še taki svetovni zvezdniki. Oni pojejo tisto, kar so napisali sinovi velikih narodov, za nas pa je to, četudi včasih silno lepo in občudovanja vredno, vendar le odmev tujega srca. Prav je, da se naslanjamo na lepoto drugodnje umetnosti, toda, kadar bi ljubili le-to in zaničevali domačo kulturo, bi bili podobni tistemu, ki bi se oklenil s vsem srcem posojiljenca, svoje lastno malo dete pa bi zanikoval, ker morda ni tako lepo ali veliko kot oni drugi. V drugi vrsti pa je potrebno, da tudi tuji začno o nas soditi drugače kot doslej. Če boste prihajali med nje s francoskim, nemškim ali laškim programom, bodo padli oči Vaše osebnosti, nikdar pa ne Vaše slovenske kulture. Rekli bodo: Slovenci imajo talentirane pevce, ki gredo lahko po svetu s svojo znanostjo, nimajo pa lastne kulture, ki bi jih mogli svetu pokazati. Kjerkoli boste hodili, pokazali, da smo sicer majhen narod, toda kulturni, ki ima veliko željo po napredku in mnogo dobre volje, da ohrani in poveča, kar je pristno našega v narodni izobrazbi. In če tudi to, kar smo doslej ustvarili ni največje, vendar je to naše duše, ki je ne smemo nikjer zapustiti, ampak jo moramo v kolikor mogoče lepi obliki predstaviti tujcem, da bodo vedeli, da živimo kot izobražen narod, ki dela in stremi za napredkom."

"Teh besed sem se spomnila, ko sem sestavljala program za svoj prvi koncert v Ameriki, Cleveland, O. drugo največje slovensko mesto naj žuje na prvem koncertu samo slovensko pesem, rojakom v bodilo, drugodnem v dokaz, da imamo tudi mi nekaj evroevropskega. Žal, naša mlada kultura ne premora, na primer velikih opernih del, iz katerih bi mogel pevec vzeti zaključeno arijo za koncertni program. Naše opere iz preteklosti so bile pač prvi poskus, ki se ne morejo meriti s operami drugih narodov. Opere iz poslednje dobe pa so visane v moderniji obliki, kjer ne najdemo samostojnih velikih arij, ki bi se dale uporabljati tudi za koncertne nastope."

"To sem vam morala povedati, ker se je od raznih strani čulo vprašanje, zakaj na prvem koncertu — razen arije iz "Gorenjski slavec", nisem izvajala nič drugega. Da pa bo ustrezno tudi ljubiteljem operne umetnosti, sem se odločila, da privedem za svoj koncert v Collinwoodu, dne 9. decembra operni večer, ki bo vseboval velike arije iz klasične in romantične največjih glasbenih mojstrov — poleg umetne in narodne slovenske pesmi."

"To menda zadostuje," pravi umetnica. Na koncertu v Collinwoodu pa bo mednarodna glasba. Ustrezno bo vsem, zato pridite na koncert."

NAZNANILO IN ZAHVALA.

S tužnim srcem naznanjamo sorodnikom, znancom in prijateljem žalostno vest, da je kruta smrt ugrabila mojo ljubo in še mlado, edino hčerko

MARY MOHORIC

(rojena Mary Zemlak).

Rojena je bila 1. februarja 1906 v Yale, Kans. Pokojnica bila je dne 6. sept. t. l. namenjena obiskati svojo sestrično v Johnston City, Ill., ampak sreča ji ni bila mila, da bi videla svojo sestrično, ker na potu do nje se je v avtomobilski koliziji do smrti ubila. No ker pokojna ni dospela k sestrični je pa sestrična Rose Stokar prišla obiskati umrlo sestrično in ji je položila krasni venec na njeno krsto v zadnji spomin. Prav lepo se zahvalimo članom društva št. 9, S. N. P. J., in članicam še posebej, ki so nabrale za prekrasne vence. Le žal, da mi niso znana imena vseh darovalcev, se torej najljubšeje vsem skupaj zahvalim za prekrasne darovane vence in cvetlice, ki ste jih ji podarili v zadnji pozdrav. Jaz, tvoja žalostna mati, se mirno poslavljam od Tebe in želim Ti spavaj v miru, draga hčerka. Dokončala si tvoje mladostno življenje in v spomin si mi pustila dve še mali nedorasli hčerki, katerih starejša še vedno kliče za teboj: Mama, mama! Na tvojo gomilo bomo hodili in nosili cvetlice, ter jih s solznimi zalivali. Žalujemo ostali: Anna Bratkovič, mati. Joe Bratkovič, oči, Vincenc Zemljak, brat in več drugih sorodnikov. Pittsburg, Kans.

PRIZIVI NA VIŠJO INSTANCO.

Devetnajsta točka člena XX. pove, da imajo člani pravico, ako niso zadovoljni z razsodbo društvene porote vložiti priziv na gl. porotni odsek najkasneje v teku trideset dni. To točko smo priobčili že v enem prejšnjih član- kov. Ponavljali jo ne bomo več, ampak priporočamo član- nom, da jo pazno prečitajo in če mislijo, da jo je treba popraviti, naj to store. Napišejo naj popravek k točki in navedejo vzroke, zakaj je ta popravek bolj na mestu kot staro besedilo in pošljejo uredništvu, ki bo poslano pri- občilo. Dobro je tudi, da o popravku razpravljajo na dru- štvinih sejah, da je delegat na jasnem, kakšno je mnenje društva.

Za nas je veliko bolj važno, da vemo, kaj pomeni pri- ziv na višjo instanco.

Priziv na višjo instanco pomeni, da ena izmed obeh strank—obtožena ali tožiteljska—ni zadovoljna z izidom društvene porote obravnave. Ko gl. porotni odsek izre- če svojo sodbo, se lahko zopet dogodi, da ena ali druga stranka ni zadovoljna z razsodbo gl. porotnega odseka. Ako član ali društvo dobi za kazen le ukor ali suspenzijo, tedaj je za ti dve kazni gl. porotni odsek najvišje sodišče pri S.N.P.J. Ako je za kazen izrečena izključitev, tedaj ostane najvišje sodišče še vedno konvencija ali splošno glasovanje. Na splošno glasovanje gredo le tisti prizivi in druge sporne zadeve, ki jih gl. odbor z dvotretjinsko večino smatra za izredno važne. To kar smo tukaj ome- nili, so nove določbe v točkah 20. in 25. XX. člena pravil S.N.P.J., ki sta bili sprejeti s splošnim glasovanjem.

Ti dve točki se glasita:

"20. Stranka, ki ni zadovoljna z razsodbo gl. po- rotnega odseka, se sme v teku tridesetih dni od dneva objavljenja razsodbe v glasilu pritožiti na konvencijo ali na splošno glasovanje. Na splošno glasovanje gredo le tisti prizivi in druge sporne zadeve, ki jih gl. odbor z dve- tretjinsko večino smatra izredno važnim; vse druge pri- zive in zadeve rešuje konvencija kot najvišja instanca, razen v zadevah, tikajočih se bolniške podpore ali odškod- nine, v katerih ima prizadeta stranka pravico zahtevati, da reši priziv proti sklepu gl. porotnega odseka bodisi glavni odbor ali konvencija. Priziv na konvencijo . . . itd. kot v sedanjih pravilih.

25. Razsodilce, ki izreče razsodbo, mora isto na- tančno definirati, to je, v slučaju razsodbe o bolniški pod- pori mora navesti natančno z datumi, za kakšen čas se podpora na podlagi razsodbe izplača ali ne izplača; pri suspenziji mora navesti natančno z datumi, kdaj se su- spenzija prične in kdaj se konča; pri izobčenju mora na- vesti, s katerim dnevom stopi izobčenje v veljavo. V slu- čaju priziva na višjo instanco radi bolniške podpore, se iz- plačilo podpore zadrži toliko časa, da izreče razsodbo viš- je razsodilce; v slučaju priziva radi suspenzije za kazen se sprejema assessment za posmrtnino za časa suspenzije, vse druge pravice pa se zadrži, dokler izreče razsodbo višja instanca (če suspenzija poteče, predno je bila iz- rečena razsodba, so upostavljene pravice avtomatično s potekom suspenzije); pri prizivih na višjo instanco radi izobčenja, so zadržane vse pravice prizadete stranke to- liko časa, da višja instanca izreče razsodbo. Ako je član po višjem sodišču oproščen in je bil med tem časom opravi- čen do podpore ali kakoršnegakoli izplačila od jednote, se mu izplačilo nakaže. Kadar gre priziv radi izobčenja za kazen na splošno glasovanje ali na konvencijo ima glavni odbor ali konvencija pravico predlagati tudi mi- lejše kazni. Za kazni radi ukora ali suspenzije člana ali društva, je gl. porotni odsek najvišje razsodilce."

Član, ki je priznal krivim samega sebe pri društveni porotni obravnavi, ne more vložiti priziva na višjo in- stanco, da ga oprostijo krivde. Ta član lahko vloži priziv za znižanje kazni, kajti če se je kdo priznal krivim, se ni s tem izrekel, da se zadovolji z najvišjo kaznijo, ki bo predlagana. Pravila določajo, da ima predsednik dru- štvne porote pravico predlagati tri kazni in sicer od naj- milejše do najstrožje. Za to naj vsak član dobro premi- ali, preden sebe pri najnižji instanci prizna krivim, ker sam sebi s tem priznanjem vzame pravico do priziva pro- ti spoznanju krivim, ampak ima le pravico apelirati za znižanje kazni.

Na višjo instanco lahko apelira tudi tožiteljska stran- ka, ako je bil obtoženec spoznan nekrivim, ali če se ji zdi kazen prenizka.

Pri vlaganju prizivov je treba imeti vedno pred očmi, da pri določanju kazni odločajo obtežilni in olajševalni argumenti. Velika je razlika, ako je kdo dejanje izvršil namenoma in iz škodoželjnosti ali nevednosti, ali če je kdo kaznjivo dejanje ali prestopok izvršil prvič ali pa večkrat. Nato se je treba ozirati, kadar se izreče kazen, ali se pa delajo prizivi, da je bila kazen preostara ali pre- mila.

Za vlaganje prizivov je določen rok trideset dni od dneva, ko je bila izrečena sodba. Zato je važno, da člani ne odlašajo s prizivi, ako mislijo vložiti priziv, ampak ta priziv takoj napišejo in odpošljejo na pristojno mesto. Marsikateri priziv je bil izgubljen, ker ga stranka ni vlo- žila pravočasno.

Zakaj mora biti določen rok v pravilih za vlaganje prizivov. Ako bi ne bilo določenega roka, bi marsikatera stranka čakala s prizivom leto dni ali pa še dalj, da bi bila cela zadeva že pozabljena in nato bi vložila šele pri- ziv. Tako zavlačevanje bi povzročilo veliko sitnosti pri iskanju prič. Nekatere prič bi mogoče že umrle, druge odpotovali v staro domovino ali pa kam drugam. Zopet druge prič bi rekly, da se ne spominjajo več, kaj so ta- krat govorile pri obravnavi, ali da so pozabile na ves dogodek. Torej določeni rok za vlaganje prizivov ima tudi svoj in zelo važen pomen.

Prizivi na najvišjo instanco, to je na konvencijo in splošno glasovanje se pošiljajo gl. tajniku. Kdor se pri- toži na konvencijo, ne more dati svoje zadeve več na splošno glasovanje, kdor se pritoži na splošno glasovanje, pa svoje zadeve ne more več predložiti konvenciji.

Preden kakšen član obtoži drugega člana, naj dobro premisli kaj dela. Pred vsem naj se prepriča, ali je član, ki ga misli obtožiti res kršil pravila. Preudari naj tudi, ako bo njegova obtožnica koristila ali škodila S. N. P. J. Kadar bo tožitelj pretehtal in si ogledal obtožnico od vseh strani in se ravnal po tem, kar mu zdrava pamet in koristi S. N. P. J. narekujejo, tedaj bo gradil S. N. P. J. in ne prinašal nesloge med članstvo in podiral tega, kar so drugi gradili z velikim trudom.

O PERUŠKOVH SLIKAH

Po razstavi v Clevelandu opa- zimo v Peruškovih delih nov razvoj. Izključno abstrak- na dela je Perušek malone opustil. Dobil je nekaj novega zlasti v Novi Mehiki, kjer se je mudil poleti 1927. Se je v njem eks- presionizem, še izraža svoja čustva, zanemarjajoč obliko, to- da zdi se nam bližji in prikup- nejši. Predmet bolj upošteva kot ga je prejšnja leta. Začet- tek tega razvoja smo zaznali v slikah "Sanje" in "Pesnik". V katerih sicer ni tiste živahnos- ti kakor v prejšnjih kompozicijah kot "Vihar", ki je bila raz- stavljena v dvorani SNPJ pred dvema leti. Izraz je bližji, ma- lone izraz pasivnega mysticisma, ki se kristalizira v nekaterih po- znejših delih. Iste smernice, to- da že v jaci obliki opazimo na nekaterih portretih, zlasti pa na manjšem lastnem portretu.

Med razstavljenimi slikami je poleg omenjenih skupina dru- gih, poznejših ter popolnejših, a najprijetnejša popolnost je dosežena v enem manjših tiho- žitij. Ospredje dvigajo okrogle in ovalne oblike vaze in vrča, ki dajejo bajno podlago cvetlici na modrem ozadju. Listi so to, kar smo opazili v prvenskih "Sa- njah". Najznamenitejša pa je spajanje ospredja z ozadjem, kar je nekaj nenavadnega, niti pri Perušku niti pri komu dru- gemu do zdaj vidnega. Spaja- nje s pomočjo senc in odsevov ustvarja plastično podobo, ki je srečno uspešna in radi težave spaj- janja ravno pokazuje silo moj- strstva. Druga dela te vrste so bi- la več ali manj že na razstavi v Minnesoti ter tudi opisana. So produkt istega načina izražanja. Najimpozantnejše med temi je vsekakor "Pismo in sad", velik okvir, katerega najodličnejše so forme, na tem delu izražene z jajčnimi potezami kakor mogo- če na kateremkoli drugem plat- nu te razstave.

Izmed 42 slik, ki so označene na seznamu razstavnega pro- grama, so slike razne velikosti in med temi je večje številno iz- borno uspešnih pokrajinskih slik. Posebno par slik, predstavljajo- čih pomlad, je mihihi. To so ve- čidel manjši, lepi obrabci no- vovzbuđenega življenja. Kosta- ta jablana v vsej svoji prešerno- sti razpenja ravno razceve ve- je, s pisane livade pa veje av- žost veane. Umetnik je mogoče slikal spomlad, prav gotovo pa je moral slikati tedaj, ko je imel prijetne občutke in ga niso trije življenjske skrbi.

Človek bi skoro ne verjel, da more kratko bivanje v drugem- nem podnebnju tako zelo vplivati na umetnika. Poglejmo sledi novomehiških barv neba in pre- rji. Ne samo na pueblu in no- vomehiških prerijah, tudi na drugi slikah je opaziti del iste- ga izraza. Vsekakor pa se te razlikujejo od slik s peščin, Michiganu ter onih iz min- sotskih planjav in jezer. Dočim so južne glasnije in z močnej- šimi potezami, ki spajajo kom- plementarne in vendar skoro ne- vtralne barve se dokaj "ohladi- mo", ko gledamo slike temnoze- lenega smrečja in ostrih sever- nih zim. Vseje delo te vrste predstavlja zimo v gozdu. Sila ni ekspresionistična, precej naturalizma, to je, narave je v nji, ali dodelana je s toliko skrbnostjo in ljubeznijo do de- la, da nam mora ostati v spo- minu in nas mora spominjati na nekaj več kakor na golo silka- nje. Nenavaden spajanje barv zimskih senc, smrečja pod sne- gom, oledenela vejčevja v ho- sti, kamor pokukavamo poslednji žarki z medlega zahoda, to je ne- kaj, kar mora ugajati ljubitelju dobre slike.

Posetniki sedanje razstave, dasi je manjša po številu del od prve Peruškove razstavi v dvorani SNPJ, bodo dobili veliko več vitka kakor na prvi razstavi. Dela so namreč boljša, bolj popolna in resnična. Res, da je bilo na prvi razstavi nekaj iz- bornih slik, ali sedaj je teh več, pa če jih iščemo med prostimi naturalističnimi pokrajini ali pa v bolj miselnih, abstraktnih delih. Poglejmo na primer "Ti- hožitje", katero se nam zdi na prvi pogled kot popolen natura- lizem. Takoj vidimo, da je na sliki veliko več kot to. Ne samo vnema, s katero je slika podana na platnu, vsak detajl nam ka- že, da je delo subjektivno in ne mehanična fotografija. Vseh del na seznamu ni mo- goče opisati in sploh opisi ne morejo zadostiti, so samo ne- kako navodilo našim Slovincem v Chicagu in okolici, da vedo, česa imajo pričakovati od raz- stave. Izplača se vsakomur, da jo poseti. Veliko lepša je iz- tega navodila izpuščenega, kaj- ti lahko je prezreti pri tolikem številu slik. Tudi hvalospevi so izpuščeni, ker se nam zdijo ne- potrebni. Za Peruška naj govo- rijo slike, ne kritiki, zato Slo- venci v Chicagu, pojdite na raz- stavo in si skušajte ustvariti sodbo sami.

Dekle najdeno, ustrajeno.

De Soto, Mo. — Pearl Poto- sky je bila v pondeljek najdena mrtva v stanovanju bogatega trgovca Sol Hohenthala. V nje- ni glavi je tečala krogla iz revol- verja. Njeni sodniki dvomijo, da je dekle izvršilo samomor, ka- kor iztrjuje Hohenthal, s ka- terim je bila varočena.

NAŠI ODRI

Sheboyganski oder.
Sheboygan, Wis. — Dramski odsek socijalističnega kluba v Sheboyganu otvori letošnje dramsko sezono z E. Ganglovo dramo "Sin", ki bo vprizorjena v nedeljo 9. decembra ob pol- oamih zvečer v Fludernikovi dvorani.
"Sin" je obširna štiridejan- ska igra, katere po vsebini spa- da nedvomno v vrsto najbolj tragičnih dram, ki jih poseduje naše slovenska drama. Vrši se v majhnem podeželskem mestu v hiši vpočenega davčnega poduradnika, starega in boleha- vega Slemenca.

Glavno (naravnost težko) vlogo igra domači sin Ciril, ki je največja žalost in pokora staršem in končno povzročitelj prehitre očetove smrti, katere — poleg drugih skrajno razbur- ljivih, nepuštih, nesrečnih ljubezenskih odnosov in doživ- ljav — tudi njega samega po- žene v obup in končno blažne- lost.

Zivo sliko nam nudi tudi vlo- ga mlade Helene, ki nam očrta- na v najizrazitejših potezih pred očuje potrpljenje in srčne muke mlade, zapeljane in ne- srečne nezakonske matere, ki je postala žrtev izkoristljivosti, ne- čistote, alepe ljubezni. Drama "Sin" nam živo slika neskončno ljubezen in čutečnost staršev do svojih otrok, in posebno brez- mejno materino ljubezen do propadlega, v hudobijo in tatvi- no zabledlega sina.

"Sin" je igra, katero priporo- čamo, da se je vdeležijo vsi naši starši, posebno pa priporočaj- mo in opozarjamo na to dramsko vprizoritev naše stare in mlade matere, ter ženski svet sploh.

Ker se na odru med drugim odigravajo tudi jako razburljive in krute scene, ruvanje in strel, zato priporočamo, da starši pri- držite mlajše navzoče otroke pri sebi in ne v neposredni bližini odra.

Želimo, da pridete vsi pravo- časno v dvorano; ker zastor se dvigne točno ob pol osmih.

Po igri sledi prosta zabava in ples.

Šubelj poje v Pueblu.

Pueblo, Colo. — Ker vemo, da slovenska javnost v Pueblu Co- lo., želi slišati lepo slovensko po- pevko, zato je pevsko društvo "Prešeren" za vas preskrbelo nekaj lepega, nekaj posebnega.

V Združenih državah se sedaj nahaja na pevski turi g. Anton Šubelj, operni pevec ljubljanske opere. Na povabilo društva "Prešeren" pride Tone Šubelj v Pueblu dne 16. dec. 1928, kjer bo priredil koncert za pueblsko javnost. Zato opozarjam vse ro- jake v Pueblu, Slovence in Hr- vate, da dan 16. dec. prihranijo za Šubeljev koncert. Nobenemu ne bo žal; kajti Šubelj poje slo- vensko pesem tako, kot se pe- sem sploh peti mora. Nisem še slišal njega peti, toda sodbo o njem sem pa že storil — skozi kritiko v časopisju. Ko izreče- jo besedo o njegovem petju ta- ki znani kritiki kot je naš pes- nik Ivan Zorman, ki je o Šublju zapisal marsikatero laskavo be- sedo, potem je pevec kot je Tone Šubelj vreden vsega priznanja.

Šubeljev koncert se bo torej vršil v Pueblu, Colo., dne 16. dec. 1928 zvečer, in sicer v Steelwork Y. M. C. A. avditoriju. Vsak Jugoslovane, v kje je ta dvorana, vsak lahko reče, da je najbolj v središču naše na- selbine, kajti ni daleč od East Besemerja, skoro pred durmi onih, ki žive na Minnequa heights. Mi iz Grova bomo pa že kako tja prišli. Torej, roja- ki v Pueblu, ne pozabite na Šubeljev koncert dne 16. dec. 1928 v Steelwork YMCA avdi- toriju ob 8. zvečer.

Pri tej priliki tudi vabim vse rojake in rojakinje iz bližnjih naselbin — Colorado Springs, Canon City, Trinidad, Walsen- burg — in od vsepovsod. Ne bo vam žal.

John Germ, član "Prešerna".

LETNA SEJA.

Lyons, Ill. — Letna seja društva 270 bo 9. dec. ob 10. dop. Važno: volitve odbora za l. 1929 in druge važ- ne zadeve. Vsi na sejo! J. Kalan, tajnik.

OPAZOVANJA

Perušek.
Ali znamo ceniti lastne zeni- je? Na to vprašanje bo odgo- vorila nova razstava Peruškovih slik, ki bo prihodnjo soboto in nedeljo v avditoriju S. N. P. J. v Chicagu. Kak bo odgovor?

Perušek, ki nam pokaže novo zbirko svojih slik, je artist, na katerega smo lahko ponosni; plodovit je, izrazit in globok. Perušek je naš edini delavski umetnik s čopičem v Ameriki. Njegova lepa dela, njegove slike so namenjene nam. Ali jih sprejemamo?

Perušek je samo artist. To je treba poudariti, Perušek je slikar in nič drugega. Ni butle- gar, agent za zemljišča ali kaj v javnih šolah, je bila njena druga, ki bi imel slikarski vest potolažena. Ako je zapo- sel za postransko zabavo ali sport. Perušek ni nič drugega kot umetnik, ki živi samo od čopiča, od svojih slik. Ali to razumemo?

Ako razumemo — je vse do- bro. Kdor hoče razumeti, lah- ko razume. In kdor razume, pojde v soboto ali v nedeljo na razstavo v dvorano S. N. P. J., kjer si ogleda najnovejše, lepe Peruškove slike, potem pa si drževe Tennessee je bila s tem eno izbere in ponese domov, da bo lahko mogel nekaj pokaza- ti, da lahko poreče prijateljem, kadar ga obiščejo: "Poglejte, to je pa delo našega umetnika Peruška!"

Perušek je skromna duša. Hvaležen ti bo, če posetiš raz- stavo in odideš pod vtisom za- dovoljnosti. Za ves svet ti ne bo rekel, zakaj nič ne kupiš. Za- pomni si pa tole: — ustvarjanje lepih novih slik zavisi od uspeš- nega razpečanja starih slik. U- metnik ti ne bo tega povedal. Sami moramo vedeti!

Prosim, ne smatrajte teh vr- stic za naročeno reklamo. Moj železen princip, kateremu se ni- kdar ne izneverim, je, da ni- kdar ne podpisem naročene bi- zniške reklame. V tem ne po- znam nobene izjeme. Prijatelj Perušek mi ni rekel, naj to na- pišem. Če bi rekel, ne bi napi- sal niti ene besedice. Ker pa "diehard"...

Torijaki kralji.

Ameriški listi skrbno poroča- jo že deset dni, da angleški kralj Jurij umira. Razume se, da morajo tudi kralji umreti, toda slučaj potrjuje, da so veličine v Angliji od vrha navzdol veliki sa niti ene besedice. Ker pa "diehard"...

K razstavi našega umetnika

V soboto 8. decembar popoldne se otvori v avditoriju Slove- ske narodne podporne jednote druga Peruškova razstava v Chica- gu. Ob tej priliki bo razstavil naš umetnik-slikar nad 40 novejših del, med katerimi bo par slik tudi iz prejšnje dobe. Iz seznama slik je razvideti, da je največ pokrajinskih, kar je vsekako raz- veseljivo dejstvo, ker vprav te zainteresirajo našega posetnika najbolj; naš človek ljubi pristo naravo in je vsled tega ta pojav lahko umlji. Pričujoča slika "Zimska pokrajina" izraža natu- ralizem morda bolj kot katero drugo Peruškovo delo. Dodelana je mojstersko; v njej se odraža skrb in ljubezen do dela.

G. H. Perušek: "Zimska pokrajina."

V razstavitvenem odboru so sledeči čikaški rojaki, ki so dal- z veseljem vsak nekaj časa na razpolago, da se razstava omogo- či in izvede čim uspešneje:

The Young S. N. P. J.

Editorial Notes

This is the month of annual or general meetings. Most of our subordinate lodges will be electing their officers for the ensuing year during this month, and a large majority of them will hold their annual or general meetings on the two coming Sundays, December 9 and 16, while some local already have elected their officers and many branches will plunge into this important official work on other dates.

It is and should be the duty of each and every member to attend the annual or general meeting of his or her lodge and to take an active part in the various discussions, lodge elections and other important business requiring the presence of all the members as the year draws to its termination. No member of our lodge can afford to be absent from these meetings of great importance to every one of us. Participate in full numbers and help elect officers members of high standard, morally and otherwise, members willing to do their work and willing to shoulder their task, members who are trustworthy with a high regard, members who are capable and worthy of the honor of being elected to that position of holding a lodge office.

Above all: Remember that the officers you elect may make or break your lodge. Therefore, bestow this honor on candidates who in the past showed ample interest in your lodge undertakings, who have done their bit in promoting its growth in numbers and reputation, who are dependable at all times in all matters pertaining to our organization's requirements. When you have your new officers elected you should do your share of the work in assisting them in their endeavors to carry the banners of your lodge to the front and help them win your lodge struggles cooperatively.

As the newly-elected officers will soon be installed—in January 1929—they should make such plans immediately as will result in better attendance at the meetings, so that the members may become interested and help them carry out whatever programs they may make for the success of their term. An interested membership can always be depended upon to help in full measure. Whether you have elected new officers or re-elected old ones, it is your lodge duty to cooperate with them sincerely and effectively.

In last week's Prosveta, President of Lodge 614, in an article entitled "Notice, Local Loud Speakers," is pleading with the senior members for more cooperation and more tolerance as well as for more honesty. What-ever prompted him to issue that statement, which is not as plain to us as it is to the inhabitants concerned, we can say of Johnny that he is a diligent and faithful worker in the true sense of the word. He has shown in the past that he is always on the job, and if only for that he should be given all the help from the ranks of the senior members they can give him. But there still remains another reason which should spur our senior members to genuine cooperation with the youthful members, namely, the fact that our American Slovene younger generation is willing to carry on the work of our organization, and for that reason they should be given every assistance and no hindrances. It was amply shown time and again that our younger generation is with the senior members and they should grasp this opportunity and help enroll them into our folds, where they should be given an equal break.

The story "Lenard Podgornik," written by Louis Adamie—reprinted, by permission of the author, from the November issue of The American Mercury, wherein it appeared under the title of "Case History"—concludes in this issue of the Prosveta with the last installment. It has been our sincere endeavor to publish it in one or at least in two issues but space did not permit as we were even forced, in one instance, to omit it from the regular installment. The story "Superman" now appearing in the December number of The American Mercury and also written by Louis Adamie, will not be reprinted in the Prosveta, in compliance with the author's wishes.

GOLDEN EAGLES.

Look this over.

Girard, Ohio. — Lodge No. 643, brothers and sisters, REMEMBER that our last meeting of this year is at hand and will be on December 10, 1929. Hoping all members know what is waiting for them at this meeting—absolutely everyone should come to this important meeting.

We are going to elect new officers. Brothers and sisters, by now we are all acquainted and know what the ability of each member is by the past seven months we should absolutely be able to get another good administration. Good officers mean more than half the lodge.

Brothers and sisters, we can be justly proud of our lodge the "Golden Eagles" for the short time we have been organized—it was one of the fastest growing organizations of this city—we had co-operation and that means more than everything else. Yes, we had co-operation from the greatest majority. Members, you know your obligation—I have said plenty—so here is wishing for a 100 per cent turn-out!

Helen Yaklevich, Sec'y.

NOTICE, YOUNG AMERICANS 564

Detroit.—Our next monthly meeting will be held December 9, 1929, at 9 a. m. instead of 10 a. m., due to the election of new officers for the following year. We urge all the members to attend this meeting and come early, it would be nice to see every member of the Young American lodge cast his ballot for the new coming officers. Do your duty and attend this meeting.

Also, Young Americans are giving a dance December 15, 1929, at 242 Victor Ave., Woodmen of the World Hall. Everybody is invited.

Fraternally,
Antoinette K. Gram, Sec'y.

INTEGRITY! THIS MEANS YOU!

Chicago.—Read carefully the contents of this article because it is of great importance to all of you. I feel it a brotherly duty as the Secretary of the Integrity Lodge No. 631 to inform you that our meeting falls on Thursday, December 13, 1929. The members will hold the meeting at 1617 North Clybourn Ave. at 8 p. m. The business, which will be plentiful, will consist of the election of officers for the year of 1929. Be there so that you will not be sorry if anything happens and you don't know anything about it. Remember also that I am giving you the notice a week ahead of time so that you may arrange your "dates" accordingly.

A year ago the Integrity Lodge No. 631 was organized. During the greater part of the year the lodge met with little success because there was an underlying misunderstanding between the officers. Toward the end of the year this misunderstanding was remedied. The result was clearly displayed at Integrity's First Annual dance. What do you say is the cause of this rapid change of circumstances? Be at the meeting to express your opinion in your vote for a bigger and better Integrity Lodge. Remember: Leadership and cooperation spells success.

Although every meeting of the year is important, I cannot impress upon you the importance of this one. It is the duty of every loyal Integrity member to be at this meeting. After hot debates cooling refreshments are soothing. In other words, refreshments will also be served.

Remember: December 13 — 1617 North Clybourn Ave. — 8 p. m.
Joseph Baumlich, Sec'y.

LODGE "LIBERTY" No. 642.

Sharon, Pa.—All members of Lodge "Liberty" are asked to be present at our next meeting Dec. 14, as business will be transacted and also election of officers for the coming year will be held. Our next meeting will be Dec. 14. Frank Paulovich, Sec'y, Lodge Liberty 642.

SUNFLOWER SEEDS

Arma, Kans.—"SUNFLOWERS AGAIN STEP INTO THE LIME-LIGHT"—such should be the headline for our energetic efforts toward entertainment this past week. It is true we usually need a strong stimulus to produce reaction on our parts, but need that lessen the glory of the reaction?

Our stimulus on this occasion came in the persons of our Supreme Sec. Blas Novak and his wife. This was sufficient to drive the Sunflowers into action, for we were more than anxious to display our hospitality. And display we did! Ask any Slovene who attended the Sunflower Banquet given Friday, November 30, in honor of Bro. Novak and his wife. Music was furnished throughout the evening by members of the Sunflower Orchestra.

Saturday night we also displayed our talents by staging a typical Sunflower Dance at Yale. We had almost convinced Sis. Novak that our dance could rival a ball at Guyon's Paradise in Chicago; perhaps not from the standpoint of a ballroom, but verily so when considering our model crowd.

We have set forth our best efforts and talents to make your visit with us, Bro. and Sis. Novak, a pleasant time not soon to be forgotten, and hope we have in some measure succeeded. We would suggest to you another visit to us in the summertime when Kansas is at her best.

It did not take Sis. Novak very long to discover that product of Kansas so well known to Chicagoans; namely, the Kansas orange. To dispel any cynical doubts which Chicagoans may offer as to its existence, Sis. Novak has returned home well armed with sufficient evidence. In addition, she has collected "persimmons" and "paw-paws" to put among her souvenirs.

The last Sunflower meeting of the year will be on December 14, at the usual time and place. Outstanding features of this meeting will make it well worth your time to attend. Officers for the coming year will be elected, Christmas presents will be exchanged among the adults, and our juveniles will be visited by Santa Claus. Any member failing to attend this important meeting and offering no acceptable excuse for doing so, surely does not realize his responsibilities as a member of our society, the SNPJ. Let's not have such be said of any one Sunflower. Publicity Committee—A. S.

"SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS"

St. Louis, Mo.—As a newcomer to this city, I take great pleasure in stating that I surely was surprised to find that the Slovenes here are advanced in many respects.

Upon my arrival here, I found that all those that I have met were pleasant in every way, then again on the 24th inst. I had the pleasure of being "one among those present" at their "Vinska trgatve" (Vintage), and I must say that, considering the length of time they had in preparing for such occasion, it went over big; and I can see improvements that will take place in the future.

Most of St. Louisans are employed in shops of every description. Tannery is the chief industry, I believe; thus many of our nationality are employed in leather goods shops. There are also other industries, too numerous to mention.

I do not advise any one coming here, unless he or she has been following along some outstanding vocation. I may also pay compliments to those who own their homes, for they are beautiful in every respect, and are located in fair residential districts.

I may also compliment many for their hospitality, while visiting them. I also heard of the success of the Lodge "Spirit of St. Louis" and must say that there is plenty room for growth, considering the number of Slovenes here in this great city.

I may say that the members should "get on their toes" and get busy and build a lodge with a large membership—a lodge true to its name—"Spirit of St. Louis."

I had not mentioned of what place I came from. Well, I came from Newark, N. J., and probably would have stayed there, but due to the fact that they never had any Slovene parties there, all due to the fact that there are only a few Slovene families residing there (not sufficient to hold a successful party), I picked St. Louis as my destination, and things appeared pretty lively right from the start. They say that I have not seen the "genuine" as yet.

Well, I will close, or rather "sign off," so to speak.

Fraternally yours,
Anton Turk.

PERSONALS

Portland, Oregon.—We are sorry to say that our beloved Sister Stefana Struznik is at the Portland Sanitarium in a critical condition after a serious operation. She is the Secretary of local No. 627, SNPJ.

Sis. Struznik is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Struznik who are very well known among both Slovenians and Americans in Portland. Stefana's many friends are deeply concerned over her illness and all wish that she returns soon to her parents and to them. The writer sends her best wishes.

A friend and fellow member.

BREEZYTALES

By Sasa, the Talkative Slovene.

Score another hit for Comrades and Company. Over the top again with the aid of the Strugglers, Loyalties and members of nearby lodges.

Fully 100 Comrades and Strugglers were present at the initial showing of the Opera by the singing society "Zarja." The biggest crowd that ever was in the Slovene hall was on hand to applaud the splendid performance. The younger folks were just as enthusiastic as the older folks. May we have more plays of this nature!

Should judge that about fifteen Comrades took active part in this wonderful performance; Vatro Grill, his sister and Doni Oblak starring. Congratulations on your work!

Dec. 5th, Struggler meeting. Dec. 12th, Loyalty meeting. Dec. 11th, Progressive meeting. Music and eats always provided after meetings. A good time in store for those that attend.

The big match, Dec. 8th, between Strugglers and Comrades at the Five Point Recreation alleys. The girls and boys will battle for their Alma Mater. We want as many rooters out that day as possible. The matches will start at 2:30 p. m. Alice Belinger and Henle Martin have announced that they have lined up a combination that will be hard to beat. How many loyal Comrades will be on hand to lend their aid?

Lindy has sold me a ticket for their affair December 15th, which falls on Thursday. He stated they have secured a real orchestra and promised me, if I attended, a raring good time. Let's go, Comrades!

Three days later, another big event. Comrades Behind the Footlights. I have received my tickets thru the mail; have you yours yet? A little more cooperation from the entertainment committee won't hurt. There are only a few more days left, so let's get going and make this affair on Dec. 16th a success!

Coming thick and fast. Two days later will be THE EVENT of the year. The Comrades' last meeting of the year. A fine according to the By-laws will be imposed upon those not attending. Will arrange to be there to witness my first complete Comrade meeting.

Am bringing chains to fasten them onto Cella so that we can keep her another year.

? for President
? for Vice President.

Ann and Mary have just got to accept the positions which they have, for I doubt if we could find anyone better.

Prusheck Exhibit in Chicago

Each race has her national heroes and her renowned men and women in arts, literature, science, medicine, philosophy and in other fields of human endeavor. The American Slovenes are extremely fortunate in claiming as their own one of the foremost natural artists of America—Mr. Gregory Prusheck. On December 8th and 9th, at the SNPJ Auditorium at Chicago, there will be held an exhibit of the latest paintings of our renowned artist—Mr. Gregory Prusheck. In this exhibit you shall not find the work of a flatterer painter, who made it his care to draw men as they ought to be and not as they are, but on the contrary, you shall find the work of a genius, of a lover of nature who has a masterly understanding of her innermost secrets, and who possesses human skill to express on canvas Nature as she is and as she should be understood by man.

Richard J. Zvertnik.

APPRECIATION

Morgan, Pa.—Thanks to our members who are all more than willing to help in the progress of their newly formed lodge! We now have a fairly good start. Nor can we forget the "Pioneers" who have been friendly and helpful.

An announcement in the "Prosveta" of our first regular meeting brought Bro. John Kutich of that lodge as guest and well wisher. Through him the members of the two lodges have become acquainted and started a friendship and union which we sincerely hope will last forever. Thank you, John, for your kind wishes for our success. I can say in behalf of the "Jolly Juniors" that we, too, enjoyed your company and that we agree with you that we should visit one another often.

We also appreciate the friendship shown by other members of your lodge by their visit.

Although circumstances prevented our being present at your meeting Dec. 2, we hope that we soon will be able to return your friendly visit. At least you can count on us for Christmas.

We would appreciate correspondence from other "Young Americans." As we are new in the field we dare not appear too forward by beginning it.

With best wishes to all "Young Americans"—Sincerely,
Thomas G. Genter, Pres.,
Ann Mikhevic, Sec'y.

Topics of the Week

What one has in black and white, one can carry home in comfort.

The proud Sunglars now have the undisputed possession of the distinction of being the sponsors of the outstanding event of the 1928 Chicago's fall social season—The Dance of the Lodges. Over six hundred gallant souls packed the artistically decorated Lyons Town hall, and danced with delight to the mystic chords of Abelling's Famous Synchopators, thereby adding another day of sunshine to their lives by reaping the harvest of real enjoyment. More than one hundred persons expressed their compliments to the Chairman of the Floor committee, and said "that the 'Dance of the Lodges' was the best dance that they have yet attended."

A delegation of Stalwarts, over fifteen strong, travelled all the way from Kenosha to attend the Sunglars First Annual dance. With them came a few Trail Blazers of the SSPZ from South Chicago. The Pioneers were well represented while the Integrities came one hundred percent strong to the Dance of Lodges. The Little Forts from Waukegan, The Victorians of the SSPZ, the Neighbors of Cicero, the George Washingtons from Lyons (the latter two Slovene-speaking lodges of the SNPJ) as well as several other lodges had representatives at this gorgeous event.

Twelve couples entered the Waltz contest. The first present of ten dollars was awarded to Mr. Arthur Bundrich and Miss May Peters who represented the Lyons Mustangs club; while the second of five dollars was awarded to Brother Joe Krao-vech and sister Margaret Compare, and the third of two dollars and a half was awarded to Brother J. Halac and sister Dorothea Compare, the latter two couples represented the Pioneer Lodge.

True fraternal friendship can afford true knowledge. It does not depend on darkness and ignorance. It cultivates and respects fact-finding bodies. It gives impetus to measure man's capacities, not by what he can do by any precedents, but by what he might do by trying some new scheme. So little has been tried by our Slovene National Benefit Society to cultivate a spirit of loyalty and true fraternal brotherhood and sisterhood among the American born Slovenes that one would expect to find a great clamor among the membership for any sound device, which purpose is to foster better fraternal understanding among her American-born members. The American speaking Lodge conference of the SNPJ as suggested by the Sunglars Lodge is still the most constructive device that has yet ever been recommended by any subordinate lodge, to spread propaganda among the American born Slovenes with a view of creating solidarity among them for the interests of the Slovene National Benefit Society.

We must remember that a fraternal movement is like the water in the river. It may rise this year higher than man has ever known it, and flood the parched uplands. An American-speaking Lodge conference of the SNPJ is an avenue for the honest expression of the souls of the American born Slovenes, and who can predict to what heights this movement would rise after being rejuvenated through such a conference?

Four more new members were enrolled in the Slovene section of the Yugoslav group of the Chicago World's fair legion. They are Paul Berger, Austin G. Blank, A. Lincoln Zvertnik, and Dr. John J. Zvertnik. We may also report that Joseph Steblay, Dr. Andrew Furian and Blas Novak are also members of this noble legion.

The standing in the enrollment committee is as follows: R. J. Zvertnik secured five members; M. J. Turk, four members; Jos. Steblay, two members; Paul Berger, one member; lodges, one member.

The next meeting of the Sunglars Lodge No. 682 SNPJ shall be held on Friday, December 14th at the Lyons Mustang's Bungalow, Lyons, Illinois. This meeting is very important as election of officers for the ensuing year is the important order of business.

"O friendship! of all things the most rare, and therefore most rare, because most excellent; whose comforts in misery are always sweet, whose counsels in prosperity are ever fortunate."

Friendship builds a bridge across the gulf of sorrow, enabling happiness to bloom in her full glory, bringing us a brighter clime, and a greater sphere to express the innermost desires of the human soul. Reap the harvest of true and real friendship by becoming an active and proud Sunglar!

This gradual growth has given our members an opportunity to understand and assimilate with each other, thus to practice the fraternal brotherly and sisterly spirit of bearing and loving your neighbor. We are smiling on the sea of life as our lodge is free from all personal hatreds and squabbles and we know that our lodge shall live to a grand old age and be always good and refined.

Richard J. Zvertnik.

FLASHES

By Incognito

One quarter of the bowling season in Chicago has been completed. As we go into the second quarter, we find Integrity still leading by a scant margin of one game. The Old Timers are closing up on Integrity and promise to overtake them unless Mary Abram's crew performs more steadily.

Pioneer All Stars, an entirely new combination, by winning nine in a row climbed to third place. We expect the Pioneer Bullets to regain last year's stride and forge to the top. The Pioneer Red Peppers and Whirlwinds also expect to give the other teams some strong competition.

The ladies' teams are going to start regular bowling today. They look forward to meeting the Cleveland ladies in the tournament at the close of the season. It will be a grand match, we assure you. Ladies wishing to bowl should communicate with Sisters Zele or Arko at the alleys.

The averages thus far this season are much improved over last year. Our boys are doing some real shooting and they won't be disturbed by any visitors, so any one wishing to watch, can stop at the Ace Arcade Alleys. The third floor is reserved for our league.

Gregory Prusheck, well known Slovene artist, will exhibit his newest paintings at SNPJ Auditorium on Saturday and Sunday, December 8th and 9th. The hours are from 1:00 to 9:30 P. M. Saturday, and from 10:00 A. M. to 9:30 P. M. Sunday. Admission is free, of course.

At the last gathering of the representatives of the Federated SNPJ lodges of Chicago, the committee on arrangements disclosed their plans for a big celebration of the 26th anniversary of our Society to be held during the time of the convention. Plans have also been made for a banquet in honor of the delegates.

Two and a half weeks hence will give our juveniles an opportunity to assemble for their annual Christmas party. The committee is working hard to make this party as good as last years, if not better. All juvenile members of the SNPJ in Chicago will be invited.

It is December, hence election time. It is indeed important that lively, good and honest officers are selected at the various lodges. If the old ones have proven their worth, re-elect them. If not, choose new ones. If your lodge has grown and prospered, it is a sign that you have good officers. The contrary is also true.

Victor Bostic has been operated on for appendicitis. He is a patient at St. Anthony's Hospital. Victor is quite a recent addition to the Pioneer family, and our members are asked to visit him. We wish him speedy recovery.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Waukegan, Illinois.—Another meeting has come and gone. There were even less members present than at the meeting held in October. What has come over the members? Can't even the thoughts of food and some wonderful music to dance make you come to the meeting? Well, those present at our last meeting enjoyed the delightful refreshments prepared by Sister Louise Zeleznik assisted by Sisters Kirn and Pezdik.

Another thing. We have been holding a Drive for more members! But has it been a success? No. It seems as though nobody has ever heard of such a thing. The meeting to be held December 20th will be your last chance to get new members initiated into our Lodge. Are you doing your part in this Drive? If not, the Little Fort Lodge will not have 100 members by February and so will not be able to send a delegate to the convention.

Why can't all the members get into the same spirit as some of the old standbys in the Little Fort Lodge? Little Fort is way behind in membership, social events and in every other way. Instead of progressing, we are degenerating.

The meeting to be held December 20th will be the final one held this year. Officers are to be elected for the year 1929. It sure will be a pleasing sight to see the members all there. If any member is not present at this meeting, he or she will be suspended for one month. So let's all be there and do our part in selecting the officers for the next year.

We hope that at this last meeting the members will make a resolution to be present at all the meetings and do what each one can individually to put Little Fort back on the map.

Here's to the success of our last meeting.

Kenosha, Wis.—In last week's issue, through an error, it was reported that the Stalwart meeting would be held December 7, but in reality it takes place on Friday, Dec. 14, at her 14, at Robel's hall at 8 p. m. Robel's hall at 8 p. m.—Pub. Com.

Who is Who and What Amongst Us Strugglers

"By None of Your Business."

Wm. Benedict is always saying something wise to the girls, as— "Say, can you cook?"

Milly Perusek went to church taking, with her a dictionary, and that wasn't all. When they stopped singing in the choir, she started to clap.

Mary Vric, "Ain't she sweet," attended a show and instead of sitting by her escort, knelt down. Lily should have seen that.

Helen Cetina, just call her "Sugar," is our little baby.

"Snaps" Nayokus—I wonder where he got the mask custom and all those valuable instruments, especially the F.D.Q.?

Sis. Podpadek wonders if any one is going to satisfy her; she wants a doll for Christmas. Lindy, come to the rescue, or better yet: Where are you, Donald J.?

"Louise Tolar"—who is she? Now, it won't be long; I hope she's a real girl, Lou.

"Lindy" Lokar. Are you watching any more midnight tea parties? What is this all about?

"Kanary" Koss, who is the new one we've seen you giving her a haircut last week? Ain't she cute?

"Peanuts" Joe Tolar—we don't see much of him lately. I wonder if it is real—or just imagination?

"Leo" Bundy, doesn't he look sweet with all the — around him?

Joe Mandel, "Sundae," Lindy's right hand man, is a nice boy.

Mollie Vric prefers the Scotch next to the Strugglers. That's the girl, Mollie, save your money. If you can't, the Scotch will.

"Ramona" Perusek—she—going to the Dairyman's college, learning the milk trade, although deliveries are not as good as usual.

"Cabbage" Lokar, the star bowler; ain't she the berries when it comes to singing. Some day Caruso's rival.

"Gorilla" Marolt—Two days and three nights missing—where and in what condition?

Joe Dolsak, "The Machinist's bride-to-be." Lots of luck, Jo! Bill is a grand old man. Hold him.

Joe Ogrin—she always says "Oh, can I have that first dance?" And she gets it, too.

Steffy Tomaric—I guess she is supposed to be Lindy's better half. I feel sorry for Lindy, but it might be all right.

This is just a short few lines of "What's What," although I know very little, but I hear a lot, so watch your step.

Don't forget the following main events:

1. Attend our games this winter.
2. Bowling match games Sun., Dec. 9, at Five Points Recreation parlors, E. 149 and St. Clair.
3. Be at our First Midweek dance Thursday, Dec. 13. I hope the Comrades return us a favor.
4. I wonder if our entertainment committee will give us a party New Year's Eve. Ah, come on!

I remain yours till "Ramona's" wedding day and till you all find out who I am. "The Gold Dust Twins."

LINCOLNITE LIGHTS

By Lincolnite Boosters.

Springfield, Ill.—Have you thought about the election of the new officers for the coming year? It is to be held at the next meeting on Dec. 7. All members are urged to be present.

Let's start the new year out right—by getting new members. Bring them up for nomination next month, so that they can be initiated at the first meeting of the year.

Our Anniversary is another thing to be discussed at our next meeting. Come prepared to do your part. Let's try to make this the biggest affair we've ever had. The success of the plans for this dance depends upon co-operation of all the members.

We are organizing a basketball and bowling team. We hope to have a bowling match with the "Spirit of St. Louis" team some time soon. We would like to see more members attend the practices and boost the boys. Information concerning the exact time and place can be obtained from Frank Patia at 1857 So. Renfro st.

Here's hoping that we see all the members at the next meeting. Come, prepared to sell your ideas and we'll be prepared to buy them.

Lenard Podgornik

Louis Adamie.
(Reprinted, by permission of the author, from the November issue of the American Mercury, wherein it appeared under the title of "Case History.")
The "fish business" had in it an element of risk; but then, Lenard understood that Nick Velikanovich had considerable drag, which he used if one of his people got into difficulties. It was interesting work, like reading a good, honest book; indeed, far more revealing of things-as-they-were than the works of America's foremost muckrakers. Almost weekly he came upon some eye-opener. In a bawdy-house which was among his best customers, for example, he once saw the ladies not otherwise engaged sitting in the reception-room folding the campaign literature of the candidate for reelection as district attorney.
It was, moreover, the most remunerative occupation Podgornik had ever engaged in. But then, just as Agnes's hope that they might yet own a corner lot on Pacific avenue was reviving, he strayed again into trouble.
In the Spring of 1923 the I.W.W. longshoremen of San Pedro organized a strike and, tying up the port, gave the shipping interests on the Coast a good scare. Scarcely a vessel moved for two weeks and the go-getters were getting panicky. The situation was a tense one. Policemen, uniformed and in plain clothes, almost outnumbered the strikers.
Lenard was not a radical in the conventional sense of the word. He shared the wobbles' antipathy to work, but was attracted to the chief because his friend Jim Culley was one of their leaders. The idea that then intruded itself most insistently on his mind was that life was a futile, elaborate muddle, but vastly interesting as a spectacle—indeed, beyond improvement. In the three years since his "rebirth" he had achieved a jovial sort of cynicism, and had no great difficulty keeping himself from taking sides or getting violently indignant over things.
Sometimes he sat on some wharf in the Outer Harbor or on the breakwater watching hell-divers and pelicans dive for fish, and somehow he could not help thinking of the I.W.W. The bird shot down and in a moment came up with a helpless fish wedged in its beak. That was life: bird eat fish, somebody else ate bird, and so on. Among the animals, members of one species did not, as a rule, feast upon their fellows because the law of the survival of the fittest tended to equality, which in turn led to mutual respect. In human society, however, the weak were preserved and propagated; there were classes among humans that had nothing in common with the classes on the opposite extreme; the go-getting capitalist and the poor working stiff belonged to two different species as widely separated as the hell-diver and the fish. Lenard thought there was nothing that could be done about it: the fish, it appeared, were unable to develop any understanding of what the hell-divers and pelicans were doing, or any means to stop them. The I.W.W. movement was merely analogous to the hatchet was buried. It is the burial of the hatchet and the ceremony that goes with it that continues the tradition. We celebrated this event the other day and I'll tell you just what we did.
Both departments dressed up in pajamas and answered for roll call. We then marched to the homes of "Prexy" and the other professors. On our journey many garbage cans were mysteriously upset, a lonely Ford was found, and a farmer's wagon. We used both of these vehicles without the permission of the owners, and as many as fifty of the fellows clambered about the Ford and the farmer's buggy. When through using these we parked both on the campus in front of the chapel. Our next march was to the armory, where we obtained our cats, and heard speeches given by the professors. From there we went to the picture show. I you've ever been in a show with a crowd of college students, you probably know just what happened. Well, it was one o'clock in the night that we marched out. I'll not tell you what else happened, but every one wanted to know next morning as to who put the horse in the chapel, the cow in the pharmacy building, and the dog, cat, pig and chickens in the main lecture room.
The next morning the hatchet was buried, and a football game was had. I'm not good at running, but I almost caught the greasy pig in the race. A long distance tobacco spitting contest was also held, I participated, but didn't get very close, the winner won by a splatter of twenty four feet.
Of course, many more deeds were performed, but lack of space will not permit me to tell of all of them. I certainly enjoyed the occasion and hoped that some of my lodge members were here.

Editor's note:—You're right; they should.

If you think women better qualified than men to pick the best candidates, look what they marry.
Once more, Colonel Lindbergh, although flying alone, has carried a whole nation with him.
Eliminating the middlemen does not always make both ends meet.

She made no effort to get him out of jail; indeed, she later admitted to him that she had hoped they would keep him in as long as possible: he was worthless, anyhow.
Instead, she went to Nick Velikanovich and arranged with him to take over her husband's work. And—to make a long story short—by the time that Lenard emerged from the lock-up, Agnes was doing five times the business that he had done.
Free again, the first thing that he did was to comply with Jim Culley's request to go to the vacant shack in the eucalyptus grove, find his dog and take care of it until Jim came out of San Quentin. He found the animal the second day and took it home. But he soon discovered that the mutt had the unfortunate and unmentionable complex already referred to, and re-named it accordingly.
It was soon after this that I made Lenard Podgornik's acquaintance. We became friendly, as I have said; he told me of Agnes's flourishing business and confessed to assisting her on her busy days; and he seldom visited me without bringing a sample of his best goods. I enjoyed his quaint ways and his talk. Later, one day he took me to the house and I met Agnes, a strapping, capable woman who spoke fairly good American. I came into her confidence and it was amusing to hear her tell me what a wonderful man Lenard had been before and during the war, and propound her bump-on-the-head theory of his present queerness.
As a booticienne Agnes was a vast success. In a year she was in position to buy a large apartment-house in Los Angeles. So she moved with her family, except Lenard, to the city, and thereafter conducted her operations from there, and with even greater profit.
Lenard remained in San Pedro. He had no particular love for Los Angeles. Besides, there was Complex, who had to be taken to the eucalyptus grove three times a day, which would have been impossible had they taken him to the city. Having promised Jim to take care of him during his sojourn in San Quentin, Lenard was unwilling to turn him over to anyone else. And then, too, he felt that Agnes was just as happy, if not happier, without him. He would have to have been blind not to see that she and Nick Velikanovich had become great friends.
He lived in the old house on the bluff, took walks on the breakwater to feed the gulls, bootlegged just enough to make his living expenses and buy an armful of books whenever he went to Los Angeles, played billiards in his favorite downtown hang-out, saw that Complex was happy, and came to see me.
One day Complex was run over by an automobile, which saddened Lenard considerably.
Soon afterward Jim Culley returned from San Quentin, and I met him. He was not quite the gay young Irishman Lenard had described to me. He seemed a bit abrupt, distrustful, bitter, impatient; only now and then did his jovial Irish nature come to the surface for a while with the aid of a few drinks.
He told me he had enough of America and was planning to go to Mexico as soon as he had made a stake. He had lived there throughout the war, dodging the draft, he told me; he had learned the language and found the Mexican manner of living, especially in the small, out-of-the-way places, most charming. People there were still human. They lived simply, spontaneously, believed in sin and song. Mexican women knew how to love, and the men were not all wrapped up in business and work.
Then, for some time, I saw very little of either Lenard or Jim. As I learned later from Nick Velikanovich, they were going hot after the shekels, making a stake. One afternoon they came to say goodbye.
"Yes, I'm going with Jim to Mexico," said Podgornik. "Jim tells me it's a real place where a man can live. A man with a soul. I believe him. We'll be partners. If I like it, maybe I'll never come back. Don't say anything to Agnes, though, if you see her. I told her I'm going to Mexico, but she doesn't know I may not return. I don't want to make her too happy all at once. She and the kids will be better off without me. They're Americans. Agnes is, too. She has the American idea. Some day she'll be a rich woman. I—I don't know what I am. I'm nothing, I guess; not even a Bohunk any more. Jim used to say that I have a soul. I don't know... Well, adios! You see," he laughed, "I habia Espanol already. Adios, amigos!" Evidently, he had had a few drinks.
That was the last time I saw Lenard Podgornik. A while later I received a short note from a place in the state of Sonora. "Boy, I'm living!" he wrote. "Everybody here hates work. People here are wise without knowing it. I'm getting younger. Don't say anything to Agnes if you see her. Jim sends regards."
One day not long ago I ran into Agnes on the boulevard in Hollywood. She did not appear particularly happy at meeting me, but I was interested and asked her to lunch. I learned that she had given up bootlegging for more respectable pursuits. She had been caught, but managed to get out of it; and then, as it came to me from another source, she had quarreled with Nick Velikanovich... But she was reluctant to talk of her past. The children were just fine, thank you. The oldest girl was in a school-for-girls in Pasadena. The oldest boy was taking up law. And so on.

"I guess you know that my husband is dead," she said with amazing casualness. "Yes, I got a report from Sonora, Mexico. Official report. A snake bit 'im." We finished our lunch. "Say, what do you think of 'theosophy'? I think it's wonderful, don't you? You heard of Krishnamurti, didn't you?"
I had; but I was more interested in the date of Lenard Podgornik's decease as reported by the Mexican authorities. She told it to me. Later I examined the letter I had received from Sonora. It was undated, but the postmark, although slightly blurred, shows that it was mailed five days after Podgornik's "official" death.
Mexican officials are most obliging. I'd not be surprised to hear from Lenard again.
The End.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES
Collinwood, Ohio.—The duty of a president is to be strictly neutral on all matters in the lodge. He should see that members get the right protection as long as they are in the lodge, no matter what they have done. He should first investigate when any member or officer neglects his duty and how he neglected it. Did such an officer neglect his work intentionally or by ignorance, not knowing his work. There is excuse for not understanding his duty, as there is none for any member neglecting or taking anything belonging to a lodge or organization. No one can be a judge until he hears both parties affected. When the judges hear both sides, they will give their decision, without looking right or left, and any right thinking member should take what is given by judicial committee.

NASI ODRI.
"Vodvilka" predstava.
Girard, Ohio.—Kakor sem že poročal, bodo dne 8. decembra zvečer priredili A. Eppich, F. Plut in L. Belle koncert zvezan z vodvilko predstavo. — Ni dolgo tega, ko smo čitali v slovenskih listih, da so imenovani priredili tak koncert tudi v Barbortonu, O., v popolno zadovoljstvo. Iz ocene tega koncerta je razvidno, da so se morale skoraj vse točke programa ponavljati, kar je dokaz, da so kos svoji nalogi.
Program je sledeči:
1) Ponočni posrvar (L. Bajde).....poje L. Belle
2) Zviti Jaka, cestni pometal, kabaretna točka s petjem, proslavljata A. Eppich in Fr. Plut
3) Spomin (I. Zorman).....poje L. Belle
4) Dreams of Long Ago (E. Caruso).....poje L. Belle
5) Pred slovesom (I. Zorman).....poje Fr. Plut
6) Domovini (J. Ipavec).....pojeta L. Belle in Fr. Plut
7) Moj spominke (narodna).....pojeta L. Belle in Fr. Plut
8) Gustel, kje so tvoji kodri (kabaretna točka s petjem, proslavljata A. Eppich in Fr. Plut
9) Planino (E. Adamie).....poje L. Belle
10) Serenada (Toselli).....poje L. Belle
11) Pastirček (Fr. Gerbič).....pojeta L. Belle in Fr. Plut
12) Celiti Linda.....poje Fr. Plut
13) Tiha noč (hrvatska narodna).....poje Fr. Plut
14) Pastirček s plačalko.....proslavja A. Eppich
Program je obkrojen in krasen, vsled česar upam, da bo naša dvorana za to prireditev premajhna, ker sem prepričan, da ni rojaka, ki bi ne želel slišati lepih slovenskih pesmi od pevcev, ki so polnjeni kot najboljši na clevelandskih odrih. Za smeh in dobro zabavo bosta skrbela naša clevelandska komika A. Eppich in Fr. Plut.
Opozorite na ta koncert in vodvilko predstavo tudi znanec in rojake iz Warrenja, Nilesa, Girarda in Youngtowna, O., Farrell-Sharona, Bessemerja, Pa. in drugih bližnjih naselij.
Ker bo ta koncert prirejen tudi v dobrobiti Slovenskega doma v Girardu, O., upam, da bodo vstopnice še pred koncertom razprodane, katere stanejo v predpodaži 60c, pri blaginji 75c in za mladino do 16. leta pa 25c.
Program začne točno ob 7:30 zvečer.
Programu sledi plesna in druga zabava. — John Dolčić.
