

DRAMATIC CLUB TO PERFORM THREE ACT COMEDY AT SND

On Sunday, April 4th, at 4 p. m., SANS, Cleveland Chapter No. 39 invites you to a performance by the Ivan Cankar Dramatic Society of "Zadrega nad zadrego," the delightful comedy which was originally presented in January. Because this play was such a rollicking success, SANS invited the Cankar players to present it again, as it literally sparkles with wit and good fun—and many requests for its repetition have been heard throughout the community.

The original Cankar players have generously consented to repeat their very successful initial performances: Frank Kokal, Josephine Milavec-Levstik, Stanko Marin, Frank Plut, Frances Ilc, Joyce Gorshe-Plemel, Andrew Turkman, Emma Plemel, Olga Marn, and Jack Plemel.

"Zadrega nad zadrego" might well be called a 'Comedy of Errors,' for it is filled with situations arising from mistaken identities, and its lines give marvelous opportunity for clowning and comic by-lay, which is abundant and very effectively handled under the experienced direction of Josip Skuk.

You will note that as in every really enjoyable play, these players give the impression of having themselves a wonderful time during their performances, particularly in the roles of the two very mischievous gentlemen who are at the root of all the difficulty, Kokal as the sly father, and Plut as his side-kick.

SANS cordially invites you to share in a most enjoyable afternoon and evening. Admission is 75 cents, and proceeds go to the SANS treasury for many worthy activities.

Many patriotic, civic, fraternal, and veterans' organizations will join with the Army in marking the anniversary. Among them are six groups which recently joined forces in a Nation-wide program to mobilize civilian support in every community behind the Voluntary Enlistment Program of the U. S. Army and of the U. S. Air Force.

They are: The American Legion and Auxiliary, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Kiwanis International, Lions International, and U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

All Army posts, camps, and installations will hold "open house" on Army Day. There also will be parades, demonstrations, and exhibits throughout the country.

In the tug-team match which is routed for 2-out of three falls with an hour and a half time limit the two most hated ruffians, Lee Henning and Dick Raines, will clash with the scientific team of Billy Watson and Kay Bell.

In the semi-final 30 minute bout Doc Ed. Meske will meet Tommy O'Toole. These two outstanding exponents of the scientific wrestling should put on a pleasing and exciting duel.

VETS COME FROM BEHIND TO WIN TITLE IN EUCLID

After romping to an easy 50-35 victory over Smith's Restaurant Tuesday in the opening game of the Euclid City Title series, the Euclid Vets had to come from behind Wednesday night to register a 45-40 verdict over the Restauranters at Euclid Central.

The Vets raced to 13-4 first quarter lead in the second game of the series but were outfought by the challengers and trailed 25-21 at half-time.

In the third quarter the Vets managed to tie up the game but fell behind at the end of the period.

Harry Yanchar's two quick baskets seemed to spark the Vets as they slowly pulled ahead of the scrappy Smith's quintet. With three minutes to go and a 39-36 lead the newly crowned champs played slow and deliberate basketball and withstood a determined rally by the Smith team.

In a preliminary game, the Shore Theatre Girls overwhelmed the 48ers, 33-18 to capture the championship in the Girl's league. Both teams had won one game apiece in the two out of three playoff.

Notes From Adria

"Who'll be the Kiss Queen this year?" is the query that is going 'round Euclid way. It all follows Adria Choral Club's announcement of their annual Kiss Queen Contest billed for in the Reher Avenue Hall.

Vadnal's peppy, popular dance April 24th at the Spring Dance orchestra has been booked for the affair and Baton Waver Vadnal promises an array of tuneful melodies that will please all followers of the light fantastic.

The contest, an annual affair, results in the crowning of a Kiss Queen selected by guests at the dance. Last year's winner was Jo Prelc. The committee reminds all fun lovers to reserve the date. As for the contest there are no entry-blanks, no poems, no guessing—so, don't "Hush," but rush for your ticket. The usual Adria congeniality and good time will prevail at this dance, the committee reports.
