VESTI IZ CLEVELANDA

Mrs. Somrak utonila?
Minulo nedeljo popoldne dne 18. avgusta se je podala Mrs. Viktorija Somrak, 42 let stara, stanujoča na 996 E. 74th St., v Gordon park, kjer je najela čoln da se pelje na jezero. Z njo je bil tudi Stanley Kovalček, 960 E. 94th St. Uro potem, ko je Mr. Somrak najela čoln, so dobili slednjega prevrnjenega na jezero četrtil milje od brega. — Trupla ni bilo nikjer. Mr. Fr. Somrak, soprog Mrs. Somrakove, je identifičiral belo denarnico, katero so našli v čolnu, kot last svoje žene. Policija ni mogla dobiti nikogar, ki bi znal povedati kako se je pripetila nesreča in tudi drugih podrobnosti ni mogče dobiti.

Tridesetletnica poroke

Dne 16. avgusta sta znani trgovci in glavni tajnik SDZ Mr. John Gornik in njegova soproga obhajala 30 letnico zakonskega življenja. V ta namen so se Gornikovi in njih prijatelji udeležili pete sv. maše, darovane v cerkvi sv. Vida, pri kateri so stregli štirje bratje, oziroma sinovi naših jubilarov.

Naše iskrene čestitke z željo, da bi Mr. in Mrs. Gornik dočkala še zlate poroke zdrava, zadovoljna in srečna v krogu svoje družine.

Obisk

Minul teden je obiskala naše uredništvo Miss Ana Vranesich, ki je nameščena v gl. uradu K. S. K. Jednote. V Clevelandu bo ostala na obisku dva tedna in sicer pri Mrs. Joe Kozan, 23721 St. Clair Ave. — Zadnji petek nas je posetil sobrat John Krašovec, član društva sv. Alojzija, št. 42 v Steulton, Pa. Spremljal ga je njegov starejši sin John. Navedena sta se od tod podala v Lorain, Ohio, na obisk svojih znancev. Hvala vsem za obisk.

Popravek: V zadnji izdaji smo poročali, da nas je obiskal sobrat Mihael Smole iz Bradley, Ill., v spremstvu svoje žene, kar ne odgovarja resnici; z njim je bila Smoletova sestra, kajti Mrs. Smole se nahaja v bolnišnici v Rochester, Minn.

Himen

V soboto, dne 31. avgusta se bo v slovenski cerkvi v Collinwoodu poročila gđ. Marica Kurnik, starejša hčerka Mrs. Marije Kurnik na 710 E. 155th St., z inženirjem Josipom Ferdin. Oba novoporočenca spadata k društvu sv. Jožefa, št. 169, KSKJ., katerima naj veljajo naše iskrene čestitke.

Prvi nastop naših kadetov

Minulo nedeljo popoldne se je na vrtu Slov. Doma na Recher Ave., ob najlepšem vremenu vršil piknik društva sv. Jožefa št. 169, katerega se je udeležilo okrog 800 oseb. Pri tej priliki je prvič javno nastopila skupina KSKJ kadetov, okrog 90 uniformiranih fantov in deklet s prostimi vajami in telovadbo na bradlji, za kar so želi od strani gledalcev buren aplavz. Skupino je vodil društveni tajnik br. John Pedvilt. Kot častni gost te prireditve je bil tudi domači župnik, Msgr. V. Hribar, ki je navzoče v kratkih in jedrnatih besedah pozdravil. Vsa čast in priznanje društvu sv. Jožefa št. 169, ker ima tako brbke kadete in kadetinja v svoji sredini!

Za preprečenje masne deportacije

Organizacija Foreign Language Information Service v New Yorku, ki stoji pod vodstvom ravnatelja Read Lewisa, se trudi, da doseže v kongresu sprejem zakona, kateri bi bolj pravično in človekoljubno ravnal s različnimi inozemci, kateri bi morali biti po sedanjih zakonih deportirani; s tem pa bi bile pahnjene njih družine v bedo in revščino in v mnogih slučajih bi utegnili to imeti tragične posledice. Omenjena organizacija sicer uživa velik vpliv med kongresniki, vendar, da doseže cilj, za katerega se bori v dobroti inozemcem, potrebuje podporo od občinstva. Obrnila se je zato na razne liste, naj navajajo svoje čitatelje, da tudi oni od svoje strani pritisknejo na kongresnike.

Da ugodimo tej človekoljubni želji FLIS, priporočamo naš list svojim čitateljem, naj pišejo svojim kongresnikom in senatorjem v Washington in naj apelirajo nanje, da glasujejo za sprejem omenjenega zakonskega predloga, in sicer še tekom tega zasedanja kongresa. Predlog nosi naslov "Kerr bill" in je znan v senatu pod številko S. 2969, v poslanski zbornici pa pod H. R. 8163. Čitatelj naj piše senatorjem svoje države in kongresniku svojega distrikta. FLIS priporoča, da bi tudi organizacije in društva kot taka poslala svoj apel. Pisati je treba seveda v angleščini.

Kakor piše Mr. Lewis, je na tem, da bo deportiranih okrog 2600 moških in žensk, in ako se to zgodi, bodo morali tukaj zapustiti do 7000 žena in v Ameriki rojenih otrok. Vsi pa so dobrega moralnega značaja, ki bi postali koristni državljani. Vladni delavski departament uvidi sam, kaka krivica bi se zgodila, ako bi se ta deportacija izvršila, in zato jo odlašajo 2 leti, pričakujejo, da bo kongres potrebno ukrenil v njih rešitev. Ako pa se tekom tega zasedanja ne bo nič ukrenilo, bo bržkone primoran, da deportacijo izvrši.

Omenjeni predlog ima poleg tega, da pridržati v Ameriki teh 2600 nesrečnikov, tudi določila, da se nasprotno stroške postopa proti tujezemskim zločincem, ki spravljajo s svojimi čini na slab glas vse priseljence, toda vlada ne more energično nastopiti proti njim, kakor bi bilo priporočljivo, ker so pač toliko srečni, da so legalno prišli sem. Izvrši naj se izgon nad takimi, toda miroljubne in poštene osebe naj se obdrže; to se v tem zakonskem predlogu zahteva. Istočasno se določa v njem tudi, da se tistim, ki so prišli nepostavnim potom v Ameriko in sicer pred 1. julijem 1924 in niso med tem zakrivila nobene grozne zločine, nudi prilika, da legalizirajo svoj prihod in postanejo državljani. Ti ljudje, kakor znano, ne morejo po obstoječih zakonih biti deportirani, a tudi državljani ne morejo postati. Da se doseže sprejem tega zakonskega predloga, je v veliki meri odvisno od ljudstva, kako bo pritisknilo na svoje zastopnike v Washingtonu. Priporočamo, da se vsi čitatelji tega lista odločijo, da bodo glasovali v Washingtonu.

Tragična smrt rojaka

Sheboygan, Wis. — V soboto 3. avgusta zgodaj zjutraj je tragično preminul rojak Louis Grabner, star 43 let, ki je živel več let v Sheboyganu, a se je z ženo Rosie preselil na neko farmo blizu Haven, Wis., nedaleč od Sheboygana. Grabner, ki je bil že dalj časa bolehen in vsled brezposelnosti duševno potrjen, je glasom izpovedi njegove žene 2. avgusta okrog 11. ure zvečer nenadoma vstal iz postelje ter izjavil, da "gre". Žena, ki se ji je mževo potrdilo obnašanje že dalj časa zdelo sumljivo in se je bala, da si kaj stori, ga je prigovarjala, naj ne hodi nikamor in končno, ko je videla, da je vse prigovarjanje zaman, izjavila, da gre z njim. Odpeljala sta se z avtom proti Sheboyganu in med potjo je Grabner svoji ženi razodel, da bo izvršil samomor. Žena ga je v obupu prosila, da naj ne stori tega in ko sta prišla do nekega 90 čevljev globokega, zapuščene kamnoloma ob robu mesta, je Grabner skočil iz avtomobila ter stekel proti kamnolomu. Žena je vsa čudupana stekla za njim in ga skušala zadržati. V vrvežu je nesrečnejša, njo potegnila za seboj in tako sta oba padla v motno vodo kamnoloma. Žena se je z vsemi mukami in poslednjimi močmi ujela za neko skalo ter z največjo težavo splezala zopet iz vode, dočim je Grabner izginil pod površino. Njegovo truplo so iskali tri dni in razstrelili v globokini vode več funtov dinamita, ga bi vodo splavila truplo na površje, a zaman. Šele 6. avgusta zjutraj sta slučajno dva delavca, ki sta se sprehajala v bližini, opazila truplo na površini vode in obvestila oblasti, da so mrtveca potegnili na suho in ga spravili v mrtvašnico.

Letni stroški mestne uprave v New Yorku

Mesto New York, ki šteje približno 7 milijonov prebivalcev, bo izdalo tekoče leto za svoje vodstvo in upravo 667 milijonov dolarjev, kar znaša $1,200 na minuto. Ako bi hotelo to svoto ljudstvo odplačati s svojim zaslužkom, bi vzel armada 550,000 ljudi, da bi sleherna oseba zaslužila $1,200 na leto.

Avstrija, nekdanj in danes

Nekdanj tako mogočno in veliko Avstrijo je minula svetovna vojna zelo ponižala in zmanjšala. Skupna površina njenega ozemlja znaša sedaj samo 32,352 štirjaških milj, število prebivalstva pa 6,762,000; v tem številu je pa že zapopadeno število prebivalstva Dunaja, ki znaša 1,860,000.

Po velikosti ozemlja je Avstrija trikrat manjša nego Jugoslavija, po številu prebivalstva pa za polovico manjša od Jugoslavije.

Ženski spol je dandanes v Avstriji v premoči, kajti oni je žensk za pet odstotkov več kot moških.

Ijivo je torej, da tudi naši čitatelji dvignejo svoj glas v tem oziru.

Za Evharistični kongres v Clevelandu

Publikacijski odbor za sedmi Narodni Evharistični Kongres objavlja, da je bilo končno veljavno določeno, da bo papež Pij XI. potom radija podelil svoj blagoslov množicam, zbranim ob sklepu Evharističnega kongresa v mestnem stadionu.

Čeprav je ta Narodni Evharistični Kongres bistveno zadeva Združenih držav Ameriških, vendar pričakujejo, da bo prišlo veliko ljudi tudi iz sosednjih držav, iz Kanade in deloma iz Mehike. Da bi imel kongres tem večji mednarodni značaj, je v načrtu, da naj se udeležijo posamezni narodi v svojih narodnih nošah, posebno oni, ki prihajajo iz Evrope. Svoje udeležbo so že naznačili Slovaki, Poljaki, Hrvatje, Slovenci, Madžari, Litvinci, Iranci, Nemci in Čehi.

Skupno z uniformiranimi redovi, verskimi in laičnimi, ženskimi in moškimi, Malteškimi vitezi, vitezi sv. Janeza, vitezi sv. Gregorja in Kolumbovimi vitezi, je že sedaj organizirana procesija, ki sestoji iz 105 skupin. Vse ta ogromni sprejedi bo korakal iz mestnega auditorija do stadiona, kjer bo kot zaključek tridnevnega kongresa slovesen blagoslov.

Tako poroča publikacijski odbor. Pozivamo torej in vabimo vse rojake, ki že imajo ali ki si nameravajo nabaviti narodno nošo, da priglase svojo udeležbo v tem sprejedu na kongresu. Organizacijo slovenske skupine v sprejedu ima Rev. Julij Slapšak. Upamo, da se bo ob naši posebej slovenski slavnosti pred kongresom, odkritju Baragovega spomenika, udeležilo mnogo naših rojakov v narodnih nošah.

Kot zavedni katoličani se bodo gotovo prav vsi ti udeležili tudi kongresnega sprejeda. Torej, Slovenci, kdor le more, naj si nabavi slovensko narodno nošo, da se tem bolj pokažemo tudi drugim narodom, tako ob Baragovi slavnosti, kakor še bolj ob Narodnem Evharističnem kongresu. Za kongresni publikacijski odbor — Rev. M. Jager.

Novi škof

Dne 6. avgusta je papež imenoval škofom Omaha škofije v Nebraska titularnega škofa in rektorja katoliške univerze v Washingtonu, D. C., Most Rev. James H. Ryan-a. Novimeno-vani škof, star 49 let, je bil zadnjih 25 let agilen delavec za katoliško prosveto; važno mesto rektorja katoliške univerze je vodil zadnjih 7 let.

Vojaštvo na štrajkarje

Boise, Idaho, 14. avgusta. — V Teton okraju blizu Driggs, Idaho je zaposlenih okrog 2000 poljskih delavcev pri trganju in nabiranju gropa. Vsed pre-nizke plače, je začela večina teh delavcev stavkati, kar je napotilo governorja Hummela, da je proglasil za oni okraj vojno stanje; oddelek milice ali narodnih gardistov je že na poti v svrhu vzdrževanja reda med stavkarji.

Slovenskemu narodu

Naglo se približuje slavnostni dan 22. septembra, ko bo slovesno odkrit spomenik največjemu ameriškemu Slovencu, škofu Irenej Friderik Baragi. Ta dan obeta biti velik v zgodovini clevelandskih Slovencev. Priprave za to slavnost so v polnem razmahu. Od raznih strani prihajajo pisma, kjer pišejo: pridemo v Cleveland na slavnostno odkritje spomenika škofu Baragi, ter nas vprašujejo za pojasnila glede programa in prehrane. Velika bo ta udeležba.

Rev. Oman, nam sporočajo: Ljubljanski škof (sedaj nadškof) Dr. Gregorij Rožman, pride na slavnostno odkritje spomenika škofu Baragi, isto poročajo tudi v A. D. Torej vladika bo navzoč. Metropolita Slovencev, pripravi se za ta slavnostni dan, in pripravi se, da sprejme visokega gosta, ki prihaja iz domovine na to slavnost. Društva in posamezniki, pripravite se! Zelo hvalevredno je, da so se ljudje odzvali za nastop v narodnih nošah, zlasti ženske kar tekmujejo, pa tudi moški pravijo, da se bodo oblikovali. Tako je pravi Pokazimo se Američanom, kdo da smo, pokažimo, da je bil veliki Baraga naš, da je bil Slovenec, da je bil iz Jugoslavije. Častno nas je predstavil Američanom s svojim velikim delom za civilizacijo in kulturo tega kontinenta. Zato ga častno predstavimo Američanom tudi mi, oziroma povejmo jim, da je bil naš.

Zato se vabi društva in posameznike k udeležbi, zlasti pa v narodnih nošah, isto tako tudi društva v uniformah, dalje porna društva. Vsem pisati in vabiti še pismeno, je nemogoče, je preveč dela. Na tej slavnosti bodo navzoči v narodnih nošah vsi naši Slovanci. Rusi so nam uradno sporočili, da pridejo v narodnih nošah, enako Malorusi (Ukrajinci). Dalje so nam obljubili Poljaki, Slovenci in Čehi. Kar se pa tiče naših Jugoslovancev pa itak bodo. Zato, narod slovenski, pokaži se tudi ti, zlasti pa Cleveland, odnosno iz države Ohio nastopimo pred ameriško javnostjo, pa našim Slovanom ki bodo prišli, pokažimo, da smo vredni slovenskega imena.

Granitni podstavek, ki je mojstersko delo ljubljanskega kamnoseškega mojstra Feliksa Tomana, je dospel iz Ljubljane v Cleveland. Toraj tisti, ki so se bali, da bi to ne uspelo, so lahko brez skrbi kamen je tukaj. Da ga je res delal g. Toman v Ljubljani, bo o tem lahko povedal g. August Kollander in pa Rev. Oman ki sta si ga ogledala takrat, ko je bil v delu.

Bronasta soha Baragova bo tudi v redu. Za vrt in na vrtu bo preskrbelo mesto vse, kar je potreba. To so nam zagotovili. Sedaj nam preostaja, da se pripravimo za to slavnost. Zatorej vsi na noge!

V nedeljo 25. avgusta bodo imeli Srbi svoj dan v Puritas Springs parku v korist Jugoslovanskega kulturnega vrta in za

Dva znana Američana ubita

Point Barrow, Alaska, 16. avgusta. — Danes sta se v tukajšnji bližini z letalom ponesrečila Will Rogers, znani ameriški humorist, igralec in pisatelj, in Wiley Post, eden najbolj uspešnih ameriških letalcev.

Ko se je nahajalo letalo v višini 50 čevljev, je motor odpovedal. Post je izgubil kontrolo nad letalom, ki je prišlo iz ravnotežja ter padlo navpično na breg male reke. Padec je bil tako silen, da je bil motor vržen v notranjost kabine. Post in Rogers sta bila na mestu mrtva.

Domačini, ki so bili priča nesreče, so poslali s la 15 milj oddaljeni Point Barrow.

Seržant Stanley R. Morgan, ki je pridelen signalnemu zboru ameriške armade, se je takoj podal na mesto nesreče. Trupli je izvelel izpod razvalin ter ju pripeljal na ribiškem čolnu v Point Barrow.

Post in Rogers sta nameravala poleteti iz Alaske v Sibirijo in od tam mogoče tudi v Moskvo.

Včeraj sta se dvignila v 500 milj oddaljenemu Fairbanksu v namenu poleteti v Point Barrow.

Vreme je bilo megleno in letalec Post je izgubil smer. Ko je 15 milj jugozapadno od svojega cilja zapazil pred seboj eskimsko naselbino, je sklenil pristati, da bi vprašal domačine, kje je Point Barrow.

Pri tem mu je odpovedal motor, čemur je sledila strašna nesreča.

Lindberghova žena izdala knjigo

Mrs. Anne Morrow Lindbergh, soproga slovečega letalca Charles A. Lindbergha, je te dni izdala knjigo pod naslovom "North to the Orient," v kateri opisuje svoje nedavno potovanje z monoplanom v spremstvu Lindbergha iz Washingtona, preko Kanade, Alaske, Aleutov na Japonsko in Kitajsko.

Umetalen gazolin

Dr. Adolph Prussin, profesor kemije na newyorški univerzi je pred nekaj tedni nazaj delal poskušnje z nove vrste kurivo za avtomobilske motorje, katero naziva "solene." Solene je suha, praška podobna tvarina, ki grši pomešana z vodo in goni motor. Te vrste umetelen gazolin velja samo 2c ena galona.

Za bolnišnice veteranov v Ohio

Vlada v Washingtonu je določila $1,800,000 za povečanje dveh bolnišnic veteranov v državi Ohio. Bolnišnice se bo povečalo v Daytonu in Chillicothe. Spomenik Njegovu, katerega bodo Srbi drugo leto postavili v ta vrt. Ker gre za vrt, se vabi vse naše zavedne Slovence, da se udeležijo, če le mogoče, tega dne, ko se bo vršil velik piknik v označenem parku. Kako delajo Srbi za Njegovu, dokazuje to, da je Črnogorski napredni klub iz Chicage poslal za spomenik Njegovu $60.00. Toraj Slovenci na plan! Jože Grdina, taj. Jug. kul. vrta.

VESTI IZ JUGOSLAVIJE

Zagorski kaplan utonil

V Zagorju ob Savi se je ponesrečil pri kopanju v Savi tamonjšni kaplan Filip Štular. Prijel ga je v hladni vodi krč, ki ga je potegnil na dno deroče reke. Ljudje, ki so nesrečo opazili, mu niso zaradi deroče reke mogli na pomoč. Iskali so ga na nad dve uri, dokler ga niso potegnili iz vode mrtvega. Pokojni je bil doma s Podbrezja na Gorenjskem in je služil kot kaplan tri leta v Zagorju.

Novi grobovi

Dne 24. julija ob pol eni ponoči je umrl v ljubljanski bolnišnici Jože Primšar iz Cerknice. Pokojnik je bil star 41 let. Večino svojega življenja je preživel v Ameriki, kjer si je služil kruh in se pripravljval za čas, ko si bo ustanovil družino. Pred 5 leti je prišel domov. — V Skopju je umrl Teodor Pristavec, redov 7. konjeniškega polka. Prepeljali so ga domov v Kranjsko goro. — V Ambrusu je odšla po večno plačilo Vidmar Franciška. — V Mariboru je umrl mesar Josip Leyrer. — V Ljubljani so umrli: Marija Kveder, zasebnica Marija Sitar, Josipina Prelog roj. Sedmak, soproga zasebnega uradnika v p. Marija Pirnat roj. Božič, sodni uradnik v Radovljici Franc Debevec in gimn. ravnatelj Rado Pavlič.

Tri nove maše

Redka čast je doletela letos vas Brežje pri Ribnici. Imeli so namreč zadnji mesec kar tri nove maše. Prvo je opravil Ludvik Bevk 14. julija, drugo Franc Mihelič v nedeljo 21. julija, tretjo pa Gabriel Arko, frančiškan v Splitu v nedeljo 28. julija. Redke so vasi, ki bi se postavile kar s tremi novomašniki v enem letu.

Zbnesli bik. V Vuhovskem dolu nad Mariborom se je pripetila nenavadna nesreča. Posestnik Ivan Golob iz Poličke vasi je pripeljal kravo k biku posestnika Kronvogla iz Vukovske vasi. Pri tem je bik zbesnel ter navalil na Goloba ni ga z rogovi do smrti pomendral.

Ko je obrezovala paradižnike. V dev. Mar. v Polju se je primerila huda nesreča, ob kateri je bila po uaključju obstreljena z navadno floberko 6 mm kalibra delavčeva žena, 23-letna Ivana Hribarjeva, ko je na vrtu ravnala in obrezovala lepe paradižnike. Ivan Rant je streljal mačke, ker mu hodijo davit golobe. Najprej je ustrelil svojo mačko, nato pa je v bližnji detelji zapazil drugo mačko. Skočil je za njo, pa je zbežala proti sosedni hiši. Nameril je na njo, toda strel jo ni zadel, pač pa je zasilal obupen klic z Hribarjevega vrta: "Joj meni! Ustreljena sem!" Ivan Rant je takoj skočil k Hribarjevi ter ji hotel pomagati. Dvignil jo je. Prišli so še sosedje in hudo, v bok ustreljeno ženo odnesli v hišo, nato pa odpeljali v bolnišnico. Poškodba je zelo nevarna.

Srečen in vesel je oni, kdor mieli, da bo vedno lahko živel brez podpornega društva; toda sreča je opotočna.

Mammoth Card, Bunco Party Billed by St. Anns LaSalle

La Salle, Ill.—The regular monthly meeting of St. Ann's Society, No. 139, was held Aug. 11 in St. Roch's Hall.

Regular routine business matters were discussed, and plans were launched to hold a mammoth KSKJ card and bunco party with a dance Thursday, Oct. 3. In the past it had been the custom for members to donate cakes, etc., for the refreshments at this type of affair, but it was decided at the last meeting that each member of the society pay 15 cents toward the refreshments, thereby equalizing the donation among all of the members.

Plans were also discussed concerning the silver jubilee of our society, which is to occur on Feb. 8. The date for the jubilee celebration has not been finally set, but the society was organized on Feb. 8, 1911.

Sick members this month were Mrs. Jennie Bruder and Mrs. Mary Settina. Members are urged to visit the sick.

Urges Aid In Preventing Mass Deportation

By Read Lewis
Director F. L. I. S.

Two thousand and six hundred men and women are facing deportation. If they go, they will leave behind nearly 7,000 American-born wives and children. Homes will be broken up. Most of those left here will have to be supported out of public relief. The 2,600 aliens facing deportation are persons of good moral character. They are guilty of no crime. They have not engaged in any kind of radical agitation. Many of them have lived in the United States close to ten years and have founded homes and families among us. Their only fault is that originally they came in illegally, or have had the misfortune to become public charges, or have offended against some other technical requirement of the law.

For more than two years the Department of Labor has stayed the deportation of these 2,600 men and women. It has said that their deportation would be a cruel and inhuman thing, an undeserved punishment. But existing law gives the department no option. Not even the president of the United States has power to prevent the deportation of an alien declared by law to be deportable. As it is, the Department of Labor has risked criticism by postponing the deportation of these 2,600 men and women. It has put the situation up to Congress. It has asked Congress to amend the law to give it discretion not to deport in such cases. Last week the commissioner of immigration and naturalization said that if Congress adjourned without granting this power, the department would have no further option but to enforce the law. It will proceed at once with the deportation of these unfortunate men and women.

Congress has not yet acted, but there is still opportunity for

REPORTERS NOTE!

Because of the Labor Day holidays the forms for the Sept. 3 issue of Our Page will be closed Aug. 31. This advancement of the lock-up will necessitate a change in the regular deadline date.

Reporters and contributors are kindly reminded that the deadline date for the Sept. 3 issue is Aug. 29. Co-operation will be appreciated!

it to prevent this barbarous and inhuman mass deportation. A bill is before it which would give the government discretion not to deport in cases where the alien is a person of good moral character, has lived in the United States for ten years or has close relatives here. The bill will also permit aliens who entered the United States illegally before July 1, 1924, to legalize their status and become citizens. It will strengthen the law against the criminal. These are its outstanding provisions. This bill has been favorably reported to both the House of Representatives and the Senate. Whether Congress will act on it before it adjourns, depends on public interest and demand.

Prevent this mass deportation. If the readers of this and other newspapers will let Congress know that they want this bill passed, this tragedy can be prevented. There is no time to lose. Write to your congressman and two United States senators today. Urge them to vote for this bill. In the Senate it is known as S. 2969; in the House of Representatives as H. R. 8163. If you belong to an organization, as kit to endorse these bills and to notify its senators and congressmen of such action. Prompt and united action will not only save the happiness of these 2,600 friends and neighbors, but bring about for all time a new and more humane way in the deportation policy of our adopted country.

KSKJ CADETS SCORE AT PICNIC; OVER ONE HUNDRED IN EXHIBITION

Cleveland, O.—Underneath a clear sky and cool breezes conducive to activity, over a hundred KSKJ Cadets performed at the picnic staged last Sunday by the St. Joseph's Society No. 169, at the S. N. D. grounds in Euclid, O.

Over half a thousand people saw the Corps go through its drills that lasted an hour and billed calisthenics for the four divisions of the organization. Boys, girls, young men and women took their turns in presenting the exhibition that was under rehearsal for months. The attendance, gratifying to the officials of the society, was highly appreciative of the show and applauded heartily.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Vitus Hribar, pastor of St. Mary's church, Collinwood, was one of the honored guests of the society. He was introduced by the officials of the society and greeted the assemblage.

Though the exhibition, the first of its kind in the KSKJ, met with the approval of the audience, the officials of the society promise to enhance all future demonstrations by the accompaniment of music. It is likely that the society will

MILWAUKEEANS' VICTORY BLASTS STEPHENS' HOPE FOR TITLE; GRANEK ALLOWS THREE HITS

Upset Places St. Florians in Fourth Consecutive Midwest Title Chair

The St. Florian KSKJ Boosters of South Chicago, cinched their fourth consecutive Midwest League championship last week when their chief contenders, the St. Stephen Sports of Chicago, were graciously and yet firmly nudged from the title race by the spirited Milwaukee Baragas. The 4 to 2 victory of the Baragites over the Steves was achieved on Aug. 11 when all other teams in the circuit were idle. The game was played in Milwaukee and was a postponed hangover from the recently closed schedule.

Considering the lowly position of the Baragas in the league standings, the result is nothing short of an upset. It cannot be considered a surprise inasmuch as the Milwaukeeans have been gaining momentum rapidly and were due to pound out a win. It can be said that the Beer City boys have hit their stride, but just a bit too late to do themselves any good. However, their enactment of the role of David and Goliath should prove a timely warning to other league teams in the future.

The method by which the Steves were set back is not exactly impressive because of the presence of costly errors on both sides. It is credible, however, that victory for the Baragas was achieved chiefly by the dint of timely wallops of which they amassed eight from the offerings of Hank Basco. Possibly another deduction of the result was because Fred Grahek, Baraga pitcher, was in superb form and allowed the befuddled Steves only three hits.

The Knights tallied their first marker in the opening frame as a gift from the overzealous Sports. The Baragas repaid the compliment in the second when Hank Basco traipsed the bases on a free pass and series of errors.

The Baragas climbed back into the lead in the third by virtue of some worthy wallowing. Vidergar slammed a double to left field but was out at second when Penne took first on a fielder's choice. Tony Krefel, manager of the Knights, then connected with a slashing double to center, scoring Penne.

After being held hitless for five innings the Steves broke the spell of Freno Grahek in the sixth when Joe Kappa slammed a double to right, but he languished on the bases when his mates were set down in order. The Baragites became serious in the seventh and put over the two runs which won them the game. Banko opened with a drive to right field, Rudy Janezich was safe on a fielder's choice and Stan Winkler, who proved to be the big gun of the day, walloped a liner to right, scoring his mates.

The St. Stephens made their last-and desperate bid in the ninth as Hank Basco reached first on an error and came home on Banich's hit to right. The side was retired shortly afterward.

The game was not without its outstanding features. In the fifth J. Vidergar Baraga second baseman, made a sensational one-handed catch of Mladic's drive to nip a St. Stephen rally. Another unusual Brooklyn, N. Y.—"Time and tide wait for no man." The seven truest words ever spoken.

It was just about this time five years ago that certain young men were meeting and discussing the possibility of making Fred Arko's dream of a Slovenian young men's society come true. There were about fifteen young men present at the first get-together held in Mr. Alois Cesark's home. Some of these lads were total strangers. Out of the fifteen present, ten had courage or foresight enough to sign their names, binding them to their promise of organizing a society to be called the Knights of Trinity. The reason for selecting this name has been explained in one of my previous writeups. They organized on Nov. 9, 1930, and the charter was obtained on Dec. 31, 1930. Thus they became the 238th society to join the great KSKJ.

Shares were bought from the American-Slovenian Home and the Knights became members of the corporation, assuring themselves of a future meeting place.

The foundation of this new society was built in the worst years of depression, and although times were trying and sometimes discouraging, the boys worked so much the harder.

Considering the small membership for the first couple of years, the society's successes have been very astonishing.

The society has grown until at present the membership has reached 28. Every member is of Slovenian parentage. To write 28 such young men in such a district place as Brooklyn is almost a miracle.

Some of these lads travel a great distance to attend meetings and social activities, but their sacrifice is an example and the reason for the club's success.

For five years the Knights have been very active—socially, religiously, dramatically, vocally and last, but not least, athletically.

The society's greatest handicap is its inability to mix in with other KSKJ societies athletically. True, there are other KSKJ societies in New York and adjoining states, and while the Knights have co-operated socially, there is no other society near enough to compete with in the athletic field. Distance is their greatest drawback.

Certain jealous individuals gave the boys just three years to break up, but these same people have had to admit defeat, for now the Knights are preparing for the approaching five-year anniversary.

Two young men have steered this great ship Knights of Trinity for the past five years. Fred Arko was president for the first three years, and was succeeded by Anthony Staudohar, who is now serving his second term. Both men have done their work nobly.

Mr. Ribic and Frank Erhart have been the club's financial secretary and treasurer, respectively, and their numerous re-elections are proof of their good work. The other offices have been filled by various members.

Follow up this up-and-coming group of men.

John P. Staudohar.

It has been announced this week that the Most Rev. John T. McNicholas, O. P., S. T. M., metropolitan of the Cincinnati province in which Cleveland is situated, will preach at the Solemn Pontifical Mass celebrated Tuesday morning by the Cardinal Archbishop of New York, the Papal Legate.

Many of the speakers at the sectional meetings of the Congress have likewise been made known this week. Among the best known are the Most Rev. Amleto Cicognani, D. D., Apostolic Delegate to the United States, and the Very Rev. John F. O'Hara, C. S. C., president of the University of Notre Dame. They will speak at the priests' sectional meeting.

The Most Rev. Edward A. Mooney, S. T. D., Archbishop-Bishop of Rochester, will speak at the young women's sectional meeting; the Most Rev. Karl J. Alter, D. D., Bishop of Toledo, and the Rev. George Johnson, Ph. D., of the Catholic University, will address the university and college sections, and the Most Rev. F. W. Howard, D. D., Bishop of Covington, will head the speakers at the parent-teachers meeting.

One of the outstanding devotional acts of the Congress will be the men's holy hour Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, beginning at 11 o'clock and lasting until midnight. This hour of prayer will be conducted by the Most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, S. T. D., Bishop of Amarillo. It will be followed immediately by Mass celebrated by the Most Reverend Apostolic Delegate. Holy Communion will be given at this Mass. Msgr. Cicognani will be assisted in distributing the Sacred Species by a score of priests of the Diocese.

Jessica Dragonette Will Sing
The Papal Legate will arrive in Cleveland Monday noon, Sept. 23. The liturgical reception will follow immediately at the Cathedral. At 8 o'clock that evening the great civic reception will be tendered His Eminence at the Public Auditorium.

Jessica Dragonette, famed soprano radio star, will sing at the civic reception. Miss Dragonette comes all the way from New York to show honor to the representative of the Holy Father.

Detroit Charters Steamer
One of the largest lake steamers has been chartered by the Detroit committee in charge of a pilgrimage to the Congress. It will remain at anchor within the Cleveland breakwater and will be used as a floating hotel by the 800 pilgrims who will come on it.

Hundreds more will come from Detroit by rail and automobile. Heading the pilgrimage from the City of the Straits will be Bishop Gallagher and his auxiliary, Bishop Plagens.

In every church and chapel of the Archdiocese of San Francisco there will be held a triduum of Eucharistic devotions for the success of the National Congress. The days assigned by Archbishop Mitty are Sept. 20, 21 and 22.

In a broadcast over WJAY the Very Rev. Msgr. Floyd L. Begin, S. T. D., J. C. D., outlined the purposes of Eucharistic congresses in general and stated the specific objects of the seventh National Congress in particular. "The Congress to be held in Cleveland this September," said Msgr. Begin, "like all such assemblies of the clergy and faithful of the Catholic Church, has a twofold purpose. One purpose is devotional; the other educational."

The monsignor explained the devotional purpose first by an exposition of the Church's doctrine on the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Holy Eucharist and prayer.

"The educational phase of the Eucharistic Congress," explained Msgr. Begin, "is promoted by means of sectional meetings or assemblies of the priests, religious, and faithful; the latter according to their various professions or conditions of life."

"Every Congress has a general theme to be developed and discussed. The general theme of the Seventh National Eucharistic Congress is 'The Holy Eucharist—the Source and Inspiration of Catholic Action.' This theme directs our attention to the Holy Eucharist as a dynamic force in Christian life. The development of the theme will tend to give us a greater appreciation of the Holy Eucharist as a means of personal and social sanctification and will enlighten us to intelligent co-operation with our spiritual leaders, the Holy Father and the Bishops of the world, in their God-given mission, 'Go, teach all nations.'"

The speaker went on to show how this theme would be developed in the different sectional meetings; those for priests, religious, and people.

CATHOLIC THOUGHT ON THE FAMILY AND ITS NEEDS

Christian Education and the Family

When it comes to choosing a school for his children, the Christian parent will be guided by the laws of the Church. He will know without being told, that the kind of education he is giving in the home, cannot be supplemented by agencies that are strangers to Jesus Christ. The experiences that his children undergo at home and at school must be continuous. He will not face them with the problem of trying to serve two masters. The child of a truly Catholic parent will be in a Catholic school.

Yet the parents' obligation does not end here. He will strive to keep in touch with the school that he may co-operate intelligently with the teachers and afford them an opportunity of co-operating intelligently with him. The parent-teacher organization, where it exists, affords a splendid medium for this co-operation. It makes for that mutual understanding between home and school which is necessary for two institutions that are doing fundamentally the same work.—Rev. Dr. George Johnson.

The Rural Community and the Family

The right of the farm to an important position in national economy is based on consideration of its relation to the family as well as of its position as the original source of the supply of food and clothing. For the farm may rightly be described as the native habitat of the family.

The rural family bears an important relation to the problems of education and recreation confronting Catholic country communities in the present period of rapid change.

While it may be said that wholesome family life in Catholic rural communities will depend upon the zealous spiritual leadership of the rural clergy, it must be recognized that the effectiveness of such leadership will be conditioned by the alertness and intelligence of lay co-operation. In the sparsely settled rural districts, above all, there is an imperative call for the organization of Catholic action in the sense set forth by Our Holy Father, Pius XI, if family life is to measure up to the possibilities of its rural environment and to the ideals of The Holy Family.—Most Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara.

FLORIANS PREP TO RECEIVE VISITORS

Receptions, Banquets Planned for Minnesotans

South Chicago, Ill.—Inasmuch as the St. Florians have once again clinched the Midwest League honors, the members of the Booster Club have proceeded to lay plans for the reception of the visiting Minnesota champions (not yet known) in South Chicago during the national KSKJ playoffs to be held at Calumet Park on Sept. 1 and 2. The program will call for a series of dance receptions and a banquet to be held at St. George's Church hall. It is expected that the series this year will be unusually interesting. Midwest sports fans are asked to make plans to visit South Chicago during the Labor Day holidays. Details will follow later.

Crowned Queen

Joliet, Ill. Miss Pauline Stefanich was crowned queen following a contest that closed at the carnival held Aug. 4 to 11, by St. Joseph's Church, at Rival's Park.

Kurnik—Ferlin

Cleveland, O. Announcement is made of the forthcoming marriage Aug. 31, of Miss Marica Kurnik to Joseph Ferlin, in St. Mary's Church, Collinwood. Both are members of St. Joseph's Society, No. 169.

Change Meeting Date

Cleveland, O. Because the meeting date of Mary Magdalene Society Society, No. 162, falls on Labor Day, the meeting will be held Sept. 3.

The meeting will be called at 8 p. m., in the usual place. This change of date will apply only to the month of September.

The family as an institution is under attack. Government alone, even good government, cannot unsupported by the citizens protect the family against its assailants. Government must be able in emergencies to call upon the citizens as a reserve. In the last analysis the citizen wields the power and dictates the decisions of authority. The ballot, care in the selection of those to be entrusted with authority, an active co-operation with the organs by which public opinion is created, these are the instruments. Good government necessarily results when they are employed with virtue and wisdom.—William F. Montavon.

The Press and the Family

The home without a Catholic newspaper is deprived of a steady religious cultural influence, indispensable in counteracting the effects of constant secular reading.

Study and discussion of Catholic news in the home, supplemented by Catholic reference works, can be made profitable and interesting. A practical grasp of current Catholic affairs can be obtained in this way, within the home circle, assisting the members of the family to be able to give a reason for their faith, to answer the questions which their non-Catholic friends will ask regarding reports in the secular press, and by a kind word or a brief explanation, to help in minimizing hostility against the Church and even in awakening sympathy and interest in Catholic thought and life. Children in the Catholic home, subject as they are to the varying influence of modern social life, should not be deprived of the help brought to them by the Catholic press. At the very least, a Catholic newspaper should have an equal place of honor on the library table of the home with the daily secular paper.—Clarence J. McCabe.

Leads Convention

Joliet, Ill. Mrs. Jean M. Tezak, president of St. Genevieve's Society, No. 108, was the presiding chairman of the State convention held by the ladies' auxiliary of the Loyal Order of Moose. The convention was held here Aug. 16 to 18.

RACES, GAMES TO FEATURE PENNSY KSKJ DAY BILL

Pittsburgh, Pa.—When plans were made for the Pennsy KSKJ Day it was decided to hold a mushball tourney. The committee regrets that the site chosen for the picnic has no level spot large enough to permit a 12-inch mushball game. Though mushball will not be billed, the members of the Athletic Board Zone No. 7 have planned a novel sports program for all. There are some 20 races carded which will give everybody an opportunity to participate, the tiny tot to the heftiest person.

The races billed include:

The prizes to be awarded will be the most suitable for the occasion. The Athletic Board members of Zone No. 7 extend to all KSKJ members who will attend an invitation to compete in the races.

Each race will count points for the society, the member of which wins, places or shows. To win will count 10 points, to place will be 5 points, to come in third will count 3 points. The winning society will receive the honor, esteem and recognition due it, and so on down the line.

continuance of such widely acclaimed events that will make our KSKJ the organization that it should be, namely, one having in its fold every true-blood-Slovenian heritage: Faith in ed Slovenian. There is no reason in the world why our KSKJ should take second place in membership, as it upholds and affords to each member the principles synonymous with our God, love for man, and esteem for our nationality.

This day is the first attempt the youth of our Keystone State have launched. Young English-speaking men and women from the five largest Slovenian settlements in western Pennsylvania have come together shouldering a gigantic event all toward one purpose: to bring the KSKJ to the front in western Pennsylvania where it deserved to be. Slowly this youth has come to realize what really good there is in an organization such as is professed by the KSKJ. It is an American-born youth, God-fearing, clean-living and law-abiding. It is a youth not poisoned by the scourges of present-day fallibility and materialism; a youth that realizes the value of principles long before laid to govern the destinies of mankind, and it wrangles not with fly-by-night novelties and superficialities that are being lately and daily wrought upon bubble foundations which will float away into thin air through their arrogance of God, of Caesar, and of man.

Let us, therefore, all of us parents and children flock in numbers, in thousands, for this great manifestation of faith in God, love for man, as will portend this KSKJ Day in Pennsylvania Sept. 1.

BARAGAS STOP STEVES; FLORIANS CHAMPS

incident was the retirement of three St. Stephen batters in the eighth on three pitched balls.

St. Stephen Loss Serious

With the resultant loss of a third game in the Midwest League, the St. Stephen Sports were definitely eliminated from the title race, thereby leaving the St. Florians as sole possessors of the first place position. The defeat of the Sports at the hands of the Baragas also nullified the importance of the game which was played last Sunday between the Florians and the Steves. Though the results are not available, another loss would force the Steves into sharing second place with the St. Michaels and would necessitate a playoff. In the event of a St. Stephen victory they would find themselves safely ensconced in the second berth.

The clash between the Baragas and St. Als is not without significance. Though played last Sunday, Aug. 18, it was a battle to stay out of last place. A victory by either team would force the loser to the bottom rung of the league standings.
