Trenutek nebes na sveti gori

»Čez šest dni« in »visoka gora« sta ustaljena svetopisemska izraza, ki hočeta povedati nekaj čisto določenega: prvi, da je šlo za čas Božjega razodetja, drugi pa, da je bil tisti kraj daleč od ljudi in blizu Boga. Po izročilu naj bi bila gora Jezusovega spremenje nja osamelec Tabor, ki se 10 kilometrov vzhodno od Nazareta dviga 300 metrov nad Ezdrelonsko planjavo.

Jezus je povabil s seboj najzaupnejšo trojico učencev, ki bodo na veliki četrtek tudi priče njegovega smrtnega boja v Getsemaniju.

The Mount of Transfiguration
Mark 9:2-9

Ko so prišli na vrh gore, se je Jezus spremenil. Pokazal se jim je v svoji Božji lepoti, presijan z bleščečo svetlobo. Učence je ob tem pogledu nanj napolnila groza pred svetim. Naenkrat sta se prikazala ob njem starozavezna sveta moža, zakonodajalec Mojzes in prerok Elija, kot zastopnika postave in prerokov. S tem da sta pustila Jezusu mesto v sredi, sta povedala, da je Jezus večji od njiju in da je tisti napovedani Odrešenik, ki bo izpolnil Božje obljube.

Petru se je zdelo, da mora nekaj reči, pa je ponudil Jezusu in obema svetima možema, da bi jim zgradili tri šotore. Tako bi lahko ostali z učenci, kakor je ostajal Bog z Izraelci v svetem šotoru.

V Petrovo zadrego je posegel Bog z oblakom, znamenjem svoje navzočnosti, ki je zasenčil učence. Potem je povedal, da je Jezus njegov ljubljeni Sin, torej resnični Božji Sin in s tem več kot Elija in Mojzes, pa tudi več kot samo Odrešenik. Učencem je dal še naročilo: »Njega poslušajte!« Te besede so bile odziv na Jezusovo nedavno napoved, da bo sam umorjen, da pa mora tudi vsak njegov učenec vzeti vsak dan svoj križ in hoditi za njim. Učenci naj Jezusa poslušajo tudi tedaj, ko jim govori take stvari.

Nebeško dogajanje je naenkrat izginilo. Ko so se učenci ozirali naokoli, so videli samo še Jezusa v njegovi običajni človeški podobi. Namen Božjega razodetja je bil pač dosežen.

Na poti z gore je Jezus učencem zapovedal, naj tega, kar so doživeli, nikomur ne pripovedujejo. Ko bi namreč ljudje za to zvedeli, bi se začeli zgrinjati okrog njega kot političnega osvoboditelja, s tem bi mu pa nakopali velike težave pri okupatorju in bi lahko celo ogrozili njegovo odrešensko delo.

Trije učenci so šele mnogo kasneje, že zdavnaj po Jezusovem vstajenju, spregovorili o dogodku, kot je zapisal apostol Peter v svojem drugem pismu:

»Ko smo vam oznanili moč in prihod našega Gospoda Jezusa Kristusa, nismo sledili večje izmišljenim bajkam, ampak smo na lastne oči videli njegovo veličastje. Od Boga Očeta je prejel čast in slavo, ko je k njemu iz veličastne slave prišel takšen glas: »To je moj ljubljeni Sin, nad katerim imam veselje.« In ta glas smo mi sami slišali prihajati iz nebes, ko smo bili z njim na sveti gori.« (2Pt 1,16-18)

»Ti pa greš dol z gore spremenjenja v dolino k ljudem, kjer te čaka križ. Nisi si prizanesel, potrošil si se, pšenično zrno, ki pade v zemljo in umrje.« (T. Bruggemann)

Slovenski park - Family Day

Slovenski Park enjoyed a beautiful Sunday on February 18, 2018 to celebrate Family Day. Many members, families, and friends came out to enjoy the festivities. Skating, sliding, and a fire pit outside; arts & crafts, balinca, roast pig, and a fireplace inside. Our First Annual Scavenger Hunt was a huge success. Our Genealogy Display and Power Point was triumphal. The kickoff for the Slovenski Park Family Album Initiative was a mega hit. Thanks to all who helped make this event exciting, informative, and fun. Check out more pics on Facebook and on our Webpage.

SLOVENSKI PARK - FAMILY DAY 2018

There was something in the Ancestry Display for all levels of Genealogy interest. Some people came to view our ongoing efforts to present the “All in One Slovenski Park Family Tree” and to view our common connections. Some were very excited to present their own family trees. Some used the opportunity to find out more about how to begin and enjoy the Genealogy passion. And some had never seen something like this before and were hooked.

If you would like assistance working on your Family Tree, or advice on finding out more about your ancestry, please feel free to contact Frank Majzelj, Frank Pinter or Darin Gričnik with any questions you may have. Darin will be our photographer this year at our ongoing effort to put together our Slovenski Park Family Album. When you see him - smile for the camera.

Next year's event will be even bigger. Several people have already indicated how very far back their research on their family trees already goes and are excited to share their ancestry as part of next year's display. A lot of organizational material was handed out and we'll be following up with you! Enjoy your journey!

The First Annual Photo Scavenger Hunt was a huge success. Seven teams signed up and had fun running around the park finding clues, taking photos, creating sculptures, solving puzzles, and just plain having barrels of fun with family members. Be sure to sign up next year!

The kitchen and bar were well equipped with good food, drink and happy faces. The roast pig dinner, klobasa or čevap dinner were tasty treats. No one went hungry or thirsty!

The Arts & Crafts table kept the kids busy indoors. They decorated gingerbread men and created decorative snowmen. So many talented children!

The fireplace kept our members warm. The were able to sit around the tables and enjoy visiting with each others. Some played “balince”, while others listened to the live musical entertainment. But all had a great time! And of course, skating, sliding, and hockey on the pond. How joyful to see kids and their families enjoying the fresh air outside making winter memories.

Thanks to all who helped make Family Day Slovenski Park Style - a success!

COOKING SESSION

KITCHEN SECRETS - KREMŠNITE

Kremšnite have now been demonstrated for the second time at our Kitchen Secrets cooking session. We had a full class of fabulous cooking enthusiasts on Saturday. This was our second session with this recipe and our creations were beautiful and so very tasty. With so many cooks in the kitchen this week - our experience was filled not only with a delicious desert, but a good time with a lot of laughter and some great stories! The intentions of hosting cooking sessions was not only to learn various recipes and a few kitchen tricks, but to create the opportunity for those connected to our community to bond and enjoy the company of fellow home cooks, with a passion for good food and of course a good time! I am so pleased to say that we seem to be successful in having created an experience to accomplish the goals we had set out for our cooking classes. With food being such an important part of our culture, I hope we see you in the kitchen some time soon. If you have any requests for a specific recipe to be demonstrated, please contact me and let me know at novakh@sympatico.ca.

Eat Well and Laugh often,
Heidy Novak

Your Parish Council invites you to attend the Annual General Meeting Sunday, March 11th, 2018 after one 10:00 a.m. Mass.

Our format will be the same as last year – we will have one mass at 10:00 a.m.; after Mass we invite all parishioners to join us for light refreshments (coffee, tea etc...) before the start of our meeting. After the meeting, we will again provide everyone in attendance with a complimentary light lunch so that you can all still enjoy a wonderful Sunday afternoon and evening.

After the winter we have had, let's take advantage of every nice day that we get. We encourage all parishioners to attend this meeting and participate in conversations pertaining to our future. We had some changes to events and have some new ideas to share, so we hope that you will all make an effort to come out, show your support and share your thoughts. EVERYONE is welcome!

Our Parish is continuously evolving and now more - so than ever before. It is crucial that we remain current. Father Drago Gačnik requires assistance in guiding and managing the spiritual, cultural and social life of parish members, and his main support comes from the Parish

60 LET POROKE - 60TH MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY

V soboto, 17. februarja, 2018, sta dva para iz naše župnije praznovala 60 letnico poroke in sicer sta to: Zoltan in Ana Gergyek in Martin in Kathy Simončič. Oba para sta prišla v soboto k večerni maši skupaj s svojimi otroci, sorodniki in prijatelji. Med mašo smo jima podelili poseben blagoslov, Bogu pa sta se zahvalila za leta preživeta v zakonu in prosila Boga za božji blagoslov v bodoče. Čestitke obema paroma! Vsako obhajanje tako visokih obletnic poroke je še posebej za vse mlade, ki se pripravljajo na zakon, velika spodbuda in zgled.

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Response:

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

First Reading Genesis 22:1-2. 9-13. 15-18

Abraham's faith is tested. God showers blessings on him.

Second Reading Romans 8:31-34

God our Father has given us all that is most precious by sending his Son. We stand acquitted – God is on our side.

Gospel Mark 9:2-10

At the transfiguration, the identity of Jesus is revealed. But the meaning of his identity is something the disciples still struggle to grasp.

"Listen to him."

Illustration

The Voice is a reality TV series, which essentially is a singing competition. Created in the Netherlands in 2010, variations of the show are now broadcast in most countries of the world. There are various stages of the competition, but perhaps the unique selling point is the "blind audition": in the opening round, the judges have their backs to the contestants. If the judges are impressed by the quality of a contestant's singing voice, they press a button and turn around in their iconic swivelling chairs to see who it is they have voted for. Once committed, the judge becomes the contestant's coach, collaborating with the singer to win the competition and become "The Voice" – and gain a lucrative deal with a music company to boot. This audition is emblematic of the show: what counts is not the contestants' beauty or their ability to dance or look good, but simply the quality of their singing. It all depends on the voice – and, of course, on the judges' ability to really listen.

Gospel Teaching

The voice figures prominently in today's readings. In the first reading, the voice of God seems to be asking if not the impossible, then the inhuman. Isaac – Abraham and Sarah's only son – was the child God promised so that Abraham could become the founding father of "a great nation". Not only did God seem to be asking the unimaginable, but also to be going back on that sacred promise. With relief, we discover that in fact the point of the story is the very opposite to what it appears to be on the surface: whereas human sacrifice was commonplace in the ancient Near East, what is revealed is that God does not want human sacrifice. By careful listening, Abraham's understanding of God develops and grows, and their relationship of trust and faith deepens.

The voice of God takes centre stage at the transfiguration, affirming a truth that up to this point in Mark's Gospel God had revealed only to Jesus himself at his baptism – his identity as God's own beloved Son – a truth that literally makes Jesus glow. Finally his disciples have come to the point where they are ready to hear this truth. But their listening is only partial. As Jesus descends the mountain, he starts to help his disciples to understand the meaning of his sonship: that he will be faithful and obedient to his Father, even to the point of having to give up his life. Jesus trusts God's faithfulness and ability to raise him from the dead. Yet this episode occurs shortly after Peter has protested at Jesus' talk of crucifixion and resurrection. He hasn't really been listening; all he hears is suffering and death. And it is only after the resurrection that the disciples begin to really hear and appreciate what Jesus has been telling them.

Application

As Christians, we believe that the transfiguration is not merely a past event but an ongoing reality. God's voice is creative – God spoke and creation came into being. God's voice is transformative: Jesus literally glowed as God affirmed him as the Son. God's voice continues to be at work in our world today, and in our lives. But like Abraham and the disciples, we need to learn how to listen and perceive at more than just a superficial level. That takes time and practice and commitment. So much in our modern world militates against that – we want things instantly and effortlessly. But there is no such thing as an instant relationship – with God or anyone else.

When we do listen in prayer – when we are able to step outside our own expectations and preconceptions and focus, like those judges on the TV show, simply on the voice – we find that God's voice continues to be creative and transformative. By making time each day quietly to open ourselves to the presence of God, we make room for God to affirm our dignity as God's beloved sons and daughters. And as that reality gradually seeps into the marrow of our bones, we increasingly learn how to live out of that sacred space – to live as sons and daughters of God not as a moral imperative or commandment, but because that is who we know we really are at the core of our being. Being children of the loving Father is something that shines out from our lives – because we have learnt to listen to the voice.

V nedeljo, 18. februarja, smo se zbrali k daritvi svete maše pri društvu Sava. Ker smo prejšnjo nedeljo morali mašo odpovedati - zaradi bolezni g. Kellyja, ki bi me moral nadomeščati v Hamiltonu. Tokrat je bilo tudi vreme lepše in toplejše. Hvala vsem, ki poskrbite, da je vse pripravljeno za mašo. Po maši pa so se nekateri napolili še v bližnji Slovenski park, kjer so praznovali »Family Day« - Dan družine.

CWL - KŽZ - BAZAAR 2018

Preparations for our March 4th CWL Bazaar are in full swing. Here are some updates and requests.

Please return blue lottery tickets and monies collected as soon as possible.

Luncheon tickets will now also be sold at Sunday Masses. Advance tickets are $15 and tickets for children between 4-10 are $5. Reservation contact numbers include Gospa T. Sarjaš at 905-560-1218 and Mrs. P. Gosgnach at 905-304-8719.

We ask that reservations for lunch are made by February 27th. This will greatly assist our kitchen staff. Limited numbers of tickets will be available at the door.

Donations to our penny sale, raffle, and children's centre are most welcome. They can be dropped off in the upper hall on Friday, March 2nd from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. or on Saturday morning, March 3rd. At other times you can give your donation to Father Drago.

The Children's Centre is in particular need of newly used stuffed animals. You can drop them off in a box in the church foyer.

Pecivo/baked goods will be accepted early on the morning of the bazaar. We recognize and value your culinary and baking talents.

We thank you, our parishioners, for your ongoing support, generosity and contributions.

Proceeds from our bazaar go to our parish and community.

DRUŠTVO SV. JOŽEFA - OBVESTILA

St. Joseph Society 2018 membership is now due. The new membership Convenor is Tony Ferko and he will be available at Sunday Mass to accept our $15 membership fee and issue your card. New members are welcome!

St. Joseph Society Annual Meeting will be held on March 4th at 11:00 a.m. following Mass at the Villa. Coffee & "krofi" will be served! All members are invited to attend. We are seeking at least two new members to serve on the Board. It is not a big time consuming job however it is a very rewarding experience. For information, contact any members of the Board.

Annual St. Joseph's Banquet will be held Sunday, March 18th. Further details will be announced!
